A CARd.

What is TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT, and what are its effects? These are questions which the great American public has a right to ask, and it also has a right to expect a candid and satisfactory reply. The preparation is a mild and gentle saline cathartic, alterative and toule, and is most carefully prepared in the form of a snow white powder, containing all the wouderful medical properties of the farfamed Seltzer Springs of Gormany.

Of its offects we would say that those who have tested the preparation are the best judges, and they declare over their own signatures that the preparation will promptly reliave indigestion. Regulate the flow of the bile. Cure every species of hesdache. Tranquilize the nervous system. Refreab and invigorate the weak. Mitigate the pangs of Rheumatism. Neutralize acid in the Stomach. Cleanse and tone the bowels. Assist the tailing appetite. Cure the heartburn.

If you are a sufferer give this Remedy one trial, and it will convince you of the above facts.

THE New York Tribune is grievously afflicted be cause General HALLEC's orders dates from the headquarters of the Military District of "Alaska," and not "Walrussia," us had been suggested by the philosopher of the Tribuns. This may be conered a sort of official baptism, says the Tribune sidered a sort of ometal papersm, says the Prionice, and so, it is to be presumed, the new territory will be called. There is a triding difficulty in the way of abbreviation, however, as the first and last letters are identical with those of Alabams. Yet that may be avoided by writing "Alas," or, 'Alak," either of which would fitly signify Uncle Sam's feelings when this heap of rocks and icetergs was thrust

The object is worthy of the serious attention or all who are engaged in the serious attention of all who are engaged in the cultivation of the legal science, and we recom-mend all those who desire to promote the culture of the law, to attend the next meeting, which will be held at the office of the British Consulate, in East Bay street, on next Thursday evening, at 8 colors.

It will be remembered by many of the old members of the Bar that a society of the like character was formed many years ago, on the roll of which we have the names of Hon. W. D. Ponter, Hon. A. G. MAGRATH, and many other of the brighter lights of the Charleston Bar. We hope that the members of this society will be as successful in their profession as those who organized the first Forenzie Clab of Charleston.

CHOICE AND CHEAP HAMS, .- In passing McKay & CAMPBELL's auction store, on Meeting street, yes-terday, we saw a large crowd collected, as is usu-ally the case on sale day, and a larger crowd of hams exposed for sale to the highest bidder, in "lots to suit purchasers." Though not a dealer in the article, but a dealer out to a number of little and big mouths, who had been subjects of the term "refugee" during the war, and have since had a proclivity for hams—boiled or baked, hot or cold, with or without without. with or without eggs—in fact, hog meat of any description; fer at that time it was "root hog or die." Thinking to indulge their appetites and gladden their hearts by buying one or two, we stopped, when a tot was put up. We felt our purse, and felt had, as its contents would not correct to the state of t tents would not permit so large a purchase when the cry was fifteen, tifteen and a half sixteen, going, going, gone. But mentioning our regret to a good friend who had purchased, of our regret to a good friend who had purchased, of our inability to take a lot, he proposed we should have one at cost price. Home it was sent—consigned to the pot, and received at dinner in good condition; it was found to be of superior quality and line flavor. We concluded to call at the store and buy a small lot if possible; when to our satisfaction we were informed that Messrs. McKay & Campbell, have about one hundred, which they will sell during this day, one or more to families at from
