NEWS SUMMARY.

Gold in New York closed last evening at 42. Cotton closed firm in New York. The sales amounted to 1400 bales, at 194 a 20 cents. Mrs. Muhlbach is writing four books about

"Germany in storm and stress." Sherman is said to be writing a book about the war, to be published posthumously. -Sir Morton Peto has been re-elected Vice-President of a Bible Union, which is probably inexpressibly gratifying to his creditors. -Charles Dickens will reach Boston early in November, as he is announced to sail from Liverpool in the Java, on the 26th inst.

-A Maine base ball club is debating whether t accept a challenge that has been sent from a club in Hamburg, Germany.

-A late Confederate officer, once employed at Charleston, S. C., has taught the Brazilians how to ase torpedoes in naval warfare. .-Mrs. Jefferson Davis is at present in Centre

Village, Vermont, visiting her mother, who is dangerously ill. -Frederick Hudson, late managing editor of the

New York Herald, began in that office as a messenger boy, at a salary of two dollars a week. -The Republicans are increasing their efforts to crrry New York. They are flooding the doubtful counties with money, and making every exertion to prevent their defeat at the polls.

-The Tennessee Legislature has enacted a law any distinction on account of race or color among thair passengers. -The Georgia State Road is prepared to liquidate its entire debt of $400,000 to the Federal Government, and that in a few days it will make the remittance to Washington. -Governor Patton, of Alabama, has arranged for the punctual payment of the interest on the State bonds which fall due in New York on the first of next month. -It is said Mr. Seward's mission to New York is to start a new conservative Republican party in that State, to hold the balance of power. The mission had the approval of the President. -The Congressional Committee has discovered that General Dyer, Chief of Ordnance, has been guilty of the mean trick of appropriating the inventions of a master workman to his own benefit

-Seven thousand five hundred naturalizations have taken place recently in New York city, under the auspices of the Democratic Committee, and five hundred under those of the Republican Com-

-B. C. Yancey, a brother of the great and lamented William L. Yancey, is a member of the Atlanta (Ga.) Radical ring. It is of little moment what party he joins, did he not bear an honored Southern name. -Hon. Jefferson Davis expects to leave Canada

-An intelligent New York merchant estimates that the shrinking in the value of American cotton for the year, between September, 1867 and 1868, one-half of which may be made up by breadstuffs in the corn and wheat sent to Europe. -The Mercantile Library of New York, in its last report, states that it has over 90,000 volumes nd 10,000 members. The local delivery system, by which books are sent to the residences of members, is in operation in connection with this library. -A meeting of cotton and woollen goods manufacturers was held in Philadelpeia on the 23d inst., for the purpose of petitioning Congress for a reduction of the tax on all industrial pursuits which come in direct competition with the cheaper labor and the capital of Europe.

-It is said Messrs. Johnson, Cushing, and James the commissioners appointed to codify the laws of the United States, have nearly completed their work, and will make a report to Congress at the beginning of the session. The patent and military laws have been greatly reduced and

One fact connected with the recent Ohio election, worthy of note, is, that seven of the sixteen Congressional Districts now represented by Radicals, have given decided Democratic majoritieswhich unmistakably proves that seven of the Radical Representatives from Ohio are misrepresenting their constituents.

-It is said that Mr. Bancroft, American Ambassador at the Court of Berlin, has had an interview with Count Bismarck, urging the withdrawal of Prussia's claim for military service on certain classes of former Prussian subjects now in this country. The Prussian Minister has promised to lay the matter before his sovereign.

-Miss Nelly Marshall, daughter of General author of Kentucky, young, beautiful, and distinguished, is to be married shortly to an Englishman of note-Lord William Mosgrove-himself an author. She will sail immediately for England-her future place of residence.

-District Attorney Courtney declares that the frauds of the Bourbon Company perma 's the transactions of every whiskey horse in Ne . York. Further seizures will be made within sixty days. No distillery will be remaining in the State of New York. Commissioner Rollins thinks whiskey should be distilled only where the grain is grown. -The Sorghum crop of 1867 is a failure, compared with the best of former years. The Sorgo Journal says that from most of the cane-growing regions in the West, the reports upon the condition of the crop are gloomy enough. Excepting a few favored localities, heavy rains have prevented the canes from maturing in season to escape the

-We learn from the Eutaw (Ala.) Whig that on the night of the 16th instant, Mr. Simon Altmont, a merchant of that place, was shot and killed by Captain Henry C. Claus, agent of the Freedmen's Bureau at that post. Mr. Altmont lived about one hour after he was shot. Captain Claus made his eacape. The friends of Mr. Altmont offer a re- avoided, either by the action of the city, the ward of two thousand dollars for the arrest of State, or private individuals.

-The Chicago Times dwells upon the loss of the German vote by the Republicans in the late elections and observes that, as slavery no longer exists in this country, the free-thinking Germans will gradually drift back to the Democratic party, which they left because they hated slavery. This, the Times contends, they will do because the Democracy are with the Germans in opposition to Sunday laws and prohibitory liquor laws, and in advocacy of the largest liberty.

—The Freedmen's Bureau will expire next July by limitation. It is understood that General Howard will not recommend its continuance beyoud that time in case the reconstruction of the South should be accomplished. In that event he will recommend a comprehensive system of education for the colored vonths South by the establishment of an extensive normal school at Washington city, for the education of colored teachers and the organization of normal schools for the same object in the Southern States. -A co-operative store has just been opened in St. Louis, which is the first attempt of the kind in that city. The amount of capital stock is placed at fifty thousand dollars, which is divided into shares at twenty-five dollars each, and each shareholder is entitled to but one vote. Any workingman can become a member by paying one dollar | ral hundred men; and they cannot persuade admission fee and ten per cent. on every share taken. Goods are sold only for cash, but members who are not indebted to the association may have goods charged to the amount of one-half the shares taken and paid by them. The Mercury publishes documents implicating Thurlow Weed in the business, and states that the Radical Central Committee know much more, which they promised to tell in case Weed did not come out for them. This, it says, was the lash that coerced him into support of that party after his recent faltering.

- An arrival from the Island of Hayti brings the ntelligence that the rebellion against the authoriy of General Salnave has ended. The Haytien army assaulted the stronghold of the rebels near the frontier of St. Domingo on the 10th, and the next day carried the place with the bayonet. The revolutionists fled into St. Domingo. The Haytien Government had since issued a proclamation suspending the state of siege. - The French army uniform, it is announced, is to be changed. The troops are to return to their old-fashioned dress, the Zouave trowsers are to be given up, and the old trowsers coming down to the instep resumed. The tight, short jacket is to give way to the old long tunic for garrison work, while the cloak is to be replaced by the old overcoat, which can be worn alone or else over the tunic. Instead of the present bonnet, without a peak, the old cap with a peak is again to be introduced, and the shako is to be in future of cloth, and not of patent leather, as hitherto. It seems that practice has proved that what was very suitable to Zouaves was not adapted to the majority of the French soldiers.

The Recommendations of the Retrenchment Committee.

The Retrenchment Committee, as sagacious business men, have struck the key note of financial reform in Charleston, in asserting the broad principle that expenditures must be cut down to the level of receipts, and that, where outlay exceeds income the outlay must be diminished if the income cannot be increased. Unless this principle is adhered to, it is useless to attempt to place the city finances upon a sound basis. Inconvertible paper currency cannot be made, by edict or ordinance, equal to coin; but, when the public know that income is meeting expenses, and that each year will show a clear balance sheet, there should be no making it a crime for common carriers to make difficulty in keeping such small currency of the city as may be required, at or about par.

In its details, the report of the Committee may meet with criticism; but the gentlemen who prepared it, in their earnest desire to advance the interests of the city, will not deprecate or condemn rational discussion.

The recommendations of the Committee may be classed under three general heads: 1. Abolition of existing offices. 2. Provisions to secure due supervision ond control of certain expenditures. 3. Reduction of salaries, including reduction in the strength of the police force.

1. The offices proposed to be abolished altogether are: Clerk in Assessor's office, Assistant Harbor Master, and Assistant Inspector of Streets. There is no apparent reason why the abolition of these offices should interfere with the efficient working of the departments to which they were attached. It may, and will, throw additional work upon the officers who cheerfully accepted. That it should be essential to the interests of the city to discharge gentlemen who have been faithful and industrious in the performance of their duties, is a subject in the performance of the performance remain, but this is a necessity that will be for Richmond about the 12th or 15th of November, of deep regret; but, as Charleston now stands, to be present at his trial. He is advised by his counsel to be on hand before the court opens, but they express a doubt if he is really to be tried this fall.

soon as Captain Wieting has sailed, I will again take a trip through the country and see what can be done, and if possible send another vessel this winter direct to Charleston. If we had steam communication between Bremen and Charleston this fall. that must not be forgotten.

2. To secure proper supervision of expenditures, it is proposed, generally, that no work will be equal to $70,000,000 or $80,000,000, about shall be done on the streets without the authority of the Committee on Streets, and that no bills shall be paid by the City Treasurer without the approval of that Committee and of the Mayor; also, that no bills be paid by the City | Sea Island planters on the first of December, Treasurer, except for salaries and contract in this city, to consider the necessities of the work, without the approval of Council. These sea coast of South Carolina, and to provide are excellent provisions. They should be for the prosecution of planting during the comeffectual in preventing waste and extravagance, which is all that need be said in their favor.

3. The reduction in salaries is large, but there does not appear to have been any discrimination. Total income has been the gauge, and it shows unerringly what can be done. Economy has always been necessary; and, when our financial reforms are completed, it is effects of an unpropitious season. hoped and expected that there will be seen no more of those violent fluctuations in city bills, which, heretofore, have caused so much dissatisfaction. Salaries will be reduced; but it is believed that the city officers will find their first loss lowered in importance, by the fact that they will not have to submit to a discount of twenty or thirty per cent. on the notes in which they are paid. The subject of the Police force is one that we approach with considerable hesitation. Our Police is composed of highly intelligent and respectable men, who can be implicitly relied on to do their whole duty, and who enjoy the entire confidence of this community. Their number is now one hundred and fifty, and it is Humphrey Marshall, of Kentucky, the f. orite proposed to reduce this to one hundred, while the pay of a private is brought down to $50 per month. The reduction is a considerable one, and could be justified by no cause other than the supreme necessities of the case. It was open to the Committee, of course, to recommend a reduction, in numbers, to eighty, and to allow the pay to stand at its present rate This, however, would throw twenty additional policemen out of employment, and it would bring the police force below an effective point. gests itself, but it may be practicable to find some modification that will lighten its severity. For the Charleston College, also, there should be a word of appeal. It is not likely COMMISSION MERCHANTS

The plan of the Committee is the best that sugthat it can, at present, be made self-sustaining and to forbid aid by the city will be to imperil the very existence of the College and, at the very least, to destroy its usefulness. Even now the Professors find it difficult to be paid. and, if every door of re'lef is closed, the Charleston College will soon be a thing of the past. Earnestly is it hoped that this may be

The Committee speak in terms of high praise of the management of the Board of Health, High School and Orphan House; and, it is firmly believed that these systems are. upon the whole, as practical and judicious as any that could have been made. Charleston must keep the blot from her shield. This city must not be placed in the position of a bankrupt debtor; and, if reduction and retrenchment do, unhappily, cause indivinual trouble, they will still enable the City Government, under its present administration, to maintain its ground, and meet in good faith all demands upon it. This is the great end to which we must all labor; this, alone, is the end that Messrs. MARSHALL, RAVENEL, OLNEY, ENSTON, and BUTLER, have striven to

A Nest of Troubles.

The republics, and confederations, of South Nos. 96 and 98 East Houston street, America are in an anarchial condition. They have known every variety of war, from perthemselves to bear and forbear, for the sake of peace and quiet.

In Paraguay the alien war is still in full blast. Another revolution has broken out in Peru, and in Chile movements are projected for knitting an alliance with Spain. On the ready for another expedition, and will oppose two iron clads, seven frigates, and two small craft, to the one monitor, one iron clad, three 135,000 bales were lost to the Government. But Spain is fomenting dissension, with the hope of breaking up the Government, and causing the withdrawal of Peru from the Chilean

Brazil has as much war as she can well manage, and may have a brush with the Argentine Confederation before the contest is ended.

These continued wars revolutions and outbreaks are fatal to advancement and healthy progress; and it is difficult, here, to suggest a remedy for the evils of which complaint is made. Neither republican principles nor monarchial practices should bear all the blame; and Brazil would be no better off under a President than Chile would be under an Emperor. The destiny of South America is not yet wrought out. Influences of climate, peculiarities of race, will have their steady effect; but, wherever a land is found that is luxuriant in soil and rich in mineral ores, there, also, will, in time, be born a race capable of working out the hidden treasure, and of adding to the solid strength of general civilization.

In the meanwhile, if some person could, and would, compel the South Americans to refrain from cracking crowns and emptying purses, it would be an act of benevolence as well as a profitable undertaking.

The Immigrants Coming,

Our people generally, and especially our German citizens, will read with interest the following letter received by General WAGENER, from Captain Melchens, the Agent of South Carolina for promoting immigration from Germany. It will be seen that, in spite of all difficulties and discouragements, the good work of immigration is steadily advancing:

OLDENBURG, October 3, 1867. General John A. Wagener, Commissioner of Im-

General John A. Wagener, Commissioner of Immirpation.

Dear Sir.—Since my last report I have been nearly always on the wing. I have travelled principally through the upper part of Germany, Saxony, Bavaria, Wurtemburg, etc. I have distributed your pamphlets through a great many cities, towns and villages, and the people begin to see the importance of South Carolina as a home for them. I am in hypes that by next spring, when the stream of emigrants begin to flow, some will seek South Carolina as their home. I have also sent a thousand copies of the pamphlet to Leipzig, to be sent to every bookstore in the country, where they will be advertised. I sent to five hundred newspapers, out of the three thousand which are published in Germany proper, copies, but from the returns I have seen so far, the press seems to be hostile to our scheme. I send by today's mail some specimens. You will notice the articles in the two Auswanderer Zeitung's. I called upon the editor of the Auswanderer Zeitung's. I called upon the editor of the Auswanderer Zeitung in Rudolstadt, in company with Mr. Vogler, whom I met in Erfurt, and asked for an explanation. He told me, he had not written the article himself, but one of his friends. He is willing to publish any answer to that article you may choose to send. In a conversation I had with him he asked, among other things, whether Charleston was not situated somewhere in the interior of North Carolina! Such people undertake to publish articles against a State of which they know positively nothing; still some people will believe them. During my travels I found a great many intelligent gentlemen to whom I explained the state of things in South Carolina, and these promised a hearty cooperation. Especially I found among those, who have friends in South Carolina, a great desire to assist in getting emigrants to South Carolina. My agent in Bremerhaven has already distributed several hundre'l pamphlets on board of vessels going with emigrants to the different parts of the United States. This may ind all prefer to go by steamer, especially the wealth-ier class, who are able to buy their own farms. I think you may expect some this Winter, who come by way of New York.

Very respectfully,
F. MELCHERS,
Agent of South Carolina,

IT is proposed to hold a convention of the ing year. The suggestion is an excellent one. It is hoped that a delegate will be appointed by each community as advised; and there is little doubt that free discussion, and concert of action, will enable the planters to overcome many of the difficulties which now beset them, and which have added to the already ruinous

ADVANTAGES OF AIKEN.-We have received a copy of a pamphlet bearing a New York imprint, giving a very elaborate statement of the climatic, sanitary and other advantages of Aiken and its vicinity as a place of residence. The aim of the brochure is to direct the attention of immigrants to the salubrious region of which Aiken is the centre.
