Candidates have to stop every now and again in their work of organizing their forces in order to nail some campaign lie.

The Cotton States Association of the Commissioners of Agriculture gave their estimate on Friday of the cotton crop as 9,713,394.

The first primary election is over, and many good men have been disappointed, while perhaps some not as good have been successful.

The United States Court of Appeals has decided that a Federal Judge can imprison a County Judge for contempt for failing to carry out the orders of the Federal Court.

Census figures show that the emigration of negroes to the North is steadily increasing, and the opossum goes before him as the bee preceded the white man in earlier years.

It is now announced that Gen. Miles will go to the Philippines, a thing he has been wanting to do for so long.

Texas has been more successful in dealing with trusts than any other State in the Union, and it is not on record that it has tended to drive away capital.

The Edgefield Advertiser, after the election returns are recorded, makes this home thrust at one of its fellow-citizens: "It is probable that Colonel James H. Tillman will preserve as a priceless heritage for his posterity and for perusal during his declining years the exposure of his character and biography as written by the daily and weekly press of the State? Nay, verily."

The Board of Trustees of Clemson College met at Clemson last Saturday and unanimously elected Prof. P. H. Mell, of Auburn, Ala., President of the college.

The autumn business campaign promises to open up with bright prospects. Cheering news of abundant food and forage crops comes from all over the country.

Republican protestations of hostility to the trusts, voiced under a panicky apprehension of defeat in the approaching Congressional elections, have no effect on the popular mind at this late day.

Much of the charity that begins at home is too weak to travel.

There has never been a time, in all probability, when so many people of all ages, sexes and conditions have become self-destroyers! It is an every-day chronicle—very rarely an omission from each day's happenings.

The gentlemen hereinafter named have been appointed and are requested to serve as Township committees of veterans, viz: Anderson—J. P. Sullivan, W. A. Fant, Joe B. McGee.

Enrolling the Veterans. The gentlemen hereinafter named have been appointed and are requested to serve as Township committees of veterans, viz: Anderson—J. P. Sullivan, W. A. Fant, Joe B. McGee.

No provision has been made for compensation for those who perform this service, but it is reasonably and confidently hoped that those who have been appointed will cheerfully render the service required, and it is also hoped that every native born resident of every neighborhood will deem it a privilege and pleasant duty to render the Township committees prompt and zealous aid in the enrollment of the names of their fathers, brothers, sons, husbands and neighbors who served in the army or navy of the Confederate States.

Court Stenographer L. L. Motte has returned from Boston, where he attended the annual meeting of the National Shorthand Reporters' Association. The association took notice of the death of James D. Campbell, who was its secretary and treasurer and one of its principal organizers, by holding a memorial service in honor of his memory in Faneuil Hall.

Senator George Frisbie Hoar of Massachusetts celebrated his 76th birthday on Friday. One life and $100,000 were lost as the result of a theatre fire in Bay City, Mich., on Thursday night. Two mine guards and two strikers were killed in a fight at Cane Creek colliery, Mercer county, W. Va., on Thursday. The revolution in Venezuela is spreading. Five hundred government troops have deserted to the revolutionists. The skillful hunter is not a theorist but a man of practical aims. To be found in bad company is often equivalent to being lost.

Thanks His Friends. Honea Path, S. C., Aug. 30. Mr. Editor: I desire a small space in your columns to express my thanks to the people of Anderson County for the support they have given me for the last ten years.
