LOCAL MATTERS.

SEE SECOND AND THIRD PAGES.

OUR READING ROOM.—We would call the attention of the public to our free reading room, which is now fitted up complete. Here the latest journals from all sections of the country can be found, as well as the latest prices currents, telegraphic bulletins, and ship news.

THE FAILURE OF THE MAIIS.—We take the following from the Richmond Times to save ourselves the trouble of writing it, and to show that the mails have failed north of Richmond:

We have been much embarrassed recently by the failure of the Northern mails to reach us. We believe, however, that the great and prolonged fall of rain in the past few weeks is the true and sufficient explanation of the matter, and we shall endeavor to possess our souls in patience until unclouded skies prevail, and the undermined railroads are repaired. Our readers will understand, under these circumstances, why we do not send more news. It is true that there are telegraph lines for the transportation of intelligence, but we suppose that their ordinary business quite fills their capacity, making them unequal to such an emergency as this.

THE CAROLINIAN AND THE RADICAL CHARLESTON MERCHANT.—The Columbia South Carolinian dodges our inquiry about the name of the Radical merchant. We are therefore compelled to consider the whole thing a canard, not only because it is improbable upon the face of it, but because we can find no confirmation of it here. We do not accuse the Carolinian of manufacturing the story, but believe that it has been imposed upon; and unless the Carolinian can give us the names of both parties concerned, we decline to say anything further upon the subject.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAILROAD.—From a letter received in this city yesterday, from Col. ALBERT FINE, the distinguished Engineer of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, we learn that what is known as the "Lebanon Branch" of that road is to be extended from its present terminus, "Crab Orchard," to a point on the Kentucky and Tennessee line, to which the Knoxville and Kentucky Road is now being constructed.

This action on the part of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad revives the hopes of the friends of the Blue Ridge Railroad scheme, as when Knoxville shall be reached, the best available route to the seacoast is via the "Rabun Gap" and Anderson C.H., in this State.

MAYOR'S COURT, October 15.—The Baehmannians were out in force on Sunday, and the docket showed a lively increase in consequence. A liquorish chap so far forgot himself as to indulge in too many smiles, and feeling in a jovial humor, thought that he would not go home till morning, and, by way of killing time, took a snooze in the City Hall Park. A wakaful policeman unfortunately heard him snoring, and rousing him from his soft bed of oyster shells, dragged him an unwilling captive to a more comfortable bed. He looked wild when called upon, but could not dispute the facts, and was fined $5.

Another inebriate, inspired by the muse and bad job, endeavored to sing tenor on East Bay. His love of music and liquor combined, made him produce such hideous sounds that several persons in the vicinity mistook it for the last trump or a jackass' bray. The police have a cultivated ear, and one of the stars being around, took the musician in tow, and introduced him to the academy, where his first lesson cost him only $5. He probably won't repeat his calls.

The next was a wretch with soul so dead that, being unable to find his own pillow, laid his drunken carcass in a market stall. This proceeding is entirely opposed to city regulations, as no live stock are allowed in those precincts. He was re-arrested from his humble couch and furnished with a nice floor in a shady place. These extra accommodations made him bleed to the tune of $5, and he went off murmuring that it was an extortion.

A poor shoat, who was apparently destitute of religion, tampered with the spirit to such an extent that he could wrestle no longer, and subsided quietly in Church-street near Queen. Being found drunk in such a sacred locality so shocked the police that he was immediately rubbed to consciousness with a club, and toasted to the asylum. His sacrilegious grimeaco, cost him $5, which was paid with an awful grimace.

An ignorant character, who never read the scriptures on any other book, was up for dispensing the fluid on the Lord's day. The catechism and the city ordinances were expounded from the desk, but in order to enforce their application a gentle reminder was imposed in the shape of a $20 greenback. The publican paid and fled.

One of the b'hoys, who was rather on the warlike order, was arrested for firing a pistol in his bar room. The keen ears of the police caught the sound, and marching in surrounded and captured him. As the young idea learnt to shoot for four years, the Mayor deemed any further instruction unnecessary, and charged the bellicose spiritulst $5 per shot. Being a man of means as well as night, he paid $10, and left cursing the high price of amusements.

PROVOST COURT, October 15.—United States vs. Marcus Rivers (colored).—Assault and Battery on Sam'l Greene (colored).—Greene commenced his statement by saying that he belonged to a church and scorned to lie; that he was working on a wharf with Marcus and they had a difficulty, and Marcus cursed him and dared him to fight,—his religion prevented him, so he merely shook his fist in Marcus' face, and told him that he could not fight. Marcus had a knife, and being addicted to cutting, he asked the crowd to take Marcus off; but a blow was passed and his hand was cut by the knife before any one had interferred. He was very mad, but he controlled himself on account of the church. Rivers' statement was rather different, for he made Sam to appear a lone sheep of the church, for he was very abusive and had struck the first blow. The Court decided that they were arcades one, and fined them both $5 or ten days; and told Sam that, being so religious, he should have recollected that a "soft answer turneth away wrath."

United States vs. Francis Gilbreth (colored).—Drunk and Disorderly.—Francis looked rather the worse for wear, and as if a hair of the dog would not hurt; but he plead Not Guilty boldly. The Sergeant of the Police found him on the street drunk and noisy, and ordered him home; he refused to go, and was very obstreperous, so much so that he had to be carried to the cell in the Guard House. The Court found that he had been in his cups and had lost his reason, and therefore fined him $5 or ten days' labor on the streets, which, they hoped, would restore his equilibrium. Francis was minus funds, but fortunately found a friend who lent him the required amount and released him from limbo.

A NEW BUSINESS HOUSE.—HOLMES & CALDER.—We would call the attention of our readers to the new firm of HOLMES & CALDER, whose advertisement appears in another column, and who are prepared for an extensive business in paints, oils, glass, &c. Mr. Holmes is the senior and only surviving partner of the late firm of Holmes & Co., who did a successful business on East Bay before the war. Mr. Calder, though without previous connection with this business, has the habits, connections and experience that give assurance of success. Both are natives of this city, and have been educated to its business. They have taken the old stand of L. M. Hatch, entrance on Meeting and Hasel streets, and there is every reason to believe that their enterprise will be crowned with success.

THE UP-TOWN GROCERY STORE.—Our friends on the Neck and in the Upper Wards will be pleased to notice that Messrs. LONISGER & WIENGENS have opened a large Family Grocery at No. 633 King-street. Their stock is large and well selected, and suitable both for country and city trade. Attached to their Store is a fine Wagon or Stock Yard.

King-street road is the great thoroughfare for drovers and stock-minders, and there are facilities than at Messrs. L. & W.'s. To the country trade great inducements are offered, and Produce is bought at the best prices, or taken in barter.

WE WOULD call the attention of the merchants and the public to a large stock of sugar, molasses, &c., advertised in to-day's issue, by Messrs. J. E. Hertz & Co. This molasses is all of recent direct importation, and will be sold from the Custom House Stores at the lowest rates.

ELECTION OF PUBLIC WEIGHTS.—At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Market, held yesterday, Mr. C. J. Beckman was elected Public Weigher of the Market street scales, vice J. P. Gailard resigned.

A MAMMOTH BOOT is to be seen at No. 250 King street. It is the sign of BRISTOLL'S great Retail Boot, Shoe and Trunk Store. Bristoll's Wholesale Store is at the corner of Hasel and Meeting streets. See advertisement.

LECTURE AT HIBERNIAN HALL.—A Fenian lecture will be delivered at Hibernian Hall to-morrow night, and all interested are requested to attend.

A MONUMENT, as big as the grand Pyramid might be built of the teeth that have been ruined by neglect. Shall this still go on in face of the great fact that SOZODONT is a certain preventive of dental decay? tue2

A DISCOVERY.

For restoring strength and appetite, use the great Southern Tonic, PANANN'S HEPATIC BITTERS, and you will not be disappointed. For sale by all Druggists. tu

COME TO THE FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, those who wish to be renovated. EFFING'S SANSAPARILLA and QUEEN'S DELIGHT is like the soft dew that gives the flower new life. All eruptions disappear when this balm is taken. For sale by all Druggists. October 11 tuth3

A MOTHER'S DUTY to her child is, first of all, to watch over its health. Among children, in nine cases out of ten, disease first manifests itself by a disordered state of the bowels. This is invariably counteracted by the use of MARDEN'S CARMINATIVE SYRUP. No family should be without it. Its general use would do away almost entirely with the fearful lists of deaths among children, which form such a startling item in the weekly reports of the City Inspector. For sale by all Druggists. October 15 6 KING & CASSIDY, Agents.

HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL NOTICE.—DRS. CLECKLEY & SCHLEY (of Columbus, Ga.), having permanently located in Charleston, respectfully tender their services to the citizens, in the practice of Homoeopathy. Rumors of Peace For days and months have lived, Despite the probabilities of War. The land's great heart is all attuned to hear The last dread echo of War's direful trumpet, And all men pray for Victory and Peace!

Rumors of Health Are borne on every breeze that comes From DRAKE'S great Laboratory in New York, Where he prepares PLANTATION BITTERS still, To heal the nations, and the sick restore. As all men hope that Peace may come, So all men wish that health may stay. To that end, poor Dyspepsia, Hypochondriac dull, Victims of Vertigo, Headache, Fever, Care, All take PLANTATION BITTERS, and are sure To find relief from their besetting ills. Let the whole World PLANTATION BITTERS use, And all the nations shall have Health and Peace. October 16 tuth3

PITTSBURGH, May 10th, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith: GENTLEMEN.—During a visit to the West last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health; having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterwards yielded my prejudices, and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep from the loss of which I have suffered much has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and, in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation in order that others may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended that I use them regularly. Yours, very respectfully, E. BOURNE, October 15 6 No. 45 Market-street.
