White India Lawn.

Fine assortment of these Staple Goods at 5c, 10c, 12ic and 15c.

White Dimities.

For Children's Dresses, &c., at 121c, 15c, 20c, 25c and 35c.

White Nainsook.

A beautiful white fabric at 61e, 10c, 121c, 15c, 20c and 25c.

White P. K's.

At 15c, 20c, 25c and 50c.

White Persian Lawns, Sheer and soft, at 20c, 25c, 40c and 50c.

French Organdies.

Fine mesh and finish, at 20c, 25c, 50c, 70c and $1.00.

White Dotted Swisses.

A fine line to choose from, all at 20c per yard.

White Madras.

Light, Summer weight, just right for Waists and Skirts. Price 124c. 15c, 20c and 25c.

White Curtain Swisses.

At 15c, 20c and 25c.

White predominates in all matters of dress this season, and how cool and pretty it is. We are showing an unusually attractive line of-

White Goods for Hot Weather Selling.

SHOES THAT FIT!

THE Shoes that fit are the Shoes that are the most comfortable and and Mrs. G. F. Tolly. easiest on the feet. Burning and aching feet are almost always caused by ill-fitting Shoes, and the woman who wears Shoes that are perfect fitting does not suffer this torture.

Is the most perfect fitting Shoe made and the most comfortable. We have shapes to fit all feet; and Queen Quality Shoes will 'make your feet appear siylishly dressed and feel delightfully comfortable.

Oxfords $2.50.

Boots, all styles, $3.00. "SNOWS" and "WALK-OVERS" Are leading at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

DAVIS,

The High Grade Shoe Man.

W. F. DANIEL, Manager.

A Few Specials

25 Barrels No. 2 Plantation Molasses at 15c. per gallon. 100 Barrels No. 1 Flantation Kolasses at 18c. per gallon. 1000 packages Levering's Roasted Coffee at 10c. package.

These are rare bargains and will pay you to investigate

Yours truly,

D.C.BROWN&BRO

3500 bushels Sound Mixed Corn, bought when the market was low, consequently are offering it very cheap.

D. C. B. & B.

Local News.

FEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1902.

Mr. Wyatt Aiken, candidate for Conress, is in the city. C. A. Reese spent a few days in Elberton, Ga., last week visiting rela-

Mrs. J. T. Holleman and children are visiting relatives in Seneca and Wal-

The festive watermelon has made its appearance—shipped here from the Rev. J. L. McLin will preach at Midway Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Editor Clarke, of the Williamston News, spent a few hours in the city Monday and gave us a call.

R. L. Griffin, of Lockhart, Union County, S. C., has moved to Anderson and will engage in business here. There is a good deal of sickness among the children in the city. The usual Summer complaints prevail.

The new advertisement of B. O. Evans & ICo. will interest the men folks, who should read it carefully. Few farmers have been in town the past week. All seem to be hard at work since the recent beneficial rains. Special attention is given to price reductions in the new advertisement of

Moore, Acker & Co. Read it carefully. George T. MaGill, Esq., a popular and prominent young lawyer of Hart-well, Ga., spent last Sunday in the

Jos. A. McCullough, a prominent and popular lawyer of Greenville, spent Monday in the city on professional bus-

The law against carrying a pistol, whether concealed or unconcealed, less than 20 linches long, goes into effect

Capt. E. A. Smythe and family, of Pelzer, have gone to their summer home at Flat Rock, N. C., to spend

The new advertisement of Lesser & Co. in another column should be read carefully, if you are seeking bargains in dry goods.

Thos. A. Murrah, of Union, S. C. arrived in the city last Sunday to spend a few days visiting his mother and

The new advertisement of G. H. Bailes & Co. will tell you of the many bargains they are offering to the public. Read it. The municipal primary election takes place next month. Suggestions of candidates for Mayor and Aldermen are now in order. The college students have come in from several institutions and their bright young faces will enliven their homes for a season. Mrs. W.'M. Wilcox, accompanied by two of her children, of Elberton. is in the city visiting her parents, Mr.

The State Summer School for teachers; convenes at Rock Hill to-day. Anderson County, as usual, will be well represented there. Our young friend, Max. Crayton, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is now convalescing, and we hope will soon be out again. Wm. L. Alston, who has been attending College in Alabama, has returned to his home in this city to spend the Summer vacation. Persons who have their property insured in the Anderson Mutual Fire Insurance Company should read its advertisement in another column. Geo. O. Tenny, of Spartanburg, who has the contract for laying our sewerage system, is in the city, and expects, to commence the work next week. The Court of Common Pleas convenes in this city next Monday morning at 10 o'elock. Jurors and witnesses should be on hand promptly at that hour. Married, on Monday, June 28, 1902, by Rev. D. I. Spearman and at his residence, Mr. E. E. Gilreath and Miss Estelle Boiter, all of Anderson County. N. B. Sharp, of the Peoples Furniture Co., has gone to the furniture factories to buy a large shipment of furniture. Read their new advertise-A Kentucky woman has lost her voice while screaming at her husband.

Most any man ought to beable to point out to his wife the moral in this sad Prof. J. Scott Murray, of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., arrived in the city a few days ago to spend the Summer vacation with his mother and other re-The summer term of the Denver

High School will begin on Monday;

July 7th, and it is earnestly desired that all the pupils be present at the There may be something better than a juley blackberry pie, with a pitcher of ...ld aweet milk handy, but we would not leave that in search of other good things. Walter W. White, who has been the efficient teller of the Bank of Anderson for several years, has resigned his position to give his full time to his marble yard business. Nearly every week we receive one or more communications without the name of the author being signed to them, and, of course, they are consigned to the waste basket.

The Lebanon and the Anderson Cotton Mill baseball teams played a game of ball in the city last Saturday afternoon, and resulted in a score of 8 to 5 in favor of the first named.

The State campaign party will be in Anderson two weeks from next Friday. Som eof the candidates will be entertained at the homes of their friends during their stay in the city.

R. L. Cummock, of Boston, Mass. who has been selected as Superintentendent of the Brogon cotton mill, has arrived in the city and will superintend the rection of the buildings.

Mrs. T. C. Ligon and children arrived in the city a few days ago from Columbia. They will make their future home here, and are warmly welcomed by their many friends.

Married, on Sunday, June 23, 1902, by Rev. W. B. Hawkins and at his residence, Mr. W. E. Childs and Miss Minnie Presley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Pressley, of Orrville.

Married, on Wednesday, July 18, 1902, by Magistrate P. H. Brown and at his residence in Hopewell Township, Mr. Walter McCully and Miss Janie Bagwell, both of Anderson County. A monument, to cost $1,000, to the memory of the men who composed the famous Gist Rifles and who died in the service of the Confederacy, is to be erected in the park at Williamston.

Gen. M. L. Bonham, who has been seriously ill for a week or more, is, we are more than pleased to announce, resting easy and his condition this morning is considered more favorable.

Thirty-three young ladies graduated from Winthrop College at the commencement exercises last week, and among these were Misses Allie Bell Beck and Mary Chapman, of Ander-

A series of meetings are being held in the Wesleyan Methodist Church on South Main street. Services are held both morning and evening, and are conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Frank

Rev. John T. Mann will preach at Whitefield Church, in Hopewell Township, next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the services.

Julius H. Weil left the city Monday for the New York and Boston markets to make extensive purchases. This is the third trip Mr. Weil has made this season, and he will this time be absent about six weeks.

A Clemson College bulletin tells of a new way of saving sweet potatoes. They are washed clean, boiled until done, sliced up and desiccated in a fruit drying house. They keep sound for an indefinite time.

The Commencement exercises of the South Carolina Military Academy take place in Charleston the latter part of this week. Among the gradu-ates this year are E. R. Tucker and T. H. Russell, of Anderson.

Miss Pearl Swindell, of Chattanooga, is the guest of Mrs. David Shaver. Miss Swindell leaves early in July to spend the remainder of the Summer with friends in Anderson. S. C.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

Dr. Walker G. Browne and daughter, Miss Mabel, of Atlanta, Ga., are in the city visiting relatives. Dr. Browne formerly lived in Anderson, and his many old friends here are more than pleased to greet him again.

There will be an all-day singing at Refuge Church next Sunday, 29th inst. Several prominent leaders are expected to be present. The public is invited to attend and bring well-filled dinner baskets and their song books.

Addie, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Roberts, died at the home of her parents at Millville last Wednesday night, aged 9 months. On Thursday afternoon the body was interred at Silver Brook Cemetery.

Last Monday the Secretary of State issued a commission to the H. C. Townsend yarn and rope mill of this city. The corporators are our young townsmen, H. C. and G. B. Townsend, and the mill is to have a capital stock of,$25,000.

Mrs. Leila Sutherland died at her home at Millville last Saturday, after a brief illness, aged 19 years. A sorely bereaved husband and an infant son survive her. On Sunday afternoon the remains were intered in Silver Brook

At the request of the County officials the Governor has pardoned Jim Smith; a negro, who was convicted at the term of Court last October for forgery, and has since been on the county chaingang. He is afflicted with consumption and upable to work.

C. A. Reese, dealer in gents' furnishing goods; hats, shoes, etc., has an advertisement in another column, to which we invite the attention of our readers, especially the men folks. He carries a large stock and his prices will please you. Give him a call.

Last week we neglected to call attention to the announcement of Samuel

O. Jackson as a candidate for County Supervisor, but we know all of our subscribers read it. This week Wyatt Aiken, of Abbeville, and G. E. Prince, of this city, are announced as candidates for Congress. for Congress.

The Wade Hampton memorial tablet that has been placed in the corridor of the Court House by the R. E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., will be unveiled this afternoon at 6 o'clock. The public generally and the Confederate Veteraps especially are invited to witness the exercises.

Wade Hampton Carpenter, of this County, who has just graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., reached home last week. He will spend two or three months here, and will then be assigned to dury as a Lieutenant in the recolar army.

The new Methodist Church at Orrville will be dedicated next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Chas. B. Smith will preach the dedication sermon. Mr. Smith is well known in this section, having formerly served as pastor of St. John's Methodist Church in this city, and he will be greeted on this occasion by a large congregation.

There came very near being a serious accident last Friday morning at the new building being erected by Miss Mitti. Tribble on East Boundary St. A scaffold twelve or fifteen feet high, on which were working P. B. Gailey, Joe Lownskowski and Paton McCurley suddenly gave way, carrying all three violently to the ground beneath. Gailey was thrown on his side, badly bruised, and laid up for several days. Lownskowski's ankle was sprained and McCurley was right badly bruised. All are at work again, but Gailey is still suffering with considerable pain.

Reports from all parts of the County indicate the brightest crop prospects known in years. The rains seem to come just as they are needed. The conditions have been so favorable that it has cost comparatively little to cultivate the crops so far. A continuation of the favorable seasons will give the farmers the best crops made in years at a cost much less than that at which the average crop is produced.

Our former young townsman, J. Olin Mattison, who has been living in Charleston for several years engaged as district agent of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., has been promoted to the position of State Agent in Oklahoma and Indian Territory. He will visit Anderson this week on his way to his new field of work. Mr. Mattison is a bright, energetic young man, and we predict big success for him in his western home.

W. F. Anderson passed through the city last Thursday on his way to Columbia. Mr. Anderson came here from his home in Anderson, S. C., in 1891, to buy cotton for J. H. Sloan, and was here three years. He is now a member of the Elberton Cotton and Compress Company at Elberton, Ga. We saw that his hair was turning gray and asked him if he had married. "Not yet," he sadly replied.—Greenwood Journal.

Anderson County has lost another good citizen in the death of Mr. Jas. G. Douthit, which occurred at his home in the Sandy Springs section yesterday afternoon. About two years ago he suffered a light stroke of paralysis, and yesterday morning he received the second stroke which was the cause of his death. He served his State faithfully through the war, was a most worthy, upright citizen, and highly esteemed by all of his friends. He had long been active and devoted member of the Methodist Church. The remains will be interred this afternoon at Sandy Spriags. His wife preceded him to the grave a few years ago. A son, J. B. Douthit, and a daughter, Mrs. Rebecca Pickel, survive him.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Kay, widow of the late Silas Kay, died at her home in Hopewell. Township last Thursday morning, after an illness of several months with paralysis, aged 71 years. Fifty-three years ago she married Mr. Silas Kay, who preceded her to the grave a few weeks ago. By this union ten children were born, eight of whom survive their devoted parents. Mrs. Key was a most excellent, Christian woman, having been a devoted member of the Baptist Church since her childhood, and was greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends, who will long cherish her memory. On Thursday afternoon the remains were interred in the family burying ground, Rev. Henry C. Martin conducting the funeral services.

A correspondent of the Spartanburg Journal, writing from Union, S. C., under date of the 22nd inst., says: "Geo. Munro, for 20 years cashier of the Merchants and Planters National Bank, died at 7 o'clock this evening at his home on Virgin street after an illness of about two months. He was a brother of the late William Munro and of James Munro. Mr. Munro was a very excellent cashier, a man who knew his business and attended strictly to it. He was a consistent member and an officer in the First Methodist Church. He leaves a sorrowing wife with his many other friends to mourn his demise." The deceased is a son of the late Judge Munro, of Anderson, and has many old friends in this section who will regret to hear of his death.

A correspondent sends us the following account of a recent marriage:
"A happy event took place at the refidence of Mr. Nathaniel Elrod, near Piedmont, June 15th, 1902. It was the marriage of his daughter, Miss Janie Elrod to Mr. Parker J. Dunlap, one of Honea Path's mest worthy young men. Mr. S. A. Burts, of Honea Path, was the groom's beet man, and Miss Eva Simpsen the bride's maid. Miss Rose Elrod with Mr. S. B. McGee and Miss Mattie Dunlap with Mr. Lake Elrod, were the attendants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Wiggins, pastor of Bethesda Church. Miss Janie was one of our very best girls. She will be missed by her many friends and relatives. We wish them a long, happy and prosperous life." A correspondent sends us the follow-

A beautiful home wedding occurred last Wednesday morning, 18th inst., at Pelzer at 10 o'clock at the residence at Pelzer at 10 o'clock at the residence of Superintendent Guy, when his daughter, Miss Addie Guy, was married to Dr. Thomas Quickle of Stanley, N. C. The ceremony was witnessed by only the intimate friends and relatives of the young people. The parlors were elaborately and tastefully decorated in yellow and white with namewous cut flowers in jardiniers placed at irregular intervals throughout the rooms. Miss Sallie May Quickle and Gus Quickle, sister and brother of the groom, were among the attendants upon the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Superintendent Guy, of the Pelzer cotton mills. She possesses daughter of Superintendent Guy, of the Pelzer cotton mills. She possesses a charming personality and is unusual-ly attractive. Dr. Quickle is a young physician of Stanley. N. C., where he has a large practice. Shortly after the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Quickle board-ed the northbound trair for their fu-ture home in Stanley.

Mrs. Eula Power, wife of Chas. F. Power, died at her home in this city at an early hour last Monday morning, after a brief illness with tonsilitis. Many of her friends knew nothing of her illness. and the announcement of her death was a great shock to them. Her condition was not considered serious until a few hours preceding her death, and during that time her sufferings were intense. Mrs. Power was the youngest daughter of the late Joseph Martin, and about 21 years of age. About three years ago she married Mr. Power, who, with two little children, a devoted mother and several brothers and sisters, are left to cherish her memory. She was a most estimable young woman, and for a number of years had been a consistent member of the Methodist Church. The griefstricken family have the sympathy of all their friends in their sore bereavement. On Monday afternoon the funeral services were conducted at home by Rev. M. B. Kelly, after which the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery.

Brushy Creek News.

We have been favored with good showers of rain which were badly needed. Crops are looking fine and so needed. Crops are looking the and so is the grass.

Wheat is being threshed and is making a fair turnout.

Having purchased a new threshing machine and had their engine thoroughly repaired, the Saluda Threshing Company are doing very satisfactory work.

work.

Everybody seems to be looking forward to a day of pleasure the Fourth of July.

Candidates need not fear, if they think they can electioneer and live on think they can electioneer and live on melons.

There will be a lawn party at Mr. Richard Watson's next Saturday evening. We kept the young people will have a pleasant evening.

Good luck for the Intelligencer and its readers.

Tenderfeet.

FOR YOUR LEGS.

At no other Store will you find such a carefully selected stock of Trousers as here. We say "carefully selected" because the closest attention has been paid to the quality of the fabric as well as to its pattern and perfect form.

Whether it is a pair of Trousers to wear with your Dress Coat in the evening, or a pair of Trousers to wear with your Frock Coat of a Sunday, you will find all of them here, and at prices that you will cheerfully pay.

We are selling excellent quality All Wool, neat Stripes and Blues and Blacks at $1.75 per pair.

A better one at $2.50 and $3.00 the pair.

Fine Fancy Worsted Stripes and Check $4.00 to $5.00

Wool Crash, all colors, $3.00 the pair.

HALL BROS.

South Main Street. .

Always Cut Price Clothiers.

Red Hot Values in Shoes.

UPON opening up our New Stock of 1902 styles of Shoes, we find that our buyer has scooped the biggest values ever before known in our experience. We can please the most fastidious shape-from Trilby to Big Kingand our prices are a godsend to scant purses. Our Dollar Shoes are not only neat, elegant and shapely, but they are serviceable, comfortable and built for wear. It is really cheaper to wear Shoes at this price than to go barefooted-even at night.

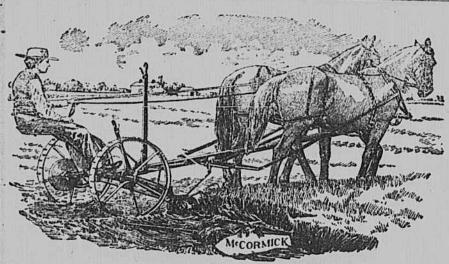

We have some very attractive prices on ready-made PANTSprices that will appeal to you so pathetically that you cannot resist their pleadings. No one, be he as poor as a Lazarus, can afford to go in his shirttail at the prices we are asking for Jeans Pants.

Our trade is increasing every month, and we are constantly adding new customers to our already large and influential list-a list of which, we take this occasion to say, we are particularly proud, as the names thereon represent the best moral and financial element of the County. This phenomenal growth has been built up on a basis of such guarantees as we give on-

Dean's Patent Flour,

And everything else that we sell, and for this reason we'll continue to grow and to preserve the integrity of our guarantees.

DEAN & RATLIFFE, The Store where so Many People Trade.

McCORMICK VERTICAL LIFT MOWERS.

The only Mower for rough and stumpy ground.

THE devices for raising and lowering the Cutter Bar, and for throwing the Machine in and cut of gear are very ingenious, but simple in construction and operation. So perfect is the action of these devices that the driver can run the McCormick close up to a rock, stump or tree and, without stopping the team, raise the bar to pass such an obstruction, throwing the Machine out of gear, and then lower the bar afterward, throwing the Machine in gear aunatically without loss of any time.

This is only one of the many good devices of the McCormick.

A careful examination of the mechanism of this Machine will certainly convince you of its superiority in every detail over any other Machine on the Sullivan Hardware Co.