One Negro Kills Another.

A homicide having, apparently, all the elements of deliberate murder, occurred almost in the very center of Anderson early Saturday night last.

Immediately back of the stand pipe, which is located on McDuffie street, there is a house which is some distance from an area light and produces at night a dense shade. Here the negro Robinson secreted himself, and with gun in hand awaited Parks, whom he evidently knew would pass that way returning from the home of the woman.

Monday afternoon this reporter saw Robinson in his cell at the jail and endeavored to get him to make a statement, but he either did not want to talk or could not talk. He appeared excited and frightened, biting his lips in his effort to keep from trembling.

Parks was well known in the city and did not have an enviable reputation. He was of strong, athletic build, "mothy" and quarrelsome with his own race. Robinson was a stranger here, comparatively, but pretty well known in police circles for offenses.

Land Sales. The land sales Monday were as follows: Maggie E. Shirley, assignee of Elizabeth Major, who was assignee of J. J. Major, plain No. 139 acres in Moneta Park township, on waters of Barkley Creek, bid off by J. J. Major for $1,905.

Under order of sale in case of Amanda C. Dickenson against Benjamin I. Dickenson, Andrew C. Dickenson et al., two tracts, 624 acres, on waters of Big Beaverdam Creek, adjoining lands of J. R. Guyton, bid off by J. R. Guyton, estate of E. A. Major et al., No. 1, off bid by Col. J. N. Brown for $8,000.

Taxable Values of Property.

The following exhibit of the assessed value of real and personal property in Anderson County is kindly furnished us by Auditor Boleman, showing the different objects that are taxed under personal property. One of the striking features is that there are only 400 sheep and goats returned for taxation, while there are 2,546 dogs, with probably several thousand others running at large. The facts are otherwise interesting, as will be seen on examination:

Table with 2 columns: Number and Value. Items include horses, cattle, sheep and goats, hogs, watches, musical instruments, dogs, land, buildings, manufacturing, machinery, notes and money, household and other property, bank returns, insurance companies, railroad property.

Total $1,200,000. Real Estate $501,119. Grand total property $898,881.

There is to be added to the above $25,000, arising from poll tax. The tax levy is 12 mills, which will create a fund of $108,320.45.

The special school tax, outside of the city of Anderson, is only $1,519.95. The total amount of taxes to be collected will aggregate $216,290.40.

There will be a number of additional returns, which will probably increase the total value of all property to $9,000,000. However, the above figures show a considerable increase over those of last year.

Denver Dots.

Denver High School opened on the 3rd with Prof. W. E. Chapman, of Greeley, as Principal and Miss Mary Chapman, of Anderson, Assistant. Denver extends a warm welcome to these young teachers, who come to us highly recommended as a lady and a gentleman of noble characters and well qualified for their work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McElroy and Mr. John Garrison attended the State Fair in Columbia last week. The church at welcome was delighted to greet and have a good sermon last Sunday from their beloved Pastor of former years, Rev. Mike McGee. But they were sorry, indeed, to see him so feeble. Many prayers will be offered for his restoration to health.

Floyd Blackmon, of Danburg, Ga., is visiting J. W. Rothrock's family and other friends here. Cadet Will Garrison, of the Clemson Foot Ball Team, stopped off at home for a few days on his return from the State Fair.

The young people of this vicinity were entertained with a sociable and a candy pulling at John Jolly's on the 25th ult. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hillhouse, of Portman, were in Denver on business last Tuesday.

The house of William Douglass, a colored man living on Robert Russell's place, was destroyed by fire last Saturday night. It caught from a torch carried by small children into a room where was stored about two bales of seed cotton. The man himself was burned, and his wife and child, and not succeeded in saving much of their household goods.

A light frost here for several mornings nipped the cotton leaves and potato vines badly. As a consequence the sweet potato crop has generally been harvested, and it is very fine. It is said that sweet potatoes fill the bin for "meat and bread" and a lot of old clothes. That is, the children won't need so many clothes while hovering over the fire roasting them in the ash-pan, therefore it pays to raise a good crop of potatoes.

The Missionary Rally at Sandy Springs last Sunday afternoon was largely attended, the congregation filling the Church. The exercises were good, and were supplemented by fine addresses from the Pastor, Rev. J. E. Beard, and Presiding Elder J. B. Wilson. The Presiding Elder is much beloved by his people, and they regret very much that this is his last year among them, according to Methodist rules. The Pastor, Rev. J. E. Beard, is popular, too, and the Methodists of Pendleton Circuit hope that Conference will see fit to return him to this Charge for another year.

Incognita. Lola Hoppings. Lee McClellan, of Columbia, spent last week with his uncle, John Holder. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Wilson, of Oconee County, have been visiting in our midst.

Mrs. Rosa Green joined her husband in Greenville, where they will make their future home. We highly recommend them to the citizens of Greenville. Adolphus Holder fell from a wagon and got very badly hurt. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Watkins, of Six and Twenty, visited the family of J. Holder.

A sad death occurred in our midst. God thought it best to take our little friend, Anna Campbell, home with Him and His angels on October 25th, and the remains were laid to rest on the day following at Mt. Zion, where a crowd of friends and loved ones were gathered to comfort and console the bereaved parents. Anna was the sweetest little girl we ever saw. She always loved to go to Sunday School and loved her teacher. She was always singing, and loved every one and every one loved her. She was so kind and pure, and died so happy. One good consolation the parents have is that she is a white robed angel singing around the throne of God. This writer knew Anna as a beautiful little flower and now she is folded close to the Saviour's breast. May God comfort and console the parents and two little sisters.

A Maiden. A Card of Thanks. Mr. Editor: Please allow us space in your paper to thank our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the sickness and death of our little darling, Anna. May God bless and reward each and every one of them.

J. T. Campbell and Wife.

Lowndesville Items.

Dr. A. H. Mument closed the meeting in the Presbyterian Church last Tuesday night, and it is hoped much good has been done.

Mr. H. McMillan and wife reached here Friday from New York. He will supply Good Hope and Providence Churches during the absence of Rev. I. E. Wallace. Yesterday he preached a very able sermon here. He and his wife are cordially welcomed to our town.

Lloyd Moorehead and bride arrived here Saturday from Portsmouth, Ohio. He was married Wednesday night at 8 o'clock to Miss Daisy Williams, a popular young lady of that city. Mr. Moorehead is the oldest son of Mrs. Annie E. Moorehead, of our town, and has held a position as telegraph operator in Portsmouth for several years. He has accepted a similar position in Columbia, and left yesterday to begin work.

Miss Ethel Spoor entertained her friends last Friday night in honor of Miss Eula Fortson, who is visiting there. Dainty refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Frances Calhoun, the popular teacher at Lattin, spent Saturday and yesterday with Miss Annie Liddell. Miss Nora Jones, of Texas, is visiting the family of Hon. Isaac McCalla. Mrs. H. C. Fenell left a few days ago for Augusta to be at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Tennant, who is dangerously ill.

Mrs. Callie Thompson left yesterday for her home in Williamston, after a visit of several weeks to relatives. Mrs. Nettie Pressley, of Atlanta, has been in town the past week visiting her mother and sister. She left this morning for her home. Vedie. November 3.

Mt. Spring Dots.

We worshipped at Mt. Spring Baptist Church Sunday and heard a very forcible and impressive sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. I. Spearman. He has been called to the Church for another year. This is his tenth year at Mt. Spring, so it speaks well of the pastor and his people.

Mr. Roper, of Laurens, visited in this section Sunday. Seems that there is some attractions for him here. Miss Lillie Murphy is attending the graded school at Easley. Miss Sallie Holder, of Easley, visited her sister, Mrs. H. R. Jones, last Saturday.

H. R. Jones and Edward King visited the Electric City last week. Prof. Gentry will soon open his school at Mt. Spring Academy. Well, the Fair is over. I think this section was represented by one or two at the Fair.

The thankful giving turkey is strutting around very high. The people can be very glad this year, for they have a bountiful harvest, and "hog and hominy" plentiful. Corn husking is the order of the day now, we attended one at J. Murphy's last week. How did we relish that old fashion "chicken pie," made in an oven four feet in circumference.

"Bud" Irby called on his best girl Sunday. With a new Governor, new Superintendent of Education and new Legislature we will watch the country with interest. E. L. J.

If we could see ourselves as others see us mirrors would be a drug on the market. Some women are so modest that they won't even own up to the size of their faults. Thieves' taking ways leaves little to be desired. A painful duty is best performed by a substitute. If a man is inclined to be foolish a silk hat won't save him.

ANY CHURCH or parsonage or institution supported by voluntary contribution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paints whenever they paint. NOTE—This has been our custom for twenty-seven years; any building not ash-ash, if properly painted will be repainted at our expense "out one gallon of paint." Oil to be added to every gallon of the paint to make ready for use; it's mixed in two minutes, and the cost of the paint thereby reduced to about $1.30 per gallon. Yearly product over one million gallons. Apply to any of our agents, always the best merchant in every city and town in the United States.

Longman & Martinez. Sole Agents, F. B. Grayson & Co., Anderson, H. Osborne & Haynie, Baltou. Don't. Imagine that all Flours are alike. There is a difference, a big difference. So much depends upon having pure, white and nutritious Flour that the subject is worthy your careful investigation and consideration.

You will be better satisfied in selecting "Clifton" flour, a fact that everyone who knows anything about Flour will tell you. In purity, whiteness and quality, "Clifton" Flour is far ahead of all other Flour. Don't imagine that because "Clifton" Flour is a high grade Flour that the price is high, because the price is low, in fact it is the lowest price for the best Flour in the market. Cheap Flour is cheap at any price, but "Clifton" is the very best that you can buy.

SUCCESS. Crowned our efforts to make LAST MONTHS the Biggest October Sales of this Store. WE TALKED— Clothing, Shoes, Dry Goods, Millinery.

In plain, straight-forward, earnest manner. We put all the effort at our command in backing up our advertisement. The success of last month is making us take hold of November business with unusual vim and vigor, and we have shoved off the first few days far ahead of anything known to us before.

This Store has a tremendous Stock of Goods to dispose of. It will be to the interest of all buyers of Dry Goods, Shoes, Millinery, Clothing and Gents' Furnishings to decide on making their bill with us.

The $5, $7.50, $10, as well as the $15 and $20 Suits, scored a great hit in the Clothing side this October.

Whilst we didn't quite do as much business in October as we have formerly done in the early Fall, we come close on to the margin line. We have a plenty of Clothing left, and are more determined than ever to push it forward in November.

We always sell Dry Goods largely, but we want to increase this, also. You can't afford to miss our Ladies' and Misses' Jackets. The hundred and fifty White Bed Spreads that we offer at a special sale.

The wonderful selection of Dress Goods that can be had from our great Stock. Ladies' and Misses' Underwear, from the cheapest to the fine all wool.

Our Millinery. Is full of the newest and latest creations in Hats and Trimmings, and it is a perfect bee hive—busy selling, making and sending out Hats. You cannot afford to miss visiting this department. Like to see you whether you want to buy or not. Then we are loaded to the muzzle—

On Shoes, For men, women and children. We restate, it is not a question of what we want to do, but what we must do in selling Shoes. We will make it to your interest to see us. You come and see our Shoes. We make the prices and the Stock will do the rest. We are so determined that this shall be a great Shoe month that we feel that success is ours. We could give some enticing prices on paper, but you can tell nothing about them until you see for yourself.

We want your business on plain business propositions, full value for your money. We want to sell you again, and cannot afford to do otherwise.

It is not our purpose to blow or brag, but we think it nothing but justice to express to our friends who made October so great our sincere appreciation of every cent spent with us.

From now till the holidays we want to see every one that comes to our beautiful city come our way. We urge our Wholesale friends to see us. Let every one take notice that your dollar will yield a powerful influence in this big Stock. We were never more in earnest. We give a cordial invitation for you to come and do your business. We will try hard to make it to our mutual interest.
