A Beautiful Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Belton O'Neal Evans and Miss Claudia Bissell Prevost took place at the residence of the latter's sister, Mrs. D. P. Sloan, in this city, at 12 o'clock noon to-day. Quite a new feature of the ceremony was the singing of the wedding march, which, with the playing of the piano, gave a doubly pleasing effect. Miss Edna Earle acted as maid of honor for the bride, while the veteran promoter of marriages, George W. Evans, gracefully acted the part of best man for his youngest brother. The decorations were green and white. Quite a large crowd of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, and the bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. The bridesmaids wore Misses Emily Divver, Annie Prevost, Louise Humphreys and Dittma Gilmer. The groomsmen were Messrs. J. E. Evans, J. J. Trowbridge, J. E. Wakefield and Reed Kay. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left on the 2.40 train for an extended trip to northern cities. Lohengren's wedding chorus was sung by Mrs. R. S. Ligon, Mrs. J. W. Quantlebaum and Messrs. J. L. Tribble and W. F. Cox, accompanied by Mrs. G. E. Hammond on the piano. During the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. S. J. Cartledge, the bridal couple stood under an arch, from which was suspended the letters E and P, studded with electric lights. At the close of the ceremony the letter P was extinguished while the letter E flashed more brilliantly, symbolizing the new name that the bride assumed. We join the many friends of the popular young couple in extending congratulations.

Deaths.

It is with deep sorrow that we chronicle the death of our clever friend, James D. Campbell, of Belton, which occurred in Columbia (where he had gone for treatment) last Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. He had been in feeble health for some time, but his condition was not considered serious until about three weeks ago, when he was attacked by a severe case of nervous prostration, which baffled the skill of the physicians and which caused his death. Mr. Campbell was a son of the late Alfred Campbell, of Belton, and about 34 years of age. He leaves a mother, two sisters and three brothers to mourn his death. He was the official stenographer of the Seventh Judicial Circuit of this State, and was an exceedingly bright, industrious young man, and very popular among a wide circle of friends. He was secretary and treasurer of the National Stenographers' Union of the United States, and was regarded by the members of that organization as one of the best stenographers in the country. The deceased was a most noble, genial gentleman and one of the truest types of a Carolinian, with whom love of liberty was an inspiration and devotion to duty a glowing heart fire. Of a gentle and generous nature, winsome in manner, ardent in his attachments, unswerving in friendship, he won his way to the heart of every one who knew him, and the tidings of his death will be heard with sorrow throughout this section. The remains were brought to Belton and interred yesterday afternoon in the Baptist cemetery.

Mr. John Catlett died at his home near the southern suburbs of this city, last Friday afternoon. He had been in feeble health for a long time, and recently had an attack of the grip, which was the cause of his death. Mr. Catlett was in the 74th year of his age, and was a native of Sevier County, Tenn. About forty-five years ago he came to Anderson County and settled on a farm in Corner Township. After the civil war he opened a livery stable in this city and conducted it until a few years ago, when he sold it to J. J. Dobbins. Mr. Catlett was a veteran of the Mexican war, having went down there with a Tennessee Regiment. He married a Miss Tucker in this County, and she, with one son and two daughters, survives him. The deceased was a member of St. John's Methodist Church of this city. On Saturday afternoon his pastor, Rev. M. B. Kelly, conducted the funeral services at the residence, after which the remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery.

Miss Verona Neal, of Greenville, was the guest of Misses Pet and Sallie Vandiver. Mr. Warren W. Guyton, of the N. C. & St. L. Railroad, is at home at his father's, Mr. A. W. Guyton, on a sick furlough. His many friends wish for him a speedy restoration. Mrs. Thurston Martin, of Septus, has been very sick at her father's, C. C. King, but we are glad to note she is able to be at home now. Mrs. J. H. Leach is spending this week at Belton as the guest of L. W. Jones and family. Miss Mattie Harris and brother, of Belton, visited friends and relatives here last week. The school at Hepewell still continues to be good. Misses Annie and Sallie Rogers, of the Whitefield section, visited relatives here recently. Miss Maggie Kay, of Belton, is spending a few days with relatives here. Nearly every one is suffering more or less with grip and colds. Miss C. E. Knight, of Pondleton, visited her sister, Mrs. L. W. Gentry, last week. Mr. G. L. Whitten, of the Postal Telegraph Co., Marietta, Ga., visited his wife, Mrs. G. W. Rice, last week. News is scarce. Observer.

Railroad Rates to the Dallas Reunion.

The Confederate Veterans' Reunion is to be held this year at Dallas, Texas, and the time is from April 22nd to 25th, inclusive. Tickets will be sold April 18, 19 and 20, with final limit to May 2, but by depositing ticket with joint agent at Dallas and paying fee of fifty cents an extension will be given until May 15th. All tickets will be sold on iron-clad, non-transferable forms, a joint agency will be established at Dallas for the validation of tickets, a fee of fifty cents being charged. The rate is to be one cent for each mile traveled, short line distance to govern. Stop-over privileges will be given at all points west of Atlanta and Chattanooga. The fare from Anderson will be $20.50. The Southern Railway has agreed if twenty-five passengers can be secured at Anderson to give the Veterans a through reclining chair car from here to Dallas. The Stephen D. Lee Hotel of this city has appointed Col. M. P. Tribble and J. F. Clinkscales to arrange for the trip. All who expect to go from this County are requested to notify the joint agent at once so they will have ample time to make all arrangements. A special through car will be quite an accommodation to the Veterans and their friends, and very acceptable on such a long journey.

The weather has been very bad in this section for the past week. Small grain is very near a failure this year. Oats are all killed and wheat is damaged to some extent. Farmers lost a fine milch cow last week. J. M. King attended the Charleston Exposition last week. James Fant, who has been at Columbia for the past four months for his health, came home last Thursday very much improved. Miss Ollie Hall, of Rocky River section, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. N. Willingham. Miss Estelle Beck, an attractive young lady of Anderson, is boarding at G. W. Pepper's, and teaching school near Patrick Hill. Robt. K. Willingham, of this section, leaves to-day for Rocky River to shoot ducks and quail. We wish him much luck. Mrs. Matt McDowell was very sick for the past week with grip. Little Mattie Pepper has been very low with pneumonia, but is improving very fast at the present. Uncle George.

During the heavy rain and thunder storm here Thursday night just before midnight lightning struck the Kelley store room, near the cotton mill, occupied by M. Feldman, dealer in clothing, dry goods, shoes, notions, etc., setting it on fire, and before it burned down, which it did in a short while, the Woodside building, about 30 feet distant, occupied by A. W. Cheshire, furniture, sewing machines and musical instruments on first floor and J. A. Smith, photographer, on the second floor, and owned by Gambrell & Cannon, was in flames, and it was also burned to the ground. Gambrell & Cannon's store room, occupied by themselves, and in the opposite direction from the Kelley building to that of the Woodside house, was also very much endangered, as the wind was blowing hard from the South, but by heroic efforts on the part of the crowd that had gathered, their house was saved, after being considerably scorched and some of the goods inside damaged by water. Kelly's house was valued at $2,000, on which he had $1,200 insurance; Feldman's stock, valued at $2,000, insurance $1,000; Woodside building, valued at $1,000, insurance $1,000, all of which is a total loss. The Masons, Woodmen and K. of P. all occupied the second floor of the Kelley building, losing all their paraphernalia amounting to about $1,000. Mr. Charles Weigle, a well known coal dealer of Somerset, Pa., and Miss Leslie Cummings, daughter of Mr. Harvey A. Cummings, were married last Thursday, Feb. 27th. The remains of J. D. Campbell, who died in Columbia, Sunday, were brought home Monday afternoon and interred on Tuesday, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. W. T. Tate, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The Belton Cotton Mill received an order last week for goods to be shipped to the Bahama Islands. Hon. Joshi. Ashley was in town last Saturday and was heartily greeted by his many friends. C.

Terrible Flood Throughout the Country.

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 28.—Half the city is under water and the river is still rising. A terrible storm is reported in Western Texas. No deaths in the country around. Reading, Pa., was inundated at noon by a cloudburst, causing the river to rise sixteen feet. Factories and street cars are stopped. A sixty mile gale struck Cleveland this morning doing great damage to roofs of churches, signs and windmills. Denver, Feb. 28.—A snow slide this morning near Telluride carried a bank-house down a ravine. It is feared that sixty sleeping men were lost. Washington, Feb. 28.—The entire coast of the country is to-day in the grasp of the worst storm in years and communication at all points is hampered. Floods are reported at many places in Virginia and the South and heavy rainfall at all places south of Buffalo, accompanied by high winds. Jacksonville, Ga., Feb. 28.—News has reached here that Hensley's Roller mills, Barrett's mills, Kinard's saw mills, in this county, were washed away in last night's storm. The Southern Railway track near Juliette is five feet under water. Griffin, Ga., Feb. 28.—The south-bound Southern passenger train which left Atlanta yesterday afternoon at 4.25 for Columbus was wrecked at Snow creek about 11 o'clock last night. Four men were killed and several were badly injured. Athens, Ga., Feb. 28.—The Oconee River is as high as it has been in forty years. On Middle River water is in the second story of Princeton factory, two feet deep over bridge at that point, and five and a half feet deep in the electric power plant. Street cars are not running, and it is probable Athens will be in darkness to-night. Chattanooga, Tenn., Feb. 28.—Reports received here by General Superintendent Dodson, of the western division of the Southern Railway, show that heavy thunderstorms have been prevailing all along the Southern between Morristown, Tenn., and Asheville, N. C., for the last twenty-four hours, with rainfall of about five inches, creating floods that are almost unprecedented in the history of that section. Philadelphia, March 1.—What is said to have been the greatest flood that has ever been experienced along the Schuylkill River, certainly the most disastrous in recent years, tore its way down that stream last night and early this morning, and from its source to its mouth—120 miles—damage that will reach the hundreds of thousands of dollars has been done.

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 28.—All railway traffic in the mountains is completely paralyzed as a result of last night's storm. The French Broad River is the highest ever known and all manufacturing plants on the banks have been forced to close down. A large number of houses on the lowlands near the river were cut off last night by the water and the occupants were taken out in boats. The river rose over a 13 foot wall at Marshall, N. C., and flooded the town. Several small freight wrecks are reported. Augusta, March 1.—The river is rising an inch an hour and is running in all of the streets on the north side of Broad. Water is a foot deep in the office of the Planters Hotel. Boats are plying on Broad street from the Dyer building for half a mile up. Many persons have been forced into their homes by the water. The overflow is from the banks of the river not the canal. The street railway, the North Augusta railway, the Augusta Southern and Charleston and the Charleston and Western Carolina railroads are water-logged and in many parts of the city transportation is confined to boats.

Is the First Anniversary of our Organization.....

And we think it nothing but just that we express our high appreciation to our friends and trading public for the large patronage given us during our first year. Notwithstanding many trying difficulties that all lines of business have had to contend with during the past year, we feel that our record has been very good indeed. We appreciate the confidence that has been placed in us, and expect to merit during this year a larger share of your business than in the past. Our watchword is forward.

We are laying before this community and the trade an exceptionally—

Fine Stock of Goods.

We have great facilities for buying. As our outlet is large we can buy in larger quantities, and that enables us to give the best values for your money.

We find, also, that to be an up-to-date business house we must discard the old way of doing business—selling Goods on twelve months time. Cash or prompt thirty and sixty day payments are our terms, and we will expect payment at the expiration of thirty and sixty days. It takes a large amount of money to run our business in order to keep our Stock fresh and bright.

We have now an unusually large and attractive line of Spring Goods in the house and on sale.

Our Buyer will leave for the market at once to get ready for Easter business, this being the second trip that we have already made to market.
