ANDERSON, S. C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1902.

Sheriff Green is now after the delinquent taxpayers.

Supervisor Vandiver advertises a bridge to be rebuilt.

All the indications now are that we will have a great fruit crop.

Mrs. J. L. Arnold, Jr., of Athens, Ga., is visiting relatives in this city.

Farmers who have to buy meat and corn this year have a "hard row to hoe."

Dr. W. A. Sanders and wife, of Greenville, are in Anderson visiting friends.

R. T. Jaynes, Esq., and Sheriff Moss, of Walhalla, spent a few hours in the city yesterday.

A large crowd of Andersonians left here yesterday for Charleston to attend the Exposition.

John J. Mattison, of Honea Path, has accepted the position of bookkeeper for Hall Bros. in this city.

Our young townsman, E. P. Vandiver, has moved into his handsome new residence on North Main street.

Our clever townsman, L. P. Smith, is arranging to run an excursion to Atlanta the latter part of next month.

W. H. Geer, the genial representative of the Columbia State, was in the city yesterday and gave us a pleasant call.

It is now a good time to visit the Exposition, Charleston, at its best and the Exposition is very fine. Are you going?

Dr. W. J. Smith left the city yesterday for Charleston, where he has accepted the position of house surgeon in the city hospital.

Married—on Wednesday, April 9, 1902, by Rev. J. W. Baker, Mr. E. T. Davis and Miss Olivia Moore, both of Anderson County.

S. C. Humphreys, of Peacock, Fla., arrived in Anderson Monday and is in the country visiting his parents, both of whom are sick.

The crop has made great improvement in some sections. The prospects of high priced corn this Summer are made less alarming.

We have had some fine Spring weather the past week and the farmers have taken advantage of it to rush delayed planting operations.

Capt. J. C. Boyd, of Greenville, who is a candidate for Adjutant and Inspector General, spent yesterday in the city and gave us a call.

The Standard Oil Company has refused to pay license tax in this city, and the municipal authorities will attempt to force it to pay.

Miss Josie Clinkscale, of Lowndesville, and Mrs. J. D. Sullivan, of Laurens, are in the city visiting their sister, Mrs. H. G. Johnson.

The game of baseball between the Furman University team and the Anderson team last Friday resulted in a score of 3 to 2 in favor of Furman.

We regret to learn that our venerable friend, Mr. George Campbell, of Rock Mills Township, is seriously ill. It is feared that his illness will prove fatal.

Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Miss Minnie Wilson and Miss Myra Belle Pent attended the State Convention of the King's Daughters in Charleston last week.

Mississippi has followed South Carolina in selecting her United States Senators by the primary system. That practically means their election by the people.

Very little interest is being taken in politics in this County yet, and candidates for the legislature and County offices are slow in making their wishes known.

S. M. Johnson, formerly of Anderson, but now living at Kansas City, Kansas, arrived in the city last week to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. J. E. Brezeale.

Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet to-morrow evening. The first and third ranks will be conferred, and every member who can possibly do so is urged to attend.

A. W. Adams and family, who have been living in Hartwell, Ga., for several years, have moved back to Anderson. They are warmly welcomed by their many old friends.

Rev. H. R. Murchison will preach next Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at Flat Rock Church. In the future he will preach there regularly every third Sunday afternoon at the same hour.

The County Commissioners have extended the time for the payment of the commutation road tax of $1 until May 1st, and they urge all persons who are liable to road duty to pay the tax at once.

The shirtwaist young man is having his wardrobe prepared. We have no objection to the shirtwaist man as long as he is young and slender, but the dogs ought to be set upon an old shirtwaist man.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Branyon have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rosa Mae, to James Clyde Green, on Tuesday morning, April 29th, at 10 o'clock, at their home in Honea Path.

J. W. Teasley, of Iva, S. C., came over Sunday to see his sick daughter, Miss Sumpie, who was taken ill suddenly Saturday night. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Leila.

Mr. James Wilson, who went to Seven Oaks, Fla., a few months ago to make his home with his youngest son, Mr. J. K. Wilson, returned to Anderson last week, and says he has come back to his old home to stay.

As we expected cotton is on the rise, but we hope our farmers will not allow themselves to be fooled into planting a big crop of cotton at the expense of a provision crop. The way to keep prices up is to plant an average crop of cotton only and make plenty of hog and hominy.

Rev. H. C. Fennel will preach at Varennes Church next Saturday morning at the usual hour for holding services, and at the conclusion of the sermon the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The friends of the congregation are invited to attend the services.

The South Carolina Presbytery convened in Abbeville last Friday and adjourned on Monday, and the session was a most interesting one. Rev. S. J. Cardledge, of this city, was elected Moderator. The Presbytery will meet in its fall session with Richland Church, in Oconee County.

The new advertisement of Hall Bros. on this page should be read carefully. They have in store one of the largest stocks of spring and summer clothing, gentlemen's furnishings, shoes, hats, etc., for men and boys, they have ever shown in this city. They want you to call and inspect their goods and get their prices.

Miss Minnie Fields died at her home in Monday Township last Sunday, after a brief illness, aged 23 years. She was a daughter of Porter S. Fields, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. On Monday the remains were buried in the Mt. Bethel Churchyard, Rev. O. J. Copeland conducting the funeral services.

Already steps are being taken to secure funds for the erection of a handsome monument to the memory of the lamented Hampton. We know Anderson County will contribute her share of the amount needed for its erection and we suggest that the Daughters and Sons of the city arrange for a meeting at an early date and take the matter up at once.

Information was received here last week that Rev. Wilton R. Earle, of Aspen, Colorado, whose health has been precarious for several months, will have to undergo a second surgical operation, and he is now at St. Luke's hospital in Denver for that purpose.

The many friends of Mr. Earle in this county will join us in wishing him a speedy restoration to health.

The Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., have placed a glass case in the Supervisor's office in the Court House for the reception of Confederate relics. The ladies want as many relics as they can get, and they ask every person in the County to assist them in securing a large collection. Later on they hope to have a room opened in the city as a Confederate museum, where the relics will be placed and viewed by all who desire to visit it.

Mr. B. F. McMurtry and Miss Rosa Welborne, daughter of Mr. C. A. Welborne, in Garvin Township, were united in marriage at the home of the bride at 6 p. m. the 8th instant, by Rev. W. B. Hawkins. Many friends were present by invitation to witness the ceremony, after which a sumptuous supper was served. The occasion was bright and sparkling with happiness, and the young couple have the good wishes of all.

The Confederate Veterans and their friends who are going to the exposition at Dallas, Texas, will leave here in their special through cars via Seneca next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Such cars carry one hundred ladies and gentlemen about one hundred ladies and gentlemen, and they will reach Dallas early Sunday morning. In order to avoid the rush Friday morning R. T. Thornton, the clever ticket agent at the Blue Ridge Railroad, will make out tickets for all who will call on him on Thursday.

Allan W. Clement, a leading citizen, well-to-do farmer and merchant, died last Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at his home near Irvy, in Laurens County. The deceased married a Miss Lark, of Laurens County, and removed from Williamston to that county about eight years ago. He was an honorable and upright citizen and Christian gentleman. The remains were brought to Williamston and interred in the Big Creek Baptist Churchyard on the day following his death. His widow and one child, a 9-year-old daughter, survive him.

An attempt was made to blow open the postoffice safe in the store of S. E. Horton, the postmaster at Belton, last Thursday night. The handle of the door was wrenched off and nitroglycerine inserted in the cavity. From appearances the work was that of professional safe blowers, who it is believed were frightened off by the continuous barking of a dog in the yard of W. K. Stringer, whose residence is near the rear end of the storeroom. A gentleman, who was sleeping in Mr. Stringer's house, was aroused from his bed by the barking of the dog, got up and went out, but seeing nothing or nobody, called the dog and went back to his room. There is no clue as to the identity of the burglars.

We are informed that the organization of a Land Development and Rapid Transit Company is being favorably considered by several leading business men. Land development will be the basis of the aims and purposes of the movement, namely to advertise abroad, inviting home-seekers and would-be investors from other sections of the United States, who are inspired with confidence in the industrial development in this section, and can be secured, if the proper means are used. The rapid transit feature will, on the other hand, make it possible to practically carry out the object aimed at, namely, converting vacant lots and joining farms into beautiful, improved homes. The movement, it seems, should work here as well as it has in other sections of our country.

Joseph J. Fretwell, one of the stalwart business men of Anderson, S. C., was in Hartwell Tuesday, and gave his old friend in the Sun office a call. This was Mr. Fretwell's first visit to our growing city, and he voiced his admiration enthusiastically. He didn't say he came here on business, but there is more in Joe's head than in the body. He is one of the progressive young men that took hold of the reins when Anderson was a sleepy village and made her what she now is—the most progressive city in upper Carolina. He has undoubtedly fallen in line in the greatness of Anderson. Joe kindly reminds us of a fellow who came from there who said that when he died if he couldn't quite make heaven that he would strike a bee line for the next best place—Anderson.—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

Last Sunday afternoon a telegram brought the sad news to Anderson of the death of Rev. Wilton R. Earle, which occurred that morning at Denver, Col., where he had gone to have a surgical operation performed. He had been in feeble health for several months, and, being very weak when he carried to the hospital, he died before the operation could be performed. The deceased was a son of the late Elias J. Earle, was born and reared in Anderson County and was about 35 years of age. He taught school in this County for several years and then spent three years at Furman University. After completing his course at the University he attended the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., from which institution he was graduated. About four years ago he accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist Church at Aspen, Col., where he has ever since made his home. Last spring he married a Miss Netherland, of Toccoa, Ga., and came to his old home in this County and spent a few weeks with his relatives. When he returned to his distant western home, his sister, Miss Bettie Earle, of this County, accompanied him and was with him when he died. Mr. Earle was a highly intelligent young man and very earnest and contented in his work. He leaves many relatives and friends in this County to cherish his memory. His remains were buried at Aspen.

Jobbers prices on "Schapps," "Early Bird" and "Blue Jay" Tobaccos, lowest prices on Flour, Coffee, Bacon, and heavy Groceries. Vandiver Bros.

To be sure of a good crop of cotton you should take no chances when buying a Cotton Planter. You run no risk with the genuine old Brooks or Dow Law Planters sold by Sullivan Edw. Co. The ease of operation and superiority in design and construction of these Planters place them above comparison with any others on the market.

The prices at which Sullivan Edw. Co. will sell Hoes this season cannot fall to please all farmers. This firm has recently received nine hundred dozen Hoes, bought with spot cash when the market was at its lowest ebb. These Hoes have been carefully selected with great regard for the quality of steel in the blades and shanks, and of the wood in the handles.

The new "Hand-Forged" Hoe, forged by Sullivan Edw. Co., is superior to every farmer. Hoes of every size and every variety are offered by Sullivan Edw. Co., who are anxious to sell you these goods.

Bethany Items.

On Sunday morning, 6th inst., this community was shocked by the announcement of the death of John B. Clinkscale, the 12-year-old son of the late J. A. Clinkscale and Mrs. R. O. Baskett. He had been sick about two weeks with a disease of the throat. John was a bright boy and to know him was to love him. While home he will be so sad without having John's voice and footsteps and seeing his smiles, they can think of another treasure in Heaven, and try to meet him and other loved ones gone before. Six of his little schoolmates bore his body to the grave. They were Slonn Pannister, Bonnie Strickland, Floyd Wright, Reed Banister, Hoyt Wright and Claud Thomas. The little school girls carried the many flowers with which the grave was beautifully decorated. The services were conducted by Rev. N. G. Wright at this place. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all their friends in this time of trouble.

We have just learned of the death of Mrs. Laura McCoy, who died at the home of Mr. James Egan last night. Her remains will be brought to Bethany this (Tuesday) afternoon for interment. Rev. N. G. Wright will conduct the funeral services.

Quite a large crowd attended services at Mt. Bethel yesterday and heard an excellent sermon by the pastor, Rev. O. J. Copeland.

Belton Items.

Belton mourns the loss of one of her oldest and best citizens in the death of Maj. G. W. Cox, which occurred at his home Sunday morning at 7 o'clock.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning by Rev. W. T. Tate at the First Baptist Church, of which the deceased had long been a member.

J. K. Brezeale has purchased the Baptist parsonage and will remove thereto in the near future. It is reported that the Church will erect another parsonage at once.

H. L. Tollison is erecting a handsome and commodious dwelling in the northern part of town.

Contractor J. W. Cagle, of Greenville, S. C., is here and has begun work on the extension to the Belton cotton mill, which will be pushed to completion in order to be ready for this year's crop of cotton.

Ed. R. Cox and Mrs. W. J. Moorehead, of Darlington, S. C., are here, having been summoned by the serious illness of their father, Maj. Cox.

D. W. H. Curry and C. L. Holtzclaw, of the mill town, are reported as being right sick.

A Former Citizen of Anderson County invites his Friends to Visit Texas.

Sherman, Tex., April 5, 1902.

To the Confederate Veterans and my friends of Anderson County:

The great State of Texas and the city of Dallas, Tex., are preparing to give one of the grandest entertainments perhaps that has ever been given to the Confederate Veterans in the history of the United States, and to one and all of the Veterans and my friends of Anderson County I extend to you a most hearty welcome to this grand reunion, as it will possibly be the cheapest rates ever given you the opportunity of visiting Texas—the Eden of the earth. If permitted to live I shall be more than delighted to meet any and many Confederate Veterans on that occasion. Wishing each and every one a very pleasant trip and a safe return, I am,

Very truly,

D. S. White.

No Man Better Fitted for the Place.

Capt. J. M. Patrick, of Anderson, has been announced as a candidate for Adjutant and Inspector General. We know no man in the State better fitted for the place, nor one more deserving.

Capt. Patrick is a son of the late Col. John B. Patrick, and is a graduate of Furman University of the class of 1883.

Since leaving college he has been continuously connected with the militia of the State. He taught in the Patrick Military Institute up to the time of his father's death, and since that time has been at the head of the military company at Anderson. We would indeed be pleased to see (come) give him a solid vote.—Keowee Courier.

Wise Merchants.

The wise Merchants of North and South Carolina are giving us business, because they see at a glance that buying from the Mills and Factories they save the Jobsbers or Middle Man's profits. Merchants, we ask you who have never seen our lines of Hosiery, Pants, Clothing, Shoes and Hats drop us a card and let one of our Salesmen call. You will see at a glance it is to your interest to be numbered among our growing list of customers. We sell only to Merchants. Wishing you a prosperous New Year—

WEBB & CATER, Commission Merchants, Anderson, S. C.

If you want a set of Knives and Forks for Christmas don't fail to inspect the line carried by Brook Hdw. Co. They are guaranteed customers, and their large sales in this line is evidence of their thorough knowledge of what will best meet the requirements of their patrons.

It is against our Policy of doing business to Talk Cheapness!

We do not mean by this that we are high priced, because everybody who deals with us knows that we are not. What we mean is this: we buy the Best Goods we can get for the least money that we can buy them for, and we sell them at the Lowest Price that such Goods can be sold.

We even go a step farther. We are operating two Stores, and we buy our goods for these two Stores in large quantities for the Cash. In that way we get all the advantages that a big buyer always does get, and we have one advantage that the average big buyer does not have—we have two outlets for our purchasing. This enables us to carry—

The Most Complete Line

— OF —

FURNISHING GOODS, CLOTHING, HATS and CAPS, And Shoes,

That is carried by any Store in the country in a city the size of Anderson. It enables us to get the best class of goods for the least money. This is particularly true with our line of

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

We have just received the latest styles of that renowned Clothing for Boys—

THE MRS. JANE HOPKINS STAR MAKE.

Our long experience in the Clothing line has demonstrated that much invisible merit is possible in Clothing. We insist on having that sort. Will-o-the-wisp attractions may draw you elsewhere, (unless you have tried our Store before), but don't be deceived into empty bargains when buying Clothing.

To See is to Buy!

For the best values in all things for man or boy are shown here. Let time and wear be your test; we're sure then of your future patronage.
