THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF THE LATE HENRY TIMMONS.—We are informed, says the Columbia Chronicle, that, at the request of numerous friends of the late Henry Timmons, one of the most distinguished scholars in the State will deliver an address embodying the above named subjects.

REUMATISM CAN BE CURED BY KING OF PAIN.

"THE POOR WRITERS OF THE SOUTH."—In our issue of yesterday we gave an extract from Mr. E. B. SEABROOK'S paper in the October number of the "Galaxy," which we clip from a Northwestern paper. On reading the extract yesterday, we were surprised to find in it the following sentence:

"The moral degradation of this people, who composed the ranks of our rebel army during the war, was truly appalling."

This is an interpolation, forming no part of Mr. SEABROOK'S article, as published in the "Galaxy." This explanation is due to the author, and we take pleasure in making it.

HEADQUARTERS OF KING OF PAIN—No. 102 Market street.

THE MORTUARY REPORT.—By the last Bill of Mortality published, it appears that only thirty-two deaths have occurred during the past week. Of these nearly one-half were children under five years of age, and the remainder being adults. These Bills are published officially, and as each death that occurs is at once reported to the City Registrar there can be no mistake. Our city has never enjoyed better health, and with the approach of Winter even the trifling diseases that are incidental to a warm climate will disappear.

The disciples of Esquirol, who the proposed, even a "King of Pain" for the relief of the poor. Of these nearly one-half were children under five years of age, and the remainder being adults. These Bills are published officially, and as each death that occurs is at once reported to the City Registrar there can be no mistake. Our city has never enjoyed better health, and with the approach of Winter even the trifling diseases that are incidental to a warm climate will disappear.

We would advise a trial of the experiment, for the present healthy status of the city continues, even a "King of Pain" for the relief of the poor. Of these nearly one-half were children under five years of age, and the remainder being adults. These Bills are published officially, and as each death that occurs is at once reported to the City Registrar there can be no mistake. OUR AID OF ALL PAINS BY KING OF PAIN.

USA! MAJON.—The monotony of the business life was broken yesterday by the appearance of a stranger on Meeting street; but notwithstanding their anxiety to secure customers, even the irrepressible drummers stood aloof, and gave the newcomer a wide berth. There are few persons who have not heard of Coffin, the pet bear of Messrs. BARNES & CO.'S Restaurant. It was brought from the mountains of the West to the seaboard, and since his domestication in this city, has lived high and grown fat. It was determined to have a weigh-in, and he was carried to the Express Office, accompanied by a number of persons who wished to see the performance. Coffin was not disposed to walk a chalk line, and his deviations from the path of rectitude caused some scattering among the following. On the fact that he is a devoted devotee to the scales, and it was with great difficulty that he was induced to take a stand on the platform. His uneasiness prevented any accurate weight being taken, but it was ascertained that it was something over two hundred pounds. While in the office he made frequent sorties toward the spectators, but he was unable to accommodate any with a friendly hug, all keeping at a respectful distance.

The State vs. Ben Drayton—Larceny. T. B. KING, Esq., for the defence. Not guilty.

The State vs. Pompey Pringle—Assault and battery. The prisoner pleaded guilty, but at the request of his wife, who was the assaulted party, he was discharged.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, Hon. Geo. S. BAYAN PRESIDING.—Ex parte Joseph Lobley—In Bankruptcy.—A petition for the sale of personal property.—On motion of W. C. DeFurman, Esq., the court ordered that the Marshal sell the property and pay the proceeds of the sale into court to abide the further order of the court.

The United States vs. one box of tobacco, one jar of snuff and twenty-two thousand cigars, found at the depot in Columbia. Libel for forfeiture under the Revenue laws. Verdict—For the United States, and the goods be forfeited.

HENRY DAVIS and HENRY W. GREEN, petition for adjournment of bankruptcy. The petition was read by Isaac W. HARRIS, Esq., for the petitioners, and by Messrs. W. C. DeFurman, Esq., and on his motion, an order was taken out against defendant to show cause in Columbia, on the first Monday in December, why said petition should not be granted.

The petitioners of VALENTINE KELLS and ELIZA O'NEILL for citizenship were read and the requirements of the law being fulfilled, they were admitted to the rights of citizenship.

In the case of D. W. WALKER & Co., bankrupts, motion of T. Y. SIMONS, Esq., it was ordered that the meeting of the creditors be adjourned to November 14th, on account of the absence of R. B. CARPENTER, Esq., from the city.

In ADMIRALTY.—The Clerk of the T. W. BRIDGEMAN vs. LAURENS.—The Clerk of the T. W. BRIDGEMAN vs. LAURENS, Esq., read the report of the testimony taken before him, showing that the "as due to the intervenors $697.24, and for disbursements to the intervenors, $30, King, $250.37, and that an early sale was advisable, or the vessel would suffer.

On motion of PORTER & CONNOR, it was ordered that the bill be sold on Saturday, 26th inst., and the claimants paid out of the proceeds. If the amount realized was not sufficient, the parties to receive an equal proportion, but if otherwise, the proceeds to be paid into the Registry of the Court.

THE CHARLESTON ZEITUNG.—We have received the first number of the new German paper, which has been announced for some time. Its typography is all that can be desired, as indeed we knew it would be.—Mr. WALKER never putting his imprimatur on any but first-class work. The editor, Gen. JOHN A. WAGNER, is an old hand at the helm, and if the first number is a fair specimen of the Zeitung, our German friends, we feel assured, will not only have a high national representative, but will also, at all times, offer it a hearty welcome at their homes and at their firesides.

THE LIGHTS ON THE STREET CARS.—The Street Railway Company have at last perfected a change in the lights on the King street line, by which they are now easily distinguished. The light first used was unassisted too closely to the street lamps, and a change was necessary in order to let the public discriminate. A blue light was first tried, but the experiment proved unsuccessful, as it was of an invisible shade that could not be recognized from the darkness, and green was substituted. This last change has proved satisfactory, and the King street cars now have a verdant appearance that is visible even on the darkest night.

AUCTION SALE.—Messrs. MCKAY & CAMPBELL will to-day offer to the public a choice lot of smoked bacon sides, shoulders, trimmings, &c., and whiskey and wines. They will also offer a stock of a country store, and a complete lot of everything without any reserve, and should command the attention of city merchants. In addition to the other articles a superior seven-octave piano and good silver watches will be sold.

Messrs. MCKAY & CAMPBELL have endeavored to give some variety to their sales, and the public have seldom any cause to complain. Their sales room is large, and the arrangements for the accommodation of their customers ample, and we advise all who wish to test its capacity to be on hand to-day and they will not regret it.

RECONSTRUCTION UNDER THE MILITARY BILL.—A recent visit to the Citadel and a glance at the improvements now in progress, presented the military bill in its most favorable light. Reconstruction is there reduced to a science, and divested of all the theories that have added Congressional brains. The military authorities have made a practical illustration of the advantages to be derived from the bill, and have already improved the appearance of the Citadel and grounds. The fence enclosing the grove has been whitewashed, and the same color applied to the buildings. This is a great improvement on their old weather-stained and rusty color, and when the work of demolition and reconstruction is completed, the Citadel will be one of the ornaments of the city. On the King street side this change will be more perceptible, as, with the exception of the old Guard House, the buildings are now being torn down, and the grove extended to the sidewalk. If the same operation could be performed on the opposite side of the street, and the line of the old block be removed, the Orphan House enclosure would be considerably enlarged, and that portion of King street become a more fashionable locality.

INQUEST.—Coroner Whiting concluded an inquest held upon the body of Captain JOSEPH ALFONSO, who died suddenly Tuesday morning, just after leaving his residence on St. Philip street in his boat, lying at Union Wharf.

The following is the report of the post mortem examination made by Dr. MICHEL:

The autopsy examination revealed the following appearances: On opening the chest, a serous fluid escaped, as though the death was from dropsy of this cavity, but it was found that the fluid originated in the lungs, and was not a serous effusion. The lungs were healthy. The pericardium, or membrane around the heart, was ruptured, and contained a quantity of blood. The heart was enlarged, and the blood in the heart appeared natural in form, size and position, but the base was enlarged, and the coronary artery, formed by the arch of the aorta, this proved to be an aneurism of this great blood vessel, just beyond the point at which it branches into the right and left coronary arteries. The aneurism was situated at the point at which the blood, filling the pericardial sac, must have escaped from rupture of the aneurism, and the point at which this rupture occurred was directly over the right and left coronary arteries, and the rupture was situated at the most dependent part of the tumor, near the pendulous portion of the auricle. Calcareous deposits existed in the mitral valve, and the mitral valve was somewhat hypertrophied, but not dilated.

From these facts Dr. MICHEL, deposed that the deceased came to his death from "rupture of an aneurism of the arch of the aorta, caused by disease of the walls of the artery, and obstruction to the circulation of the blood in the heart. The rupture was situated at the most dependent part of the tumor, near the pendulous portion of the auricle. Calcareous deposits existed in the mitral valve, and the mitral valve was somewhat hypertrophied, but not dilated.

JUDGE ALDRICH.—A correspondent from Blackville, October 22, writes to us as follows: "Judge ALDRICH was on Monday suspended by the order of General CANBY. In announcing the Bench the cause of his deputation—his retiring to obey General Order, No. 89—Judge ALDRICH made the best speech of his life. The scene was solemn. The impression made upon the judges, bar, and all, was not beyond the power of union, harmony, prosperity, and reconstruction."

"Despite the fractional Congress, bitter hatred, and Radical power, the Judge maintains that he is still a Judge of South Carolina—retires only for a time till justice is restored."

The following is the order of General CANBY: HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., October 19, 1867. [Special Order No. 188.]

II. The Hon. A. P. Aldrich is hereby suspended from the exercise of all functions appertaining to the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions.

Authority is given to his Excellency the Governor of the State of South Carolina to provide, by an assignment of the jury, and the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions for the holding of the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions in the District of Edgefield, Barwell, Bamberg, Colleton and Orangeburg, to be held by the Hon. A. P. Aldrich, suspended.

Whenever, at a term of the Courts of Common Pleas and General Sessions in the Districts of Edgefield, Barwell, Bamberg, Colleton and Orangeburg, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of such Court to adjourn the same from day to day until advised that the attendance of the Judge is not required, he shall do so; and before the final adjournment thereof, it shall be the duty of the Clerk and the Sheriff of the District to cause a Magistrate, or other qualified person, to be appointed, and to organize for the purpose of making jury lists and drawing jurors. Said Court, so organized, shall then and there proceed to hold said Court, by law, and in conformity with General Orders Nos. 89 and 100, current series, from these Headquarters, to draw Grand and Petit Jurors for the next term of said Court.

By command of Brevet Major-General E. R. S. CARY. LOUIS V. CAZILARO, Aid-de-Camp, Acting Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 20, 1867. Mr. Editor: In your issue of the 19th inst., you seemed to be in doubt as to who will be the Injunctor of South Carolina. I, as a Carolinian, though colored, can tell you that, though it may not be a favorite name in your country, it is "ground colored," there is no doubt in our minds that no renegade Carolinian, or Janus-faced iron-clad swarrior, shall ever be our Judge. We may be sold out by pretended friends, but it will not be for three pieces of silver and a soft place in any branch of Government. Our friends must show a record further back than March 2, 1867, when we needed counsel, and they were absent; and now, when they think to get our help, they will find that we do not forget. On February 19, 1865, and March 2, 1867, are not the same year. A NEW VOTER.

PHALON'S NIGHT BLOOMING CERUEA.—This rare, delicious, delightful and most excellent perfume has now obtained a celebrity never excelled or equalled by any similar production in this or any other country.

It is its first discovery by Messrs. PHALON & SON, it has gained a world-wide reputation, and no toilet is complete without its use. It is not only a toilet compound, but it is strong, delicate, soft and deep, that it feels like a fragrance within the senses, so dense in its grateful scent that the mind almost imagines that there is an air of sound, and a festival of bow surrounding the chalice with the sweets of honey.

There are many worthless concoctions offered under the name of "Night Blooming Ceruea," but such are vile, filthy stuffs, with lasting powers limited to a brief period, and when offending, leave a second rivulet of tears, or a stinging inflammation. Not so with PHALON'S, it is pure, rich and delicate to the last, while the hardest washing will scarcely obliterate it from the handkerchief.

Our friends should be careful in buying that they get none other than PHALON & SON'S. This may be readily known, for each bottle, in addition to having upon it a picture of the rare and beautiful flower from which it takes its name, has, as well, PHALON & SON'S name indelibly stamped in the glass.

We are thus particular in speaking of these counterfeits, as some dealers unfortunately have displayed a handsome card of PHALON'S, and at the same time sell this worthless imitation; so be careful to get none other than the genuine. (See New York Daily Times.)

Systems Run Down. Persons who allow their systems to "run down," or rather run them down by over-work, accompanied by a neglect of the proper means of invigoration. The result is what is called "GENERAL DEBILITY," or in other words, a failure and partial collapse of the physical forces, accompanied, usually, by great depression of spirits. The best remedy in such cases is that of HOSPIETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Where the state of exhaustion has been brought on by excessive physical labor, disipation, anxiety of mind, exposure, or any other cause, the remedial effect of this great stomachic will be found equally prompt and certain. As a restorative, after severe exertions has prostrated the body and mental energies, it is pronounced by competent medical authority "THE BEST TONIC IN USE." If men were not foolishly careless about their health, and over-confident in themselves, they would always, when engaged in any work that required great exertion, use corresponding doses of invigoration, and thus avoid the prostration of HOSPIETTER'S BITTERS are invaluable. All orders should be sent to an invigoration.

For those constantly employed in in-door occupations, especially in crowded workshops, it may be reckoned as the very best safeguard of health. Where there is a predisposition to consumption, or a tendency to biliousness, they may be truly said to be a specific for which there is no substitute. Know thy Destiny.
