The Gala Week a Big Success.

As was predicted in The Intelligencer's report of the first day's record of Anderson's Gala Week last week the occasion was a big success from start to finish, and the officers and various committees of the Chamber of Commerce in charge of it deserve the many congratulations they are receiving. Large crowds visited the city each day, and everybody was on their best behavior and in a good humor. The programme as published was carried out each day, and every feature was tighly enjoyed by the immense throng of spectators as well as those who participated. Several fire companies from various cities that were expected to participate in the tournament did not come, which was regretted, but this did not detract from the interest by those present, and this feature was one of the most successful of the week's festivities. Several fire companies from various cities that were expected to participate in the tournament did not come, which was regretted, but this did not detract from the interest by those present, and this feature was one of the most successful of the week's festivities. Not a single accident happened during the week. The railroads brought in and took out large crowded, every visitor was accommodated with sleeping quarters and plenty to eat. The weather, too, throughout the week was all that could be desired. The mid-day sun was a little warm, but the nights were very pleasant, and many of the soldier boys in Camp Freet say they had to read the streng games, Columbia having won two of the three games.

Late in the afternoon a large crowd assembled at the camp to witness the final drill and dress parade. Capt. Bennett and his company of regulars gave an exhibition of tent pitching precedin; the parade of the regiment, and it was highly enjoyed by the spectators.

Early Saturday morning the Third Regiment folded its tents and left Regiment f pleasant, and many of the soldier boys in Camp Frost say, they had to use their blankets every night. Daring the day the live pigeon shoot attracted hapy crack shots and spectators, and some fine shots were made. In the horse races there were many entries and much interest was manifested by the large number of persons greent. At 5.30 colock the first of the series of three games of baseball between Columbia and Augusta came off, and a large crowd witnessed the game, which resulted in a score of 11 to 0 in favor of Columbia. Thursday morning the firemen again opened up the exercises of the day with the reces between the hose wagon teams. It was a very exciting contest, and was witnessed by a larger crowd data the races the day preceding. The first prize was won by the Palmettos, of Columbia, and the second by the Independents of this city. The following were the records of the teams:

This ended the fireman's tournament, and every feature of it passed off most pleasantly. C. G. Keenan, of Columbia, J. W. Earhardt, of Newberry, and C. S. Sullivan, of this city, sweet the judges in all of the contests.

The horse races attracted another large crowd in the afternoon, the grand ctand not being large enough to accept and and his staff arrived from Columbia, and were met at the depot by an escort from the Third Regiment and the First Artillery Band. The Governor and his party entered carriages and the column, led by the band, marched to the Hotel Chiquola, where the carriages were emptied, and the escort processed to the Hotel Chiquola, where the carriages and the column, led by the band, marched to the Hotel Chiquola, where the carriages and the column, led by the band, marched to the Hotel Chiquola, where the carriages were emptied, and the escort processed to the camp.

After the regiment returned to the Camp Cod. Schachte issued the following order:
Headquarters Third Regiment of Infantry, S. C. V. T., Camp Frost, Anderson, S. C., Ang. 7, 1008.
General Order No. 14:

1. The grateful acknowledgments of this segiment are due to the citizens of Anderson generally, and especially to the committee from the commerce of the arrangements preparatory to the entrangements preparatory to the entrangements preparatory to the entrangements of favors shown and for commerce, which had charge of the arrangements preparatory to the entrangement, for favors shown and for commerces extended both before and while in camp, so numerous in number and so generous in spirit as to make it impossible to set forth the same in any scheral order.

2. The thanks of the regiment are dies and are hereby extended to Capt. Heanest of the Sixteenth United States infantry, and his officers and men in the continue of the interest in tensiting this encampment a success.

3. Recognizing that the improvement in the drills of this regiment is the interest of Leo F. Forter, captain articlery corps, U.

S. A., we desire to express our heart-felt appreciation of his valuable services and our admiration for his tacti-cal knowledge. 4. The regiment can not strike camp withoutlacknowledging its appreciation of all the courtesies shown to it by Mr. R. L. Cumnock, in allowing the free and unrestricted use of his beautiful tators.

Early Saturday morning the Third Regiment folded its tents and left Anderson in two special trains. The officers and men expressed themselves as being sorry that they had to leave so soon. Col. Schachte said that he hoped that the encampment would be made permanent and that it would be held at Anderson. He was loud in his praise of the camp site and its equipment. The regiment had been treated royally by the people of Anderson, he said, and declared that they had never had a more enjoyable time. Adjt. Gen. Frost also expressed himself as being highly pleased with everything about the camp, and endorsed all that Col. Schachte had said.

The Artillery band and the drum corps of the Third Regiment proved very attractive features of the week. The concerts given by the band in the Court House were highly enjoyed by

It is generally conceded that the presence of the Third Regiment in Anderson added a great deal to the success of our first Gala Week.

Reunion of Grr's Regiment.

One of the most pleasant features of Gala Week to the Confederate Veterans especially was the reunion of the survivors of Orr's Regiment, C. S. A., in the Court House in this city last Friday. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many persons were turned away from the entrances because they could not even get standing room.

because they could not even get standing room.

The meeting was called to order and presided over by Gen. R. R. Hemphill, president of the Orr's Regiment Survivors' Association. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Hon. J. M. Sullivan, Mayor of the city, and Hon. G. F. Tolly, commander of Camp Stephen D. Lee, U. C. V., of this city. Gen. Hemphill responded in behalf of the Association.

Gov. Hewward was introduced to the the Association.

Gov. Heyward was introduced to the audience and delivered a most interesting and eloquent address, in which he referred to our re-united country and paid a high tribute to the Confederate Veterans. The Governor was followed by brief and interesting addresses from Col. J. L. Orr, Gen. M. L. Bonham and Col. J. N. Brown. The latter referred to many of the battles the Regiment was engaged in, and related some very interesting incidents in connection therewith. The largo audience was highly entertained by all of the speeches.

At the conclusion of the speaking a business session of the Association was held, and the following resolutions, introduced by Capt. W. T. McGill, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the survivors of Orr's regiment have been meeting at sundry places in the several Counties in which the same was made up and received with a hearty welcome wherever we met, thereby attesting the high esteem with a hearty welcome wherever we met, thereby attesting the high esteem and respect that our people held us in for the sacrifice of and services we rendered in the lost cause; and.

Whereas through our committee we have made application to and as we thought procured a meeting place at Clemson College in conjunction with the Farmers Institute which is soon to be convened, and fully 90 per cent. of our few comrades left to meet and celebrate the e. ar annual reunions, are farmers and have proved our loyalty to our State and all her institutions, and with parsionable pride felt that we would be received by many of the Bouth Carolina institutions with that welcome commensurate to the loyalty and sacrifice we made during the four years of bitter strife between the States and besidesbeing tax payers to support said institutions thereby supporting them in times of war and peace; therefore, be it

Resolved, first, That we disapprove of the action of chairman of board of trustees of Clemson in refusing to allow us to meet at the time and place so near where our services were dedicated to our beloved State and the lost cause we cherished and loved so much.

Resolved, second, That these preambles and resolutions be spread in our minute book.

Third, And that these resolutions be published in the surrounding County papers.

The fellowing resolutions, introduced by T. A. McElroy, were also unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the nearty thanks of the Survivors' Association of Orr's Rifles are hereby tendered to the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Anderson and to the city for their kindness, hospitality and hierality extended to us.

hospitality and liberality extended to us.

Kesolved, That we shall ever entertain for Anderson and her people profound respect and true affection.

Gen. Hemphill submitted the following historical facts in reference to the Regiment:

At the battle of Gaines' Mill the Regiment carried 537 men into action. Of these 81 were killed and 234 wounded, making a total loss of 315 men. During the war 324 officers and men were killed or died of wounds, 201 died of disease and the total of deaths amounted to 535. Wounded, but not mortally, there were 701 officers and men and the total number of casualties in battle 1,125.

At the conclusion of the meeting the members of the Association marched in a body to the Hotel Chiquola, where they enjoyed a fine dinner.

A Card of Thanks.

We dealer to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness, their ministrations, their help and tender sympathy for our dear wife and mother during her law, lineas and death. Such kindness, such sympathy, such help in the hour or saddest affliction we can never forget, and we ask God's blessing apon every one of them, and may their afflictions likewise be softened by the tender hand of sympathy, and may Heaven be their portions in the end.

States.

U.S. Senator A. C. Latimer made a good speech on the subject of good roads and how we can get the money to build them. Senator Latimer got us the money to get the rural mail routes in these parts and I believe if we stick to him he will get the money to build good roads. Let's be organized so that we can step in first if he does get it. He says one hundred Representatives are pledged to support the bill in Congress. He thinks we should support this by a 5-mill tax on property. He took a vote on the 5-mill tax and about one-half the audience was willing to bear this tax. He said the United States government had appropriated millions to build good roads in the Philippines and Porto Rico and thought if we could pay taxes to build good roads in a foreign country we might build them at home and keep our coney.

build them at home and keep our money.

Congressman Wyatt Aiken said he was the first man to talk about Federal aid to build good roads. Since 1876 he had been a road overseer, had changed the roads around the hills, and believed all of them ought to be changed. On the east side of old Abbeville there was a road that leads up and down six long hills. The C. K. & W. R. R. graded through this section and did not equip it. The people are traveling on this grade now in ten minutes where it took them one hour to go when the road led up and down the hills. He advocated Federal aid to improve the rural mail routes, and thinks we will get it.

Capt. Geo. W. Sullivan said he did not know what the chairman means by what the townships will do to get good what the townships will do to get good roads.

Chairman—"Captain, are you willing for the money Williamston pays to go to some other part of the County, say over about Anderson?"

Capt. Sullivan—"No, I am not. I believe in home rule. I want Williamston to have good roads as quickly as any other part of the County."

Hon. J. Belton Watson said to educate the people that they need a quicker way of communicating, a better way to get their produce to market and we will have the good roads problem solved.

will have the good roads problem solved.

Supervisor J. N. Vandiver said he was willing to purchase a good roads outfit. The Commissioners are only servants of the people, and want an expression from all over the County. He was in favor of good roads, and said we are paying too much money to work the roads and next year we will be still doing the same for the same kind of work, and it will be so as long as we have the present road system. He wanted something better. This system is too expensive.

Auditor G. N. C. Boleman said he would rather have a permanent, macademized public road through this section than to have a railroad.

Clerk of Court John C. Watkins said he was in favor of better roads. Like the speakers say, at the end the farmers have or will have to pay for the good roads. He thought we had just as well go down into our own pockets and get the money to pay it at first and keep our money at home. Why should we send it to Columbia and then have to bring it back? Let's keep it at home.
