Try Hairette,

The new dress facing. Used by tailors. Preferred by dress-makers. Sold by leading merchants. Makes home dress-making easy. Retains elasticity after being wet. Gives skirts the right flare. Once used never discarded. Unsuccessfully imitated. Read—

A SKIRT SECRET.

The secret of the smallest Skirt is Hairette. All the leading Dressmakers and Ladies Tailors use Hairette to give the proper effect. Hairette is the most thoroughly shrunk Dress Facing made, and after being wet will dry out and retain its original elasticity and stiffness. As a foundation Lining and Stiffening for Skirts, Revers, Collars, Cuffs, etc., it has no equal. It is shrunk by the latest improved process, and has a natural elasticity possessed by no other goods. Ask for Hairette. Insist upon having Hairette, and see that the name is stamped on the selvage.

Ours is a most complete stock of Dress Findings and Trimmings.

Also, Spring and Summer Novelties. Come and see or write for Samples. Price and Quality guaranteed.

ANDERSON, S. C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1902.

The fruit crop in this section was not injured by the frosts of last week. So far the straw hat has been very backward about putting in its appearance.

Stratley Hart, who has been visiting his old home, Cokesbury, has returned to the city.

Keep in mind that it is necessary to put in a good crop of corn in order to get through a hard year.

W. F. Anderson, of Elberton, Ga., has been spending a few days in the city visiting his brothers.

The large and attractive advertisement of B. O. Evans & Co. will interest you. Read it carefully.

A number of Andersonians are in Charleston to-day participating in the exercises of President's Day.

We invite your attention to the new advertisement of Vandiver Bros., who are offering some fine bargains.

Jesse M. Smith and family have moved to Athens, Ga., where they will make their home in the future.

Miss Lucy Wilson, of the Columbia Female College, has been spending a few days at her home in this city.

If you contemplate buying a vehicle of any sort be sure to read the advertisement of Vancliver Bros. & Major.

The chimney of Mr. S. D. Shearer burned out last night. The firemen responded promptly. No damage done.

The attention of the farmers especially is directed to the new advertisement of the Brock Hardware Company.

Dr. R. F. Smith, of Easley, who is a candidate for Congress from this District, spent a day or two in the city last week.

Mr. W. W. Arnold, of this city, was presented last week by his faithful old cow with twin heifers. They are real beauties.

Mr. Wyatt Aiken, candidate for Congress, spent yesterday in the city. His many friends here are always glad to see him.

Willie Caldwell, eldest son of W. M. Caldwell, of Pelzer, died on Tuesday last inst., after a brief illness with pneumonia.

Hon. J. Perry Glenn attended the meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee in Columbia last Thursday night.

A firemen's tournament will be held in Charleston May 13th. The Anderson firemen should go down and win a few of the prizes.

The friends of Rev. J. L. McLin, who has been quite sick and confined to his home for several weeks are delighted to see him out again.

When you get ready to buy your Spring goods read the advertisements in The Intelligencer and you will know where to go to get them.

Rev. J. L. McLin will preach, providence permitting, at Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church next Sabbath morning at the usual hour for service.

After all, it seems that a good deal of commercial fertilizer, otherwise called guano, will be used. Some of the farmers say it's no use trying to farm without it.

A special term of Court for Oconee County will convene in Wallhalla on May 13th. Judge R. O. Purdy has been commissioned to preside at this term.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Beattie Bailey and Mr. L. M. Hartwell, of Hartwell, Ga., which happy event will take place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. C. H. Bailey, in Hall Township, on Wednesday evening, 23rd inst., at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Wyatt Aiken is here this week. His friends are saying that his chances for election as the Congressman of this district are growing better and better every day. And it is worth noting that more and more people are saying this—Greenwood Index, April 8.

The South Carolina Presbytery will meet in their Presbyterian Church at Abbeville next Friday, 11th inst., at 8 o'clock p. m. Rev. S. J. Cardoza, Rev. H. R. Murchison, Elders G. N. C. Bolenan and J. M. Giles will represent the Presbyterian Churches of this city at the meeting.

John W. Dillingham, for several years Chief of Police of Anderson City, is dead. No better or truer man ever served his people than Mr. Dillingham. He was an ideal policeman, a terror to the evil-doer and a friend to all who needed his assistance. His place will be hard to fill.—Pickens Journal.

Under the caption of "Progress of Brick Manufacture in the South," a recent issue of the Chattanooga Tradesman Annual contained a very interesting illustrated write-up of the brick yards of our genial and energetic friend, Capt. J. C. Stribling, near Piedmont, which are set out and called "model brick works" in the South.

The following officers have been elected to serve Grace Episcopal Church the ensuing year: Wardens, E. A. Bell and R. C. Webb; Vestrymen, Bonham, M. L. Orr, F. G. Brown and M. L. Bonham; the following were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention: R. C. Webb and M. L. Bonham, with E. A. Bell and E. W. Taylor as alternates.

We have received from Margaret A. Richard, of Columbia, a copy of "Three Bells," a series of three stories in verse told respectively by the church-bell, the dinner-bell and the cow-bell. The cover design is the work of a Columbia artist. The poems are very well written, as is everything from Miss Richard's pen. The book will be sent for 25c. by the author.

W. J. Smith is at home for the vacation from the Charleston Medical College, where he has just finished his third year. We are pleased to hear that he has sustained well his high standing in his studies, he having led his class on final examination for the third time. He graduates next year, and we predict for him merited honors and a bright future.

The United States District and Circuit Courts will convene in Greenville next Tuesday, 15th inst. The following citizens from Anderson County have been drawn to serve as Grand and Petit Jurors: Grand Jurors—R. L. Cheshire, M. B. Bagwell and A. S. Bowie; Petit Jurors—E. D. Kay, J. H. Townsend, C. E. Harper, S. W. Williford, Jr., and S. D. Bowden.

The State campaign is near at hand and the time for voters to begin thinking about what shall be done. The clubs must meet on the fourth Saturday in April, the County convention of delegates on the first Monday in May, and the State convention on the third Wednesday in May. Clubs are entitled to one delegate in the County convention for every twenty-five members, or majority fraction thereof.

The Davis Shoe Store, under the management of W. F. Daniel, which has just opened business here, is the only exclusive shoe store in the "Electric City," and this week makes its bow to the readers of The Intelligencer. Read the advertisement carefully. Mr. Daniel, the general manager, will be more than pleased to have you call, see his stock and get his prices, and we advise you to do so.

Miss Lena Hughes died at her home at Millville last Sunday morning, after a brief illness, in the 26th year of her age. Her remains were interred on Monday in Silver Brook Cemetery, her pastor, Rev. J. W. Keller, conducting the funeral services. She was a devoted member of West End Methodist Church and was highly esteemed by all of her friends, who deeply sympathize with the sorely bereaved parents.

Sheriff Green has appointed Henry A. Hendrix as Deputy Sheriff to succeed James A. Dillingham, who has been sworn in as Chief of Police of this city, and has named Samuel J. Davis as keeper of the County Jail. Deputy Hendrix is a nephew of our clever fellow-citizens, M. B. and A. N. Richardson. He is a bright young man and has had much experience in the work of his office. Mr. Davis will make a model jailer.

"Anderson County Day" at the Charleston Exposition will be abandoned, for the present, at least, for the reason that up to this time the railroad agents have declined to make a lower rate of fare than $8.70 for the round trip. An Averill held out the inducement that a rate of $5.00 could possibly be made, but the road agents have not complied, and unless they do so in the next week or ten days there will be no necessity for a special County day, as $8.70 is the regular fare for any journey during the month and this fare will probably be extended into the following months. So says Mr. J. C. Watkins, chairman of the committee in this matter.

Invitations have been received here announcing the marriage of Dr. Charlie C. Geer to Miss Claude Edmundson, of Atlanta, Georgia, which happy event will take place April 19. Dr. Geer is now in the United States army and will immediately after the ceremony will leave for San Francisco, and from there will sail for the Philippine Islands. He is well known here and we join his many friends in extending congratulations in advance.—Belton Times.

The final contract for the erection of the Central Presbyterian Church was signed last Thursday by the building committee and Messrs. Grandy & Jordan, the contractors. The consideration named is $7,000, exclusive of seating, heating and glazing. Work on the new structure will begin within a few weeks and will be pushed to rapid completion. The edifice when completed will be one of the handsomest and most modern in this section.

Prof. J. A. Gamewell, of Wofford College, was in the city last Saturday, and was greeted at the City Hall at 11 o'clock a. m. by a number of ladies and gentlemen, who are interested in organizing a Lyceum Association in Anderson. The Professor in an interesting address explained the work and object of a Lyceum Association and told of the benefits to be derived from such a conclusion of his address at an organization meeting with Prof. T. C. Walton, chairman, and he proposed to at once secure a sufficient number of members to ensure the success of the Association. A committee, consisting of Prof. T. C. Walton, Rev. M. B. Kelly, Rev. H. E. Marchison and Mrs. M. L. Bonham, was authorized to secure the names and make all other arrangements in reference to the organization.

Last Friday night Haynie's grocery store on North Main street was burglarized. The burglar entered by breaking a pane of glass in the front window and carried off a small lot of candy, canned goods, etc. The police were notified Saturday morning, and in a short time A. Warden Jackson, a negro boy about 13 or 14 years of age, was arrested and nearly all of the stolen goods recovered. This mayor fined him $10 or thirty days in the city chain gang.

Mr. C. C. Langston, our junior editor, left for Charleston yesterday afternoon, to attend the committee of arrangements, of which he is a member, who have in charge the arranging of the detailing presentation, by President Roosevelt, of the sword selected by the people of this State to Maj. Micah Jenkins as a memento of their appreciation of his gallant conduct while serving with the Rough Riders during our late war. The presentation takes place today on the Exposition grounds.

The 21st annual reunion of the survivors of Orr's Regiment will be held this year at Due West. At the last reunion the place and date for the next reunion was left to the executive committee, and this committee has now received a most cordial invitation from the citizens of Due West and surrounding country, met a few days ago and decided to go there. The exact date will be fixed later. A company of this famous Regiment was composed of citizens of the Due West section.

A merchant may wait for people to find out that he has good things, and has them cheap, but in the meantime he is apt to find out that the people have gone to somebody else while he was waiting for them. The moral is that you should advertise in the paper that people can rest and pick up and look over and over again, and pass round the home circle, if you want trade. Trouble might find you before the people do. If you have anything to do with advertising, advertise it. If you do not advertise the people are justifiable in assuming that you have nothing worth telling them about and do not care to invite their trade.

James A. Morrow, an old Anderson County boy, who has been with the subsistence department of the United States, and who was stationed at San Francisco, Cal., for a long time, and in the Philippines, has recently been assigned to a detachment of the United States Signal Corps and sent to Alaska. In a letter from him, ordering the address of his Intelligencer changed, he says that he will be in Alaska several months constructing a telegraph line along the "All American Route to the Yukon." He is enjoying good health, and we know that his friends in this County will be delighted to hear from him.

Mrs. Lou Brownlee, mother of S. D. Brownlee, of this city, died at her home in Due West at 6 o'clock Sunday morning last. She was ill for about weeks.

Three sons survive her: J. L. Brownlee, a Presbyterian minister, R. C. Brownlee, a prominent merchant in Due West, with whom the deceased made his home, and S. D. Brownlee, of this city. Mrs. Brownlee was a frequent visitor to Anderson and her gentle, genial nature was very many years old and a member of the Associate Reform Presbyterian Church. The funeral was conducted by Rev. O. Y. Bonner and the interment took place at Due West.

Mayor Tolly, of Anderson, deserves to be awarded the medal for honesty, and there is no use to continue the search for an honest man, he is found, and the mayor of the "Electric City" is the man. He quietly came out through the turnstile at the grounds, bought his car ticket and dropped it in the box at the entrance and took his seat in the car. Cityward sped the car, but no conductor coming around to collect fares, the mayor called him to account and stated that he had neglected to collect his fare. "Did you not get on at the Exposition?" "Yes, sir; but I have not paid on the car." The "Knight of the Bell Cord" dropped the nickel in his pocket and winked at the mayor of Anderson was happy.—Charleston correspondence of Newberry Herald and News.

Anderson County has lost another good citizen in the death of our venerable friend, Mr. Harrison Tucker, which occurred at his home in Hopewell Township last Sunday night, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Tucker was about 81 years of age, and was born, reared and spent his life in Anderson County. He was a man of few words and attended strictly to his own business. His life work was on the farm, and by his good judgment and energetic labors made a success of his occupation. His large plantation was a model farm, and it was always a pleasure to his friends to visit his hospitable home. Mr. Tucker had long been a member of the Baptist Church, and lived up strictly to that golden rule, "do unto others as you would have them do unto you." He served his State faithfully during the civil war as a private in the Hampton Legion. Mr. Tucker married Miss Polk Watson, a daughter of the late David Watson, Sr., and she left four sons and two daughters are left to cherish the memory of a devoted husband and an affectionate father. The remains were brought to this city yesterday at noon and interred in Silver Brook Cemetery, Rev. O. J. Copeland conducting the funeral services in the presence of many sorrowing friends and relatives.
