Vaccination is in progress in some of our sister towns. Smallpox is all over the country and people who have not already been vaccinated should be at once and thus be exempt from this dreaded disease.

The Bethel correspondent of the Abbeville Medium says: "Miss Sadie Mae Spillgrove, one of Anderson's prettiest young ladies, spent last week with her cousins, Misses Cassie and Florence Fleming."

The congregation of the First Baptist Church will hold its annual meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Reports will be announced showing the work of the Church in all its departments during the past year.

A. H. Cox, living three miles south of Belton, was in the swelling humor and nearly all of his contacts by a few days ago. There was no insurance on the building or household goods and the loss falls heavily on Mr. Cox.

A few days ago Jas. L. Headen, a young operative in the Anderson cotton mill, was with a painful accident. One of his hands caught in the gearing of a machine and severely bruised. One of his fingers had to be amputated.

The Palmetto Riflemen have moved into the new armory on the second floor of the new building just completed by J. W. Thompson, on Depot street. It is a commodious hall and gives them more room than their former quarters.

Capt. J. D. Alewine, of Ray, Abbeville County, was in the city Monday shaking hands with his many friends, and was a welcome visitor to the Intelligence office. The captain has reached this the score years and ten but is still hale and hearty.

A dispatch from Washington under date of the 12th inst. says: "Representative Aiken, of South Carolina, introduced a bill today appropriating $1,000 for a monument over the grave of Gen. Andrew Pickens, who is buried in Anderson County, S. C."

The farmers of Broadway Township are requested to meet at Neal's Creek Church next Saturday afternoon, 21st inst., at 3 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a farm organization. Every farmer in that section should attend and participate in the organization.

A meeting of the farmers will be held at Starr next Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. All the farmers are cordially invited to attend the meeting, as the meeting will be an interesting one. Several prominent speakers have been invited to attend and deliver addresses.

The Chamber of Commerce is making an effort to secure a mail clerk on the new train between this city and Greenville. The appointment of a clerk on this train would give the places all along the route the advantage of far better facilities than are enjoyed at present.

The awful bill collectors have been out for two weeks past, loaded with a potent argument. All business houses are trying to close up their books with the conclusion of operations of 1904, and the collectors are reminding that this cannot be done unless December accounts are promptly settled.

We trust our subscribers will realize the necessity and the importance of paying the small amounts they owe us. We must have money to meet our obligations, and the only way we have of raising it is from those who owe us. The amount each one owes is small but in the aggregate is a considerable sum to us.

Last Monday morning about 4 o'clock the warehouse of S. J. Wakefield, at Antreville, Abbeville County, was burned. The building was located between Wakefield's store and contained a lot of flour, corn, etc., all of which were burned. The loss amounts to about $1,000, on which there was no insurance. It is believed to be the work of an incendiary.

A difficulty on the streets last Friday night between two young white men of the city, Sam Maddox and Charlie Lewis, resulted in the latter receiving a painful cut about the head. It is claimed that Lewis was drinking and was advancing with a knife upon Maddox, who used a hot iron to defend himself. Lewis is painfully but not seriously hurt.

Our popular young townsmen, Dr. W. H. Nardin, Jr., left Anderson Monday evening for Clinton, Tenn., where this evening he will be married to Miss Minnie Freeman, of that city. The following young people from this city accompanied him and will be attendants at the marriage: Miss Felicia Murray, Messrs. Theodore Bell, Calhoun Harris, Paul Barr and Eugene Nardin.

Here is a puzzle that puzzles everybody: Take the number four, multiply it by three, multiply by five, add to it the number of living sisters, multiply the result by ten and add the number of deaths and bereaved children subtract 150 from the result. The right number will be the number of deaths, the middle will be the number of living sisters and the left the number of living brothers. Try it and see.

Thomas Diver, a young man in the employ of Burris and Diver, of this city, met with a painful accident at Home Park last Wednesday morning. While putting a roof on a building he accidentally stepped through an opening and fell to the floor, about twenty feet, striking on his side and face in a pile of lumber. No bones were broken but he was unconscious when picked up. He was brought to his home in this city that afternoon, and is now doing as well as possible.

The South Carolina Good Roads Association will hold its annual meeting in Columbia tomorrow, the 19th inst., and will be in session for two or more days. This meeting will have the greatest attendance in all the history of the Association. President Ryatt has sent out announcements of the meeting to all the supervisors of the State and also to the mayors of the towns and cities, and has received a great many responses. County Supervisor Jackson has gone to Columbia to attend the meeting.

The city council held a special meeting Monday night to consider the change asked by the bar association in the license ordinance. After considering the matter fully the council decided to make any changes, and the ordinance is now being drafted for this year. The license system alone will raise about $17,000 in revenue, and this will be applied to the improvement of the streets. It is the purpose of the council to extend gradually the work of paving the streets, which was begun about two years ago. A city engineer will be employed to superintend public improvements.

Mrs. Hattie Blackstone, wife of Chas. R. Blackstone, died last Wednesday morning at her home in Millville, after a brief illness, aged 33 years. On Thursday morning after appropriate funeral services, the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery. She leaves a devoted husband and three small children to cherish her memory. The deceased was a Miss Cooper and a native of Greenville County, where she has many friends and relatives. She was a good woman and most highly esteemed by all who knew her.

Married, on Thursday, January 5, 1905, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Pearman, in Abbeville County, by Rev. N. G. Wright, Mr. Cowan, Rev. J. W. Thompson, Mr. James Hicks and Miss Mina Darby, Mr. Thomas Hanks and Miss Lizzie Pearman. After the ceremony the wedding party and guests were invited into the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed by all. The young couple have a wide circle of friends who wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The Elgin (Texas) Courier, of the 5th inst., says: "Geo. C. Garrette has purchased the White Drug Store from E. A. Buck and will in the future conduct the business under the name of Garrette's Pharmacy. Mr. Garrette is a young man of no mean business ability. He has had a number of years experience in the drug business and is personally polite, accommodating and pleasant and has for him unbounded success." Mr. Garrette is a former Anderson boy and his friends here will be more than pleased to hear of his success in his adopted home.

The Abbeville Medium of the 12th inst. says: "Thomas R. Puckett died at his home near Puckett's Ferry in Greenwood county last Thursday night. He had not been in vigorous health for some time. He was a tall man of magnificent proportions and when a member of Co. B, Orr's Rifles, distinguished himself at the battle of Chancellorville May 3, 1863, when he and sixteen others were shot down around the flag of regiment. The news of his death will be heard with regret by his comrades." The deceased had many old friends in Anderson county who will regret to hear of his death.

Mrs. J. B. Jetton of this city has a pair of canary birds, one of which, the female, is a remarkable bird. She raised five families of birds last summer, and on last Christmas day, she laid the first egg of a litter which she has just hatched. All the young ones are fine, healthy birds. They are of the "St. Andrewburg Roller" variety, and are birds of exceedingly fine coloring, and pride themselves very much on keeping their plumage clean and neat. The "Roller" is unequalled by any other variety in his song, and wins for itself a place in all hearts which cannot be filled by any other musical treat. This is the first account we have ever had of canary birds breeding at this season of the year.

The Westminster correspondent of the Keowee Courier, under date of the 11th inst., says: "The remains of Mrs. Eva Simpson arrived here Monday night, 13 and were laid to rest in the West End cemetery yesterday, in the presence of a large concourse of sympathizing friends. After a short illness she passed away at the Tabernacle Baptist Hospital, in Atlanta, Ga., at midnight on Saturday last. The sad news of Mrs. Flynn's death reached Westminster on Sunday. As Miss Eva Simpson the deceased was well known in Westminster, and the announcement of her death caused much sorrow. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Simpson and was a young woman of a sweet and amiable disposition. She was married to Albert Flynn, of Atlanta, in November, 1902. She leaves a heart-broken husband and two children (the youngest one only two weeks old). Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were married to Atlanta on Saturday and were with their only surviving son last hours on Sunday night. The deceased has many friends and relatives in Anderson county who will regret to hear of her death.

Alberta and Corman peach trees, 30,000 surplus. The stock is excellent, the price attractive. Jane Buda and year olds. Write at once for price. W. L. Hillhouse, Calhoun, Ga.

MONEY TO LOAN for home clients on easy terms. Simpson & Hood, Attorneys. Best Bar Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Fitzhugh, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Orr, Gray & Co's. Drug Store; price 50c.

In Bed Four Weeks With La Grippe. We have received the following letter from Mr. E. K. Kemp, of America, La.: "I was in bed four weeks with la grippe and I tried many remedies and spent considerable for treatment with physicians, but I needed no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. Two small bottles of this medicine cured me and I now use it exclusively in my family. Foley's Honey and Tar has long been my favorite for all throat and lung troubles. Refuse substitutes. Sold by Evans Pharmacy.

Foreed to Starve. B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffer'd agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything I owned, I came to the Jueken's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At Orr, Gray & Co's. Drug Store; Only 25c.

Pneumonia and La Grippe. If you but knew the splendid merit of Foley's Honey and Tar you would never be without it. A dose or two will prevent an attack of pneumonia or la grippe. It may save your life. The prevention of consumption is entirely a question of commencing the proper treatment in time. Nothing is so well adapted to ward off fatal lung troubles as Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by Evans Pharmacy.

Stop It! A neglected cough or cold may lead to serious bronchial or lung troubles. Do not chance when Foley's Honey and Tar affords perfect security from serious attacks of a cold. Sold by Evans Pharmacy.

Sullivan Hardware Co. have made preparations for the largest spring business in the history. The large and complete line of Agricultural Implements that they have on hand and are daily receiving convinces one that they will have the large trade they anticipate. They have for more than 10 years been a grade study of the needs of farmers in this line and the line of goods carried by them cannot be approached by any Hardware House in the State.

Sullivan Hardware Co. have two carloads of American Field Fence on hand, sought before the advance in price on it. This is the strongest and best Fence manufactured.
