VEWS SUMMARY.

-At New York yesterday gold closed at 393. -Manchester was reported firmer. -At Liverpool cotton closed firm; Uplands on the spot and affoat 101 a 101d. T-The New York cotton market was less active and a shade lower, closing steady under favorable Liverpool advices. Sales 2100 bales, at 25 a 25 c.

-The printers in many of the large cities, on Saturday, set one thousand ems each for the benefit of the Artemus Ward fund.

-The first colored jury ever impanelled in Memphis is now sitting in the criminal court, on a murder case, where the parties are colored persons.

-There is a caricature in the Charivari called the "Saving Bank." Every one of the European powers, whose official journals daily say that peace is quite assured, are represented as busily heaping up immense piles of cannon balls.

-Burlingame's modesty certainly keeps pace with his advancement. In his letter to Secretary Seward, referring to his Chinese mission, he says: "The mission is not one to be solicited or rejected." Considering that it pays fiftyfive thousand dollars a year in gold, to say nothing of perquisits and pickings, his remark is refreshingly cool.

-In a recent article upon the London Stock Exchange, the Mexican debt, as acknowledged by Mexico, was erroneously stated at $1,000,-000. It should have been $100,000,000. Of this sum, about $60,000,000 is due to England, and $12,000,000 to Spain. About $5,000,000 are owing to France. This includes all that Mexico acknowledges of the Jecker claim of $750,-000, with interest. @

-The Spanish government has invited tenders for the construction of a submarine cable from Spain to Porto Rico and Cuba, with an extension to Panama and Nicaragua. It is not thought that much notice will be taken of the matter by capitalists, since it is stipulated that the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is to be deposited with the government as a guarthree years.

-The reports of poverty in London are terrible. Numerous committees are at work relieving distress in that city, besides the regular officers of the poor law board. One of these subordinate committees reported that in a week it had spent $1750 in giving fourteen Republicans in Congress, while it will emthousand persons sixpence apiece. In the bolden the leaders to push their revolution-Bethnal Green District it was stated there were about one hundred and twenty thousand people suffering from poverty.

-Mr. E. G. Squire, the distinguished traveller in Central and South America, in a lecture upon Peru, in New York, last week, stated it to be his opinion that the day is not far distant when the Indians of the interior of Peru will assert and maintain their independence, and in some form restore, as they several times have very nearly succeeded in doing, the empire of the Incas, under one of the descendants of those wise and powerful sovereigns.

-A New Orleans dis ... tch of the says: "There is great excitement here this morning in consequence of the grocers, market men and others refusing to receive New Orleans city money. Some fears are entertained of a riot, and the brokers in St. Charles-street have locked up their valuables and money in safes. The City Finance Committee to-day telegraphed to New York to stop printing the city notes. No more will be required or issued from the treasury. They will probably be entirely withdrawn from circulation soon.'

-In a recent address of Dr. Gaillard, at the Medical College of Virginia, it was stated that in the United States armies, during the late civil war, there died in action, or from wounds. of regulars, thirty per cent.; of volunteers, thirty-five per cent.; of colored troops, only sixteen per cent. The deaths from disease were, of regulars, forty-two per cent.; of volunteers, fifty-nine per cent.; of colored, one hundred and forty-one per cent.; and this, notwithstanding the latter were acclimated, while the white troops were from different and distant climates.

-A "Club for Ladies" is the latest institution at the Hub. A number of women living in the suburbs and outskirts of Boston have subscribed money for the purpose of building a club house for their own convenience in a central part of the city. If, after going to a place of amusement or a social party, they do not wish to return home immediately, they desire a place where they can sleep and breakfast | peace. without the expense and publicity of an hotel. During a midday visit, if hungry or tired, a spot is needed where a meal or rest can be obtained, and a room, if necessary, without being protected by a gentleman. The club house is intended to be a place of meeting where, as directresses of different societies, they can hold conference. Gentlemen, unless with the consent of all the members, will be rigidly excluded. Only those will be received who may have business reasons for coming. This enterprise is projected by several of the wealthier ladies of the city. Membership will be strictly confined to their own social circle. -A New York drummer, name 1 Frank W_____, stopped for supper at the little town of Salem, Ohio, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, a few weeks ago. He that is to say, in the five States of New was hungry, and fifteen minutes was all the time allowed for refreshment. At least seven minutes had clapsed before Frank could catch the eve of the waiter, when he was furnished with a cup of coffee and a plate of beans. The beans were but half devoured, when the landlord came along and demanded a dollar. Frank protested, but the landlord was obstinate, and "all aboard!" being heard, our drummer friend was compelled to shell out. Shortly afterward, being in Cincinnati, he inquired at the telegraph office if he could send a dollar dispatch to Salem, to be paid at its destination. The clerk told him he could, when the following was sent, C. O. D.: "CINCINNATI, December 10, 1867 .- To E. M. Stone, Salem, Ohio: I still think the price of your beans too high .-FRANK W ......... History does not record what Stone did or said on receipt of this dis-

-The New Orleans papers announce the death of the Abbo Isidore Francoise Turgis, of the Catholic Church, Father Turgis, who was a native of France, first came to New Orleans in 1860, having previously accompanied the French army as chaplain during the cam- can Union and eight millions of the Ameri-

were such that despite the slight tinge of brusqueness acquired in camp life, he at once gathered about him a host of warm and devoted friends. During the late war Father Turgis left New Orleans as chaplain of the Orleans Guard Battalion, and after serving with that command until their term of service had ex-Louisiana Regiment. In overy battle in which these two commands were engaged, Father Turgis was present at the front, and where the fire was hottest and the carnage most terrible, there was he ever to be found ministering to the wants of the wounded and dying. In these deeds of charity upon the battle-field he is said to have known no enemy, Federal and Confederate soldiers being alike the recipients of his benevolent offices. His funeral was a grand and impressive pageant. General Beauregard and other distinguished officers were among the pall-bearers.

-A Liverpool paper says: "In the returns made last month by the government emigration officials at Liverpool, there was one very significant feature stated, viz: that the number of Irish emigrants to the United States had undergone a considerable decrease when compared with that of several previous months The emigration officers were unable to account for it, although it was a known fact that in the English midland counties agents were at work, under the influence of the Rev. G. Montgomery, a Catholic priest, in getting together a number of emigrants, but for what destination they knew not. The simple fact is, that the Emperor of Brazil has long been anxious to establish in Southern Brazil an Irish Catholic colony, and that the Chevalier de Almeida, the commercial agent for Brazil, and his agents, have been very active in getting together suitable emigrants for the 'new Ireland.' On the 12th, the ship Florence Chipman, Captain Jones, sailed from the Mersey, for Rio Janeiro, with about three hundred emigrants for Brazil this being the first batch of the six thousand or eight thousand souls which will embark for Southern Brazil during the present year.' The Paris Liberte remarks in reference to this emigration, that the Brazilian Government pays the passage of the emigrants, and will sell them lands at the low price of fifty cents in gold, per acre.

The Result in New Hampshire.

"New Hampshire gone to the devil by the usual majority!" Such was the brief dispatch from one of our attentive special correspondents, which announced soon after dark last evening, that the Radicals had carried the Granite State. The result will disappoint many. The Democrats in this instance had certainly strained every nerve to achieve success; and, though their opponents were known to be lavishing money without stint in the canvass, it was yet antee that the contract will be fulfilled within | hoped that the fight might be won by the friends of the constitution and a restored Union. But the Radicals have not only swept the State, but count their majority by thousands.

This news will reassure the more timid ary measures with fresh vigor. To us of the South it should teach the bitter lesson, how uncertain are the currents of popular feeling in the North, and that our deliverance, if it can only be accomplished by a general political reaction in the Northern States, may yet be far distant.

Impeachment in Brief.

The present tumult of impeachment at Washington reminds one of a funny story told by Charivari of a man in France who was attacked by four or five robbers while returning to his home at night. A bright idea flashed upon him and he began shouting "Vive la Republique!" Instantly the Imperial police, to whom this cry was more terrible than that of fire or murder, gathered from all quarters, the robbers dropped their plunder and fled, the shouter was seized, of course, but on making explanations was allowed to depart.

Mr. Johnson in like manner has been seized by violent hands; he has been despoiled of one after another of his constituional prerogatives. A pocket "army revolver" of the GRANT-make has been wrested from him; his purse has been ransacked by an "investigating committee;" his watch and seals are gone, and with grave mockery it is proposed to replace them with a bulky brass time piece of the STANTON pattern. warranted never to go. Whereupon the outraged and indignant man cries out: 'Hurrah for the constitution!"-and immediately the police pounce upon him. And now the question is, whether he shall be punished for his temerity and disloyalty, or whether his property shall be restored to him and he shall be allowed to go bome in

We commend to the High Court of Impeachment the precedent of the French police. Of course, it is outrageous for anybody to talk about the constitution now-adays. Political necessity governs everything here, just as it does in France. The constitution has nothing to do with the status quo. But, then, let the circumstances be considered! What else could Mr. Johnson say? If he had cried as the despoiled Frenchman did: "Hurrah for the Republie!" this would have made his case no better. According to Mr. SUMNER, the "educator" of the Senate, a republic prevails only where negro suffrage is allowed-England and in the State of Wisconsin.

Conversions at the North.

A striking circumstance in the recent elections at the North is the change of sentiment they display among the young men and especially the working men. Intelligent observers remark that mombers of this class, heretofore enrolled among the supporters of the Radical party, now declare their intention of endorsing, supporting and working for the success of the Democracy. Their love for their party has been cooled by the effect of its unconstitutional legislation in Congress. Compelled to accept reduced wages and many of them thrown out of employment by the insecurity of public affairs, they are learning by hard experience that the interests of all parts of the country are identical. The North cannot prosper while ten States of the Ameri-

THE DAILY NEWS. | paigns of Russia and Italy, and having also | can people are kept in a condition of impoverishment, disfranchisement and disorganization, in order to secure the triumph of a political party. Among us they have succeeded in transforming a peaceable and orderly society into a chaos. Powerless to arrest their malevolent activity, we see them still sowpired, he became the chaplain of the thirtieth | ing dragon's teeth over our devastated country-impatient of the time when the expected harvest of armed men shall spring from the soil and join in headlong fight But others can do what we cannot. And those who can control the political affairs of the republic, now find that the restoration of Southern peace and prosperity is essential to their own welfare. They find our poverty and distress contagious. Hundreds and thousands in every Northern city are suffering on account of our sufferings, are beggared in our beggary. This is an argument against radicalism to which it can fabricate no reply.
