Featherweight

Neglige... SHIRTS!

To keep cool these hot July days is to wear the lightest weight apparel. That's why I suggest these Featherweight Neglige Shirts.

COOL!

How could they be otherwise, made from the lightest weight possible Madras and Percale. There's no occasion to be surprised at the excellent values I give at—$1.00.

I am determined to do the Shirt business of Anderson, and that explains it. Ask to see my—

During the past week nearly every section has been visited by good rains.

Watermelons and cantaloupes are getting to be more plentiful and cheaper.

Capt. J. C. Marshall and family, of Columbia, are in the city to spend a few days.

E. G. McAdams, Esq., returned to the city yesterday from a short trip to the mountains.

J. S. Lee, of Birmingham, Ala., is in the city visiting his brother, Policeman W. C. Lee.

A. H. Agnew, of Greenville, has come to Anderson to engage in the brokerage business.

The ladies especially should read carefully the new advertisement of Julius H. Weil & Co.

W. H. and L. F. Carpenter offer some valuable real estate, near this city, for sale. See advertisement.

Don't make it a habit to lend your paper. You might want it sometime when it's away from home.

The boll worm is reported to be doing some damage to the cotton in several sections of this County.

Attention is directed to the new advertisement of Lesser & Co., who are offering summer goods at cost.

The new advertisement of Osborne & Pearson will interest you if you contemplate buying a pair of shoes.

"Mine host" Dicken, of the Hotel Chiquola, went to his old home in Virginia last Friday to spend a few days.

Lee G. Holleman, who has been on the sick list for a week or more, has gone up to Walhalla to visit his parents.

Our young townman, Max. Crayton, who has been sick several weeks with fever, is able to beat his place of business again.

Mrs. Frank Bellinger, accompanied by her little son, of Jackson, Miss., is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Prevost.

J. F. W. Stelling, of Coneross, Oconee County, offers some fine land for sale. Read his advertisement in another column.

L. P. Smith's excursion to Tallulah Falls last Thursday carried a large crowd of passengers, who spent a most delightful day.

Dr. H. A. Ligon, of Spartanburg, has been spending a few days in the city, and was warmly welcomed by his many old friends.

A camp meeting will begin at Iva next Friday, 25th inst. The services will be conducted by Rev. N. J. Holmes, of Atlanta.

The new advertisement of G. H. Bailes & Co. will tell you of the many bargains they are offering to the public. Read it carefully.

Rev. R. H. Burriss, of Boykin, Va., is visiting his old home, relatives and friends in this County, all of whom are delighted to greet him.

The Anderson Rifles have accepted an invitation to visit Greenville during the Confederate Veterans' Reunion there week after next.

Mrs. Elizabeth Todd has gone to Lenoir, N. C., where she will spend a few weeks visiting her son, A. N. Todd, formerly of Anderson.

In their new advertisement this week B. O. Evans & Co. announce some more bargains for the male sex, who should not fail to read it.

The many friends of Gen. M. L. Echnem are delighted to know that he continues to improve, slowly but surely, from his recent severe illness.

The following candidates are announced this week: E. T. Tolleson for the House of Representatives, and E. W. Long for Judge of Probate.

We have plenty of room for more candidates. Remember it is better late than never, and that the longest pole knocks down the persimmon.

The Saluda Baptist Association will convene in its annual session at Mountain Creek Church, in Varennes Township, next Tuesday, 29th inst.

The first katydid was heard a few nights ago. According to that old time sign the first frost may be expected about the middle of October.

J. R. Peden, editor of the Carolina Odd Fellow, spent a day or two in Anderson last week in the interest of his paper, and was a welcome visitor to our sanctum.

You will find the new adv. of Moore, Acker & Co. very interesting reading. If you are interested in getting seasonable merchandise at cut prices don't fail to read it.

All persons interested in the grave yard at Neal's Creek Church are requested to meet there at an early hour to-morrow morning for the purpose of cleaning it out.

Mrs. H. A. Ligon, accompanied by her two sons, of Spartanburg, came to Anderson last week to visit her sisters, Mrs. J. A. Brock, Mrs. B. F. Mauldip and other relatives.

Bryan thought the greatest trial of a woman's beauty was in eating a soft-boiled egg from the shell with a knife. He never saw an Anderson girl hanging by the teeth to a boiling hot ear of corn.

Rev. O. J. Copeland is conducting a series of meetings at Hopewell Church this week. Services are held both morning and evening, and much interest is being manifested.

Mrs. C. F. Jones returned home a few days ago from Baltimore, where she has been under treatment for several weeks. She is still confined to her room, but is slowly improving.

Last Monday afternoon a cabin near the Presbyterian Churchyard was struck by lightning and badly damaged. The occupants, a negro family, were badly frightened but not hurt.

The city primary election for the nomination of Mayor and Aldermen takes place next Friday, 23th inst. Every Democrat within the city limits should go and vote for the men of his choice.

Miss May Thompson, of Anderson, is in the city with her brothers of the Electric Light and Power Company. She is a daughter of J. W. Thompson, and an attractive young woman.—Abbeville Medium.

H. T. Hayes, formerly of this city, who has been merchandising at Greenwood for several years, has decided to return to Anderson, and will occupy a store room in the Broyles block, on South Main street.

R. T. Thornton, the popular and efficient ticket agent at the union depot, has resigned, and will move to Easley, where he will engage in merchandising. Wm. M. Archer has been appointed to succeed Mr. Thornton.

John J. Norris, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, went up to Victoria, N. C., last week. Mr. Norris will return home this week, but Mrs. Norris will spend several weeks up there with her parents.

Every young man who has become of age since the last primary election should have his name enrolled on a Democratic Club list. This will be necessary before you can vote in the approaching primary election.

Dr. S. G. Bruce, of Anderson, was in Walhalla Monday shaking hands with his many old friends of Oconee. His wife and children came with him and will visit her father, Mr. W. W. Hunicutt for several days.—Oconee News.

The Rock Hill Herald, of the 19th inst., says: "Mr. Sidney Adams left Wednesday night for Anderson, where he goes to assume the place of cashier of the Blue Ridge Railroad. Sid is a most worthy young man and his success as a railroad man is already assured."

Mrs. Mattie Hall, formerly Miss Mattie Keys, daughter of the late Robert Keys, of this County, and now living near Dalton, Ga., arrived in Anderson last Friday on a visit to her old home. Mrs. Hall has a host of relatives and friends in this vicinity who are glad to greet her.

L. P. Smith, the popular excursionist, has arranged to run an excursion from Anderson to Augusta, Ga., on Thursday, July 31st, at the low rate of $1.50 for the round trip. The train will leave Anderson at 7 o'clock a. m., and, returning, will leave Augusta that night at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Martha A. Greer died Sunday at the home of her son, Golden Greer, three miles west of this place. She was about 88 years old and for many years had been a consistent member of the Barker's Creek Church. She was buried at Barker's Creek Cemetery on Monday, Rev. M. McGee conducting the funeral services.—Honea Path Chronicle.

A list of those who secured a part of the fund allowed disabled Confederate soldiers to buy artificial limbs has been made out by the Comptroller General. There are about eighty of them in the State. The following names appear in the list from Anderson County: W. L. Bolt, J. F. Callahan, W. H. Acker, D. N. Major, C. A. Reed, John T. Ashley and A. C. McGee.

Nearly every week we receive one or more communications without the signature of the author, and, of course, they are consigned to the waste basket. It is the established rule of all reliable newspapers not to publish any communication, unless the name of the author is signed to it. We hope our friends will bear this in mind when they send any article to The Intelligencer for publication.

At Anderson the campaign meeting was opened with prayer by a preacher who prayed that only "truthful and God-fearing men be elected to office," and Jim Tillman had the monumental assurance to say that he was willing to be measured by that standard. It would take a microscope of the greatest magnifying power to find any of him to measure according to that standard.—Columbia Record.

County Superintendent Nicholson has been notified by the Presidents of the Sumter Female Seminary and the Sumter Military Institute that one scholarship in each of the institutions has been awarded to each County in this State. The scholarships are valued at $40 each. If any young lady and young man in this County desire these scholarships they should call on Superintendent Nicholson at once.

The Postmaster General has issued an order providing that after October 1, 1902, each person desiring rural free delivery service must erect at his own cost and on the roadside so that carriers may have convenient access to it, a mail box conforming with the orders of the department. The same box must not be used for more than one family, and officers of the postoffice department are prohibited from becoming agents for free delivery boxes.

The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Evening Post speaks as follows of an Anderson County boy: "Among the clerks selected for the permanent census bureau is Mr. S. D. Pearman, of South Carolina, who has been in Washington for about two years. Mr. Pearman is one of the most efficient clerks in the bureau, and has a high record. He is a graduate of Clemson College, S. C., and is highly regarded by his superiors and associates."

Last Friday afternoon Master Gourdin Allen, a son of Capt. John E. Allen, of Barnwell, S. C., who is in the city visiting his aunts, Mrs. M. L. Bonham and Mrs. S. M. Orr, had a narrow escape from a fatal accident. Accompanied by two boy companions, he started to go hunting. One of the boys carried a .22-calibre rifle, which was accidentally discharged, the ball entering Gourdin's thigh, inflicting a painful wound. Drs. Gray and Sanders dressed the wound, and it is hoped the little fellow will soon be out again.

W. A. Neal, Jr., of the census office, Washington, D. C., and formerly of this County, is now in this State taking the preliminary steps for securing statistics in regard to cotton ginning, as the census bureau is trying to ascertain the total number of bales ginned in each State. Mr. Neal is searching for this information in South Carolina, and a man will be appointed in each County to assist him. This is an important work, in which all gingers ought to co-operate heartily, as it will give accurate information about the cotton crop.

Clerk of Court Watkins has received blanks and books looking to the complete enrollment of the names, commands, etc. of all Confederate soldiers. There is a book for each Township, which is to be in charge of an enrollment committee of three or four veterans in each Township, and also a County Enrollment Book, into which the Township enrollments are to be transcribed, and which will remain a permanent memorial in the Clerk's office. On another page of The Intelligencer we publish a condensed statement of the law passed by the Legislature in reference to the matter.

Mrs. Minnie McClelland, wife of Mr. James A. McClelland, died at her home in Centerville Township last Friday, after an illness of several months with consumption. Mrs. McClelland was a daughter of the late James Moorehead and was 44 years of age. She had been a devoted member of the Baptist Church for many years, and was a most excellent Christian woman. Besides a devoted husband and four children, she leaves many friends and relatives to cherish her memory. On Saturday the remains were interred in the Concord Churchyard, Rev. J. B. Herron conducting the funeral services.

Senator Tillman announces that a competitive examination will be held in Columbia on the 28th instant for the purpose of selecting six young men of this State who will be entitled to compete at a civil service examination for a cadetship at Annapolis. The applicants must be white residents of South Carolina, between the ages of 15 and 20 years. Character will count as well as marks received at examination. No student who has been expelled from college will be permitted to enter the contest. Here is a fine opportunity for some bright boy of Anderson County to win a valuable scholarship.

Last Friday night, near the depot in Williamston, the southbound train struck Floyd Rucker, a negro, about 25 years old, cutting a deep gash in his head and breaking his right arm in several places. Rucker was asleep on the track and the rumbling noise of the approaching train failed to arouse him in time to escape the force of the lick from the edge of the pilot, which hurled his body some distance down the embankment. The train was stopped as soon as possible, and the trainmen picked up the negro and carried him back to the depot, leaving him in charge of Agent Willis. Drs. Wilson and Ransom were immediately summoned and gave the unfortunate negro all the relief possible. On Saturday morning Rucker was brought to his home in this city, and he is doing as well as possible.

Julius Poppe is dead! The wonderful vitality that sustained him in the battle with death for fully twenty days after it seemed every hour would be his last, succumbed at last to the grim monster, death, and his spirit took its flight just before day Saturday morning. He suffered very little pain and at the last fell asleep as peacefully as a child. The deceased was 84 years old and a native of Germany, where he was identified with the republican movement directed against monarchical government and which reached the dignity of a revolution. In 1848 this revolution was crushed and the deceased, with many others, was forced to abandon his native land. He came to America and finally located in Columbia where he met and married Miss Alice Peers, who survives him. He moved to Anderson many years ago and was engaged in various branches of business and in all won the confidence of the people. He did service in the Confederate Army, was a good citizen and had a host of friends. The wife only survives, no children were born to them, and the deceased has no relatives in this country. The funeral took place at the residence Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. B. M. Anderson, and the interment was at Silver Brook Cemetery.
