WEDNESDAY, JULY 9, 1902.

The candidates for State and Congressional honors will be the guests of Anderson County next Friday, 11th inst. Give them a cordial greeting. Let every speaker have the thoughtful and earnest attention of the audience. Receive them as gentlemen receive gentlemen.

The close, hot nights are extremely beneficial to growing cotton, upon which so much of the prosperity of our city and section depends. Just try to remember that when you are tossing in roasted discomfort, and even if it does not cool you, it may soothe somewhat your heated thoughts.

The President has re-appointed J. F. Richardson post-master at Greenville. He was not confirmed by the Senate, owing to personal objections by Senator Tillman; but the people of Greenville want him continued in office and we are gratified to know that the President has acceded to their requests. By his action, Senator Tillman, it seems, would prefer to give the people of Greenville a carpet-bagger or some other objectionable character.

In the changes made in the Atlantic Coast Line railroad by its purchase of the Plant System, we are glad to note the promotion of Mr. W. J. Craig, passenger and freight agent of the C. & W. C. in Augusta. He is now made general passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line with headquarters at Wilmington, N. C. Mr. Craig is a first-class railroad man and always the courteous gentleman, and the Coast Line has done well in giving him this position.

The bill of Representative Johnson providing for an additional district judge for the western district of South Carolina failed to even get out of the sub-committee of the judiciary committee of the House of Representatives. The reason for this was that the department of justice reported against the bill, claiming that there was not sufficient business in South Carolina to guarantee the appointment of an additional judge. Whether the measure can be passed next session is doubtful.

There is a touch of gallantry not often found in the Congressional Directory, where each member records his autobiography, in the story of the life of Robert W. Davis, of Florida. He tells of his early struggles and subsequent achievement, and in the latest edition of the Directory adds: "Before reaching his majority he was married to Miss Peter Mercer, and to her influence is due whatever of success he has attained." Many other members doubtless owe much to their wives, but he is the only one to make public confession of the obligation.

Congress, after a long and tedious session, adjourned on the 1st inst., and it has made a record that will not soon be forgotton. When the fifty-fifth Congress surpassed all previous records by making appropriations that aggregated a round billion of dollars the country's amazement was great. But Thomas B. Reed's "billion dollar Congress" was destined to be less than a five years' wonder. The fifty-seventh Congress has totally eclipsed the fifty-fifth in this respect. It has made the new appropriation record of nearly a billion dollars at a single session.

President Roosevelt has appointed Major Micah Jenkins collector of Internal Revenue of this State to succeed Geo. R. Keoster, who, on account of Senator Tillman's objections, failed to be confirmed by the United States Senate. Maj. Jenkins is a Democrat and was given the position on account of his intimate personal relations with the President. He is now teaching in Virginia, but will come to his native State and take charge of the office in Columbia at once. The Republicans in this State, of course, are not pleased with the appointment.

The revenue repeal act, which removes all that is left of the war tax, went into effect the 1st inst., the beginning of the fiscal year. The internal revenue laws then returned to the point at which they were at the beginning of the Spanish-American war. At the commencement of hostilities Congress, in the endeavor to increase the revenues of the government commensurate with the increased expenses caused by the enormous outlay in conducting the war, raised the tax on all things already taxed, and taxed many things on which no tax had been paid since a short while after the civil war.

In Memoriam.

A tribute of love from the Ladies' Working Society of the First Baptist Church of Anderson to Mrs. C. A. Reed:

As the shadows were lengthening there came in on the evening breeze this loving message to our sister, "The Master cometh and calleth for thee." Quickly gathering her garments of spotless white around her, and with lamp brightly burning, the redeemed spirit of Fannie Kingsley Reed went joyously forth to greet the Master, with the happy response, "Here, Lord, I am." Eternity alone can reveal the deep abiding influence of her Christian character.

When president of the Ladies' Working Society she ruled with gentle dignity, rare discretion and courteous consideration. Zealous in every department of its work, she was an inspiration to those who labored with her.

Duty being the key note of her daily life the timely admonition, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with they might," was truly exemplified in all her works.

As a friend we cherish her memory as one of the sweetest flowers that sheds its fragrance along life's pathway.

Trusting that when the message comes—as come it must to each and every one of us—may we not only find the gates ajar, but by its "gleaming portal "the risen Saviour," and the glorified face of our sister beaming forth a welcome to that beautiful land, where the flowers bloom in perpetual beauty and the inhabitants never say, "I am sick."

That in the going away of our friend and sister we have each sustained a personal loss and the Ladies' Working Society one of its most zealous, lovable and efficient members.

Resolved: To the sorrowing loved ones and friends we offer our deepest sympathy, praying that the God whom she loved and trusted will wipe all tears from their eyes so that with undimmed vision they may see the loving hand of Him loosening the cords on earth and tightening them in heaven.

Mrs. Benj. F. Wilson,
Mrs. J. D. Chapman,
Mrs. J. N. Brown,
Mrs. J. L. Tribble,
Mrs. Eva Murray,
Committee.

Holland's Store.

The hot dry winds that we have had for the past few days are telling detrimentally on the crops, and unless rain comes in a short time crops will be short.

Our farmers are well up with their work. Corn is about all laid by and cotton fresh plowed and in fine shape for the rain when it comes.

There is being large quantities of blackberries canned by our lady friends. The crop of this fruit was never better in this neighborhood.

Peaches will not pan out as well as was expected some months ago. They have fallen off and still continue to do so.

We had the pleasure last week of attending a Union Meeting at Sardis Church, just across the Savannah, in Hart County. It was a most interesting spot in this scribe's memory. We were accompanied by Rev. H. M. Allen and Mr. John Eskew, both of whom took an active part in the exercises. There were twelve preachers present and a large attendance each day. On Sunday only about one-half of the people could get in the house. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. John Brown, a young minister of much promise. His sermon was well delivered and was thoughtful and inspiring. The closing sermon on Sunday was preached by Rev. Mr. Allen and was a fine effort. In the afternoon on Sunday a very interesting program was rendered by the children of the Sunday School of this Church. The manner in which they acquitted themselves reflects credit on all concerned. The hospitality of the Georgia people is proverbial, and those Sardis people are no exception to the rule.

We are all well.

Burke.

— The Supreme Court of South Carolina held, in the record case of Brandenberg vs. Zeigler, that the owner of land on which surface water has collected in a pond has no right by cutting the natural rim of the basin to drain the water upon a neighbor's property to his injury.

— Physicians in this State are greatly concerned over what they believe to be the alarming increase of insanity among negroes Years ago this disease was almost unknown to the negro, but it appears to be spreading. According to estimates made by Dr Babcock, superintendent of the State lunatic asylum, this condition now is worse than ever before. Many reasons are assigned but it is the opinion of many physicians that the common use of liquor and whisky is in a large measure responsible.

— As Mr. L. W. Jordan was driving over the railroad crossing near the Seneca Cotton Mills a few minutes before 9 o'clock last Wednesday morning his buggy was run into by the Blue Ridge passenger train and Mr. Jordan was badly, but it is hoped, not seriously hurt. His knee was knocked out of joint and he is otherwise badly bruised.

— The Oconee County Commissioners have closed a contract with the American Road Machinery Company for one rock crusher, two water tanks, two dump carts, two wheel scrapes and two mule scrapes. This machinery, together with the two engines, two road machines and two plows bought three weeks ago, gives Oconee County a complete and up-to-date road-making outfit.

— A negro known as Thomas Maddry, but answering to the description of Dan Gould who is wanted in North Carolina for murder, was arrested at Georgetown recently. Gould beat a white man to death with a fence rail 20 years ago and was sentenced to hang. He escaped from jail before the day set for his execution and has not been seen since. This negro answers to Gould's description and will be sent to North Carolina for identification.

— Reports from Edgefield indicate that there was a considerable degree of excitement there at the campaign meeting last Wednesday. Three of the candidates for Governor are from that County and the feeling between Tillman and Talbert is strong. Talbert seemed to be in the majority, but Tillman's supporters were equally as noisy. Neither was allowed to make his speech, the old gag of "howling down" being resorted to.

— Humor is like whiskey in making a person who uses too much of it very wabbly.

— After a man has been married too long he doesn't worry so much because life is too short.

Like all other McCormick Machines, McCormick Hay Rakes are built on honor. It is by far the strongest and most perfectly constructed Rake on the market. You should certainly not buy a Rake until you have examined the McCormick, for it is the Rake of all Rakes, and the acknowledged monarch of the grass field. Sullivan Hardware Co. will be pleased to demonstrate to you the points of superiority of the McCormick Hay Rake.

There are Bargains

AND THERE

Are Bargains!

But, Oh! Such a Difference.

A Bargain has been defined a "gainful transaction," because it produces profit or advantage to the purchaser. Some folks are deceived by what they are led to believe are Bargains until they fail to find the profit—the advantage which is not and never was there. "Sorrows remembered" may "sweeten present joys," but that won't recoup the money squandered. There's no deception in this Store's Bargains, unless it be that Goods are better than our claims for them But it makes people good natured to be deceived that way.

Here is a Bargain that you cannot duplicate elsewhere for the same style and quality of Goods:

Egyptian Tissues and Foulards,

Sold for 20c and 25c yard reduced to 10c.

These Goods are of this season's make, no old stock or hard stock. We don't want to carry these over, hence the reduction.

You will find many, many other Bargains in this Store that will be worth your while to take in. This is the season for price reductions, and you will be surprised at the big values we offer.

You will always find our Stock thoroughly up-to-date.

Summer styles in Millinery are of dainty, graceful shapes, with a wide range of trimmings.

Pretty effects in Parasols for those who want protection from the sun rays. A big assortment of—

Gloves, Fans, Hosiery, Underwear, Etc.

In fact, you can find almost anything you want in Summer wear at pleasing prices.

Oxford Ties, Slippers and Shoes.

Common sense as well as style can be purchased reasonably at our counters. Good, wearable Shoes, etc, for all sorts of occasions.

When in Town don't fail to visit our Store, or send us your orders.

Samples sent at any time.

Agents for McCall Bazar Patterns—10c and 15c. None better.
