TROUTING.

Off before your mother Fairly knows your out-Goodness! ain't it jolly Tramping after trout!

Tripping over mosses, Slipping over stones, Slipping over stones, Creeping through mornstoe, Chill'd through blood and be "Dipping" in a spring heles, Ripping something out—Goodnessi but it's pleasant Whipping atter trout.

Lightly drops the "tackle,"
Bit tely sings the stream,
Brightly burst to foam bells,
Like a poet's dream.
Splash I there goes a "lummer,"
Whitr I and he is out!
What school is see charming
As a school of trout?

Rat lesnakes | and sketers !-Bat leanakes! and skelers!—
Wet feet and burnt faces!
Who says suglers' lines are
"Castin pleasant! laces?"
Try it in Boar + iver;
But, before you trout!t,
Just ask M. + kiltor
What he thinks about it.

At Washington, on the 8th, the Taliapoesa and Chicopee, of 9-4 tons each, both paddle-wheelers, will be disposed of, as well as the little steamer Preston. The two latter will be sold without engines. At Norfolk the side-wheeler Agawan, of 974 tons, the captured iron clad Columbia will be sold without engines. At Norfolk the side-wheeler Agawan, of 974 tons, the captured iron clad Columbia will be disposed of. In the whole thirty-five vessels will be sold in ten days at five ports. Thirty-three of these are steamers and twenty-eight are side-wheelers. Some of them, like the Sassacas, have renowned histories. Some, like the Rhode Island, are famous for speed. Those built for the navy are very strong, but not well calculated for carrying great cargues. Most are designed for shallow navigation. All are superior to the average of commorcial vessels.

Augusta Market,

AUGUSTA, Feptern' er 28.—REMARKE.—Trade continues to improve, but has not reacted anything like the business of corresponding seasons prior to the war. Octon is counting in tolony and planters find they realize but a small proportion of their expectations. Our merchants new full stokes, which they will sells as rpidly as possible, at a slight advance · n cost.

Corrow.—The price of this staple continues to go down. A decline of 2 costs por pound has taken place since our last weekly report. This, to our mind, is almost unaccountable, in view of the certainty of a crop vary little and the continues of the cartainty of a crop vary little, and the continues of the cartainty of a crop vary little and the continues of the cartainty of a crop vary little, as a si "The present price of Cotton, it is well known, is based upon the anticipation of a full crop in the United States the present insil—that is, upon four millions of balca. This being true, failure to realize that number of bales must have the effect to raise the prece. COTAGE—Our market for the past week has presented an appearance of irregularity consequent upon a feeling of distrust of the future, coupled with the inherent smacity of factors to keep at old prices, and we have year gradually reduced figures, until to-day, when the degided deedins in New York to 23½c, called for more relaxation here, and Cotton, which could have been sold at 21c. early in the day, were claimed at 20c. and under toward the close of the market. Othessqualities, above and below Middling, are extramely irregular, and for them there is no quotation.

Crop accounts from the upland region of the whole South are vary condicting, and we gleen from all we have gathered during the last week, that some sections are worse than others, but that, as a general feature, our former estimate of two and a half millions of bales, will, to all present appearances be attributed as the sum total of the crop of 1857-68.

Each Music pupil receives fifty lessons during the Session, and can use a piano for practice, from one to three hours daily. There are six pianos in the College. The teachers in this department have had much experience, and excel as performers as well as teachers. BOARDING DEPARTMENT.

This department is under the immediate control of the President, and the young ladies constitute a part of his family. They will have the constant care of the lady teachers in sickness and in health. The rooms are large, well ventilated and well tearmed in cold weather. For the style of living at the College, the President takes the liberty to refer to Rev. R. P. Franks, P. E., of Spartanburg District, who, with his family has board in the College, at the same table with the young ladies and teachers. Also, to Col. William L. DePass of ors. Also, to Col. William L. Del'ass of Camden, Horace Nichols, Esq., of Columbia, who also, with their families, have been members of the College family. All young ladies from a distance, are expected o board at the College.

THE TEACHERS Have all had much experience, two of hem have taught over twenty-five years. The young lady teachers all graduated in one of the best Female Colleges in the South, and excel in their respective depart-

NOTICE.

Students coming by Spartanburg and Union Railroad, should leave Columbia or intermediate stations, on Monday, Wednes-day or Saturday—they will then come through without detention.

EXPENSES.

It is confidently believed that while this Institution offers high inducements, in the way of educational, social, moral and religious advantages, it holds out motives of a pecuniary kind, equal, if not greater than any other. Look at the advertisements of this and other schools, North or South, and parents will see that they make a saving by sending to Spartanburg.

PLEASE, After reading this, hand it to some one who has a daughter to educate, or post it up in some public place.

THOSE INTENDING to patronize the College, will confer a favor by immediately addressing the President, at Spartanburg, GENERAL REMARKS. Spartanburg Female College, under the patronage of the South Carolina Conference, was opened for the admission of pupils on the 25th August, 1855.

The site of the College Buildings is on of the most pleasant and desirable locations that could have been selected. The Campus encloses fifteen acres of woodland, on the summit of a hill, over looking the town of Spartanburg, and a half mile or more, distant from it. Secluded from the excitements and at tractions of the town thoroughfares, with a pure atmosphere, excellent water, and rural quietude, the pupils enjoy every facility for mental and moral culture. TESTIMONIALS.

It may be satisfactory to some to see few from among the many of the newspaper and other notices that might be selected, which have generously been taken of the College, location, teachers, &c. But our best epistles are our former pupils, scattered all over North and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Texas and other States.

HOLSTON CONFERENCE FEMALE COL-LEGE.—"We have been pleased to learn that the last session was eminently successful, and with the present able and efficient corpse of teachers, (three of whom are now in the Spartanburg Fernale College,) under the lead of Dr. Cummings, promises to fulfil the fullest hopes of its friends."— Abingdon Virginian, May, 1860.

HOLSTON CONFERENCE FEMALE COL-LEGE .- "Of the President, Rev. Dr. Cummings, and the Faculty, it is only necessary to say that the present examination does not detract anything from the high reputa-tion that they had sustained for many years as able teachers and skilful managers of a literary institution. The Committee feel safe in saying, in the language of one of the oldest and most active Trustees, Hon. N. W. Woodfin, in regard to the President, 'that they have the right man in the right place.'"—Report of Examining Committee of H. C. F. College May 15, 1861.

the Faber or the old English Camberland Lead Peneil, being a superior peneil for sketching, ornamental and

These pencils are very finely graded and have a very smooth lead; even the soitest pencils hold the point wall; they are all that can be desired in a pencil.
