PERSONAL.—Among the passengers on the Manhallan on last Saturday, was Mrs. Sickles, the mother of the District Commander. In compli-ment to her the Post Band was ordered to the wharf, and performed several pieces prior to the

THE OLD GUARD for August has been received. Besides the story of Mr. Simms and John Estima Cooke's battle sketch, it has a variety of articles. One, entitled "The South and Her Faltering Men, by the editor, will attract general attention. "The Basis of American Civilization," by Dr. Van EVERE, is one of the best from his pon. There i a good selection of other articles, which, with Editor's and Book Tables, make up a very good number. Subscribers to The Old Guard for the rest of the year got a steel plate portrait of JACK-

SUDDEN DEATH.—It is not often that we are called upon to feel that "in midst of life we are in death," but cases do occur when the suddenness of the shock takes all by surprise, and the truth of the scripture saying is brought home to every heart. The exposure to the heat of the sun has in many cases resulted fatally, but it is soldom that the resper Death gathers in his victims without some nonitory warning. A young lady of this city the daughter of a preminent merchant, attended church yesterday merning, but before night her life had flown, and a household was plunged in

THROUGH FREIGHTS .- Since the South Carolin Railroad Company has re-established its night trains the city has been enabled to communicate promptly with the interior, and country merchants who purchase goods in Now York can receive them in a few hours after they are landed at the wharf. The Augusta Daily Press of the 21st says that "we No Augusta Data Free of the 21st says that "we were shown a letter yesterday from Gen. Tor Andreason, agent of the Georgia Railroad at Atlanta, to S. K. Johnson, Master of Transportation of the Georgia Railroad, in this city, in which he says 'that Messrs, Garnerr & Bho., of Atlanta, received goods by train on Thursday at 6:10 P. M. from New York, by steamer. Bill of Lading, Invoice, and letter from shippers all dated July 15th. This makes three days. What think you of that? The goods came by the steamer Saragossa, vio

THE ANNAMESSIC FREIGHT LINE .- In the new era of reconstruction our people have awoke to the ne cessity of several enterprises that were formerly idered important. Among these is the quick delivery and transportation of freight from one point to another; and it has become a matter of pride with the railroad authorities to facilitate this movement by every means in their power. A grand combination of the leading railroads beween this city and Northern points has recently been formed, by which freight is delivered in a incredibly short space of time, and for greatly reduced rates. This line has been called the Annamessic, and connects the different Northern citie with Charleston. Portsmouth, Boston, New York, and the intermediate cities are now but a few bours travel from this place; and as the schedule of the different roads conform, there are no vexa-tions delays. Mr. W. J. T. O. WOODWARD, well known in this city, is the General Agent for this line, and is here to present the claims of the line to the public. The Annamessic Line is a new enterprise, but under the management of Mr. Woon wand there can be no doubt of its success,

THE RAILBOAD COSTROVERSY .- The Orangeburg News says: On Wednesday last, an application was made to his Houer Judge GLOVER for a writ of certiorari against the City council of Columbia. It seems that the City Council interfered in the lispute existing between the South Carolina R. R. Company, and the Hamburg and Columbia R. R. Company; and under the plea of abating a nuio, removed an engine on the South Carolina R. R. track, at the point where the other road de-R. R. track, at the point where the other road de-sired to cross. The spot happened to be in the middle of "Rice Street," one of the imaginary down as such on a map of the City, but which has nover been opened for travel as such.

The case of the petitioners was ably advocated by Hon. Jos. D. Porz; while with equal ability the 'City Council were represented by Hon. E. J. ABTHUS, (both gentlemen of the Columbia bar), who certainly made soveral very strong points in favor of the municipal authorities of the Capital.

His Honor Judge GLOVER reserved his decision.

This is an off-shoot from the celebrated rai-road case now pending in chancery between the rival CHANGE OF LOCATION. - Messrs, RISLEY & CREIGH

TON, on last Saturday, celebrated the occupation of their new store on East Bay, south of Unity alley, by a generous collation, to which the business fraternity received carte blanche invitations. Two tables were spread with the good thinge of this life, and the flow of spirits was a convincing proof that Order No. 32 had not affected their supply. The feast transmissions ply. The feast was prepared under the supervisof an old Charleston caterer, Tully, and was a pleasing combination of liquids and solids.

rs. Risley & Cheighton have made a move in the right direction, and the change in their base argues continued prosperity. East Bay is now rapidly losing its deserted appearance, and in a short time a vacant store will be a novel sight. It was a knowledge of this fact that induced Mr. P. S. Cocoan, the present owner of the store, to erect so commodious a building. The large West India trade done by Messre. R. & C. compelled them to store their bulky goods on a wharf, and the charge from their old stand was necessitated on this account. The new establishment is three stories in height, and has ample room for storing heavy goods, and we trust that the business of the city will warrant Messrs. RISLEY & CREIGHTON in always keeping it well stocked with West India cent notice, remarks:

The above melancholy announcement is copied from the Charlesten Dally. News of the 18th, and will be read with profound sorrow wherever he was known. The writer of this feeble tribute was late a co-laborer with the deceased in the office of the News—as also in the office of the Mercury many years ago—and if any man south of Mason and Dixon's line knew another, he thinks he knew him who is the subject of these lines, and he can truly say no more impartial or upright man ever presided over a printing office. That he was abundantly able to fill such a position no reader of the Mercury, in its anti-bellum days, or of the Naws, of later days, will deny. As a foreman he was acceptable to the craft—as a printer respected for his capability—as a man his opinions had weight with all who knew him—as a presiding weight with an war and a strize of quiet and un-pretending—as a friend strong in his attachment— as a husband kind and affectionate—as a neighbor

Ho was not faultiess. Who is? Perfection at-He was not faultiess. Who is? Perfection attaches not to our nature, and our poor humanity, while it may sometimes greatly orr, always hopes and strives to do right. Such was the case with our friend. He had a heart too large for his little body, and if, at times, in his haste, he wounded the feelings of another, he was most prompt in making reparation. This I have known him to do frequently, not only with myself but others whose misfortune it was to suffer the ills inseparably connected with a daily newspaper printing establishments. nected with a daily newspaper printing catablish-ment. But affliction came upon him, and he bore all with becoming meckness.

We were struck with the truth of this assertion is noticing, in our daily rambles, the horse of a dray man, whose head had been protected from the sun's rays by a large wet spen, o which was attach ed to the head stall. Instances are rare where the horse suffers from a sunstroke, but they are well authenticated, and the heat has any ra'e a'debilitating effect that is injurious to the working pow ers of the beast. To many persons the h the sole means of their support, and if he should become sick or die they would be thrown upo their own resources. It is obvious, then, that a careful man would use every means to preserve the vigor of his animal and we come

MAYOR'S COURT,-Two darkies, who did not have the fear of either God or man before their eyes, were caught descerating a sanctuary, and after a ecture on the immorality of their course were seo the lock-up for ten days, where they can medi ate on their folly. IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.—The fair sex necfew hints from any one, and especially from the so-called lords of creation, but we venture to call their attention to the advertisement of Messrs. STOLL, WERR & Co., in another column. These gentlemen know that the best antidote for the duliness of the times is to have a complete stock of goods, and to sell them at the lowest rates. The Charleston House has a long-established reputation to sustain, and the proprietors are determined not to be affected by the weather or the times, but are prepared to offer inducements to the public that will make them forget the depresion in the money market and invest their spare change.

One of the greatest pleasures in this life, espe cially to the ladies, is the time spent in shopping but this pleasure is enhanced when there is a posi tive knowledge that bargains will be secured. goods offered by Messrs. Stoll, Wenn & Co. have ocen selected with care, and are the best that could e procured. They have endeavored to accommo dato the price to the times, and are satisfied tha their stock, in quantity, quality and variety, is hard to be beat. The summer season has barely com-menced, and those who have not completed their dry goods investments would do well to give the Charleston House a call, and they will leave their oney behind them, but obtain more than ar equivalent.

Ronnenges .- After a long period of quiet and freedom from the midnight depredators, they have again commenced their vile career of crime. The oks at the Detective Office show that in the last week several robberies have been committed, but in every instance the parties have been arrested and the plunder recovered.

A slight conjugal misunderstanding led to the theft of $200 in gold, $60 in currency and $87 in Southwestern Railroad Bank bills. The loser suspecting the gentle partner of his bosom, lodged the information with the detectives, who succeeded recovering nearly the entire amount.

A robbery of $500 in jewelry and $70 in currency vas committed in Spring street, but the same ulating process brought the hidden articles to light and gladdened the eyes of the owner b their restoration.

The premises of Mr. CLAUS VOLMER in King street corner of Romney, were nefariously entered by an enterprising fowl thief, who was desirous of raising chickens; trusting to the darkness of the night, he pursued his unboly calling boldly, but was discovered and compelled to take refuge un-der the house, from which place, after a short con troversy, he was extricated, though not until he had received a memento of the adventure, that will keep him in the right path in future.

Some sacrilegious freedmen w mane, succeeded in mounting to the roof of Grace Church and robbed it of a quantity of sheet lead, but their sin found them out, and they were captured and confined. The lead was disposed of but here have been lead was disposed of but has been recovered, and the culprits will receive the punishment due their misdeeds.
