The State Tax of 1866.

In another column will be found an explanatory order from General CANBY in reference to certain clauses of State taxes for the year 1866. It is proper to mention in this place that General CANBY has consistently shown a desire so to use the vast power entrusted to him as to work the ple of the State at large. Military rule must always be condemned; but, in his willingness to listen to the explanations and suggestions of our public men, and in the enlarged liberality of his views, the General Commanding this District has shown that he is determined to make military supremacy as lenient and equitable as military supremacy can be.

The order published to-day will be the means of relieving many who, by the legislation of the State, had been embarrassed and injured. It will assist in encouraging the growth of that buoyant spirit which is the parent of business prosperity, and will remove one of those dangers which have hung like fetters on the limbs of trade and

As newspaper proprietors we thank General CARBY for the consideration shown the public press of South Carolina, - s. press which appreciates justice from whatever source it may come.

The Truth Coming Out!

General Scorr has made another report to General Howard upon the condition of affairs in South Carolina; and, as far as "Does Jean Jacques live here?" "Oui." "Look can be judged by the synopsis, which will out then for a letter," and down it would come be found in another column, it is the truth and nothing but the truth. This report, at least, is not written for political effect; and oritical. Fears are entertained that a coup it gives as fair a statement of the indolence lieved in Paris that the relations between the and improvidence of the negroes, and of the difficulties and troubles of the white people in this State, as could be either ox peoted or desired.

It is understood that General Scorr is now in Washington, and, if called on to do so, he can verify the words of his report from personal experience, and prove to the members of Congress, for once, that what has been published over and over again in the columns of Southern newspapers in regard to the condition of the negro was no fabrication to serve a party purpose but a plain recital of an unmistakable fact.

Intemperance at Washington.

A Washington correspondent makes some astounding disclosures in regard to Congressional "weaknesses." He states that one gentleman who was an exemplary member of the Congressional Temperance Society, a year ago, astonished and appalled the boarders at Willard's, one morning last week, by entering the breakfast room in his the Roman question has caused surprise, but night shirt, at about ten A. M.; another was an explanation of this course is found in the taken home in a hand-cart, not many Sundays since; while still another, over whose conversion all the ladies were, a year ago saturating their pocket handkerchiefs, and "carrying on" in a more melodramatic way than anything recorded of the Brick Lane "second wentur" was such a bright and guished Senator from the West), has been for a week or more, confined to his room and a diet of pickled cabbage to help him over a prolonged carouse, terminating in the delirium tremens. Nor is this all. It is not even the worst.

As this subject is a delicate one the name is withheld. Yet the eminent position of the inebriate in question is clear from the hesitancy and even dread with which the matter is referred to. The statement is to the effect that a particular case has become so serious of late that an eminent bishon of and has come all the way from Philadelphia to see what he can do in the way of reforming the eminent sinner.

In a late number of the Citizen John MITCHEL bluntly charges with this vice a great military personage. Spartan simplicity would be out of place in that centre of luxury and corruption. There life is excitement and the orgies of society are rivalled only by the orgies of legislation. But all this excess betokens change. The relaxed hand of the inebriate cannot retain the sceptre. When ALEXANDER revels his conquests end.

IT IS RUMORED, we know not with what truth, that JAY COOKE & Co., the Philadelphia bankers, have offered to take one hundred thousand dollars of the South Cartif, came before the Senate this week. Michel olina Bills Receivable at eighty cents on
