www.

In looking over the live, progressive

City of Anderson

One cannot help being impressed with the number of

New Residences

Going up. In all sections are seen visible signs of substantial progress. After seeing what is going on, the thought comes to the mind of a dealer is, that every house built, from the modest cottage to the palatial residence, calls for-

FURNISHINGS

We are prepared to meet any emergency along this line We have just received a most-

Magnificent Line of Mattings.

An assortment from which you need have any trouble in making your selections. Our style and prices are varied

Beautiful Mattings

At 15c, 20c, 25c, 80c and 35c per yard, put [down on your floor without extra cost by one who knows his business.

Pure White Mattings

Have had a great call recently. So great has been the demand for them that it has been almost impossible to get them. They are very scarce now, and it is feared that in a very short time 'hey can not be had at all. However, have a limited quantity of heavy-

White China Matting.

We have some good values in INGRAIN CARPETS.

Our Rug Stock

Has been replenished, too.

We have Tapestry Rugs at 75c and $1.00 each. Beautiful Rugs at $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00. Kandsome Moquette Rugs at $2.50 and $4.00. Extra quality Axminster Wilton Rugs at $7.00 and $7.50. A good assortment of Ingrain Rugs. Large Moquette Rugs, 9x12, at $22.50. Wilton Russ, 9x12, at $35.00.

We have-

Window Shades. Window Curtains. Curtain Poles, Draperies, Floor Oil Cloths. Linoleums, &c.

In fact, EVERYTHING acadful for furnishing the new house or replenishing the old.

If you need House Furnishings of any kind come and see

Yours truly.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in General Merchandise

NDEHBON, S.C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 15, 1903,

The price of flour continues to ad-

This time next year State and County politics will be lively.

B. O. Evans and W. W. Sallivan are spending a few days in Asheville.

Mrs. J. C. C. Featherston has gone to the mountains to spend a few weeks.

The price of cotton which went up like a rocket has commenced falling. There is great demand for laborers now, both on the farms and in the city. W. R. Tindal, of Greenville, has been spending a few days in Anderson. Miss Bertha Fant, of Abbeville, is in the city visiting the family of W. A.

Miss Ida Tarrer, of Columbia, is in the city visiting the family of Jas. M. County Treasurer Payne.

Mrs. R. M. Clinkscales, of Atlanta, is in the city visiting relatives and old

Mrs. John Linder, of Hartwell, Ga.,

Some valuable real estate in Ocone County is offered for sale. See adver-

The first County raised melons for this season appeared in the city last

F. J. Pelzer and family, of Charleston, are now at their Summer home, near Pendleton.

L. P. Smith is arranging to run his friends are always delighted to excursion to Tallulah Falls the latter him in Anderson, his old home. G. H. Bailes, of the Bee Hive, has returned from a business trip to some of the eastern cities. B. S. Bohannon, of Harmony Grove, Ga., has been spending a few days in the city visiting relatives. J. Furman Evans and W. E. Atkinson are off on a trip to Detriot, Mich.

and W. S. Brock to Knoxville. Good showers have fallen in various sections of the County the past week, and all crops are growing nicely.

Rev. H. R. Murchison and family have gone to Edisto Island to spend a few weeks with relatives and old

E. P. McAdams, of Atlanta, who is visiting relatives in the County, was in the city yesterday and gave us a pleas-

The Greenville District Conference convenes at Williamston today and will continue in session through next

George E. Shand, of Columbia, spent a day or two in the city last week, the guest of his brother-in-law. Gen. M. L. Bonham.

The past week has been a favorable one for the crops. The reports show a steady improvement in all crops, especi-Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular convention tomorrow evening. All the members are Spring chickens have been fairly plendful for a couple of weeks—a good sign of abundance in the country and of better rations in the town. W. B. Ciinkscales, accompanied by his granddaughter, Miss Agnes Hardeman, of Marietta, Ga., is visiting relatives in the city and County. Mrs. Thomas Williams and Miss Louise Jenkins, of Tyler, Texas, for-merly of this County, are visiting friends and relatives in this section. The catalogue of Clemson College is out in handsome form. Its 172 pages are replete with facts and full of valuable information to those interested in educational matters.

A negro woman confined in the city station house attempted suicide last Monday evening by hanging herself in her cell. She was soon discovered and cut down before injuring herself.

The Smith family reunion, which was announced to take place on Thursday, 23rd inst., has been changed to Wednesday, 22nd inst. All who are interested should take notice and govern themselves according.

Capt. T. O. Stuart, of Newberry, spent Monday morning in Anderson. He is a member of the Newberry Fire De-partment and was here making arrangements for the coming of his company, which will take part in the Gala Week races.

attention all over the State, and we are going to have a large crowd of visitors here to participate in the feativities of the occasion. Every citizen of the city should out the latch-string on the outside of his door.

Rev. H. N. Messe, rector of the outside of his door.

Martin Seligman will, in the near fu-ture, open the Boston She own on the north side of the Court House Square, two doors west of the Farmers and Merchants Bank. No will buy direct from the manufacturers and carry a very large stock. The readers of the Intelligencer will hear from him in due

Maj. J. W. Cantey and Capt. J. H. Dingle, of Charleston, members of Col. Schachte's staff of the Third Regiment, spent last Saturday in Anderson arranging for the encampment of their Regiment. They expressed themselves as more than pleased with the location of the camp, and gave instructions as to the location of the water mains, electric lights, etc., all of which will be in place when the soldiers arrive here. The First Artillery, Band from the Sallivan Island garrison, will come the Sallivan Island garrison, will come with the Regiment and also the Charleston drum corps, composed of forty Julius H. Weil, who has been spendng a few weeks in New York, returned home a few days ago.

Col. J. B. E. Sloan and family, of Charleston, came up to their Summer some at Pendleton last week.

Archie Catheart, one of The Intelli-gencer expert compositors, has gone to the mountains to spend a week or two.

J. H. Acker left last Monday on visit to his old home in Michigan, where he will spend two or three

The summer school for negro teachers will open next Monday, 20th inst. ses advertisement of Superintendent

J. W. Washington, of Anderson, former superintendent of the oil mill here, spent several days here the past week.-Union Progress. Misses Rose and Hattie Davenport and Eleanor Walker, of Greenville, are in Anderson visiting the family of Prof. J. B. Bonner, of Pelzer, has been elected principal of the Pelzer graded school for the next session.

He is well qualified for the position. The weather has been intensely hot arrived in the city last night to spend a for the past week, but it takes that kind of weather to make the cotton and we will have to bear it as best we

> DeWitt Parker, Joc, Bub and We Simpson, Jim Cathcart, Brat Simpson and Ed Frierson left Monday for a camping trip of two weeks in the

> Wm. M. Wilcox, of Elberton, Ga. has been spending a few days in the city visiting relatives. His many old friends are always delighted to greet George E. Prince, Esq., assisted in the prosecution of Hoyt Hays, who was tried last week at Walhalla for the murder of his wife. The case resulted in a mistrial.

Correspondents must sign their true names to their communications, not for publication, but so we may know whom to credit for the favor. We will not publish communications not so

Company E, 1st S. C. V. Infantry, of this city, is drilling every night now, getting in shape for the encampment. There will be a public drill next Friday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock on the

The members of the two white fire companies are requested to meet at the city hall every afternoon promptly at 6:30 o'clock until Gala Week, except Saturdays, so as to get in good shape for the races.

The health of the city was never better. There is almost a total absence of fever and a notable scarcity of contagious or infectious diseases. Anderson's claims to a healthful climate are easily supported.

W. C. Latimer, of Belton, who recently gra ated from the law department of the University of Virginis, spent Monday in the city, and is thinking of locating here for the practice of his profession. The State Board of Equalization meets in Columbia today to begin the work of assessing the property of the cotton mills, cotton seed oil mills and fertilizer factories. C. H. Bailey is Anderson County's representative on the Board.

Greenville claims to have come up with us in the matter of semi-annual dividends this July. But, then, you know Greenville is in the habit of claiming, for advertising purposes, about half of Anderson County.—Carolina Spartan.

"Is it hot enough for you?" is still the greeting you hear when you meet a friend on the streets. It is just a little antiquated, but no one seems able to

Anderson is to have some good ball games for the entertainment of visitors during Gala Week. The Columbia and Augusta teams have been se-cured for the occasion, and baseball admirers are jubilant over the prospect of three days in which to witness their favorite sport.

G. A. Buchanan, formerly of this County, died at his home in. Walton County, Ga., on the 6th inst., leaving Anderson's Gala Week is attracting a wife and three sons to cherish his memory. The deceased was an uncle of C. M. Buchanan, of this city, and has many friends in the County who > Rev. H. N. Mesas, sector of Grace Episcopal Church, who has been visiting relatives in Abbeville County, returned home last week greatly improved in health. Last Sunday he conducted services in the old Church for the last time, as the contractor commence pulling down the old building Monday morning to make room for the new house of worship.

> Margaret Elizabeth, infant daughte of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Maxwell, jr., of Spartanburg, died at the home of M-Eva Murray, in this city, last Saturday morning, aged one year. The little one had been ill for some time and Mrs. Maxwell brought it to Anderson a few weeks ago hoping that the change would prove beneficial. On Sunday morning the funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Murray, and immediately afterwards the body was in-terred in the First Presbyterian Churchyard. The devoted parents have the sympathy of their many friends and relatives in their bereavement.

The Feabody examination for scholarships will be held at the scaled school to-morrow and Friday, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. County Superintendent Nicholson will conduct the examination.

Julius C. Smith, father of Mrs. J.W. Quattlebaum, of this city. died last Sunday at his home in Greenville, aged 74 years. The deceased was one of Greenville's most popular and prominent citizens, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

The postmaster-general has issued an order establishing free mail delivery service in this city on September 1st next. There will be four carriers, one substitute carrier, sixteen street letter boxes and one package box. The appointment of the carriers will be under the civil service rules, and the positions pay a very good salary.

The blackberry crop this season seems to be very plentiful, judging from the quantities that are on the market. They are being sold at very reasonable prices, and the housekeepers are ready purchasers. The blackberry is used in making a great many delightful dishes and beverages, and it is hard to find a fruit that is more widely used.

The examinations for the scholarships of Winthrop and the South Carolina College took place last Friday.
Thirty-five young ladies were in the contest for Winthrop and four young men for the South Carolina College.
All the papers have been forwarded to the respective Colleges, and the names of the fortunate competitors will be known in a few days.

W. L. Brissey and lady from Anderson spent Saturday night and Sunday in our town, being the guests of the Sadler house while here. Mr. Brissey is a prominent lumber dealer of the Electric City, one of the city's aldermen and a most clever and deservedly popular gentleman. We hope they will visit us again and drink more of our fine water.—Williamston News.

L. P. Smith has secured a train to run to Tallulah Falls on Friday, July 24th. This is a delightful one-day trip, and the scenery is the most wonderful in the South. Train will leave Greenville at 6.30 a. m., Belton 7.25 a. m., Anderson 8 a. m. Returning will leave Tallulah Falls at 6 p. m. same day. Fare from Greenville $1.75; Belton $1.65; Anderson, $1.60. For rates from other stations see hand bills.

The infant son of Dr. C. C. Geer, died at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Geer, at Belton, last Thursday morning, aged five months. Dr. Geer is a surgeon in the United States Army, and is now stationed in the Philippine Islands. He had never seen his babe. Mrs. Geer returned from the islands more than aix months ago, and the child was born after her arrival. The interment took place at Belton on Friday.

Mr. John Kay, who lived at this place and clerked for Mr. J. E. Robinson several years ago, died in Baltimore last Friday. Mr. Kay had been in the employ of the electric car line in Washington for several years. His remains were brought to this place and carried to his old home near Pisgah Church, in Anderson County, for burial.—Easley Progress, 8th inst.

Hargrove Arthur, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Glenn, formerly of this city, died at the home of his parents in Greenville last Thursday evening. The body was brought to Anderson and interred in Silver Brook Cemetery Friday afternoon. The little child had been sick for about six weeks with whooping cough and bronchitis. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

Miss Mattie Campbell, whose home is in upper Greenville County, died on Monday morning at the home of Jas. Campbel' her brother, three miles east of this pl. te, after a brief illness with typhoid fever. She came here a few weeks ago to be with her brother, who was sick, and while nursing him contracted the disease which caused her death. She was 21 years old. The interment took place Monday afternoon at Broadmouth.—Honea Path Chronicle.

The Golden Grove Farmers' Club have arranged to have a basket pionic at Golden Grove schoolhouse, about one mile east of Pelzer, in Greenville County on Monday, 20th inst. Prof. Nowmen and several of his able institute institute institute on the grounds that day. The public is cordially invited to attend with well-filled dinner baskets and hear the address of the lecturers. The occasion will, no doubt, be a most enjoyable one.

spring a new one. There is no hesitancy shown by any one in answering the question.

Now is the time to send a barrel of new wheat flour to your orphanage. Whether you are a Baptist, Presbyterian or Methodist, you have an Orphanage in the State and should feel personally responsible for your share of its support.

W. R. Dillingham has been appointed Deputy Internal Revenue, Collector with headquarters in this city. His territory embraces Spartanburg, Cherokee, York, Union, Chester, Lancaster, Kershaw, Newberry and Fairfield Counties, north of the Saluda River. He had entered upon his work and his appointment is in all respects a most worthy one.—Carolina Spartan. Mr. Dillingham formerly lived in Anderson, and his many friends here will be more than pleased to hear of his good fortune.

One of the nicest social events of the season was the Initial Party at "Sunny Side," given on last Friday evening by Miss Helen Fant in honor of her guests, Misses Cecelia von Hasseln and Anna Cunningham, of Anderson. Each guest was presented with a list of questions to be answered in words beginning with the initials of their own name. Quite a difficult task it was to decide between so many original answers, but at last a tie was made between Miss Eloise Strother and Mr. Sam Verner as having answered the entire set of questicus. The latter very gracefully presented the prize, a placque, to Miss Strother, and the booby prize, a box of blacking, was awarded to Mr. Jack Darby.—Keowee Courier.

Shiloh News.

After the refreshing showers of rain yesterday and today, everything is looking fresh and lovely.

Crops are doing fairly well in this section. considering the late planting.

Dr. Noah Richardson is very sick at present. They called in his brother, Dr. J. M. Richardson, of Anderson, a few days ago. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Rev. W. R. Richardson will preach at Shiloh next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. We nope there will be a large congregation to hear Mr. Richardson, for it is his old home, ho having been raised in sight of Shiloh Church.

The Sunday School at this place is in a flourishing condition.

Miss Mary Reid was the guest of Misses Ida and May Fleming last Sunday.

Miss Etta Fleming was the guest of Miss Etta Fleming was the guest of Miss Eunice Reid last Sunday.

Quite a number of Shiloh young folks attended the Sunday School and prayer meeting at Mt. Springs last Sunday afternoon, and all report a good meeting and a pleasant time.

The members of Mt. Springs Church are having the services preparatory to the protracted meeting that will be held there some time in the near future.

Blossom.

Where the cost of merchandise is absolutely ignored. That's the situation here to-day, to-morrow, and every day until this Stock has been closed out. We are going to quit, and every Suit, pair of Shoes, Hat, in fact every pieceof Men's Furnishings in this Store will be sold—

and less than cost

You know the lines we carry, and you know they are dependable in every particular, and your know that it is impossible to buy better than we sell. Don't delay until your size is gone.

HALL BROS.

Store to Rent.

WE CARRY A FINE STOCK OF-

FLOUR.

BACON,

CORN.

OATS,

TOBACCO. SUGAR.

COFFEE. Together with a general supply of the necessaries of life, and can make it to your interest to trade with us.

Jobbers prices or HATCHET TOBACCO-best made for the money. Your business is highly appreciated by VANDIVER BROS.

OUR COST SALE CONTINUES.

WE have unloaded a great quantity of our Stock, but still have left a great deal of good Staple Merchandise to offer at EXACT COST, which

A GREAT SAVING TO BUYERS.

100 dozen Men's all Linen Collars..... 5e each 65 dozen Men's Black and Polka Dot Seamless Hose...... 5c pair 57 dozen Misses' Seamless Black Hose, sizes 5 to 81...... 5c pair ufacturers' remnants, sizes 3 to 17, price......15e to 35e We have left about $2,500 worth of Shoes. This is excellen stock, and

We have left about $2,500 worth of Shoes. This is excellen stock, and if we can fit you means dollars in your pocket.

We are well sold on Dry Goods, but still have about 1200 yards Standard Prints at 4c and 4½c per yard, about 700 yards Chambray Ginghams former price 8c, now 6½c. Good styles. Two Bolts Bleached 8-4 Sheeting per yard 12½c, worth 20c.

We have thousands of things which we cannot mention in an advertisement, and which we are selling out at New York Cost.

A LOOK WILL CONVINCE YOU. Yours truly, DEXTER GROCERY COMPANY. Successors to D. C. Brown & Bro., South Main Street.

At all Soda Fountains! The Most Satisfying, Cooling, Refreshing, Invigorating and Delicious. : : : : :

DOES NOT EXCITE THE NERVES!