THE HOME FOR THE WIDOWS, MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS OF DECEASED CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS.—The dedicatory meeting of the friends of this noble enterprise was held yesterday at the Home on Broad street, a large number of ladies being present.

THE TRIBUTE OF THE COLORED PEOPLE.—The October report of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company shows very gratifying results. Charleston, as usual, leads the advance.

IN THIS STATE the colored people have always been orderly and thrifty, and they have not forgotten their old practices.

GENERAL CANTY'S report to General Grant, as Commander of the Second District, is published. The troops in this District amount to 141 commissioned officers and 273 men.

ASSASSIN OF FOWL THIEVES.—Another batch of these unfortunates were bagged yesterday by the detectives, and will be permitted to retire from the busy scenes of life for a while.

DECEASED.—By direction of the President Brigadier-General R. K. Scott, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedman's Bureau for South Carolina, as well as Major-General Daniel E. Sickles.

CARELESS DRIVING.—A driver of a cart was arrested yesterday for wilfully driving on the track and against Car No. 2 near the corner of King and Calhoun streets.

CONFERENCE OF THE BOARD OF TRADE WITH GOVERNOR.—Messrs. Edwin Baker, Henry Colton, G. Frobenberger, W. Turner, G. W. Clark, and Mr. Strauss, a committee of the Charleston Board of Trade, were in conference yesterday morning with Governor Orr.

NO DELAY IN COTTON SHIPMENTS.—The unusual rush of cotton during the past two weeks created a temporary delay which has now been entirely overcome.

AN APPARITION.—The huge elephant attached to the circus quarters assigned him in Sprague's stable, but not admiring the locality, stole a march on her keepers and took a moonlight ramble through the streets about the hour when graveyards yawn.

THE ELECTIONS.—The election of delegates to a State Convention, under the Military Act, begins to-day. No person will be allowed to vote who is not a registered voter.

THE DAILY PROGRAM.—The good people of this city were somewhat surprised yesterday morning on being presented with a new daily paper, which, though somewhat diminutive in compass, still was said to be one of the best.

A GOODLY DINNER COMPANY assembled last evening in the saloon of the steamer Charleston to celebrate in a social way the restoration of the vessel to the route between our city and New York.

OPENING OF THE THEATRE.—The attractions of John Robinson's circus proved too much for the "legitimate drama" last night, and the first appearance of the "famous artists in America" was greeted by a rather silent, but decidedly select, house.

RAISED BY FANATICISM against them, the only operation is most desirable, and it should join heart and hand in laying a deep foundation for the prosperity of the Lutheran Church.
