A BRILLIANT STREET PAGEANT.

IN THIS GRAND CAVALCADE AND MOVING PICTURE will appear a series of the most elaborately finished Charlots, gorgeously decorated Platform Cars, artistically finished Cages and Dens, containing the whole of the Zoo ogical Collection, the Band Charlot, of original design and resplendent decoration, called the Throne of Apollo, and a Cavalcade entitled the Crusador's Triumph, consisting of over one hundred and fifty Mounted Knights, clad in Burnished Steel Armor, with their Banners, Pennons and Insignia, and accompanied by their Ladles in Costumes of Medisval ages, all preceding the crowning feature of the Procession, a large Living Lion, borne on the elevated platform of the Splendid Tableau Carriage, loose, unchained, untrammelled, and free in the jubilo streets. This sight forms the Great Spnsation of the times.

And if you want the best combined weekly agricultural, Literary and Family Newspaper on the continent, send for Moore's Rural New Yorker, which is in advance of all others in value, variety and interest of contents, and superior in Typography, Illustrations, &c. The Rural employs the best talent in all its departments, and has a far larger circulation than any other journal of its class in the world—best evidence of intrinsic merit and superiority. Both press and people almost universally promounce it the Napoleon in its sphere of journalism. It is ably edited, neatly printed, and profusely illustrated—practical, scientific and useful, moral in tone, pure in sentiment, and highly entertaining. The RURAL is adapted to both town and country, but is mainly devoted to the interests and welfare of the rural and industrial population, among whom it has an immense circulation in all parts of the Union.

THE BURAL NEW-YORKEB is published every Saturdsy (not a monthly of only 12 issues a year), each number comprising Eight Double Quarto Pages. A new Quarter begins October 5, and Volume XIX in January 1631. Unity $3 x Years less to Clubs. Great inducements to Club Agents, and one wanted in every town. Now is the time to subscribe and form Clubs. Specimens, Show Bills, Fremium Lists, &c., akin Frenze—or we will send the thirteen numbers of this (October to January) or any preceding Quarter of this (October to January) or any preceding Quarter of this year (on trial, or as specimens), for only FIFIT CKMS.
