grotto. The latter is the beadquarters of the grab ant. The pillars are hung with presents bag department. ' for the little ones. The steps to the stage are surmounted by a beautiful arch in scroll work, on the opposite or left side of which, as we move around the hall, is a pair of scales, covered with evergreens and flowers, where church-refreshment and fancy. Very handsome and recherche. The old woman who lived in a shoe, a sewing machine, a French rotary ice cream freezer afunny thing, elegant embroidery aud all series of knick-knacks are the attractions here.

Dr. Girardeau's congregation have likewise a very tempting department, which testifies the industry and tasts of the ladies, and the generosity of friends. A tall silver palmetto fruit stand is one of the richest ad rnments of the hall. Coffee, ice cream, sherbets, osial drinks, cold 'am and cake keep a man's mouth too busy even for the compliments deserved. En passant we should not neglect mention of a book table, where one can supply his pew with everything, from a tract to a hymn-book or Bible. Three tables, devoted to the Lutheran Churches of Rev. Mesers. Muller, Bowman and Bachman, terminate the attractive list. All of these are like their neighbors, handsomely adorned, heavily freighted, and thoroughly illustrative of the good taste of the fair managers by whom they were supplied. The cakes, boquets, and pyramids of jellies, are beauties, to say nothing of the extensive bill of fare with which the ladies coax a customer into an epicurean alliance with the church. The band of the 6th Regiment was in attendance during the evening, the crowd was large, the expen-diture of money healthy, the ladies beautiful, and, altogether, the first night of the Fair was a decided success. Few left the room without a glance at the four evergreen letters over the door, Y. M. C. A., and in their hearts determining to accept the invitation, which they were evidently intended to extend, "You Must Come Again."
