

All Kinds Shoes FOR All the People.

JAMES A. BANISTER CO. S.

L-211 GROOM FOR SIZE

Sold at $4.50 and $5.00.

ROCKAWAY

Correct Shape Shoes.

$3.50

$4.00

Our Summer Oxfords

For Men are Up-to-Date, Swell Styles and New Leathers.

Autohav Boots and Oxfords

For women at $3.00 are beauties.

Regina Boots and Oxfords

For women at $2.00 and $3.00 are popular sellers.

We have Footwear for all sizes and conditions of man and womankind.

These cuts represent only a few of our popular styles.

Come and see the entire line.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

General Merchandise

ANDERSON, S. C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1903.

Spring chickens are in demand at fancy prices.

The measles are prevalent in some sections of the county.

So far the fruit crop in this section is alright and in abundance.

Miss Hattie Lee, of Fair Play, is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

The moon rose in beautiful eclipse on Saturday night shortly after sunset.

Isham H. Harrison, of Wallhalla, spent several days in the city the past week.

The straw hats this season are quite attractive. The price is about as usual.

The United States District Court convenes at Greenville next Tuesday, 21st inst.

Mrs. G. Frank Bamberg, of Bamberg, S. C., is in the city visiting her parents.

Wm. N. Miller, of New Iberia, La., is spending a few days in the city visiting relatives.

As Memorial Day, May 10th, comes on Sunday this year it will be observed on Saturday, May 9th.

In some sections of the County the farmers are complaining that the rust is damaging their wheat crop.

The date for the Confederate Veterans Reunion in Columbia has been changed to May 13th, 13th and 14th.

Last Sunday was a lovely Easter and the pretty girls had a fine opportunity to display their new hats and dresses.

C. C. Featherston, Esq., accompanied by his two little daughters, of Laurens, S. C., is in the city visiting his parents.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at Varnnes Church next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

A local weather prophet says that the fruit crop is now safe and that we will have an abundance of fruit this summer.

The Bank of McCormick, of which B. F. Mauldin, of this city, is president, has been in operation two years and its stock is worth $130.

Rev. J. D. Chapman, D. D., will spend next week at Sandersville, Ga., assisting in a series of meetings to be held in the Baptist Church there.

Farmers have begun work in earnest. You can hear the guano distributor on every side. Some have planted corn already while others will plant this week.

The congregation of Grace (Episcopal) Church has decided to erect a new house of worship, and a committee is now soliciting subscriptions for the building fund.

Mrs. Evaline Archer, accompanied by her grand-daughter, Miss Mary Lewis, has gone to Birmingham, Ala., where she will spend a few weeks visiting her son, L. N. Archer.

Gov. Heyward has appointed Maj. J. N. Vandiver, our clever and efficient County Supervisor, a delegate from this State to the National Good Roads Convention, which will meet in St. Louis on the 27th inst.

Col. E. H. Aull, editor of the Newberry Herald and News, spent last Wednesday night in Anderson and assisted in the organization of a tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men at the Anderson Cotton Mill.

Wallace S. Norris, who has been boss spinner at the Anderson Cotton Mill, has resigned and gone to Lexington, S. C., where he has accepted the position of superintendent of carding and spinning at the Lexington cotton mill.

A big convention of cane growers is to meet in Macon, Ga., the 6th, 7th and 8th of May, and Gov. Heyward has appointed the following delegates to the meeting from this County: John T. Greene, F. F. Faris, J. D. McElroy, Jas. R. Anderson and L. O. Dean.

Watch your Irish potatoes as they come up. A few bugs will supply a neighborhood. Paris green, two ounces to a peck of sliced lime, will kill them. There are several kinds of insect killers on the market which are said to be good.

The State Board of pensioners met in Columbia a few days ago to complete the work of rectifying rolls. 1,000 names will be on the approved list. It is officially stated that by the 1st of May the money will be placed in the hands of County officials for distribution.

Hon. James M. Sullivan left yesterday for Atlanta, where he will be married to Miss Harriet Elizabeth DuBose, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is well known in Anderson, where she has been engaged as teacher in our graded schools, and is a most excellent, accomplished young lady.

News reached here yesterday of the death of the 4th inst. at Woodstock, Ga., of Mrs. Mary E. Latimer, wife of the late Dr. H. Latimer, and sister of Rev. M. McGee, of this place. Mrs. Latimer was raised near Little River Church, Abbeville County, and went with her husband to Georgia about forty years ago. She was about 81 years old and for a long time had been a devout member of the Methodist Church.—Honee Path Chronicle.

Invitations have been issued by Col. and Mrs. J. B. E. Sloan, of Charleston, to the wedding of their daughter, Miss Lella, to Edwin L. Johnson, of Memphis, Tenn. The marriage will be celebrated at 8.30 o'clock on the evening of the 21st at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Johnson was Quartermaster-Sergeant of Co. C, 1st S. C. Regiment, which went from this city during the Spanish-American war to Jacksonville, Fla., and is a most worthy young man.

The trustees of School District No. 14, in Hall Township, have decided to consolidate the schools of their district into two centrally located schools. These two schools will be located at Carwell Institute and New Hebron, each of which will be in charge of a principal, and as many assistants as necessary. The trustees will arrange to have those pupils who reside two miles or more from their nearest school house transported to and from the school each day during the term, which can be done, they claim, at a nominal cost. This new arrangement will go into effect at the opening of the next school term, and will be watched with interest throughout the county. The advantages to be derived from such an arrangement are apparent at once to any one who knows anything of school work, and we believe it will result in great improvement to the educational interests of that district.

The Bamberg Herald of the 9th inst. says: "Mrs. H. S. Dowling happened with a very painful but fortunately not serious accident last Monday morning in descending the steps at Mr. Poeser's residence she fell and dislocated her right arm at the elbow. At first it was thought her arm was broken, but after a full examination it was found that it was not the case. She was carried home on a stretcher as quickly as possible, and Drs. Black and Bronson attended her. She is getting along very nicely, and her friends will be glad to know that the injury is not as serious as it first appeared." Mrs. Dowling is a daughter of Mrs. W. S. Sharpe, of this city, and has many friends here who will regret to hear of her accident.

Last Thursday afternoon the engineer corps of the Tennessee, Georgia and South Carolina Railroad, which is projected to run from Chattanooga to Anderson, reached this city. Col. W. B. Fink, of Chicago, one of the promoters of the road, arrived in the city the day before and spent several days here in consultation with the chief engineer and getting all the papers in shape. He declined to make public any of the company's plans in reference to building the road, but said it would be built without delay.

Last Sunday evening about 7 o'clock the barn of D. S. Maxwell, Jr., at his residence on North Main street, was destroyed by fire. D. S. Maxwell, Jr., had gone into the barn with a lantern to feed the horses and cattle, when the lantern exploded and set fire to a lot of hay. The firemen responded promptly to the alarm, and did good work in saving the buildings near the barn. The horses and cattle and some of the contents of the barn were saved. Mr. Maxwell estimates his loss at about $400, on which he had $250 insurance.

The Bamberg Herald of the 9th inst. says: "Mrs. H. S. Dowling happened with a very painful but fortunately not serious accident last Monday morning in descending the steps at Mr. Poeser's residence she fell and dislocated her right arm at the elbow. At first it was thought her arm was broken, but after a full examination it was found that it was not the case. She was carried home on a stretcher as quickly as possible, and Drs. Black and Bronson attended her. She is getting along very nicely, and her friends will be glad to know that the injury is not as serious as it first appeared." Mrs. Dowling is a daughter of Mrs. W. S. Sharpe, of this city, and has many friends here who will regret to hear of her accident.

Senator Latimer has appointed Benj. P. Gossett, of Williamsport, to the position of midshipman in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., from the State at large. Mr. Gossett is a son of James P. Gossett, of Williamsport, and is a most worthy, excellent young man.

J. Reese Fant has resigned as Agent in this city of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway, to take effect 1st June next. James M. Sullivan has been appointed his successor. Mr. Sullivan will serve out his term of office as Mayor of Anderson. Mr. Fant will engage in the mercantile business.

At a meeting of the City Council last Friday night a franchise for fifty years was granted to Dr. George E. Condon and his associates for the purpose of building the Anderson- Greenville electric car line from the city limits to the Court House Square. A franchise for a city system was not asked for at this time.

The Seneca correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: Miss Eleanor Wardlaw is in Seneca for a few weeks before continuing her journey to Arizona. She will join the other members of her family who have been attending the Greenville Female College the past session. Her many friends here regret her departure, but wish for her a pleasant change of the home.

Abraham Clark died at his home in Greenville last Monday morning, aged 69 years. Mr. Clark once lived in this city, where he married Miss Mattie Wilson, who with two sons and one daughter, survives him. He was engaged in the marble and granite business, was an upright, industrious man, and his many friends in Anderson who will regret to hear of his death.

At a meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, Confederate Veterans, held in this city last Saturday afternoon, Col. J. N. Brown and J. P. Sullivan were elected delegates to the State Reunion in Columbia, and Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., and J. W. Thompson delegates to the Reunion in New Orleans. Miss Mattie Tribble was selected as sponsor for the Camp at the Reunion in Columbia.

Sidney B. Payne, a prominent citizen of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Archie Kelly and J. Shaw, of Liverpool, England, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. These gentlemen are electrical engineers, and came to Anderson to inspect our electrical plant, which ranks as one of the best in the United States. The gentlemen expressed themselves as being more than pleased with their reception and what they saw in Anderson.

Thomas H. Eubanks, a prominent citizen and farmer, who lived about five miles south of Seneca, committed suicide last Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It seems that he went out Sunday morning to take a walk and failed to return, and in the evening a party went out in search of him and found him dead in an old field. He was a man about 45 years old, with a wife and one child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands.

Mrs. M. E. Keese spent a few days in Seneca the past week visiting her mother, Mrs. L. E. Cochran, who is seriously ill.

Miss Valeria Clinkscales will give an entertainment at the close of her school at the Grove next Friday evening, 17th inst. Everybody is invited to attend.

The city has purchased from J. Feaster Brown seven and one-half acres of land, adjoining Silver Brook Cemetery. It will be added to the Cemetery.

C. E. Tolly, R. M. Smith and E. J. Lewis went to Columbia last Monday to attend the Grand Lodge of Red Men of the State, which convened there yesterday.

Dr. W. H. Nardin, Jr., went down to Sumter last Monday to attend a meeting of the State Board of Health, of which he is a member, and the State Medical Association.

Rev. J. T. Mann will preach at the Cox Mill every third Sunday at 8 o'clock p. m., instead of at 11 a. m., as formerly. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular convention tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All the members are urged to attend as there are eight or ten candidates for the first rank.

Rev. H. R. Murchison will preach in the Presbyterian Church at Flat Rock on the fourth Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will administer the holy communion. The public is invited to attend the services.

On Sunday night, Monday and Monday night the season was visited by heavy showers of rain, and all the water courses are very high. On Monday afternoon there was a light fall of hail, but no damage resulted.

Miss Nell Deal and Miss Annie Archer were two attractive visitors to our town last Sabbath. They are accomplished "hallo" girls of the Anderson Telephone Company, and were visiting Misses Stella and Ethel Fincaanon.—Seneca correspondent Keowee Courier.

Senator Latimer has appointed Benj. P. Gossett, of Williamsport, to the position of midshipman in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., from the State at large. Mr. Gossett is a son of James P. Gossett, of Williamsport, and is a most worthy, excellent young man.

J. Reese Fant has resigned as Agent in this city of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway, to take effect 1st June next. James M. Sullivan has been appointed his successor. Mr. Sullivan will serve out his term of office as Mayor of Anderson. Mr. Fant will engage in the mercantile business.

At a meeting of the City Council last Friday night a franchise for fifty years was granted to Dr. George E. Condon and his associates for the purpose of building the Anderson- Greenville electric car line from the city limits to the Court House Square. A franchise for a city system was not asked for at this time.

The Seneca correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: Miss Eleanor Wardlaw is in Seneca for a few weeks before continuing her journey to Arizona. She will join the other members of her family who have been attending the Greenville Female College the past session. Her many friends here regret her departure, but wish for her a pleasant change of the home.

Abraham Clark died at his home in Greenville last Monday morning, aged 69 years. Mr. Clark once lived in this city, where he married Miss Mattie Wilson, who with two sons and one daughter, survives him. He was engaged in the marble and granite business, was an upright, industrious man, and his many friends in Anderson who will regret to hear of his death.

At a meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, Confederate Veterans, held in this city last Saturday afternoon, Col. J. N. Brown and J. P. Sullivan were elected delegates to the State Reunion in Columbia, and Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., and J. W. Thompson delegates to the Reunion in New Orleans. Miss Mattie Tribble was selected as sponsor for the Camp at the Reunion in Columbia.

Sidney B. Payne, a prominent citizen of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Archie Kelly and J. Shaw, of Liverpool, England, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. These gentlemen are electrical engineers, and came to Anderson to inspect our electrical plant, which ranks as one of the best in the United States. The gentlemen expressed themselves as being more than pleased with their reception and what they saw in Anderson.

Thomas H. Eubanks, a prominent citizen and farmer, who lived about five miles south of Seneca, committed suicide last Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It seems that he went out Sunday morning to take a walk and failed to return, and in the evening a party went out in search of him and found him dead in an old field. He was a man about 45 years old, with a wife and one child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands.

Last Thursday afternoon the engineer corps of the Tennessee, Georgia and South Carolina Railroad, which is projected to run from Chattanooga to Anderson, reached this city. Col. W. B. Fink, of Chicago, one of the promoters of the road, arrived in the city the day before and spent several days here in consultation with the chief engineer and getting all the papers in shape. He declined to make public any of the company's plans in reference to building the road, but said it would be built without delay.

The Seneca correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: Miss Eleanor Wardlaw is in Seneca for a few weeks before continuing her journey to Arizona. She will join the other members of her family who have been attending the Greenville Female College the past session. Her many friends here regret her departure, but wish for her a pleasant change of the home.

Abraham Clark died at his home in Greenville last Monday morning, aged 69 years. Mr. Clark once lived in this city, where he married Miss Mattie Wilson, who with two sons and one daughter, survives him. He was engaged in the marble and granite business, was an upright, industrious man, and his many friends in Anderson who will regret to hear of his death.

At a meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, Confederate Veterans, held in this city last Saturday afternoon, Col. J. N. Brown and J. P. Sullivan were elected delegates to the State Reunion in Columbia, and Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., and J. W. Thompson delegates to the Reunion in New Orleans. Miss Mattie Tribble was selected as sponsor for the Camp at the Reunion in Columbia.

Sidney B. Payne, a prominent citizen of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Archie Kelly and J. Shaw, of Liverpool, England, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. These gentlemen are electrical engineers, and came to Anderson to inspect our electrical plant, which ranks as one of the best in the United States. The gentlemen expressed themselves as being more than pleased with their reception and what they saw in Anderson.

Thomas H. Eubanks, a prominent citizen and farmer, who lived about five miles south of Seneca, committed suicide last Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It seems that he went out Sunday morning to take a walk and failed to return, and in the evening a party went out in search of him and found him dead in an old field. He was a man about 45 years old, with a wife and one child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands.

Last Thursday afternoon the engineer corps of the Tennessee, Georgia and South Carolina Railroad, which is projected to run from Chattanooga to Anderson, reached this city. Col. W. B. Fink, of Chicago, one of the promoters of the road, arrived in the city the day before and spent several days here in consultation with the chief engineer and getting all the papers in shape. He declined to make public any of the company's plans in reference to building the road, but said it would be built without delay.

The Seneca correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: Miss Eleanor Wardlaw is in Seneca for a few weeks before continuing her journey to Arizona. She will join the other members of her family who have been attending the Greenville Female College the past session. Her many friends here regret her departure, but wish for her a pleasant change of the home.

Abraham Clark died at his home in Greenville last Monday morning, aged 69 years. Mr. Clark once lived in this city, where he married Miss Mattie Wilson, who with two sons and one daughter, survives him. He was engaged in the marble and granite business, was an upright, industrious man, and his many friends in Anderson who will regret to hear of his death.

At a meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, Confederate Veterans, held in this city last Saturday afternoon, Col. J. N. Brown and J. P. Sullivan were elected delegates to the State Reunion in Columbia, and Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., and J. W. Thompson delegates to the Reunion in New Orleans. Miss Mattie Tribble was selected as sponsor for the Camp at the Reunion in Columbia.

Sidney B. Payne, a prominent citizen of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Archie Kelly and J. Shaw, of Liverpool, England, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. These gentlemen are electrical engineers, and came to Anderson to inspect our electrical plant, which ranks as one of the best in the United States. The gentlemen expressed themselves as being more than pleased with their reception and what they saw in Anderson.

Thomas H. Eubanks, a prominent citizen and farmer, who lived about five miles south of Seneca, committed suicide last Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It seems that he went out Sunday morning to take a walk and failed to return, and in the evening a party went out in search of him and found him dead in an old field. He was a man about 45 years old, with a wife and one child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands.

Last Thursday afternoon the engineer corps of the Tennessee, Georgia and South Carolina Railroad, which is projected to run from Chattanooga to Anderson, reached this city. Col. W. B. Fink, of Chicago, one of the promoters of the road, arrived in the city the day before and spent several days here in consultation with the chief engineer and getting all the papers in shape. He declined to make public any of the company's plans in reference to building the road, but said it would be built without delay.

The Seneca correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: Miss Eleanor Wardlaw is in Seneca for a few weeks before continuing her journey to Arizona. She will join the other members of her family who have been attending the Greenville Female College the past session. Her many friends here regret her departure, but wish for her a pleasant change of the home.

Abraham Clark died at his home in Greenville last Monday morning, aged 69 years. Mr. Clark once lived in this city, where he married Miss Mattie Wilson, who with two sons and one daughter, survives him. He was engaged in the marble and granite business, was an upright, industrious man, and his many friends in Anderson who will regret to hear of his death.

At a meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, Confederate Veterans, held in this city last Saturday afternoon, Col. J. N. Brown and J. P. Sullivan were elected delegates to the State Reunion in Columbia, and Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., and J. W. Thompson delegates to the Reunion in New Orleans. Miss Mattie Tribble was selected as sponsor for the Camp at the Reunion in Columbia.

Sidney B. Payne, a prominent citizen of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Archie Kelly and J. Shaw, of Liverpool, England, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. These gentlemen are electrical engineers, and came to Anderson to inspect our electrical plant, which ranks as one of the best in the United States. The gentlemen expressed themselves as being more than pleased with their reception and what they saw in Anderson.

Thomas H. Eubanks, a prominent citizen and farmer, who lived about five miles south of Seneca, committed suicide last Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It seems that he went out Sunday morning to take a walk and failed to return, and in the evening a party went out in search of him and found him dead in an old field. He was a man about 45 years old, with a wife and one child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands.

Last Thursday afternoon the engineer corps of the Tennessee, Georgia and South Carolina Railroad, which is projected to run from Chattanooga to Anderson, reached this city. Col. W. B. Fink, of Chicago, one of the promoters of the road, arrived in the city the day before and spent several days here in consultation with the chief engineer and getting all the papers in shape. He declined to make public any of the company's plans in reference to building the road, but said it would be built without delay.

The Seneca correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: Miss Eleanor Wardlaw is in Seneca for a few weeks before continuing her journey to Arizona. She will join the other members of her family who have been attending the Greenville Female College the past session. Her many friends here regret her departure, but wish for her a pleasant change of the home.

Abraham Clark died at his home in Greenville last Monday morning, aged 69 years. Mr. Clark once lived in this city, where he married Miss Mattie Wilson, who with two sons and one daughter, survives him. He was engaged in the marble and granite business, was an upright, industrious man, and his many friends in Anderson who will regret to hear of his death.

At a meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, Confederate Veterans, held in this city last Saturday afternoon, Col. J. N. Brown and J. P. Sullivan were elected delegates to the State Reunion in Columbia, and Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., and J. W. Thompson delegates to the Reunion in New Orleans. Miss Mattie Tribble was selected as sponsor for the Camp at the Reunion in Columbia.

Sidney B. Payne, a prominent citizen of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Archie Kelly and J. Shaw, of Liverpool, England, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. These gentlemen are electrical engineers, and came to Anderson to inspect our electrical plant, which ranks as one of the best in the United States. The gentlemen expressed themselves as being more than pleased with their reception and what they saw in Anderson.

Thomas H. Eubanks, a prominent citizen and farmer, who lived about five miles south of Seneca, committed suicide last Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It seems that he went out Sunday morning to take a walk and failed to return, and in the evening a party went out in search of him and found him dead in an old field. He was a man about 45 years old, with a wife and one child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands.

L. P. Smith has gone to Aiken to attend the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor.

Misses Rosa Tribble and Nellie Wilson are attending the State Convocation of the Girls' Daughters in Columbia.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Riverside Manufacturing Company will be held at the office of the Company tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

Our correspondents are again requested to send in their news letters in time to reach us not later than Tuesday night or early Tuesday morning.

Last Monday County Superintendent of Education Nicholson went to Rock Hill, S. C., to attend a meeting of the Southern Educational Board. He will return and be in his office Friday.

The Dixie Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of this city, have secured the Wade Hampton monument commission a check for $30 as a contribution to the monument fund.

Last Saturday night about 9 o'clock the barn of the Superintendent of the Riverside Mill was burned. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss amounts to about $300.

Rev. J. C. Ligon, of Newberry, was in the city last Monday on his way to Presbytery, which convenes at Easley. He looks hale and hearty and was warmly greeted by his many friends in Anderson.

The farmers are progressing slow with their farm work on account of so much rain. With all the backsets they have had, the farmers are not discouraged and are taking advantage of every opportunity to push forward their work.

James F. Fant has purchased the home place of late N. K. Sullivan, at the corner of South McDuffie and Hampton Streets. The lot contains about four acres and is a most desirable piece of property. Six thousand dollars was the price paid for the property.

The election on the question of issuing the street improvement and school bonds was held yesterday and resulted in a big majority for both issues. The following was the vote: Street bonds—Yes, 147; No, 40. School bonds—Yes, 148; No, 39.

Our young townsman, Monroe Hanks, has sold his house and lot on Greenville street to Benjamin Pearman, and has purchased the home of the late Julius Poppe, on South McDuffie St., which was bid off on Wednesday by D. A. Vandiver.

A white man and a negro got into a row at Glenn's Store, near the city limits, last Saturday afternoon, and the former cut the latter with his pocket knife, inflicting a painful wound in the back. The white man, who was drunk, was arrested and locked up.

Maggie May, the 11-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Casson, died at her home in Martin Township on Sunday, 6th inst., of pneumonia, and was buried the following day at Ebenezer Church. Rev. N. G. Wright conducting the funeral services.

Our young friend, Wm. M. Archer, who has been employed in the ticket office of the Blue Ridge Railroad in this city for several years, has been transferred to the office of the Auditor of the road in Greenville. William is an industrious, worthy young man, and is held in high esteem by the railroad officials.

The Secretary of State has issued a commission to the Townville Cotton Oil Mill, which will have a capital of $35,000. The gentlemen interested are L. N. Geer, W. A. Bowen, J. W. Shirley, F. S. Mahaffey, Jr., Dr. W. T. Hank, of Townville, L. M. Mahaffey, of Dean, and James W. McCarty, of Seneca.

Lambert W. Jordan, of Seneca, died last Saturday afternoon at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. His remains were brought to Seneca on Sunday and interred. The deceased was 64 years old, and leaves a devoted wife, four sons and one daughter, who are all in the mercantile line, and have the sympathy of many friends in Anderson.

General M. L. Bonham was the guest of our city a few days of the past week. The general looks well, and his bright smiling face, affable manner and hearty hand shake win for him friends wherever he may go. The people of Abbeville hold him in the highest esteem and are always ready to see him and extend to him a hearty greeting.—Abbeville Press and Banner.

The competitive examination for the Annapolis cadetship from the Third Congressional District was held in this city last Wednesday. There were eleven applicants from the various counties of the district, but only eight of them stood the examination. Wm. E. Russell, of this city, won the prize, and his alternates are M. S. Shirley, of this County, Earle H. Jones, of Abbeville, and Wm. Broyles, of Greenwood.

Poplar Springs Church, in this County, will be dedicated next Sunday, 19th inst. The dedication sermon will be preached at 11 a. m. by Rev. Dr. Bailey. At the conclusion of the sermon there will be a recess of one hour and a half, and in the afternoon Rev. E. E. Goss will preach. The song service will be conducted by Prof. J. P. Millford. The friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the services.

Some of the good women of this city have organized the "Humane Society of Anderson" for the prevention of cruelty to animals, to relieve want, distress or suffering, and to perform and do any and all kinds of charitable and humane work. The corporation, to whom a charter has been granted by the Secretary of State, are Mrs. A. E. Bleckley, Mrs. Ella Laughlin, Mrs. Mary E. Ligon and Miss L. C. Hubbard.

Tugalo Tribe, No. 33, Improved Order of Red Men, was organized at the Anderson Cotton Mill on Wednesday last by Great Sachem J. H. Hair, of Newberry, assisted by several other prominent members of the order from other places. The following officers were elected: Prophet, E. J. Lewis; Sachem, J. S. Hamby; Junior Sagamore, L. M. Murphy; Junior Sagamore, J. W. Norris; Chief of Records, S. E. Honee; Keeper of Wigwam, E. H. Poore; First Sannap, J. K. Norris; Second Sannap, R. D. Henderson; First Warrior, J. Olin Sanders; Second Warrior, A. B. Hamlin; Third Warrior, I. Geisler; First Brave, E. L. McCurry; Second Brave, E. L. Gaffes; Third Brave, L. W. Bolt; Guard of the Forest, C. F. Snipes; Guard of the Wigwam, M. D. Smith. The tribe starts off with forty members.

Refined, up-to-date people always want the best. GALEY BROS. are well known to be among the best PHOTOGRAPHERS in the South. They do not waste their skill on cheap, fading work.

HOW ABOUT YOUR

Easter Fixings!

