The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Peoples Bank was held last week. A dividend of 8 per cent was declared and a nice sum added to the surplus fund. The old officers were re-elected as follows: J. J. Fretwell, President; G. G. Brown, Vice-President; J. N. Bleckley, Cashier, and L. G. Holleman, assistant cashier.

The Charleston News and Courier of the 9th inst. says: "Jos. J. Fretwell, who is prominently identified with the progressive interests of the progressive city of Anderson, is registered at the Argyle in connection with the reporter for The News and Courier. Mr. Fretwell commented upon the extensive building operations in progress in the city and predicts a steady growth and improvement in Charleston's business prominence."

A good roads meeting will be held in this city on Saturday, 23rd inst., and every live, progressive citizen of the County is cordially invited and urged to attend. Senator A. C. Latimer and several other prominent citizens will attend and deliver addresses on the subject of good roads, how to secure them and the benefits to be derived from them. Such a meet to be held, believe, can accomplish good results, and we hope there will be a large attendance of our citizens.

At the last regular meeting of the City Council the names of several streets in the city were changed. East Boundary street was changed to Fant street, in honor of the late G. W. Fant; West Boundary to Towers, in honor of the late A. B. Towers; Jail to Peoples, in honor of the late John E. Peoples; Greeley to Franklin, and River to Belton. The new street opened in the northeastern portion of the city was named Crayton, in honor of Hon. B. F. Crayton.

A Georgia exchange says: "All who raise Irish potatoes will be interested in a remedy for the potato bug pest that has destroyed the crops in the past few years. A prominent citizen has tried cotton seed meal over the vines with splendid effect. By simply dusting cotton seed meal over the vines, not at the bugs, but also the eggs, may be killed." This is a very simple remedy. We would like for some of our readers to give it a trial and report the result in The Intelligencer.

Last Saturday evening at Belton Louis Greer, a negro, got into a row with the negro porter on the Blue Ridge train. Capt. J. L. Anderson, the conductor, made an effort to separate them, which Greer made a rake at his throat, cutting him under the jaw and making a painful though not a serious wound. Had the knife blade been a little longer and the blow a little stronger it would have no doubt been fatal. The negro made his escape. Capt. Anderson's wound was promptly dressed and he returned to the city that night.

Anderson is fast becoming one of the leading cotton mill towns of the State. O. Y. recently incorporated in this town and all are mills of large dimensions. It is expected that the population of the town will be increased by three to four thousand inhabitants when the new mill is completed or in process of construction have been completed.—Spartanburg Journal.

Mrs. Alice Thompson, widow of the late J. W. F. Thompson, died at her home in Walhalla, Anderson County, 4th inst., in the 63rd year of her age. Mrs. Thompson was a native of Anderson County. Her maiden name was Miss Bruce, being a daughter of the late John Bruce. She was a most excellent Christian woman, having long been a devoted member of the Methodist Church. She is survived by five sons and two daughters.

Last Friday afternoon the Dixie Chapter, U. D. C., presented the pupils of the tenth grade at the Central Graded School a fine portrait of Jefferson Davis and of Wade Hampton, which have been placed in the study hall. The presentation was made in behalf of the Chapter by Mrs. J. M. Patrick, who paid a fitting tribute in her remarks to the grand old heroes. Miss Helen Baker, in behalf of the pupils, received the portraits in a few appropriate remarks.

Despite the disagreeable weather Memorial Day was appropriately observed in this city last Saturday. An interesting programme had been arranged for the occasion and it was carried out in every detail. About 9 o'clock a large crowd assembled on the Court House Square around the Confederate monument, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and small Confederate flags by the Ladies' Memorial Association. Here a number of Veterans were presented with Crosses of Honor by the Dixie Chapter, U. D. C.

The Churchyards and Silver Brook Cemetery were visited and the graves of the sleeping heroes there were decorated. At 11 o'clock the R. E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., held a very interesting meeting in the Court House, which was filled with an appreciative audience. The feature of the exercises here was the interesting and eloquent address of Col. W. F. Jones, of Elberton, Ga., who made an earnest plea that the children of the south should be taught the truth and justice of the cause for which their fathers fought. At the conclusion of the address the Chap. presented a number of Veterans with Crosses of Honor, and the audience was dismissed.

James H. Browning, of the Pisgah section of Anderson County, and an old Confederate Veteran, aged 65 years, and Miss Gattie Ducker, 20 years old, were married recently under unusual circumstances. Mr. Browning keeps a country store and Miss Ducker's mother sent her to do some trading, and while there Mr. Browning asked her to cook dinner for him which she readily did. Mr. Browning was so well pleased with the young lady's cooking that he concluded to marry her, and after getting her consent he at once rang his farm bell, called in the laborers and sent for a preacher and had the service performed without delay. He retained Miss Ducker as permanent cook and housekeeper.—Easley Progress.

Wm. M. Cooley died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Brezscale, near Belton, on Saturday, 2nd inst., after a brief illness of pneumonia. The Intelligencer, in speaking of him, says: "Mr. Cooley was known throughout the County as a kind-hearted gentleman, a good neighbor, an affectionate father and companion, and a valuable citizen. He leaves six sons and two daughters, his wife having preceded him several years ago. Had he lived two days longer he would have reached his seventieth birthday. On last Sunday afternoon the remains were interred in Big Creek Cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. W. Burts, of Honea Path."

The many friends throughout the city of Wm. Warren Ford, who died yesterday to learn of his death, which occurred yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at his home in Melroe Terrace. He was 53 years old. Mr. Ford has been in declining health for some time. For the past 3 months, however, he was confined to his bed with a complication of diseases, which caused his death. He suffered considerably, but never complained, and without worry or complaint. The deceased was born and reared in Pendleton, Anderson County. For about seventeen years he has been engaged in Greenville as salesman for L. Rothchild, one of the city's leading clothing merchants. He was well known and well liked by those who knew him. He was a splendid salesman and was always straightforward in his business dealings. The deceased leaves a devoted wife besides one brother, Walter Ford, and two sisters.—Greenville News, 10th inst.

Last Friday evening near Mt. Taber Church, in Pendleton Township, Alonzo Young was shot by J. Lawrence Martin and his son, Julian Martin. Young had been a tenant on the plantation of the elder Martin. A few days ago Young had a difficulty with the younger Martin and left the plantation. On Friday afternoon he came to the Martin home in a drunken condition and threatened to kill the younger Martin. The Martins tried to avoid a row and urged Young to leave their home, but he refused to go and finally threw a rock into the house at the younger Martin. The older Martin got a shotgun and his son a small rifle, and both fired at Young. The load of shot lodged in the right side of the neck and the bullet in the breast. At first it was thought that the wounds would prove fatal, but it is now thought that Young will soon recover. The Martins are quiet, peaceable citizens, and are held in high esteem by all of their friends.

Anderson County has lost another one of her oldest, most worthy, upright citizens in the death of Marion A. Martin, which occurred at his home in Hopewell, Townships, last Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock, and the announcement of his death was a great shock to his neighbors and wide circle of friends. He had been a little feeble for several days, but arose from his bed early in the morning and went to work. Shortly afterwards he was stricken with a severe pain in his left side and was forced to return to his bed. Before his family realized that he was seriously ill and could summons a physician he had died. He was 70 years of age, was born, reared and with the exception of a few years immediately after the civil war, when he resided in Mississippi, spent his life in this County. He was a man of a very quiet, unobtrusive disposition, was strictly upright and honorable in all his dealings with his fellowman, and was most highly esteemed by all of his acquaintances. He served his State faithfully and zealously through the civil war, in his young manhood he joined the Baptist Church and throughout his life was a devoted and exemplary member. The deceased married Miss Grace Smith, who, with five sons and three daughters, are left to cherish his memory. On Thursday morning the funeral services were conducted at Hopewell Church by Rev. W. B. Hawkins and the remains interred in the churchyard, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Denver Dots.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elrod entertained a number of friends with an elegant dinner on the 10th. The strawberry dessert was especially fine and abundant. Mr. Clint Summers, of Antun, brought a basket of fine ones from his own garden. Of course he was an honored guest, as was also Miss Jessie Thompson and brother, Wade Thompson, of Anderson. Miss Thompson is a fine musician and she and her brother entertained the company with some fine music. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and Miss Leila and R. A. Buchanan, of Antun, Will Erwin, of Centerville, Misses Della and Blanche Brown, of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer and children, of Anderson.
