O heart, what wouldst thou ask of Time? O heart, what wouldst them ass of 'time' Thy childhood's merry hours again? Thy youth's delightful golden clime? Thy later days ot sun and rain? Ah, no!—if only thou couldst live One moment of thy shadowed past, Had Time the precious boon to give, How sweet thy calm at last!

One moment to undo the deed
Of wrong our withil hands have done;
One moment to uproot the weed
That prospers in the baleful sun;
One moment only, to recall
Unkindly words and idle sneers;
Give this, O Time! and keep thou all
Thy store of buried years!

DEAN SIR—This is to certify that I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for the last five or six years, many times unable to move. I tried all medicines recommended to me for the disease, without receiving any benefit. Having heard "Rossadalis" highly spoken of, I procured a bottle, and finding some relief, continued it until I am happy to say that I am completely well.

I not only consider the "Rossadalis" a sovereign remedy for Rheumatism, but I bolieve it also a preventive, and cheerfully recommend it to the "afficted."

AS RAPIDLY DISTINGUISHED ITSELF FOR its wonderful restorative and curative qualities. Under its stimulative influence, and by its penetrative agency, this health invigorating cordial excites a general beneficial reaction, and disperses the impermeable obstructions which prevent access to other remedies. While gradually reducing the accompanying constriction which attends the malady it reproduces the essential warmth and elastic vigor of the respiratory vessels, which, by this remedial combination, promotes the healing process by which relief and cure is effected.

Hemorrhages are arrested and cured, with every other concurrent disorder.

As neither narcotic nor emetic properties or any kind are employed in this Pulmonic Compound, and the most assistances attention given to the quality and medical value of each component article which constitute it, it is confidently and conscientiously recommended for its safety and reliability, without restriction in generous, wholescene diet, or apprehension of renewed cold from its effects.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence:

Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one a case of recondary syphilis, in which the patient promounced himself cured after having taken five bothes of your medicine; the other a case of scrofuls, of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rossadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Yours truly,

Dr. J. Lawrence:

Dear Sir.—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure. During the last spring ahe was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches.—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
