

JULY NEEDS!

Hot Weather Necessities!
 Complete Stock to Select From.

Elegant line of White Summer Waists.

Beautiful Waists at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.
 Handsome Silk Waists at 2.50, 3.00, 4.00, 4.50, 5.00 and $6.00.

We have a splendid assortment of Ready Made Skirts.

Walking Skirts at 2.50, 4.00, 5.00 and 6.00.
 Dress Skirts at 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, 4.00, 5.00, 6.00, 7.00 and 8.00.
 Handsome Voile Skirts at 5.00, 10.00, 12.50, 15.00 and $25.00.

We invite your special attention to our

Muslin Underwear.

We have a great variety of the newest styles. Made of good material and workmanship. Style and quality considered we think that we give a little better garment for the money than others.

Our Gause Underwear is the thing for hot weather.
 Our 5c, 10c, 15c, 20c and 25c Vests are extra values.

Our Summer Ribbons

Are popular. We certainly have the correct thing in Ribbons.

We have some good things in

Millinery,

And a Milliner who thoroughly understands the business, and can make you a new Hat, or work the old one over.

Our White Goods AND Muslin Stock

Is attractive. Some beautiful things to select from.
 Laces and Embroideries that you need right now.
 Summer Parasols and Umbrellas—almost any price you may desire.
 Beautiful Neckwear for Ladies.
 Also, Belts, Gloves, Hosiery and Summer Notions in general.

Our Summer Oxfords

Are as much up-to-date as can be found anywhere.
 Come to us with your Summer needs.
 We pride ourselves on carrying the newest and most complete stock in this city.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

General Merchandise

ANDERSON, S. C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1903.

S. J. Simpson, of Russellville, Ark., is in the city visiting relatives.

W. H. Kerr, of Abbeville, has been spending a few days in Anderson.

Miss Stella Atkinson, of Chester, is in the city visiting Miss Essie Todd.

Mrs. John E. Sadler, of Greenville, is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. B. S. Hill and daughters have gone to Franklin Springs, Ga., to spend a few weeks.

Flour is slowly advancing. Everything to eat has gone up lately except bacon and lard.

H. R. Wells, formerly of Anderson but now living in Atlanta, is spending a few weeks here.

Misses Eva Lewis, Della and Lucia Cater have gone to the mountains to spend a few weeks.

Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., attended a meeting of the State Board of Health in Columbia last week.

The railroads have granted a rate of one fare for the round trip to Anderson during our Gala Week.

Canning blackberries and fruit and making jelly is the order of the day just now with the ladies.

W. D. Bewley, a popular merchant of Chester, S. C., is visiting relatives in Anderson, his old home.

Two of our citizens have purchased automobiles and they attract considerable attention on the streets.

A lot of fine County raised melons were in the city last Saturday and met with ready sale at fair prices.

Mrs. Percy Sharpe, of Nashville, Tenn., is in the city visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. W. S. Sharpe.

The Columbia and Augusta base ball teams will play some fine games of ball in Anderson during Gala Week.

Dr. W. I. Hailey and Miss Willie Swilling, of Hartwell, Ga., spent Saturday and Sunday in Anderson.

The Saluda Baptist Association convenes at Salem Church, in Centerville Township, next Tuesday, 28th inst.

Amos W. Adams and family of Hartwell, Ga., came over last week to spend a few days in the city with relatives.

Miss Nellie Simpson, of Marietta, Ga., is in the city visiting her aunts, Mrs. J. M. Catcart and Mrs. N. B. Sullivan.

Gov. Heyward and his staff will visit Anderson during Gala Week and review the troops of the Third Regiment in camp here then.

The County Normal School for teachers closed last Friday after a most profitable session of a month. About ninety teachers were enrolled.

Farmers say that the young cotton is looking right along now, and though somewhat late will make a fair crop yet, if seasons continue favorable.

The Tennis Club of Brubay Creek Township came down to the city last week and played an exhibition game with the Meadow Club of this city, and carried off the honors by a close score.

The Gala Week is just two weeks off now. The owner of every business house should make arrangements to decorate his building with flags and bunting. It would look nice and have a pleasing effect.

The high temperature is driving people to the watering places and mountains these days. The trains are generally crowded, and those who start from the lower part of the State early in the day have a jaded, worn-out appearance.

After November 1 all dealers must keep their manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars and cigarettes in the packages bearing the revenue stamps. They cannot take these goods out of the packages and display them in windows and show cases.

Thomas E. Smith, who has been clerking in this city for several years, has gone to Goliad, Texas, where he will engage in business. Mr. Smith is a most capable and excellent young man, and while we regret to see him leave Anderson, we wish him much success in his new home.

The Newberry firemen will have a double-team horse hose wagon race at the Anderson tournament, and a hook and ladder race and a hand hose reel race and foot races—and a goat wagon race, if there should be one. Our boys are going into every race that comes along and are practicing to win in all of them.—Newberry Observer.

The Columbia Record of the 18th inst. says: "Assistant Adjutant General J. M. Patrick has received from W. H. Kearfoot, commander of the department army of northern Virginia, U. S. O. Y., a letter requesting him to accept a position upon his staff. The offer is quite a compliment to Col. Patrick, coming as it does from the commander."

Married, on Sunday, July 19, 1903, at the home of the bride's father, A. A. Dean, by Rev. M. McFee, Mr. A. E. Dean and Miss Clayton Dean, both of Anderson County.

An old weather prophet says the Katydid's gave their first concert on the night of the 8th inst, and according to the old sign frost will be due in ninety days, Sept. 8th.

Little boys and children should be watched after very closely during the races of the firemen in the afternoons. It is almost impossible for the policemen to keep them all out of danger.

Mrs. Robert B. Cheahire, who has been seriously ill in this city for several days, was carried over to Hartwell, Ga., last Sunday, where she could be under the care of that skilled physician, Dr. W. I. Hailey.

James, infant son of B. B. Tinsley, died at the home of his parents at Millville last Wednesday night, after a brief illness, aged three months. The remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stivender and children, of Leesburg, Fla., are visiting relatives and friends in the County. Mrs. Stivender has many old friends in this native County, and her visits are always a source of much pleasure to them.

W. Beaty Gossett, of Quincy, Fla., who is visiting relatives at Williamsville, was in the city last Monday and gave us an appreciated call. Mr. Gossett formerly lived in Anderson, and his many friends here were delighted to greet him.

The County normal school for colored teachers opened in this city last Monday, with 23 teachers enrolled. Prof. J. C. Martin, of Greenville, is principal, and Prof. R. K. Moon, of Pickens, assistant.

Rev. H. R. Murchison, who is enjoying the breezes of Anclote Island, will be absent from the city next Sunday, and there will be no preaching in the Central Presbyterian Church that day, or at the Flat Rock Presbyterian Church that afternoon.

The South Carolina State Dental Association convened in its annual session at White Stone Lithia Springs yesterday. O. C. Tomorrow evening "Sonic tests" Harris will tender the Association a banquet, and the Intelligencer is indebted to him for an invitation to attend.

Reports from the country convey the gratifying information that local sportsmen that the dove crop this year will be bountiful in all sections of the county. This is due to the fact that during the early season the small birds escape much of the heavy spring rains that is usually a menace to their young lives.

Our clever young townsmen, M. A. Dean, has been seriously ill for a few days with appendicitis. Yesterday morning, accompanied by his wife and Dr. Gray, he went to Charleston, where an operation will be performed if deemed necessary. We join his many friends in wishing him speedy recovery and a safe return home.

Gov. Heyward has appointed two commissioners from each of the seven Congressional Districts in this State to take charge of the exhibit of South Carolina, which is to be placed at the World's Fair in St. Louis next year. The Commissioners from the Third District are E. T. Jaynes, of Walhalla, and J. M. Sullivan, of Anderson.

Many people are star gazing these nights looking for the comet, which is nearly overhead at 11 o'clock p. m., and visible to the naked eye. The comet is easily detected by reason of its peculiar appearance, that of a heavy star, it is growing brighter each night, and will be, it is said, at the point in its orbit nearest the sun about August 21.

The postmaster-general has issued a order establishing free city delivery service in Anderson. There will be four carriers. Hurrah for Anderson, she is bustling, growing little city, and doing much credit to the credit of her enterprising and public spirited citizens, to whom is due Anderson's rise and rapid growth.—Seneca Farm and Factory.

The Anderson Rifles had a competitive drill on the Court House Square last Friday afternoon, and it attracted a large crowd of spectators. The Company presented a fine appearance and during the drill the Citizen's Band rendered some excellent music. After a long struggle the prize—a medal—was awarded to Sergeant Frank Farmer, and it was presented to him in a brief but eloquent address by H. H. Watkins, Esq.

Dr. E. L. Wilson has accepted a position with Dr. A. C. Strickland, the leading dentist of Anderson.—Abbeville Medium.

A series of meetings will begin at Welcome Church next Sunday morning, and probably continue through the following week.

Rev. W. P. Holland and family, of Greenville, have been spending a few days in and near the city visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Thomas I. James, of Camden, S. C., and Miss Clara Quinlivan, of Charleston, are in the city visiting Mrs. Jas. G. O'Donnell.

A. B. Carpenter, of Greenville, spent a day or two in Anderson last week. He has a host of friends here who are always delighted to greet him.

The Anderson Rifles left the city last Monday morning for Columbia to be with their fellow-soldiers of the First Regiment in camp this week.

Prof. H. G. Reed, of Weatherford, Texas, who left Anderson ten years ago for his western home, is now visiting relatives and old friends in this section.

Rev. S. J. Cartledge and Rev. H. R. Murchison, of this city, spent last Sunday in Edgfield installing the new pastor of the Presbyterian Church in that town.

Dr. W. Frank Ashmore, who has been located for several years at Newry, has moved to Anderson for the practice of medicine. He has located at Millville.

If you are seeking bargains in any class of goods, read carefully the advertisements in the Intelligencer this week and you will know where to go and get them.

Col. R. W. Hunt, the genial and energetic division passenger agent of the Southern Railway, Charleston, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a pleasant call.

Walter F. Barton, of this city, has accepted a position on the Southern Railway between Greenville and Abbeville, and entered upon his work a few days ago.

O. D. Moore is off on a little rest and recreation trip to the mountains, and before returning will visit the northern markets and buy his stock of goods for the fall trade.

Married, on Sunday, July 19, 1903, at the home of the bride's father, A. A. Dean, by Rev. M. McFee, Mr. A. E. Dean and Miss Clayton Dean, both of Anderson County.

An old weather prophet says the Katydid's gave their first concert on the night of the 8th inst, and according to the old sign frost will be due in ninety days, Sept. 8th.

Little boys and children should be watched after very closely during the races of the firemen in the afternoons. It is almost impossible for the policemen to keep them all out of danger.

Mrs. Robert B. Cheahire, who has been seriously ill in this city for several days, was carried over to Hartwell, Ga., last Sunday, where she could be under the care of that skilled physician, Dr. W. I. Hailey.

James, infant son of B. B. Tinsley, died at the home of his parents at Millville last Wednesday night, after a brief illness, aged three months. The remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stivender and children, of Leesburg, Fla., are visiting relatives and friends in the County. Mrs. Stivender has many old friends in this native County, and her visits are always a source of much pleasure to them.

W. Beaty Gossett, of Quincy, Fla., who is visiting relatives at Williamsville, was in the city last Monday and gave us an appreciated call. Mr. Gossett formerly lived in Anderson, and his many friends here were delighted to greet him.

The County normal school for colored teachers opened in this city last Monday, with 23 teachers enrolled. Prof. J. C. Martin, of Greenville, is principal, and Prof. R. K. Moon, of Pickens, assistant.

Rev. H. R. Murchison, who is enjoying the breezes of Anclote Island, will be absent from the city next Sunday, and there will be no preaching in the Central Presbyterian Church that day, or at the Flat Rock Presbyterian Church that afternoon.

The South Carolina State Dental Association convened in its annual session at White Stone Lithia Springs yesterday. O. C. Tomorrow evening "Sonic tests" Harris will tender the Association a banquet, and the Intelligencer is indebted to him for an invitation to attend.

Reports from the country convey the gratifying information that local sportsmen that the dove crop this year will be bountiful in all sections of the county. This is due to the fact that during the early season the small birds escape much of the heavy spring rains that is usually a menace to their young lives.

Our clever young townsmen, M. A. Dean, has been seriously ill for a few days with appendicitis. Yesterday morning, accompanied by his wife and Dr. Gray, he went to Charleston, where an operation will be performed if deemed necessary. We join his many friends in wishing him speedy recovery and a safe return home.

Gov. Heyward has appointed two commissioners from each of the seven Congressional Districts in this State to take charge of the exhibit of South Carolina, which is to be placed at the World's Fair in St. Louis next year. The Commissioners from the Third District are E. T. Jaynes, of Walhalla, and J. M. Sullivan, of Anderson.

Many people are star gazing these nights looking for the comet, which is nearly overhead at 11 o'clock p. m., and visible to the naked eye. The comet is easily detected by reason of its peculiar appearance, that of a heavy star, it is growing brighter each night, and will be, it is said, at the point in its orbit nearest the sun about August 21.

The postmaster-general has issued a order establishing free city delivery service in Anderson. There will be four carriers. Hurrah for Anderson, she is bustling, growing little city, and doing much credit to the credit of her enterprising and public spirited citizens, to whom is due Anderson's rise and rapid growth.—Seneca Farm and Factory.

The Anderson Rifles had a competitive drill on the Court House Square last Friday afternoon, and it attracted a large crowd of spectators. The Company presented a fine appearance and during the drill the Citizen's Band rendered some excellent music. After a long struggle the prize—a medal—was awarded to Sergeant Frank Farmer, and it was presented to him in a brief but eloquent address by H. H. Watkins, Esq.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis S. Rodgers, of Charleston, have issued invitations to the marriage of the daughter, Miss Nellie, to Dr. William W. Chisholm, of this city. The happy event will take place at the home of the bride in Charleston on Tuesday evening, 28th inst., at 9 o'clock.

L. J. Williams, a prominent and popular merchant of Greenville, died at the home in that city on Tuesday night, 14th inst. The deceased had many friends and relatives in this County, who regretted to hear of his death. His remains were brought to Westminster and interred in the cemetery there.

Eugene Parks, of Anderson, has been spending his vacation with his mother and brother at Leverett. He gave the Messenger a pop call and when told of the Meador Saturday School excursion to Bordeaux said he really could not miss that chance of seeing the pretty girls of McCormick.—McCormick Messenger.

Prof. Shieb went over to Anderson Sunday afternoon and Miss Laura Stilwell presided at the organ for him. He will remain in Anderson this week on business, and may decide to locate there. Many regrets are expressed on every hand at the probability of our losing such a splendid musician from our city.—Elberton (Ga.) Tribune.

Walter R. McFall and family have been spending a few days in the city with relatives. Mr. McFall has been keeping a hotel in Pelzer for several years, and has moved to Abbeville, where he will have charge of the new hotel recently built there. We join his many friends in wishing him big success in his new home.

The Board of Examiners of the State Pharmaceutical Association met in Anderson last Wednesday to examine applicants who desire to practice pharmacy in this State. Three young men appeared before the Board, and thirty others who graduated from pharmaceutical colleges sent in their diplomas and were given permits to practice pharmacy.

Mrs. W. D. Simpson, Miss Bessie Simpson, Master Jesse Simpson, Mr. E. J. Gray and Mrs. Carolyn Gray, of Anderson, spent several days last week at the Walhalla Hotel. Misses Simpson and Gray left Monday for Tomasco, where they will spend several weeks at the home of Mrs. C. Jones. The other members of the party have returned to Anderson.—Keowee Courier.

The Columbia State of the 20th inst. says: "The independent racing reel team will participate in the tournament at Anderson. This was decided at a meeting held a few days ago. With two representatives such as the Palmetto and Independent teams Columbia is certain to capture some of the prizes which are offered. The meet will take place on the 4, 5, 6 and 7 of August, and many cities will send teams to participate."

Last Sunday morning at 6 o'clock the citizens of Honea Path were alarmed by the cry of fire and when the first crowds reached the square it was found that the beef market occupied by J. R. Donald and Arthur Datcher was in flames. The property was a total loss. It was owned by Donald and Datcher. A shoemaker saved his effects. The plate glass front of W. A. Shirley's store was destroyed by the heat. L. J. Davis' store was damaged, and the goods were injured by water. The bucket brigade did splendid work.

Mrs. Sarah Rebecca McElroy died at the home of her grandson, Robert R. Allen, in the Sandy Springs section last Friday evening, 17th inst., aged 75 years. She was a daughter of the late Jacob Bellotte and widow of the late Archibald McElroy. She was born, reared and spent her life on the plantation where she died, and leaves one son, several grandchildren and many relatives and friends to cherish her memory. She was a most estimable, Christian woman, having been a devoted member of Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church since her girlhood. Mrs. McElroy was noted for her generous disposition, and was ever ready to lend a helping hand and speak a word of consolation to the poor and afflicted. On Saturday afternoon the remains were interred in the Mt. Zion Churchyard.

It's a lie. Gala Week has not been called off. Atlanta, New Orleans and New York have always shown a bitter rivalry toward Anderson and now they are trying to make it appear that Gala Week will not come off. The only foundation for the story is the change of ad. of Denn & Ratliff this week. They didn't think Anderson could stand two such hot events within a month, but that goes to prove that they don't know us.

DO YOUR EYES NEED HELP? DR. E. E. O'BRIEN, the well known Eye Specialist, has been in Anderson two weeks. Dr. Crimm need no introduction to the people of Anderson. His work while here last year speaks for itself. He is a man of universal ability in his profession, and those who need their eyes looked after or new glasses at reasonable prices cannot render themselves a better service than by calling at once upon the Doctor. He will remain in Anderson until August 9. Office, Chiquola Hotel.

WANTED—5,000 bushels of Peach Seed. We wish seed dried in the shade and free from cooked seed. Save up your seed and bring it to our bushel cash for them. FANT BROS., Anderson, S. C.

Attention Merchants. We have great inducements to offer you in Hosiery, Pants, Overalls, Drawers, Ties, Goods, etc. We will be in our office for the next sixty days. Buy from us you get the mill price. We save you the jobbers profits. Call on us and be convinced. We are selling the largest and closest buyers in the country. WEBB & CATER, Commission Merchants and Mill Agents. A big lot of Georgia Ratchet Plow Stocks for 50c. See Brock Hardware Co.

Before you sell your chickens and eggs contact us by private pay cash, and always the highest price the market affords. J. C. T. Mpton. Next door to Ligon & Ledbetter, Patrick's old stand.

A few more Knol Choppers and Kelly Perfect Axes at the old price. See Brock Hardware Co.

MONEY TO LOAN—A few thousand dollars to lend on Land for clients. Apply to B. F. Martin, Attorney-at-Law.

All enterprising and successful farmers now realize the use of a McCormick Mower and the great saving effected by the use of this excellent machine. If you do not possess one of these machines, Sullivan Mfg. Co. would be pleased to show you how it would benefit you to have one.

The day is the pulling passion of the day and the soda fountain one of its strongest supporters and the most delightful and most satisfying of all the beverages sold by soda fountains is Pop-Cola or Pepsi drink. It is beautiful. Try it. 5c

Refined, up-to-date people always want the best. GALLAGHER BROS. are so knowledgeable to beaming the best PHOTOGRAPHERS in the South. They do not waste their skill on cheap, fading trash.

LOOK OUT!

Only a few days more and we turn this Stock

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS, And Gents' Furnishings,

Over to our successor, who will continue the Clothing Business at the same stand. Only a few days to buy at : : : : :

First Cost.

HALL BROS.

WE CARRY A FINE STOCK OF—

FLOUR, CORN,
 OATS, TOBACCO,
 BACON, SUGAR,
 COFFEE,

Together with a general supply of the necessaries of life, and can make you to your interest to trade with us.

Jobbers prices or HATCHET TOBACCO—best made for the money.

Your business is highly appreciated by
VANDIVER BROS.

OUR COST SALE
 CONTINUES.

WE have unloaded a great quantity of our Stock, but still have left a great deal of good Staple Merchandise to offer at EXACT COST, which means—

A GREAT SAVING TO BUYERS.

100 dozen Men's all Linen Collars.....	5c each
65 dozen Men's Black and Polka Dot Seamless Hose.....	5c pair
57 dozen Men's Seamless Black Hose, sizes 5 to 8.....	5c pair
53 dozen Men's Drill Drawers, 25c kind, now.....	15c pair
11 dozen Linen Window Shades, 35c kind, complete.....	19c each
56 dozen Men's Black Half Hose, 5c kind.....	21c pair
7 dozen Men's Work Overshirts, former price 50c, now.....	30c
5 dozen Men's Work Overshirts, former price 25c, now.....	19c
78 Men's Suits left, cost means.....	$2.60 to $6.00
80 Boys' Suits left, sizes 1 to 13 years, price.....	$1.73 to $1.73
86 pairs Men's Pants, price.....	38c to $2.00
146 pairs Boys' Knee Pants, the best value in the house, made up from Manufacturers' remnants, sizes 3 to 17, price.....	15c to 35c

We have left about $2,500 worth of Shoes. This is excellent stock, and if we can fit you means dollars in your pocket.
 We are well sold on Dry Goods, but still have about 1200 yards Standard Prints at 4c and 4 1/2c per yard, about 700 yards Chambery Gingham, former price 8c, now 6 1/2c. Good styles. Two Bolts Bleached 8-4 Sheetings per yard 12c, worth 20c.
 We have thousands of things which we cannot mention in an advertisement, and which we are selling out at New York Cost.

A LOOK WILL CONVINCED YOU.

Yours truly,
DEXTER GROCERY COMPANY,
 Successors to D. C. Brown & Bro., South Main Street.

5c  5c

At all Soda Fountains!

The Most Satisfying, Cooling, Refreshing,
 Invigorating and Delicious. : : : : :

DOES NOT EXCITE THE NERVES!