

LOCAL MATTERS.

To Correspondents. We are continually receiving communications on political and other matters from persons who do not attach their proper names to the articles sent, and we take this occasion of repeating that nothing can be published in The Daily News without being indorsed by some responsible individual.

AUCTION SALE.—The schooner Ari, about which the public have heard much, and probably would not have heard at all, if it had not been for the fact that she was sold yesterday by Messrs. LEXINGTON & BURNS, in obedience to an order from the United States Marshal. This schooner is well known as an Italian trader, and her past career has brought her prominently before the community. She was sold with her tackle, apparel, &c., for the sum of $102.

QUIT A SCARE.—One of the colored crew of the W. W. Frazier, while discharging his duties, stepped on a plank which he thought to be stationary, but was precipitated into the briny deep. Wary no swimmer! he went under, but, not taking his usual precautions, he was not able to keep his head above water. He was rescued by the crew, and taken to the hospital, where he is recovering from his injuries.

ALMOST A FIRE.—The inmates of Mrs. HILBES' fashionable boarding house were astonished by meeting a super-abundant smoke at their breakfast table yesterday morning. This naturally excited some commotion, and the guests scattered in every direction looking for the origin of the disagreeable vapor. Their fears were quieted when it was ascertained that it was "much ado about nothing," and the exhalations from a defective stove in Mr. SKINNER'S drug store had caused the alarm. A little fresh air soon dissipated the smoke, and the breakfast was not allowed to be done a moment.

CONVENEY'S INQUEST.—On Sunday, Convener WINTERS was called upon to inspect the dead body of Morris Swinton, a colored youth of about twenty years, who had been to a dance and returning home intoxicated, was found dead the next morning. Mr. WINTERS, fearing some foul play, called in Dr. FURNER, who held a post mortem over the deceased. On Monday morning a jury was empaneled who returned a verdict of accordance with the Doctor's chief-of-appoplexy.

On Monday night he was summoned to visit a colored girl of eleven years, who had suddenly died at No. 45 Henrietta street. After examining the case, the jury returned a verdict of death from neglect and want of the proper medical remedies.

WE WOULD call the attention of purchasers to the advertisement of Mr. J. N. BARNES, Agent for DUNN'S Powder. He has a large and complete stock, which will always be kept up, and which he will daily deliver to any part of the city. The Messrs. DUNN commenced the manufacture of their gun powder in 1841, and their powder is the standard, and an experience of thirty years with their former Agents here have always given complete satisfaction. Their establishment is one of the largest in the United States, capable of turning out one thousand kegs daily, with a capital of over two million dollars invested, thus giving a guarantee that purchasers can depend on what they get. Mr. BARNES is prepared to sell at lowest market rates, and indeed, he can be ordered from the factory in small lots.

AN OLD TRADITION.—Our readers will notice, by an advertisement in our issue of the 10th inst., that Mr. S. H. HARRIS, Sr., offers his valuable stock of goods, consisting of a large quantity of fine, choice, and liberal terms. This stock is now on hand at No. 296, and was prominently marked by having a large Bible over the door. It has been used as a bookcase for nearly forty years; first by Mr. J. A. ROBERTS, afterwards by Mr. JOHN P. BURN, and since by Mr. S. H. HARRIS, Sr. It is a good business at this position for over twenty years. An energetic young man, who understands the book and stationery business, would find this an excellent opportunity for starting in life.

THE CHARLESTON COLLEGE.—The examination of the Freshman, Junior and Sophomore classes of the Charleston College commenced yesterday. We do not enclose the names of the students, but we have the pleasure of announcing that the young gentlemen in attendance at that institution had made good use of their time. We were present during the examination of the Sophomore class in Algebra, by Prof. GIBBS, in Javelin, by Prof. MILES, and in the Philosophy of Language by Prof. PONCEAU.

It is refreshing, in these days of political turmoil, and the social struggle for dear life, to find a spot here where the undisturbed enjoy the undivided worship of their votaries. We could wish that the number of students were larger; and hope that a longer res anagula domi may cease to prove a barrier to the filling of these classic halls.

ECCLIASTICAL ARCHITECTURE.—It has been instrumental in making two blades of grass grow where only one grew before. So, in like manner, should he also be entitled to the praise of his fellow-men who helps to lessen the number of unrightly and vacant lots by erecting handsome buildings upon their site. Passing down George street yesterday, between King and St. Philip streets, we saw active preparations in progress for the construction of a large edifice. Upon inquiry, we learned was destined to serve as a church for some of our colored fellow-citizens. The situation is one of the best in the city for the purpose, and we know of several congregations, at different times, have had it in contemplation to purchase for a similar purpose.

THE GOOD REPORT.—Morning and Evening Lessons for Lent. By Alice B. Haven. New York: D. Appleton Co., 1887. The book receives its name from the text in Hebrews 11, 35, printed as motto on the title page: "Forasmuch as ye have seen the report of the faith of the book may be truly inferred from the title, which is thus described in the preface: "The Good Report consists of two lessons a day for forty days—the period of Search in the Promised Land." Each "lesson" is drawn directly from the Old Testament. The varied experience of the Israelites in their departure from Egypt—their wandering in the desert, their murmuring, temptations, conflicts, and final triumph—being set forth in which the application of the moral lessons is extracted. "The book is unique of its kind, wrought out with patient labor, rich with the experience of an earnest, tender, deeply-proved spiritual life."

For sale by Mr. JOHN HUBBELL, King-street.

And this our life, apart from public hand, finds sermons in stones, books in the running brooks, and good in everything.

THE FIRE.—The fire in the dining room in his night-vision at 10 P. M., but was extinguished by the firemen. The fire was caused by a gas stove, and the damage done was comparatively slight.
