

A HUNT FOR AN EXPLOSIVE

I had breakfasted with the colonel at his club, one of those dreary, large establishments which remind you of an overcrowded cemetery where the owners of the land get rich on their dividends. Outside it was rainy, damp and misty. Inside the members were regarding each other with disdain and calculating what effect the humidity of the atmosphere would have on the varnish of their patent leather boots.

ed up. A fellow passenger had seized the bag and was about to throw it to the floor to make room for some of his own luggage. Luckily I seized it in time. If I hadn't—well, I wouldn't have been here now to tell the story.

QUEER MEXICAN CUSTOMS. Convenient Manner of Performing a Dreaded Society Duty. Some of the Mexican customs save much trouble, says a correspondent of the Boston Herald.

BANKNOTE THREADS. The Thing Counterfeiters Find Most Difficult to Imitate. One of the officials connected with the secret service branch of the treasury department, recently discussing the methods of counterfeiters, stated that in spite of their great skill and industry they had never been able to make a bill which did not have one or more vulnerable spots.

Did Not Know Him. Col. A. B. Andrews, first vice president of the Southern railway, once loaned his private car to Grover Cleveland to go on one of his periodic duck hunts.

Graceful Women. A taste for perfect figures is inseparable from a love of the beautiful. The scents of the belladonna, violet or rose are as precious as the lovely flowers whose breath they are.
