

Spring Approaching!

These bright, lovely days cheer the people up. THE FARMERS naturally think of preparing for a crop. One thought uppermost in their minds is—

WHERE SHALL I BUY MY SUPPLIES?

We will assist in answering this question, if they will allow us to show our Goods and quote our prices. It is well known that we carry the largest and best selected Stock of

General Merchandise

In this city. Just now we are pushing

Groceries and Farm Supplies

With all our might.

We have a Tremendous Stock of Flour.

Can furnish you almost any grade, from the lowest to the highest.

We have never before offered such a Stock of—

Molasses.

Varied in grade and price.

We are making a Specialty of—

Tobacco.

Agents for N. D. Sullivan's Tobaccos—the best known and most popular Tobaccos ever offered the people. Sullivan's Our Own, Sullivan's No. 1, Sullivan's T. C. D., Sullivan's Free and Easy are household brands.

Bailey Bros. Rock and Eye, Zoe, Big Whistle, Chopps, Penn's No. 1, Harvey's Natural Leaf and Rich and Ripe, are possibly as well and favorably known.

Our Dry Goods Stock is Up-to-Date.

We insist upon the people looking to their interests by TRADING WITH US.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON.

MEN'S WEAR!

CLOTHING

THAT TIME PRONOUNCES BEST!

It isn't for to-day, to-morrow or next week that you buy Suit of Clothes. Clothes are bought to serve—the longer the better.

The better the Clothes the better they serve, and the better they look, even to the last day.

You can't get service or appearance out of poor workmanship. A thrown-together, pressed-up Suit may look all right for a week; then comes the time of kicks and dissatisfaction.

Peck's Clothing,

for which we have secured the agency, is made to serve long and well; to keep its shape; to look dressy as long as you want to wear it.

That's the kind of Clothing it pays to buy.

IT'S MADE RIGHT.

It's almost an investment to buy it, for a long-wearing suit pays you back more than its cost.

Wallace S. Norris, of Jackson, Ga., who visited here last week, has accepted a position with the Anderson Cotton Mills and will move his family to this city.

The "yaller dog" is safe again. The bill to tax him 90 cents for the privilege of living in South Carolina was killed in the closing hours of the recent session of the Legislature.

President Snyder, of Wofford College, will deliver one of his interesting Shakespeare lectures in this city on Friday evening, 13th inst., under the auspices of St. John Club.

Despite the fact that it was generally supposed that the cotton had practically been all marketed, the recent rise in the price of cotton has brought to light a considerable amount.

Two bales of cotton were discovered to be on fire at the cotton platform last Thursday. The alarm was sounded, but the fire was extinguished before the firemen reached the platform. The damage was slight.

Presiding Elder R. A. Child preached a powerful sermon to a full house at the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon. This was his first sermon here since his appointment as Presiding Elder in this district. Mr. Child is a real orator, a powerful exponent of the Word. He is well known here having practiced law here years ago, and his friends are delighted that he is assigned to this district.—Pickens Journal.

Married, on Tuesday, March 3rd, 1903, by J. A. Hall, Notary Public, at his residence, Mr. Leonard Rhodes and Miss Pallie Prince, both of Anderson County.

If all Solicitors were as expeditious as Julia E. Boggs, who prosecuted 40 cases in five and a half days, convicting in 37 of them, there would be less reason to complain of "congested" Courts.—Newberry Observer.

The Board of Health of Williamston has published a card denying the report that there were several cases of smallpox in that town. They say that there has not been a single case there in the past fifty years.

W. T. Jaynes, a prominent citizen of Oconee County, died very suddenly at his home near Richland on Tuesday, 24th ult. He had many friends in the upper section of this County who will regret to hear of his death.

Rev. W. N. Meade, the rector of Grace Episcopal Church arrived in the city last Saturday and was given a warm welcome by his congregation. On Sunday he conducted services in the Church and preached an able and eloquent sermon.

Our young friend, W. E. Giles, who has been attending a business college at Augusta, Ga., for several months, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a pleasant call. He was on his way to his old home in the Townville section to visit relatives.

Rev. C. M. Howard, of Oldtown, Va., is in Anderson visiting Rev. S. J. Cartledge. He preached in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and in the Central Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, and his sermons were highly enjoyed by his hearers.

Bring your cotton to Anderson. With the prices now prevailing and the trade advantages offered in this city there is no good reason why the cotton seller should not get better returns for his cotton in Anderson than at any other market in this State.

Prof. L. M. Mahaffey requests us to announce that the Starr High School, which has been closed a few weeks on account of the smallpox scare, will open again next Monday, 19th inst. The patrons should bear this in mind and start their children promptly on that day.

Prof. John G. Clinkscales, of Wofford College, will deliver a lecture in the Academy at Townville on Saturday night, 14th inst., for the benefit of the Townville Methodist Church. The price of admission will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Family tickets, $1.00.

Plant more shade trees. Plant them in the streets, on the public grounds and in private gardens. Provide for the future by doing what you may to make your town and home beautiful in the years to come. And nothing so adds to the beauty of a place as plenty of the shade trees.

Judge J. A. Orr, accompanied by his wife, of Columbus, Miss., will arrive in Anderson today on a visit to his nephew, Dr. S. M. Orr. Judge Orr is the youngest brother of the late Gov. Jas. L. Orr and is a native of this County, having moved from here to Mississippi before the war.

Last Saturday night Policeman Martin attempted to arrest three drunken negroes on Greenville street, when one of them pulled his pocket knife and cut him slightly in the head. The officer pulled his pistol and snapped it several times, but it refused to fire. The negroes made their escape.

The Columbia State of last Thursday says: "The governor has issued a requisition upon the Governor of Alabama for J. A. Lindsay, who has been captured in that State and is wanted in Anderson to answer to the charge of forgery. It is charged that Lindsay forged a note on the bank at Pendleton."

Our clever friend, J. M. Dunlap, of Honea Path, was in the city yesterday, and showed us the roll of Confederate Veterans which he and D. R. Greer have arranged for Honea Path. The roll contains 276 names, and gives the record of each man from the first day he entered the Confederate service. It is a valuable historical record of the Veterans of Honea Path Township.

A regular spring civil service examination for all departmental positions will be held on March 30. The examination is for clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers and all other positions except that of railway mail clerks, for which a special examination was held a short time ago. Those who desire to stand examination for any of the positions should make application at once for the necessary blanks to the civil service commissioners at Washington.

The remains of Whit. H. Palmer, who died in Phoenix, Arizona, on Monday, 23rd ult., reached Anderson last Saturday evening. On Sunday afternoon the funeral services were held in St. John Methodist Church and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. B. Kelly, assisted by Rev. E. B. Robertson, at the conclusion of which the remains were laid to rest in Silver Brook cemetery by Willow Camp, Woodmen of the World.

Miss Gracie Murdock died at the home of her father, Mr. Jesse Murdock, in Martin Township, on Feb. 25, after many years of suffering. She had been confined to her bed only about six months. She was 34 years of age, and had been a consistent Church member eight years.

She had a gentle disposition and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones. The remains were interred at Mt. Bethel Church, of which she was a member. Rev. N. G. Wright conducted the funeral services in the presence of a large and sympathizing congregation.

What a mistake Citizen Josh Ashley made last year in running for the Senate, when he might have gone back to the House indefinitely, and maintained his pre-eminence as the champion of the "yaller dog." However, his successor on this line was in evidence, and Senator Dennis won imperishable fame by defeating the "yaller dog" who had been conceded on all sides that the bill was safe beyond peradventure. He defeated the measure on the third reading in the Senate, which is a very unusual occurrence. He is from Berkeley County, which is said to be more sheep than any other county in the State. Citizen Ashley must feel a deep chagrin that he was not there to divide honors with the gentleman from Berkeley.—Greenville Mountineer.

Will Scott, a negro employed at the Anderson Fertilizer Factory, met with a fatal accident last Friday. While at work his clothing caught on a revolving shaft and he was jerked up and whirled over and over a number of times before the machinery could be stopped. Both legs were broken in two places and he was severely bruised all over his body. The doctor who was called to his home and he received every attention possible, but nothing could be done for his relief, and on Saturday night death relieved him of his sufferings.

Joel C. Keys, of Greenville, is spending a few days in Anderson.

J. A. McCullough, Esq., of Greenville, spent yesterday in the city, and applied to Judge Purdy for bail for Gillian Wilbanks, the boy who killed Tom Watson in that city last Saturday night. The bail was granted and the bond fixed at $200.

At the Greenville District Missionary Institute recently held at Belton it was decided to publish a monthly paper to be called The Missioner. It is to be devoted to the cause of missions and general church work in the district. Rev. H. A. Child and Rev. M. B. Kelly, of this city will be the editors.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock the dwelling house and nearly all of its contents of W. A. G. McWhorter, near Denver, in Pendleton Township, was destroyed by fire, caused by a defective stove flue. The house was a substantial two-story structure, with eight rooms, and was insured in the Anderson Mutual Insurance Company for $1,000, which will not near cover the loss.

The many friends of Edgar Donald, who was seriously injured last week during the cyclone, will be delighted to learn that his condition is now considered very favorable. While he is not yet out of danger, no unfavorable symptoms have developed and his chances of recovery are very good. It will be a long time, however, before he will be able to leave his room. A. C. Stone, the other young man injured in the wreck, is rapidly recovering.—Honea Path Chronicle.

The Court of Common Pleas convened last Monday morning with Judge Purdy presiding. A. H. Booth, of Newberry is acting as stenographer. There are a large number of cases on the docket, but many of them have been continued. The business of the Court is progressing slowly, and the cases being tried are of no interest to the public. It is probable that the jurors may be discharged any hour thereafter, as there is not much equity business to come before it.

Marcus J. Norris, son of the late Thompson Norris, of the Roberts' Church neighborhood, Rock Mill Township, died suddenly Wednesday morning last about 10 o'clock from heart disease. He had just brought a bucket of water in the cool room when members of the family in another part of the house were attracted to the cook room by a heavy fall followed instantly by perfect silence. Upon entering they found the deceased still in death.

He was in the city the day preceding, complained of a severe pain in his chest, consulted a physician, took some medicine and was soon feeling well enough to look after his business affairs and return home to his usual health. He was 52 years old and unmarried. A widowed mother and three brothers, Robert, Foster and Paul survive. Paul, the youngest, lives with the mother, the others are married. The interment was at Roberts' Church Thursday afternoon, where were gathered a large number of sorrowing friends, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

Maj. George W. Maret died at his home in Fork Township last Friday night, after a long and severe affliction with a cancer, and by his death Anderson County loses one of her best and most highly esteemed citizens.

The deceased was a native of Oconee County, and was about 83 years of age. A farmer by occupation, almost his entire life was spent on his farm in the Fork. For a number of years he served as a trial justice in his Township, before the war he was a major in the State militia, and during the war served his State faithfully as a private in Co. G, 22nd South Carolina Regiment. He was a substantial citizen and an excellent neighbor, and was ever ready to render service to his fellowman. In his immediate section his advice and counsel were often sought by his friends, who had the utmost confidence in his good judgment, and his place will be hard to fill. Since his young manhood he had been a devoted and active member of the Baptist Church, and his influence for good will long be felt in his neighborhood.

Maj. Maret is survived by his venerable wife, three sons and two daughters. The funeral services were conducted on Sunday by Rev. T. J. Williams at Beaverdam Church, and the remains laid to rest in the Churchyard.
