WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1902.

Some valuable land is offered for sale near Fair Play. See advertisement.

A large number of Andersonians visited the Exposition in Charleston last week.

Next Monday is Salesday. There will be no sales by the Court House officials.

If you contemplate buying a piano, read the new advertisement of M. L. Willis.

The strawberry crop is the finest that has been grown in this section for several years.

If you own a buggy or carriage read the advertisement of Paul Stephens in another column.

W. F. Anderson, of Elberton, Ga., has been spending a few days in the city visiting his brothers.

Some very fine honey is being brought to the city now. It meets with ready sale at a fair price.

Misses Lucy Thompson and Edna Norryce left for the Charleston Exposition yesterday morning.

Dr. J. A. Robinson, of Abbeville County, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a pleasant call.

Our young friend, Thos. S. Maxwell, of Greenville, spent last Sunday in Anderson visiting his parents.

J. W. Shelor, Esq., of Walhalla, one of the editors of the Keowee Courier, spent last Thursday in the city.

Our young friend, T. T. Osborne, who has been spending a few days with his parents in this city has returned to Columbia.

Miss Gertrude Jones, of this city, attended the meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs in Spartanburg last week.

G. N. C. Boleman is announced this week for Auditor, R. Y. H. Nance for Probate Judge and E. M. Rucker for Congress.

The State Fair will be held in Columbia this Fall as usual. Anderson County must have a good exhibit of her products there.

They say the persimmon crop is very promising, and the small boy "yaller" dog in the rural district are wearing a broad grin.

Frank McFall, who has been studying pharmacy in Baltimore for several months, has returned home to spend the Summer vacation.

Julius H. Weil returned a few days ago from New York, where he purchased another large stock of dry goods for the Summer trade.

Wilton E. Lee has gone to Coal City, Ala., to assist in surveying a new railroad for the Seaboard Air Line from Atlanta to Birmingham.

Our young friend, Farman Keys, who has been clerking at the Hotel Chiquola, has resigned on account of ill health and returned to his home in Greenville.

There will be communion services in the First Presbyterian Church, this city, on Sunday next and preparatory services will be held Friday night at 8.30 o'clock.

Jesse W. Morris, of Hartwell, Ga., a popular and energetic "Knight of the Grip," spent a few days in Anderson, his former home, last week, and gave us a pleasant call.

The junior editor of The Intelligencer has gone to Georgetown to attend the annual meeting of the South Carolina State Press Association, of which he is the secretary.

Mr. Gamevell Kay has been selected to fill the position of Court House janitor made vacant by the disability of Mr. D. E. Carlisle, as a result of his recent painful accident.

Farmers are well up with their work. Good stands of cotton and a large percent is thinned. Corn is also promising. In some sections of the County a little rain would be appreciated now.

Miss Eiline Mauldin, of Anderson, S. C., whose charming personality and engaging manners makes her a universal favorite, is visiting Miss Roberta Heard, on Heard street.—Elberton (Ga.) Tribune.

A jolly crowd came down on the Southern Monday night. Among them was L. S. Mattison, of Anderson, the best tempered and most genial piece of humanity for his size in the world.—Greenwood Index.

Invitations have been received in the city to the annual commencement exercises of the Presbyterian College at Clinton, June 1st. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. Chalmers Fraser, of Lancaster.

Mrs. M. L. Smith, of Learned, Miss., is in the city visiting the family of Dr. J. M. Richardson. She has many friends in both Anderson and Abbeville Counties, to whom her visit will be a source of much pleasure.

Fant Bros' Book Store has just received a number of copies of Col. J. G. Gibbs' interesting book, "Who Burned Columbia," which is being sold for the benefit of the Hampton monument fund. Buy a copy and read it.

The announcement of the fourth session of the State Summer School for teachers has just been issued and contains much information of interest to teachers. The school will be held at Winthrop College, in Rock Hill from June 25 to July 23.

Oliver McDonald, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heard, of Elberton County, Ga., died at the home of Mrs. Heard's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Nardin, Sr., in this city last Wednesday morning, after an illness of several days, aged 6 months. The funeral services were conducted at the home of Dr. Nardin Thursday morning, after which the little body was interred in Silver Brook Cemetery.

In this issue we publish the first installment of the annual report of County Treasurer Payne for the fiscal year 1900-1901. The publication of this report is a source of information to the taxpayers of the county, as it shows them how the money has been expended.

Mrs. Susan Hall, widow of W. P. Hall, of Charleston, lately deceased, and daughter of the late Col. Ben. Sloan, of Pendleton, died in Charleston Friday night last. The remains were brought to Pendleton and interred in the Episcopal Churchyard Sunday afternoon last.

Beginning next Monday the merchants of the city have agreed to close their stores every day except Saturday at 8:30 o'clock p. m. until September 1st. The clerks have worked faithfully during the Fall and Winter months, and they deserve the little rest and recreation the early closing affords them.

Next Monday, June 2nd, the cornerstone of the Central Presbyterian Church will be laid by Hiram Lodge, No. 68, A. F. M., of this city. Grand Master Whitehead, of Charleston, will conduct the ceremonies. All the Masonic Lodges in this County are invited to attend and participate in the ceremonies.

G. W. Evans, of Anderson, senior member of the drug concern known as the Evans Pharmacy, is in Charleston. Mr. Evans is one of the most progressive and enterprising citizens of Anderson. He came down to attend a meeting of State Pharmacists and remained over for Wagener Day.—Evening Post, 22nd inst.

Ralph Pennell, son of J. R. Pennell, who last Summer secured the appointment of the scholarship at West Point Military Academy by competitive examination, has been ordered to report to the Academy on the 15th of June next. Ralph deserves congratulation, and the people will watch his course with interest.

The wife of a farmer near town had a liniment that she used for everything. The other night she was sick and her husband got up in the dark, got the liniment and rubbed it over her body. She was given instant relief. The next morning it was discovered that he had gotten a bottle of blueing instead of the liniment.

It will be welcome news to his many friends to announce that the General Conference, now in session in Dallas, Texas, has just granted Rev. John M. Lander permission to return on a visit from his far distant field of labor as a missionary in Brazil, and he will probably return with his family some time in September.—Williamston News.

At a meeting of the creditors of W. J. Moorehead last Monday, C. M. Milling was appointed trustee. Mr. Moorehead's liabilities are $12,000 and his assets $28,000. Mr. Moorehead's friends in the town and country will regret to learn that he is not going to remain in Darlington, but will return to Belton, his old home.—Darlington News.

Masters Willie and Talmage Thompson, and their sister, Miss Jessie, children of Dr. R. E. Thompson, of this County, who have been attending the Dixie High School, near Charlotte, N. C., of which their brother is principal, have returned home. Willie was awarded the medal in the declaimers' contest, and Talmage was given the scholarship medal for having stood the best examination in his studies of any member of his class.

On Sunday evening last, about midnight, occurred the death of Mrs. Samuel Whittaker, at her home in Brushy Creek Township. Mrs. Whittaker was Miss Lillie Dobbins, daughter of J. D. Dobbins, and niece of J. J. Dobbins, of this city. The death was under peculiarly sad circumstances. Two small children and the husband are bereft of their greatest earthly friend. The interment took place at Flat Rock yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The City Council is having some excellent work done on the streets. Greenville street has been made ten feet wider and put in fine shape, and the same kind of work is being done on East Boundary street. To improve the looks of the city it takes time for work and time for the growth of trees, shrubs, vines and grasses, and it takes co-operation between the citizens and the Council, all of which appears to be understood now, and Anderson is beginning to be a beautiful city.

Misfortunes never come singly. Mr. "Dan" Carlisle had the misfortune to break his leg last Monday morning. In drawing his buggy from under the shelter, one of the front wheels struck a post at the entrance, throwing a shaft against his leg, which tripped him and caused him to fall and both bones of the leg, immediately above the ankle, were broken. Mr. Carlisle was just recovering from an attack of erysipelas which confined him to his home for six weeks, which makes this last painful accident more to be regretted.

Miss Essie Hembree, only daughter of Allen T. Hembree, died at the home of her parents in thicity last Wednesday night, after an illness of several months. On Thursday the remains were carried out to Robert Presbyterian Church, of which she was a devoted member, and interred in the Churchyard, Rev. T. C. Ligon, the pastor, conducting the funeral services. Miss Hembree was 28 years old, and a young lady of many noble virtues of both heart and mind. She was most highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and relatives, who sympathize with the devoted parents in their bereavement.

Mr. J. Howard Norris, a former citizen of Allen T. Hembree, died at his home in Graham, Texas, on Wednesday, 21st inst., after a brief illness, in the 90th year of his age. Mr. Norris was a son of John E. Norris, deceased, and the only brother of the late A. O.

Norris, Sr., and moved from this County to the West about forty-five years ago. In his young manhood he was engaged in business for several years in Augusta, Ga., where he married a Miss Zinn, who, with one daughter and two sons, survives him, in the 84th year of her age. The deceased was a remarkably hale, hearty man all his life, and all of his body faculties were good except his hearing, which failed him a few months ago. He leaves many relatives in this County who will regret to hear of his death.

The following Petit Jurors have been drawn to serve at the approaching term of the Court of General Sessions, which convenes on the second Monday in June: L. E. Knight, Hopewell; C. S. Gumbrell, Martin; W. W. Moore, Williamson; J. P. Cox, Jr., Belton; A. N. Ragsdale, Belton; B. F. Hawkins, Martin; Thos. J. Martin, Williamston; Robert Moorehead, Centerville; D. J. Bolt, Centerville; Geo. W. Sullivan, Williamston; D. J. Simmons, Martin; W. H. Brown, Corner; A. S. Farmer, Anderson; Jas. W. Shirley, Broadway; W. R. Burriss, Centerville; R. J. Gumbrell, Belton; L. A. Cole, Fork; H. M. Tate, Hall; D. C. Brown, Anderson; Edgar Hall, Centerville; H. P. Sitton, Pendleton; E. B. Farmer, Fork; J. D. Stonecypher, Rock Mills; R. C. Creamer, Centerville; Jas. W. Shirley, Broadway; R. L. Kay, Broadway; J. I. Holland, Anderson; D. A. Reed, Martin; Leard Newton, Garvin; S. M. Pickens, Anderson; J. R. Garrison, Pendleton; T. E. McConnell, Centerville; J. B. Sanders, Centerville; C. M. Gray, Hall; W. F. Tolly, Anderson.

Mayor Tolly, of Anderson, is in the city, registered at the Hotel Calhoun. For a number of years Mr. Tolly has been at the head of that municipality. He has made such an excellent chief executive that the people refuse persistently to elect anybody else. Anderson is a growing, progressive little city, full of manufacturing industries, employing hundreds of operatives. That County contains a score or more of big enterprises and the people are making arrangements to erect several more at an early date. That section is situated close to Greenville and Spartanburg Counties, and it, too, has caught the cotton mill fever. Mr. Tolly is just the man one would expect to see at the head of a good, live town. He is a live, up-to-date citizen himself, who believes in keeping up with the procession, and it is due to the efforts of men of his stamp that Anderson is right in line at the present time in all the branches of commercial and industrial activity.—Charleston News and Courier.

While on his way to his home in Garvin last Saturday afternoon from this city, Mr. David H. Green died very suddenly. He was in his buggy in company with his son-in-law, R. J. Buchanan, and when passing the home of Capt. John Eskew, about four miles north of the city, Mr. Green suddenly threw back his head and passed away without a moan or struggle and before Mr. Buchanan could realize that anything was the matter with him. His body was kindly cared for and that night was carried to his home. He had spent the greater portion of the day in the city and was apparently in his usual good health. It is supposed that heart disease was the cause of his death, though his family physician, Dr. Duckworth, says he had never shown any symptoms of that disease. Mr. Green was about 45 years of age, a most worthy, upright citizen, and was most highly esteemed by all of his friends, who deeply sympathize with the sorely bereaved wife and two children who are left to cherish his memory. On Sunday afternoon the remains were buried in the Sandy Springs Churchyard.

There was a meeting of the sewerage Commission held at 12 o'clock yesterday for the purpose of closing contracts for the furnishing of the terra cotta pipes and for excavating and laying the pipes. This commission is composed of the following citizens: R. E. Ligon, chairman, J. L. Tribble, attorney, Dr. J. C. Harris, H. C. Townsend and C. S. Sullivan, and these were assisted by the engineer, Mr. J. L. Ludlow. Bids for furnishing the pipes were submitted from Montague & Co., of Chattanooga, Tenn., Pomonia Co., of Pomonia, N. C., and Stephens & Co., of Macon, Ga. The bids of Montague & Co. and Stephens & Co. were made through the Sullivan Hardware Co., of this city. The contract was awarded to Montague & Co. for $10,250. For excavating and laying the pipe the contract was awarded to George Tenny, of Spartanburg, S. C., for $24,000.02. This was the only bid for this work, but comparisons were made with bids for similar work recently done in Columbia and found reasonable and accepted. Mr. Tenny is the engineer and contractor who enlarged the dam at Portman Shoals, which was swept away by the flood last December. The work of putting in the sewerage will begin in about three weeks.
