Benjamin McKittrich, of Abbeville-S. Mc-Gowan, solicitor. Referred to W. J. Clawson, Registrar.

In re D. C. Gist, of Unionville-Petition for leave to amend schedule E filed. Granted on motion of Messrs. Wallace & McNessock, solicitors.

The Newberry Herald and the Charleston Mercury were appointed papers to publish the notice of the assignee in the case of Isaac Herbert of Newberry, bankrupt.

Benjamin McKittrich, of Abbeville-In bankruptcy. On motion of S. McGowan, petitioner's attorney, it was ordered that the shoriff of Abbeville District be and he is hereby enjoined from selling any of the property exempted by law from the sale, as appeared by certificate furnished to W. J. Clawson, Registrar. The judge signed an order of adjudication of bankruptcy and a certificate of protection.

In Admirally .- On motion of Messrs. Brown & Mikell, it was ordered that the schooner Emma be released from arrest, as the claimants have given good and sufficient bonds, which have been approved by the court.

In the Circuit Court .- On motion of John Grimball, Esq., Attorney of Patrick H. Keenan and John A. Greenleaf, it was ordered that the marshall pay over the proceeds of the sale of a tract of land, sold under execution in the above case, to t he plaintiffs, subject to the costs of the marshal.

MAYOR'S COURT .- The audience was decidedly slim yesterday morning, and those who had business with the court remained in the anteroom and awaited their turn.

The first case was one of fast driving, and the aspiring Jehu was fined $5 for his effort. A colored man who undertook to get up a small fight, was charged $5 for his enterprise.

Another, who went on his muscle and showed fight too soon, was fined $15 for his precipitancy. Some cases of drunk were awarded the usual fines, the heaviest cases being charged $15, while the moderate drinkers escaped with a penalty of $5.

An individual who was charged with keeping a disorderly house, was fined $15, and ordered to abate the nuisance.

A case of selling liquor without a license was heard, and the delinquents charged $100 for their violation of the city laws.

A negro fellow who had taken improper liberties with a white girl about thirteen years of age, was sentenced to fifty days' retirement in the workhouse.
