-Gold at New York closed active and excited, but towards the close it declined to 892a894

-The New York cotton market closed dull -and lower. Sales 800 at Sic.

-At Liverpool, cotton closed a fraction easier. Sales 7000 bales; uplands 12da12id; Orleans 12jda12jd.

-The lecture "Across the Continent," it is reported, has produced ten thousand dollars for Speaker Colfar.

Hudson River Railroad are to be painted over, and hereafter the engines will be known by numbers only.

-The new Mormon Tabernacle, at Salt Lake City; contains ten thousand persons, but is too small for the congregation. A gallery, capable of holding six thousand, is to be erected.

-In London champagne is made out of petroleum, and is sold at eighteen cents a dozen bottles. At this rate it will probably supercede the genuine article, if any of that is left.

-Italy, as well as Germany and Ireland, is contributing its quots of emigrants to America. During March twelve vessels sailed from Genoa, carrying one thousand and sixty-six emigrants to America.

In manufacturing cartridges for the French Chassepot rifles large amounts of silk are used, and the demand is at present so great as to have caused a considerable rise in the price of silk in France.

The vendors of dewberries in Baton Bouge are divided into Dewberry Radicals and Dewberry Democrats. The latter claim to have voted the Democratic ticket at the late election, and they get all the custom.

Here is a terrible Copperhead sentiment from Dana's Radical Sun : "Every man who pays the income tax pays an unconstitutional tax, levied contrary to law, and which could not be legally collected of him."

-Corner loungers in Chicago are fined twee ty-five dollars for the first offence, fifty dollars for the second, and one hundred dollars for the third, and for further violations of the ordinance, any sum in the discretion of the magistrate.

-The last slave of Bhode Island was buried in that State on April 26th. The deceased had of course been freed long ago, but had lived for many years as a faithful friend and inmate of the family of the master.

-In England, a newspaper has at length discovered the line dividing a distinction from nce. It says that "a little difference requently makes many enemies;" while "a little distinction attracts hosts of friends to the person on whom it is conferred."

-A young lady with blue gaiters, blue dress. blue sacque, blue lace collar, blue hat, blue feather, blue parasol, blue fan, blue kid gloves, blue stockings, blue eyes and turquoise brace let, necklace and ear-rings, attracted attention a day or two ago on one of the New York ferry

-In the Paris Exposition, comparing the number of exhibitors with the number of , it ar cent. of the French exhibitors, fifty-two per nt of the United States exhibitors, fortyseven per cent. of those from Germany, and ty-six per cent. of those from Great Briwived awards. -Mrs. Disraeli, at an entertainment given in London, since her husband became Premier. yss literally a biase of dismonds. She wore a head-dress of black velvet, quite covered with clusters of them; and strings of diamonds ker's in their places by emera'd and diamond butterflies, fell over the body of the dress. -Mr. Thackeray, it is reported, never comneed writing without procuring a quire of letter paper. Half of this he would cover with of two-thirds of the Senate, and thus secure comic drawings; a fourth he would tear up into minute pieces, and on two or three slips of the remainder he would do his work, walking about the room at intervals with his hands in his pockets, and with a perturbed and woe-be-gone sion of countenance.

This admirable system, which entails no other expense than the assessment, has been in suc-cessful operation in Odd Fellows' and Masonic Societies, and among the members of the New York Police and Fire Departments. It is a cheap and satisfactory plan of insurance. -A commission, appointed some time ago by the French Government, to investigate the much suffering among this class of the people, and its causes are defined to be a want of labor, a want of capital, a lack of communication and instruction, heavy taxes on property transfer, and the bad division of the land. The French Emperor to contemplate. -General George G. Meade has issued a cirtestant Episcopal Church, of Atlanta, Georgia.

The General says: "Believing that my position will add weight to the appeal now made to Christian friends, and desirous of showing those who are by law placed under my command that neither I nor the people of the those of kindness and brotherly love, and that while we deplore the cause and regret the consequences of the war, we are willing to assist in relieving the suffering it has unintentionally occasioned, I venture to make this appeal to you to aid me in raising a fund to be appropristed to putting the house of our Heavenly becoming manner."

-Mr. Thomas Hughes, the well-known English member of Parliament, intends to try whether he can secure a re-election without be ing compelled to buy votes. He announces his intention of putting the political virtues of his constituents to a rigorous test at the next general election. The entire cost of the former probable no metropolitan borough was ever won so cheaply before. But he declares that he cannot afford to pay even $5500 for his seat again, and therefore he intends to do without committee rooms, public houses, and all the rest of the election machinery. The Pall Mall Gazette remarks that "if Mr. Hughes intends to ignore publicans, and printers, and all the odd people who look out for work at an elect he will deserve well of many who wish to see how the plan will answer without themselves ranning the risk of putting it in trial." Mr. Hughes is anxious to see if merit without money can win a seat in Parliament. CHARLESTON.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1868.

The Verdict To-Day.

The sun rises this morning upon an anxious people. From Maine to California the eyes of millions are turned to the Senate of the United States, before whom for so many weeks the President's trial has been in progress. The verdict is to be pronounced today. What will it be? The senators whose voices are to fix the President's fate are fifty-four in number, of whom forty-three are Republicans, as follows: F. F. Frelinghuysen, N. J. James W. Grimes, Iowa. James Harlan, Iowa. J. B. Henderson, Mo. Jacob M. Howard, Mich. Timothy O. Howe, Wis. Edwin D. Morgan, N. Y. Justin S. Mortill, Vt. Lot. P. Mortill, Me. O. P. Morton, Ind. James W. Nye, Nevada. J. W. Patterson, N. H. Samuel C. Pomeroy, Ka. Alcz, Ramsay, Mic. Benjamin F. Wade, O. Henry B. Anthony, B. I. Simon Cameron, Penn. A. G. Cattel, N. J. Zach, Chandler, Mich. A. G. Cattel, N. J. Zach. Chandler, Mich. Cornelius Cole, Cal. Roscoe Conklin, N. Y. John Conness, Cal. H. W. Corbett, Oregon. Aaron H. Craigin, N. H. Chas. D. Drake, Mo. 5. F. Edmunde O. S. Ferry, Conn. Wm. P. Fesseuden, Me. Alcz. Ramsay, Min. E. G. Boss, Kansas. Wm. P. Fessenden, he J. S. Fowler, Tenn. John Sherman, O. Wm. Sprague, R. I. John M. Thayer, Neb. Lyman Trumbull, Ill.

Wm. M. Stewart, Nevada. Charles Summer, Mass. T. W. Tipton, Nebraska. P. G. Van Winkle, W. V. Geo. H. Williams, Oregon. Henry Wilson, Mass Dailel L. Norton, Min. W. T. Willey, W. V. Richard Yates, Ill.

The Democratic senators are eleven, as coming the difficulty is by making the candidates as unobjectionable as possible. There is no reason to expect any postponement of the time appointed for holding the municipal elections. The presentation in the United States House of Representatives of a bill constituting the newly condition of the agricultural population of that elected officers a Provisional Government country, has reported, and their statement is for South Carolina is a hint to General comprised in several large volumes which have | CANBY that the putting off of the meeting just been published. They say there has been of the Legislature was not wholly acceptable, and that in the eyes of the driving Radicals all delays are dangerous. In about three weeks the elections will, in all probability, come off, and it is as well to preexhibit made is not a very pleasant one for the pare at once to nominate only such men as can take the iron-clad oath and will not in so doing forfeit the respect of their fellowular soliciting contributions in aid of the Pro- citizens. Of course, the State may be readmitted to Congressional representation by June 1st, and in that case any man who can take the registration oath is eligible to office. This may induce the nomination of gentlemen who cannot go further than the North entertain for them any feelings but registration oath, but such a course would seem to be both unwise and hazardous. But whether the nominees can take the iron-clad oath or not, let them be live and pushing men. It is time that the moss was stripped from the tree and the ivy from the wall. There is work to be done;-work for Father in proper order, and furnishing it in a the benefit of the laborer and artisan, the mechanic and the tradesman. Every man in the city is interested in reform, because upon reform depends his bread and meat, and that of his family. Reforms are needed in every department of our government, and the nominees for office should be men who will pledge themselves to make Charlescontest was $5500; and Mr. Hughes says it is | ton the most thoroughly go-ahead city in the South. It can be done, and should be done, but it cannot be done if the administration of affairs is entrusted to men who are older in crotchet and prejudice than they are in years. Men who are young in idea, young in energy, young in mind-this is what is wanted, and every consideration should be secondary to this. The meetings to-night have great power for good and for harm. If they will only act with the same common sense that is the characteristic of our citizens in the conduct of their business, they cannot come to a wrong conclusion;-if, on the other hand, they believe that moderation and dis-paign, they cannot do what is right.

-In Bussis, it is stated that the number of inhabitants has doubled within the past sixtytwo years, and at the rate the population is ng, it is expected that the empire will contain 150,000,000 people by the year 1900. Russia is said to have more young persons under the age of twenty, in proportion to her population, than any country in Europe, whilst the proportion of those between twenty and Messrs. FESSENDEN, TRUMBULL, GRIMES, sixty is less.

-It is related by a Western paper that a gentleman who was owing another one hundred dollars borrowed from the same creditor an equal sum, promising to settle for both in a few weeks. He then used the loan for the purpose of going through bankruptey, and wrote to his confiding friend, that he had redeemed his promise. The poor creditor got not a cent of either debt.

-Clothing and other goods can be procured for low prices in England. The Derbyshire Gazette contains an advertisement of a dealer, in which the prices of various articles, convertcd into American currency, are the following : Overcoats, $7; men's boots, $2 75; women's boots. $1 25; fuli black dress suit, $15 50; blankets, good size and all wool, $2 75 the pair ; sheets, very heavy and good size, 90 cents the pair; good gray calicoes, 7 cents per yard.

-The details of the war in Paraguay are quite horrible. The number killed on board the Brazilian squadron at Humaita was unusually large, and in one instance a boarding party were deluged with hot water from a nitor. It is worthy of note that three Brazilian iron-clads (English built) survived for forty-two minutes the combined fire of one within pistol-shot range.

-New York is enjoying a dish of scanda about the neglected wife of a nabob who is blunder. supporting herself by her needle, and who is described as a very elegant and accomplished lady. In answer to an infamous proposal on the part of the husband to obtain a divorce, the lady, who had been living in great seclusion, issued a neatly printed circular, stating who she was, and that she wanted to earn money to support her children. What the issue will be remains to be seen.

-The clerks of the New York Postoffice have formed a society the members of which bind themselves to pay two dollars to the treasurer on the death of any other member. The amount thus raised to be handed over to the family or representatives of the dead member. is to be expected, and the only way of over-

A two-thirds vote-that of thirty-six senators-will be required to convict the President. Assuming that the eleven Democratic senators will vote in a body for acquittal, and that Mr. WADE will insist upon and be allowed permission to cast his vote into the verdict, - eight Republican votes are requisite to overcome the decision the President's acquittal. Should Mr. WADE renounce the privilege which a majority of the Senate would doubtless accord to him, seven Republican votes would suffice for acquittal. Thus, the only chance of Mr. JOHNSON'S escaping conviction rests upon the possible defection of a few conservative and independent Republican senators from the standard of party orthodox. The doubtful senators from whom the votes required to secure an acquittal are looked for, are FOWLER, VAN WINELE, SPRAGUE, ANTHONY. Ross, NORTON, EDMUNDS, and MORBILL, of Maine. But it is to be noted that of these eleven votes claimed or hoped for by the President's friends, hardly one can be depended on as certain for acquittal. If, upon a preliminary count of the noses this morning, it should appear that the extremists can muster thirty-six votes, it is probable that the few stragglers will be whipped in, for the final vote, and that the President will be ousted by an unanimous, or nearly unanimous party vote.

On the whole, there seems to be but a slim chance that to-day's sun will go down sale by all Druggists. with ANDREW JOHNSON still occupying the presidential chair.

Nominations of Aldermen.

To-night the voters in the different Wards will be called on to nominate suitable persons for Aldermen of Charleston. The step is an important one; and as there is not, as hundred and eighty guns, half of the time in the case of the nomination for Mayor, any room for delay, it is all the more necessary not to commit an easily avoided
