Savannah Market.

SAVANNAH Argust 29.—COTON-During the past weak there has been a comparatively good demand for this staple, and between four and, five hundred bales changed hands, at prices ranging from 26 to 320 for cot-ton not mixed or repack d. Midding may be quoted to day at 30 to 30% C. Only a few bales of the new or my have yet been received, among which are the four bales the sale of which we reported a few days ago at 400. The stock on the market is very light. In Sea Islands nothing has been done during the past week.

New Orleans Market.

New Orleans Market. New ORLEANS, Angust 25. —Oorros. —The market opened this morning with a less general inquiry than yesterday, and, continued extremely dull, with the movement restricted to a few brokers, who showed lit-tic inclination to operate unless at concessions which factors would not yield. The day's transactions were consequently confued to 800 bales, five brokers particl-pating in the business. Prices were unchanged; if any-thing, the sdvantage was on the side of factors, especi-ally for even-running lists of good staple, but the rates pald for the inferior grades indicated considerable irre-gularity. In addition to the amount reported yesterday, 76 bales sold late in the evoning, which swalls the day's sales to nearly 1200 bales. Referring to the above re-marks, we repeat our quotations of last evening, as fol-lows: Ordinfary 25 to 270, good ordinary, 29 to 810, low indidling, 38 to 356, and uiddling 36 to 360. #### Memphis Market.

MEMPHIS, August 28.—Corrow.—Middling cotton was quoted in New Yora yeaterday 33 to 35, and the emarket nominal. Here there was exarcely any market. But few sales were affected, and but little was offered. No doubt the weater, which was miscrable, had some-thing to do with the duliness which prevailed, and which was fait in every department of trade. We quote tas follows:

Letter of Rev. E. F. CHANE, Chaplain of the 167th New York Regiment:

NEAB ACQUIA CRAEE, March 4th, 1869. Owing to the great exposure and terrible decompos tion after the battle of Antietam, I was utterly prostrated and very sick. My stomach would not retain medicine. An article called Plantation Bitters, prepared by Dr. DRAKE, of New York, was prescribed to give me strength and an appetite. To my great surprise they gave me immediate relief. Two bottles almost allowed me to join ray regiment. * * * * I have since seen them used in many cases, and am free to say, for hospital or private purposes I know of nothing like them. Rev. E. F. CRANE, Chaplain.

Letter from the Rev. N. E. GILDS, St. Clairaville, Pa. GENTLEMUN :--- You were kind enough, on a former oc easion, to send me a half dozzen bottles of Plantation Bitters for $3 50. My wife having derived so musa benefit from the use of these Bitters, I desire or to continue them, and you will please send us six bottles more for the money enclosed.

I am, very truly, yo-rs,
