

The Whole Story

CONCERNING ALL

SUMMER GOODS

IS THAT THEY

MUST BE SOLD.

We are now getting things in shape for—

Stock-Taking,

And hope to reduce Stock to the lowest possible point. We are constantly receiving—

New Goods.

In fact, our Stock is always clean and fresh; and yet, like all large Stores, you will find some accumulations, some ODDS and ENDS, some REMNANTS, that we are glad to rid ourselves of.

Our Store is truly a pleasant place to trade these Hot Summer Days.

Our Electric Fans

Keep the room cool. Then our having the Goods you are looking for, at such—

Reasonable Prices,

Makes a visit to our Store doubly pleasant.

Come and look through.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON.

Featherweight

Negligee... SHIRTS!

To keep cool these hot July days is to wear the lightest weight apparel. That's why I suggest these Featherweight Negligee Shirts.

COOL!

How could they be otherwise, made from the lightest weight possible Madras and Percale. There's no occasion to be surprised at the excellent values I give at—

$1.00.

I am determined to do the Shirt business of Anderson, and that explains it. Ask to see my—

50c.

AND

75c.

SHIRTS.

They are VALUES.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 1902.

The County candidates are putting in good time now.

A local weather prophet predicts a late fall this year.

Watermelons are now coming in by the wagon loads.

J. W. Quatbaum, Esq., is announced as a candidate for Mayor.

L. P. Smith's excursion to Tallulah Falls to-morrow will carry a large crowd.

Miss Mattie Swindell, of Augusta, Ga., is in the city visiting Mrs. Fred. G. Brown.

Mrs. Louis Sharpe and daughter, of Nashville, Tenn., are in the city visiting relatives.

Our venerable townsman, Mr. Julius Poppe, is seriously ill, and his death is expected at any hour.

Dr. V. A. Nardin, Jr., who has been on an extended trip through the Northwest, has returned home.

Wm. M. Wilcox, Jr., of Elberton, Ga., came to Anderson last week to spend a few days with his grandparents.

Rev. O. J. Copeland will begin a series of meetings next Sunday night at Hopewell Church, of which he is pastor.

Meat is high but eggs are cheap. Better look after your poultry as they need extra attention this hot weather.

Our young friend, J. L. Sherard, who has been living in Columbia, has returned to Anderson and is reading law.

Joseph A. Nance, of Dub West, spent last Thursday in the city, and was a welcome visitor to The Intelligencer sanctum.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Prevost spent last week in Laurens visiting friends. Mr. Prevost's valuable horse suddenly died there.

Rev. J. D. Chapman is in Ninety Six this week assisting in a series of meetings being held in the Baptist Church there.

The work of digging the sewer trenches has commenced in earnest, and contractor Tenny says he will push the work rapidly.

If you are seeking bargains in clothing, be sure to read the new advertisement of B. O. Evans & Co. carefully and give them a call.

Prof. J. T. Milford will lead in the singing at Smith's Chapel, eight miles south of the city, next Sunday. Everybody is cordially invited.

Mrs. Burt Mitchell, of Westminster, has been spending a few days in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, who is quite sick.

Mrs. W. K. Sanders, accompanied by her three charming daughters of Belton, Texas, is in the city visiting her aunt, Mrs. Eliza J. Skelton.

The rains during the past week have been general throughout this section. They are highly appreciated by everybody, especially the farmers.

Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet at 8.30 o'clock. All the members are urged to attend. The first and second ranks will be conferred.

W. L. Braddy, an old Anderson boy, has been elected President of the 20th District Democratic Club in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he now lives.

A series of meetings are being held in the Presbyterian Church at Williamston this week, and the pastor is being assisted by Rev. S. J. Cartledge of this city.

Capt. H. H. Watkins has gone to the mountains to spend two or three weeks for the benefit of his health, which, we hope, will be greatly improved by his stay there.

A small section of Corner Township was visited by a severe hail storm last Friday afternoon, which did considerable damage to the crops of a number of farmers.

Our townsman, J. J. Baker, a "knight of the grip," who has been traveling through a number of western States, reached home last week to spend a few weeks resting and recuperating.

All persons interested in Good Hope Churchyard, in Corner Township, are urged to meet there at an early hour on Thursday morning, 24th inst., for the purpose of cleaning off the same.

W. P. Wright, J. B. Leverett and E. J. Kay are announced this week as candidates for the House of Representatives. Also, R. E. Nicholson for County Superintendent of Education.

J. H. Pullen, of Spartanburg, was in the city last Thursday on his way to his old home at Fair Play, where he will spend a few weeks with relatives and old friends. He gave us a pleasant call.

Children's Day will be observed at Varennes Church next Saturday, 19th inst., beginning at 11 o'clock a. m. The public is cordially invited to attend and bring well-filled dinner baskets.

We are indebted to the management for an invitation to attend the opening ball at the White Stone Lithia Springs, which took place last night. The hotel there is now complete and ready to entertain guests.

Rev. W. R. Richardson, D. D., will preach at Shiloh Church, near Piedmont, on the fourth Sunday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock. The friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the services.

E. W. Taylor, of this city, who has been on an extended trip through several States in the interest of the Dodd Hoisting Machine, has returned home to rest a few weeks. He reports a very successful trip.

Hon. B. F. Crayton, one of Anderson's oldest and most popular citizens, celebrated his 83rd birthday last Thursday. We join his many friends in extending congratulations and wishing him many more years of health and happiness.

Miss Mamie Wilhite, accompanied by her mother, have gone to South Vernon, Vermont, where they will spend a few weeks. During their absence their drug store will be closed. We join their friends in wishing them a safe and pleasant trip.

Last Thursday afternoon lightning struck the engine house at the saw mill and gin of G. B. Robinson & Bro., in Martin Township. The building was burned and the engine badly damaged. By hard work the gin house and saw mill were saved.

An advertisement of Furman University appears in another column to which we direct your attention. This is one of the notable institutions of the State, and it was never so strong before as it is to-day and never better prepared for thorough work.

W. G. Johnson, one of the agents of the Blue Ridge Railroad in this city, has been appointed agent of the Southern Railway at Chester, S. C., and will leave shortly to enter upon his work there. Anderson thus loses a good citizen and Chester gains one.

John Harrison, a negro, who was serving an 18-months' sentence in the County chain-gang, made his escape on the night of the 8th inst. from the gang near Belton, and the following afternoon was captured near this city by John Robbins and Ben Pearman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stivender, of Leesburg, Fla., arrived in Anderson a few days ago to spend a few weeks with relatives. Mrs. Stivender, nee Miss Minerva Drake, is a native of this County, and her visit will be a source of much pleasure to her many friends.

Mrs. Mary A. Murrah, of this city, left yesterday for Texas, where she will spend several weeks visiting her brother, A. O. Norris, at Graham, and brother-in-law, Thos. Murrah, at Austin. We join her many friends in wishing her a pleasant trip and a safe return home.

Last Monday Mrs. L. P. Smith, of this city, received a telegram announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. M. G. Roberts, at her home in Ninety Six, and went down there that evening to attend the funeral. Mrs. Smith's many friends deeply sympathize with her in her sore bereavement.

Children's Day will be observed at Fairview Church, in Brushy Creek township, next Saturday, 14th inst., beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. The public is invited to come and bring well-filled baskets. Several distinguished speakers have been invited, and the day promises to be a most pleasant one.

The Columbia State of 10th inst., says: "The Governor yesterday reduced to a fine of $50 the sentence of $100 fine or three months on the gang imposed on A. D. Patterson convicted in Anderson County of the violation of the dispensary law. The commutation was properly recommended and the fine will be paid if it is paid."

Col. J. S. Newman, of the Clemson College faculty, will address the farmers of Cerceville Township at the Hunter's spring school house next Saturday, 10th inst., at 11 o'clock a. m. His subject will be "the best plan of crop rotation with a view of soil improvement." All the farmers are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

There were thirteen applications for the two scholarships offered in this County by Winthrop College. The scholarships are worth about one hundred dollars each. County Superintendent Nicholson held the examination at the Court House last Friday, and the papers have been forwarded to the College. It will be several weeks before the names of the successful contestants are known.

Among the many candidates in the city last Friday was our clever friend, Col. John T. Sloan, of Columbia, who is in the race for Lieutenant-Governor. Col. Sloan is a native of this County, and spent his boyhood days in this city. He is a safe man, a man of achievements and attainments who would fill the office with eminent satisfaction to the people. Anderson County should and must give him a big vote.

At the regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners last week, Perry F. King, the clever and efficient Superintendent of the County Home, tendered his resignation, to take effect 1st November next. Mr. King has filled this position for about twelve years, and the County has never had an official who discharged his duties more efficiently or one who was more highly esteemed by the unfortunate inmates of the Home. In the future he will devote his whole time to his farm.

Dr. G. F. Wenick, a worthy and highly esteemed citizen of Piedmont, died in that town on Saturday, 12th inst. He was a native of Austria and served in the Franco-Prussian war. Immediately after that war he came to the United States and entered the South Carolina Medical College, from which he graduated with honors. He leaves a devoted wife, one son and one daughter to cherish his memory.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anderson Fertilizer Co. was held last Thursday, and the report of the officers showed the affairs of the Company to be in a most satisfactory condition. All of the old officers were re-elected, as follows: President, F. G. Brown; Secretary, Chas. C. Gambrell; Superintendent Chemical Department, F. A. Burbridge; General Superintendent, G. B. Townsend; Directors, F. J. Pelzer and Augustine T. Smyth, Charleston; E. A. Smyth, Pelzer; Thos. B. Paine, Atlanta; J. A. Ledbetter, W. F. Cox, F. G. Brown, B. F. Mauldin, J. A. Brock, Anderson.

The Anderson papers announce that Lea G. Holleman is nominated for Alderman from Ward 5 in that city. Mr. Holleman is a young man of ability, thoroughly conscientious in all his transactions, and Anderson could not find a young man better fitted to have a voice in her municipal government. Mr. Holleman is a former Walhalla boy, and in commending him we know whereof we speak.—Keewee Courier.

The Spartanburg Herald, of the 11th inst., says: Yesterday morning about 9 o'clock Sam, the fourteen-year-old son of Chief J. R. Fant, of the constabulary force, while holding in his hand a small rifle, accidentally shot himself. He was attempting to get over a fence, and in some manner the weapon was discharged, the ball entering his left hand between the first and second fingers, ranging upward slantingly. The wound was a painful, but not serious one.

The Farmers' Institute will be held at Clemson College, beginning Monday, August 11th proximo, and lasting several days. The Institute is designed specially for the benefit of farmers, and all who can attend will find it to their advantage in an agricultural point of view to do so, to say nothing of the social pleasures of such annual reunions. All the Railroads will give reduced rates, while board at Clemson can be obtained at a very reasonable charge.

Our venerable friend, Mr. Sanford Hall, will celebrate the 80th anniversary of his birthday on Tuesday, 23rd, at his home in Varennes Township. His children, grandchildren and other relatives and many friends will congregate at his home that day and partake of dinner with him. Anderson County never produced a better or more upright citizen than Mr. Hall. We extend him our congratulations, and wish him many more years of health and happiness.

Rev. O. J. Copeland, who conducted a series of meetings in Pickens several months ago, completed a series of ten days meeting in Easley last Sunday night. Rev. Copeland's reputation as a fine preacher had preceded him to Easley, and as a consequence his congregations were great, even full to overflowing the church house at each and every meeting. Mr. Copeland is an earnest and eloquent disciple in the Master's Vineyard and much good is done wherever he goes. A number of Pickens people who heard him while he was here went to Easley Sunday night to listen to him.—Pickens Sentinel.

The many friends of Wm. W. Robinson, the jovial baggage master of the C. & G. Railroad will be pleased to know that he has decided to locate in Anderson to re-engage in the mercantile business. He has just purchased an interest in the business of Dean & Ratliff, and will move his family here in a few weeks. Mr. Robinson is not a novice in the mercantile world but has a record of a successful career in that line that entitles him to a position in the front ranks of Anderson's merchant princes, a position which he will sustain with credit to himself and with profit to his firm. The new firm has our best wishes for a continuation of its deservedly phenomenal success.

There was a meeting of the City Council Saturday last to again hear from the telephone people, but nothing was accomplished beyond adding Alderman Ligon to the committee previously appointed from Council to confer with the representatives of the two companies. An ordinance is wanted by the two companies which will enable them to close a contract between them, the terms of which will give a much better service in the city and the benefit of the long distance connection throughout the country. The price sought to be made for the service is $20 per year for residences and $40 per year for business houses, together with a charge of 10 cents for out-of-town messages. Council declined to agree to this and asked them to bring in a better proposition.

The Williamston News, of the 11th inst., says: "We exceedingly regret to chronicle the death of our aged friend, A. J. Hall. He departed this life at 7 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, just as the sun went down." Uncle Ab, as he was familiarly called, was sick for a little over two weeks with consumption. He died at the home of his son-in-law, J. H. Holliday. He was a life-long member of the Baptist Church, a consistent Christian, was prepared for the monster and ready to meet death. He was a Confederate soldier and served as a private during the Civil War. His remains were interred in the Cemetery here Wednesday evening." Mr. Hall was born and reared in the Storeville section of this County, and lived there until several years ago, when he went to Williamston to live with his daughter. Besides this daughter he leaves one son, who lives in Texas. He has many relatives and old friends in the County who will regret to hear of his death.

A meeting of Confederate Veterans was held in the Court House last Friday afternoon and was addressed by Hon. N. W. Brooker, of Columbia, who came here with the State campaign party. Mr. Brooker explained the object of the Confederate Relief Association, which was recently organized in Columbia, and said that a wealthy Southern lady, now living in the North, had given $70,000 to the indigent Veterans residing in the old Confederate States. Of this sum $7,000 would be South Carolina's share, which would be given only to those Veterans who are helpless and have no home of their own. He also spoke of the proposed Home for Veterans to be erected in Columbia for the benefit of those who have no one to care or provide for them. At the conclusion of Mr. Brooker's address, Messrs. J. J. Gilmer, J. N. Vandiver and W. T. W. Harrison were appointed a committee to represent the Association in Anderson County.
