

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1903.

The Anderson Chamber of Commerce.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of the city was held in the Court House last Monday afternoon, and the organization of the Anderson Chamber of Commerce was completed.

The committee appointed at the meeting on the 16th inst. to canvass the city and enroll the names of all who desired to join the organization submitted its report, which was adopted. More than one hundred members had been secured and included every avocation in the city.

The constitution and by-laws were read and adopted. These laws provided for the election of a board of fifteen Directors, which was at once entered into and resulted in the unanimous election of the following gentlemen: F. G. Brown, R. S. Ligon, S. H. Orr, J. A. Brock, J. J. Fretwell, J. H. Well, T. A. Ratliffe, Jr., W. F. Cox, J. M. Sullivan, G. M. Tolly, W. R. Osborne, H. C. Laughlin, R. S. Hill, H. C. Watkins and G. W. Evans.

This Board was given the authority to elect the officers of the organization. The annual dues were fixed at one dollar per month for each member, and it was decided to secure a charter from the Secretary of State for the organization.

The meeting then adjourned and the Board of Directors met immediately and elected the following officers: President, F. G. Brown; Vice-President, R. S. Ligon; Secretary, J. A. Brock; Treasurer, W. R. Osborne.

The salary of the Secretary was fixed at $25 per month. The Board appointed a committee of six to apply for a charter, and elected the following executive committee who will have authority to transact business in the name of the Chamber for all the members of the Board: F. G. Brown, J. A. Brock, R. S. Hill, J. J. Fretwell and R. S. Ligon.

Board appointed the following standing committees: Finance—R. S. Hill, N. B. Sullivan, H. C. Townsend, Wm. Laughlin, T. C. Walton.

Commerce—J. H. Well, Calhoun Harris, W. H. Harrison, J. L. Tribble, J. C. Watkins.

Manufactures—R. S. Ligon, O. Geisberg, B. F. Mauldin, J. H. Bass, C. S. Sullivan.

Transportation—J. A. Brock, D. A. Lobbetter, J. E. Barton, C. A. Gambrell, John R. Anderson.

Banking and Insurance—J. J. Fretwell, M. L. Bonham, J. L. Gray, J. R. Cochran, Jr., T. R. Davis.

Real Estate—W. F. Cox, J. R. Vandiver, G. N. C. Coleman, G. E. Prince, J. J. Major.

Memberships—G. W. Evans, J. T. Pearson, H. C. Townsend, E. P. Sloan, D. C. Brown.

Legislation—J. M. Sullivan, J. K. Hood, G. F. Tolly, J. M. Paget, A. S. Farmer.

Statistics and Publication—T. A. Ratliffe, Jr., A. M. Carpenter, C. C. Langston, J. W. Eason, J. H. Bass, J. C. Watkins, C. F. Jones, J. S. Fowler, H. G. Brown, E. P. Vandiver.

Agriculture—G. M. Tolly, J. M. Payne, P. C. McCully, Jr., M. A. Dean, D. P. McBrayer.

Public Entertainment—R. C. Laughlin, M. S. Dicken, G. W. Evans, L. G. Holleman, J. M. Sullivan.

Street Railways—Dr. S. H. Orr, W. R. Osborne, C. J. Brock, R. E. Ligon, J. F. Font.

Now that the organization of the Chamber of Commerce is a fact, it behooves every member to take an active interest in its work, and much good can be accomplished in many ways for the progress of the "Electric City."

Death of a Popular Citizen.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of another one of Anderson County's most excellent and highly esteemed citizens in the person of Col. Richard B. A. Robinson, which occurred at his home in Martin Township on Thursday morning, 19th inst., after a long affliction with Bright's disease.

Col. Robinson was about 60 years of age, and was born, reared and always lived in the section where he died. In his young manhood he taught school for several years, but spent his life on the farm and was a successful and energetic farmer. At the beginning of the Civil war he offered his services to his State and served through the war in Capt. J. A. Cowan's Company, 20th South Carolina Regiment. From his young manhood he took an active and leading part in the welfare of his immediate section and County, and was ever ready to do his duty as a good citizen in any work assigned him. A few years after the war he was appointed a Trial Justice in Martin County, and served in this office most efficiently for a number of years. In 1890 he was elected to the Legislature and served his County most faithfully for several terms. His health failed, and he was elected to succeed the deceased as a member of his staff with the rank of colonel.

Col. Robinson possessed a most genial, sociable disposition, and made a friend of every acquaintance. Since his boyhood he had been a devoted member of the Methodist Church, and exerted a great influence for good in his wide circle of friends and acquaintances. In his immediate community he will be greatly missed and his place will be hard to fill.

Besides his devoted wife, one son and a daughter the deceased is survived by his venerable mother and three brothers, who have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement. In their sorrow they have the consolation of knowing that their loved one has gone to reap the rewards of a well spent life.

On Friday afternoon the remains were laid to rest in the Ebenezer Churchyard, the funeral services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Bailey.

Meeting of Old War Comrades.

The last time the writer saw "Jim" Wooten was shortly after the sanguinary battles of Frazier's Farm and Malvern Hill. He was then the beau ideal of a soldier—in the vigor of full orbed manhood. A missile from the enemy's ranks sent him home. Jim Wooten was a man of that strong, aggressive individuality that impresses itself upon one's mind so never to be forgotten. At that time the writer was a 14-year-old boy soldier. Tuesday morning last a man with a full grizzly grey beard stepped into The Sun office and confronted us. It took but one glance into his weather-beaten face for us to know that Jim Wooten stood before us again in the flesh, and grasping his hand, minus several fingers, we exclaimed, "This is Wooten."

Mr. James A. Wooten is a respected and prosperous citizen of Townville, S. C. And if he is as good a citizen as he was a soldier—nuff said!

Although seventy-three years of age, Mr. Wooten still maintains the vigor and his commanding individuality still prevails. He invited us to attend a reunion of old "Co. K," at his home on the first of August—his birthday—and we'll be there ceptin' the river rises.

There will not be many of us there, dear Jim; most of the boys have followed Lee and Jackson "across the river."—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

A Letter from the Far West.

Safford, Arizona, March 20.

Dear Intelligencer—This has been a hard winter in Arizona for those who came here for the benefit of the climate to their health. Only two came from Anderson County, so far as I know, Messrs. Russell and Palmer, and one from Coconino, James C. Hull, of Westminster. All three have been carried back for burial. I sympathize with the bereaved in each case.

My health was greatly improved until a gripe attacked me about the 1st of February. That set me back and reduced my weight ten pounds, but I have recovered from the gripe and regained part of my lost weight, and my cough seems to be almost well. I rarely cough, and my lungs feel well.

It is a great disappointment of some Mormon converts who are brought here. A man from Alabama came here with his sons and 15-year-old daughter—the wife refusing to embrace Mormonism and come. A few days after the husband and father saw how he had imposed upon her, and he was very dissatisfied. He wanted to return to his wife, but feared she would not receive him. At his request I wrote a letter, telling how repentant he was, and asking that he be forgiven and taken back. The good wife sent him money to come back and bring the daughter, and they returned and he is happy at home again. He told me he had a more sense than he had, for she could not be duped by these Mormons.

Another family from North Carolina came and found not the land of "milk and honey" and the joys of religion as it had been told them. They returned while they had means.

Another family from eastern South Carolina is here, disgusted with Mormonism and the country. I write these things that our people may know not to believe these men who would tempt them in the "lively of the saints" to serve the devil.

We are in great need of a house of worship, and are making an effort to raise funds to build. But Christians are few and our people are poor and if we succeed in our efforts to build we must have aid from Christians elsewhere. I am constantly receiving letters with one dollar or more in them, and our building fund is growing. I have asked that each letter and people send me one dollar each, which will secure us a $2,000 house. Mr. Lawrence Thompson, from Lebanon, writes me that he wants to be one of the donors and his Sunday School class took a collection, and so they sent me $2. Thank them and God for that. How it makes my heart rejoice to receive these letters. I do not get a cent from it, but if the one thousand respond, and he who they will, how happy our people will be. Just one dollar from each person does not hurt any one and helps the cause here so much. The M. E. Church (North) only church building in this section, and we beg that of the 3rd day of April three hundred people in Anderson County mail 300 letters with just one dollar in each. This will not hurt a cent of those who send it and it will be a great help to us.

Dear reader, will you be one of the 300? May God put it in your heart to say "yes" and send the dollar. As soon as they are received I will write you another letter, giving the names of those who send a dollar or more. There is only one Baptist Church within 50 miles of here, except the one here, and that one is 10 miles down the valley, worshipping in a school house with about a dozen members. There are ten or fifteen thousand souls within fifteen miles of this place, with not over 150 members of local Churches. Will the brethren help us in trying to give them the gospel?

I read with much interest and pride of the improvements in my dear old native County than which there is none better. How gladly would I return and make my home there, but duty and health seem to say I cannot do so just now. But I long for the time to come when I can see my way clear, both as to duty and health, to be a citizen of South Carolina.

Reader, remember to mail your letter to me on April 3d. Don't forget the date nor the dollar.

With best wishes to The Intelligencer and its readers, I close.

C. Wardlaw.

New Hebron Dots.

After a hard week's toil the rain is giving the farmers a rest.

Mr. Samuel Bowen, of Storeville, and his wife, and the children, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony March 15, 1903, at the residence of Mr. Vance McGee, of Storeville. The groom has many friends in this vicinity who will be glad to hear that his friends and family are left for Jacobtown, N. J., last Friday, when he contemplates making his future home. His many friends hate to give him up. James Banister, of Edgeland, and Newton Banister, of Anderson, have recently visited F. W. Banister, of this place.

Miss Eva Gentry was the guest of Miss Pearl Long last Friday at Saturday.

Dr. Siler A. Gash, of Andersonville, N. C., who has been in this vicinity for some weeks advertising Dr. Turner's medicine, has now located in Rock Mills Township, near Roberts Church. March 23. Sugar Foot.

Union Meeting.

The Union Meeting of the Piedmont Association will convene with the Church at Beaverdam, the 28th and 29th inst. We have no programme for the meeting, but matters of real interest to all the Churches will be considered. Let every Church send delegates.

Letter to Mr. Oliver Bolt, Anderson, S. C.

Dear Sir: It's not a speculation to deal in securities paying a regular income, and none whatever to put your residence and with the Longman & Martinez Farm Estates. Your home will be attractive and unlike any other. The paint is better, its absolutely the choicest production of paint mills, and is thoroughly satisfying and guaranteed to be so, else your painting is done over at our expense. Cost of our paint when oil is added about $1.20 per gallon.

Yours truly, LONGMAN & MARTINEZ, Paint Makers.

We sell the best and lightest Draft Mowers on earth. Come and see them.

A petition was circulated among our merchants last week to close the stores at 7 o'clock p. m., except on Saturdays and pay-days, from April 1st to September 1st. This kind of an arrangement would be much appreciated by the clerks and would be a convenience to shoppers, either, but one firm has so far refused to sign the petition. It would be doing the very handsome thing to ignore this man. Leave him like Ephraim—joined to his idols.

We had those freight trains here yesterday (Sunday) shifting, tooting and ringing around the depot the same as if it had been Monday or Tuesday. Speaking of trains, railroads, etc., we hear an awful lot of kicking these days. Merchants tell me that it is ten pip and tuck to get a shipment of goods through before the invoice is due and that the Railroad just does any old way. For instance, you are short a cent or two of anything from the bank or on Depot street, next to the Intelligencer office.

Horse Collars—Leather Collars of all kinds at prices to please. Cloth Collars, "Gee-Haw" and genuine "Langford." A large stock from which you can select just what you want at Sullivan Hardware Co's.

Fant Bros. buy old Rubber Boots and Shoes, Bicycle Tires, Scrap Brass, Copper, Zinc, Lead, Tin, Sill, old dry Bones, Bottles, Beeswax, Seed Cotton, Furs, Hides, Scrap Iron and old machinery. Office Depot street, next Intelligencer office.

A Severe Cold for Three Months. The following letter from A. J. Numbum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. Sold by Evans Pharmacy.

Prospect Dots. We are having good weather at this writing, and the farmers are hustling around to get their land ready for planting so as to raise five cents cotton.

Miss Minnie L. Milford, of the Fork section, visited her grandfather, Abraham Bolt, of this section, on the 14th inst.

George Tate, of this section, attended an all-day meeting at Asbury Church on the 15th inst.

B. C. Cramer has now about completed a new race for Mr. Erwin, which he has been working on for some time. D. P. Tate is now sawing lumber for a John Tate, below town, to build a dwelling house in the city of Anderson. He is going to build a fine house for himself.

E. B. C. Snipes, of this section, is ahead in gardening. He has cabbage plants almost big enough to set out and onions is abundant.

William Eskew has been sick with grip for several days, but we are glad to say that he is recovering.

Miss Alice Nichols, a young lady some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. Sold by Evans Pharmacy.

Abram Bolt is sick with grip at this time. We all hoping that he will soon recover. B. L. G.

Letter to G. F. Tolly & Son.

Anderson, S. C. Dear Sirs: There are two sorts of furniture. You know both; for you sell 'em both. One sort looks better than it is, and the other is better than it looks. There isn't any other sort.

The same two sorts of paint, no more; and we make 'em both—we make tons of stuff that isn't worth its freight. Belongs to the business—have to. Belongs to your business—you have to. But this is aside. We put into cans, with our name on, the very best paint there is in the world: Devco Lead and Zinc. It takes fewer gallons than mixed paints, and it wears twice as long as lead and oil.

C. O. Brown & Bro., Columbia, S. C., write: Mr. C. O. Brown employed an experienced painter to paint his house with Devco Lead and Zinc. The painter, on seeing the paint that was sent to the house, said that there was not enough; he was sure of this, because he had done all except one five-gallon can. When the job was done he returned the five-gallon kit and about as much more in vessels. Other painters who have been using mixed paints have had the same experience with Devco Lead and Zinc.

Yours truly, F. W. Devco & Co., New York.
