New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, October 18.—COTTON—At the opening, this morning, the scant supply of the better qualities to meet the demand enabled factors to realize full prices for those descriptions, but the market soon lost its bucyancy and there was an evident tendency to easier rates. Some buyers, in fact, claim to have bought at ½c less than they could have got the same kinds yesterday; others, on the contrary, paid full prices. The movement was checked, both by the limited extent of the supplies on sale and by the difficulty of negotiating sterling exchange, unless with an unusually wide margin on bill of lading bills. The business was consequently confined to 800 baies, a large part of which was taken by French and Spanish buyers. We now quots Ordinary nominal, Good Ordinary at 16 a 16½c, Low Midding at 17½ a 18c, and Midding at — a 19c.

New York Market. MONEY MARKET.

The New York Beening Post, of Monday, October 21,

The loan market is quiet, and there is little indication of activity in the demand either for discounts or for Stock Exchange purposes. As to the last mendoned class of loans, indeed, the brokers seem to be for the present independent of the banks, and to be getting what account odation they want from other sources. For call loans the rate is 7, and for choice commercial paper 7 a 9. The flow of currency still seems to be setting from the West loward this city.

LOPE FOR THE DESPONDING! INVALID. THE PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY was organized in 1848. Chartered by the Legislature, February 26, 1853. Name changed by a legislative enactment to the Eclectic hedical College, of Philadelphia, in 1860. In 1863 it purchased the Pennsylvania Medical College, established in 1342, and the Philadelphia Medical College, which had proviously been merged into the Pennsylvania Medical College in 1864 it purchased the Fenn Medical University. The Trustees of the separate schools united, peditioned and batained a special Act of the Legislature, consolidating these institutions and changing their names to that of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery, March 15, 1865. All these various acts are published in the statutes of Pennsylvania. The cost of the Uniding and museum was over one hundred thousand dollars. It will be observed that the University, as now organized, is the legal representative of the four Medical Colleges that it has absorbed. It is a liberal school of medicine, confined to no dogma, nor attached to any medical clique but embraces in its teaching everything of DEFER NOT THE USE OF

RODRIGUE'S PULMONIC ELIXIR SPECIFIC

In resorting to this remedy, the invalid can depend upon the safety of every article in its preparation, and while it accelerates the healthful ractions of each organ and vessel, the mind can be perfectly free from apprehension of any subtle ingredient being instinuated into its composition.

The appetite, which improves under its administration, is at liberty to indulge prudently in whatever nutriment is palatable, digestive and wholesome, and while it is no more than proper to avoid exposure to fresh cold, no fear need be entertained of any liability under this course of treatment to induce it. It is a pleasant AROMATIC CORDIAL, quite agreeable to the taste, and as a hung reviviryer and balsam of health, it is distinguishing itself as without precedent, and we trust will, ere long, claim for itself general acclamation for its unrivalled efficacy.

For sale by the Proprietress, Mrs. CECILIA RODRI-GUE'S, northwest corner of MEETING AND SOCIETY STREETS, and principal Druggists.

COLLEGE BULL'DING.—The College building, located in Ninth street, south of Walnut, is the finest in the city. Its front is collegiate gothic, and is adorned with embattlements and embrasures, presenting a novel, bold, and beautiful appearance. The facade is of brown stone, ornamented by two towers, rising to the elevation of eighty teet, and crowned with an embattled parapet. The building contains between fifty and sixty rooms, all supplied with water, gas, and every other convenience that modern improvement can contribute to facilitate medical instruction. Only five hundred scholarships will be issued, and as two hundred and fifty are now sold, those who wish to secure one should do so at once. Money can be remitted by express, or a draft or check sent on any National Bank in the United States, when the scholarship will be returned by mail, signed by the President of the Board of Trustees, JOSEPH S.
