CHARLESTON. MONDAY MORNING, MAY 25, 1868.

Every person, before employing a servant, should require a certificate of character. This will improve the class of servants, by convincing them that a good servant has a better chance of obtaining a situation than a bad one...

Somebody has blundered. The Emperor Napoleon, at Orleans a few days ago, declared, for the hundredth time, that "the Empire is peace"...

The Democratic meeting held in the Hibernian Hall on Saturday night was so far successful, that it was moderately well attended, and that the resolutions proposed were adopted without debate and without a dissenting voice...

The action of the meeting in regard to the convention lately held in Columbia, is sure, however, to cause some little irritation. Not only does the meeting formally disavow the authority of that convention to represent the State...

THEATRICAL EFFECT was not neglected by the Grand Schemes of the Radical Wigwag at Chicago. We read that when the unanimous nomination of their candidate was announced, a new drop curtain in the rear of the stage was uncovered, presenting a fine portrait of General Grant, supported by "Liberty" - Above was the motto, "Match him"...
