On an average there are about Iwenty thousand strangers coming TRAVEL IN AND OUT OF NEW YORK. -We have ness nere, who come is and the same number go-ing out every day. That would be about seven millions a year. From this estimate we ex-clude the two to three hundred thousand emiclude the two to three hundred thousand emigrants arriving every year, and all those living outside and doing business in the city. The strangers we speak of are pleasure seekers, travellers and those who come on business. Supposing each individual spends only ten dollars, this would bring to our hotels, restaurants, places of amusement and other establishments an income of over seventy millions a year, to say nothing of the much larger amount spent at the dry goods and other stores.

POLITICAL SUMMARY.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE—HE WILL ACCEPT THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION AND CABRY OUT DEMOCRATIO PRINCIPLES CONSERVATIVE RE-PUBLICANS COMING TO HIS SUPPORT. A special dispatch from Richmond, Va., dated

June 15, to the New York Herald, says: June 15, to the New York Herald, says:

A report has been current here for a day or two that Chief Justice Chase would in a letter positively decline a nomination by the Democratic party prior to the Convention of the 4th of July in New York. I am authorized to state that such is not the case. If the Democracy shall adopt a platform in accordance with the well known principles of Mr. Chase he will serve, with the purpose of proclaiming general amnesty, restoring peace, abolishing military rule, and establishing the finances of the country on a firm basis.

rule, and establishing the finances of the country on a firm basis.

Mr. Chase is now in receipt of communications from the leading Republicans of the East, West and North, assuring him that if he receives the Democratic nomination on a platform embodying universal suffrage, they will heartily 60-operate in his election. So humerous have these been that there is every evidence of the widest disaffection towards the weak and puerile platform adopted at Chicago by the Radicals.

The New York Commercial (Republican)

We learn from Washington that the Chase movement is gathering new strength at the capital. It is whispered that Butler, with several other Radical patriots and heroes, will go over, bag and baggage, to Democracy, if Chase is nominated by the New York Convention. Butler proposes to uncork himself on Grant.

THE WORLD'S SUMMERSAULT. The New York correspondent of the Philalphia Ledger says:

delphia Ledger says:

The most important political occurrence since my last is the throwing of Judge Chase overboard as the Democratic Presidential candidate by the World newspaper. Its leader, this morning, is a complete retraction of its previous sentiments with reference to the distinguished gentleman in question. Parties in a position to know, ever that that article was the result of a sharp remonstrance from Democratic members of Congress, the substance of which was that the World was placing the party in a false position. THE BEMOVAL OF DISABILITIES. The Washington correspondent of the Baltiore Gazette writes:

The proceedings of the Senate to-day indicated somewhat a disposition to favor a general entranchisement of the Southern people. The bill removing political disabilities from certain citizens of North Carolina was under consideration, being amended by Mr. Doolittle, who added two names to the list, and by Mr. Hendricks, who moved to also insert the name of George W. Jones, at Tannassee. There was The treaty is a small affair with the Osage Indians, but is important as a direct attack on the combined power of the Senate and President to make treaties.

Hendricks, who moved to also insert the manual of George W. Jones, of Tennessee. There was considerable discussion over these amendments, during which Senator Ferry declared his intention to vote for all such measures until Congress should pass some general law adecongress should pass some general law ade-Congress should pass some general law adequate for the purpose. Senator Wilson opposed the amendment of Mr. Hondricks, but apparently only on the ground that the name proposed had not been before the Judiciary Committee in regular order. In referring to Mr. Jones he said he would vote to relieve him, and, as far as he knew, he was a good, honest man, but he (Wilson) did not like to see this legislative pardoning made a farce of, and he hoped ere long a bill would go through enfranching the great body of the people of the South, only keeping out those few who were the head and front—the instigators of the rebellion. Senators generally seemed imbued with this idea, and some such bill may soon be reported.

A glance over the list shows that the most of those who are in this bill were original secessionists, many of them among the most bitter opponents of the government during the war. They are all full-blooded Radicals now, of course, and hence this clemency on the part of the Radical majority. Out of the whole-list there are but two who are not now in full communion with Congress.

The following first rate notice of some of the South Carolina "loyalists" whom the bill is designed to relieve, appears in the Washington

On motion of Senator Stewart, an amendment On motion of Senator Stewart, an amounted was yesterday made to the bill to relieve from political disabilities certain citizens of South Carolina and Arkansse, so as to include in the bill Messrs. Hon. C. C. Bowen, representative effect from the Second Dis rict of South Carolina; Colonel F. J. Moses, Adjutant-General of that State, and T. J. Mackey, of Charleston. The bill then passed the Senate, and we trust will be acted upon speedily in the House. We are glad to note the adoption of the above amendment, as the gentlemen affected by it have proved themselves fully entitled to the confidence of the Union men of the country.

THE NEW TAMMANY HALL.

A New York correspondent says:

I took a lock into the new Tammany Hall, in Fourteenth-street, on Saturday, to see how the work was progressing, and the result satisfies me that the contractor will have to keep his men at it night and day, if he expects to have it ready for the National Convention on the fourth of July. The grand hall is still without its cornices, and the painters have not yet done anything, neither have the gas-fitters or upholsterers. Nevertheless the impression seems to be that the room will be ready for occupation in less than a fortnight from date. The hall, it is said, will have accommodations for three thousand five hundred persons, and if need be, four thousand can be squeezed into it. A New York correspondent says:

OURSELVES, AS OTHERS SEE US.

COMMENTS OF THE NORTHERN PRESS ON THE RESULTS OF THE LATE ELECTIONS IN SOUTH

[From the New York Herald.] if rom the New York Herald.]

The telegraph informed us yesterday that the Democrats had gained a majority of the districts in South Carolina at the recent local elections, having secured sixteen out of the thirty-one districts. There are about five white districts in the State—Spartanburg, Oconee, Greenville, Anderson and Chestorfield. But this gives only a faint idea of the extraordinary reaction in the popular vote in the State as compared with the vote on the new constitution. We find that in Union County the Democratic gain has been nearly two thousand. dinary reaction in the popular vote in the State as compared with the vote on the new constitution. We find that in Union County the Democratic gain has been nearly two thousand, in Kershaw over seventeen hundred, in Laurens over thirteen hundred, in Chester over one thousand, and so on throughout the State. These local elections show the strength of the Conservatives in South Carolina, and are indicative of what they are capable of doing when they bring out their entire force. Beside the practical benefit locally of the Conservatives in the United States.

vatives in the South polling a full vote, the moral effect in the North and West is highly important; and we suggest that hereafter, at every election, there be a united effort in all the Southern States to bring out every Conservative vote that can be relied upon. We have the Southern States to bring our order vative vote that can be relied upon. We have always believed that the white Conservatives, with such sensible colored voters as are not under the thumb screws of the radical carpetude of the radical carpetud under the thumb screws of the radical carpet-baggers and submissive to arbitrary military direction, are capable of countrolling every State in the South. It would be a curious but to us a not unexpected event to find the South-ern States instrumental in electing a Democrat as the next President of the United States. They can do it if they try.

[From the New York World.]

In seven out of the thirty-one districts in South Carolina which were said to have given ten thousand majority for the bogus constitution, the Democratic gain at the late county elections foots up fourteen thousand. This singular change has excited much comment, and is variously ascribed to the ability of whites to control the negro vote, growth of black conservatism, and so forth and so on; all of which, in our poor opinion, is so much bosh. The great secret is that at these county elections Congress had nothing particular at stake, and the returns were not, therefore, manipulated to suit. With carpet-bag candidates to act as judges of elections, and servile tools at headquarters, who would report that two and two made a hundred if so ordered from Washington, the very thought of an election in any of the Southern States is a farce, and it is our firm belief, for which we have good reason, there has not been from the beginning to the end of this reconstruction business one single end of this reconstruction business one single fair count of the ballots.

A Democratic club was formed at Roddy's Town, Chester District, on May 28, President, R. H. Fudge.

EXECUTION OF O'FARRELL, THE WOULD-BE ASSASSIN OF PRINCE ALFRED—HIS CONFRASION. The Duke of Edinburg, it seems, attempted sefore leaving Australia to obtain a reprieve for O'Farrell, but the Colonial Secretary would not hear of it.

not hear of it.

The condemned man preserved his composure and cheerfulness to the very last. When brought out for execution, he walked with a firm, steady, even step, his chest thrown out, his head erect, his whole demeanor that of a soldier about to be put to death for some petty infraction of military discipline rather than that of a murderer and a felon. He was dressed in a suit of some gray material; his boots were polished, his linen spotlessly clean, and his necktie neatly and carefully arranged. At the feet of the scaffold he knelt in prayer his necktie neatly and carofully arranged. At the foot of the scaffold he knelt in prayer with his confessor, then arose and shak-ing off the proffered arm of the hangman, ran lightly and quickly up the steps, looked up to see the position of the rope and ranged him-self directly under it. As he again raised his to see the position of the rope and ranged ninsolf directly under it. As he again raised his oyes, apparently in prayer, the cap was drawn over his face and the bolt instantly drawn which sent him into elernity. His death was immediate. He left the following statement:
"Being now about to appear before my-Greator
I feel it my duty to give expression to my heartfelt sorrow for the grievous crime I have committed. From the very bottom of my heart do I grieve for what I have done. I have hitherto said that I was one of many who were prepared to do the deed had I not done it. I had not the slightest foundation for such a statement. I was never connected with any man or any body of men who had for their object the taking of the life of the Duke of Edinburg. Never was I in any other than an indirect manner connected with that organization in Ireland and elsewhere which is known by the name of the Fenian organization. I zinh moreover, distinctly to assert than an indirect manner connected with that organization in Ireland and elsewhere which is known by the name of the Fenian organization. I wish, moreover, distinctly to assert that there was not a human being in existence who had the elightest idea of the object I had in view whou I meditated on, and, through the merciful providence of God, tailed in carrying into effect the death of the Duke of Edinburg. I have writien to the printers of two Irieh periodicals an address to the people of Ireland, and so certain was I of the death of the Duke of Edinburg that I stated therein that which I believed would be the fact, and I think I have more than implied that I was but one of an organization to carry the same into effect. I need but say that the truth of the latter portion rests upon slighter foundation than the former; in fact, that, unless from mere hearsay, I had no foundation for saying there was a Fenian association in New South Wales. From continually thinking and talking of what I may still be allowed to call the wrongs of Ireland I became excited and filled with enthusiasm on the subject, and it was while under the influence of those teelings that I attempted to perpetrale the deed for which I am most justly called upon to suffer.

COTTON CONVENTION .- The Cotton Convention at Boston, on its second day's sitting, discussed the question of the tare on cotton, which incidentally involved the question of frauds in the packing of cotton.

With regard to tare, the general desire seemed to be that the purchaser should be relieved from paying for that as so much cotton. On the subject of impure cotton said frauds in packing, several speakers acquitted the Southern cotton planters of all blame. Mr. Stimpson, of Massachusetts, said those frauds were the work of persons "fr.m the North." Mr. Nourse, of the same State, agreed with him. It was urged that cotton should be so packed and marked as that the packer could be traced out upon the discovery of fraud. This is the case with tobacco, through the system of manifests, marks, &c. Rasolutions to carry out these objects were discussed, without final action. Incidentally, something was said about the poverty of Southern planters, and the importance of aiding them in their operations of cotton culture. In the course of debate something was also said of the unfortunate results to the Northern men who hurried to the South after the war, and embarked in the cultivation of cotton with the most sanguine expectations. We all here know something of those eager expectations and blighted prospects.

Russian Policy in Poland.—A letter from Warsaw says the fury of Russianizing Poland is growing worse and more rigorous. A fresh utase of the Czars, which has not yet been published, interdicts the admission of Poles and Catholics to superior officers in the public service. The Russian language is replacing the Polish in all public and private transactions. Recently the police have recommenced treating with severity ladies who wear mourning garments. After the cholers of last year, and typhus, which riged severely for some months, a large numbar of families adopted mourning habits, without any idea of political demonstration. This the Russians well know; but they require that no one shall be in mourning without a permission, which must be shown on every demand of the police agents. The Russian language is also enforced upon all the mistresses of boarding schools for young ladies.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.-AS SOON AS an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quining was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSFETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was in sugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable reparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed up on the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSIETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their estoration to health and strength. For many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and its beneficent effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach, of norbid nature, and we are free to say that it can b relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation, after care of careful study and sitting, and are now reading the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and i therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

CHARLESTON DISTRICT .- IN THE COMMON PLEAS .- JAMES MCCABE vs. ROBERT MCCAR-ROLL.—ATTACHMEN I.—Whereas, the plaintiff did, on the thirteenth day of June, file his declaration against the delendant, who (as it is said) is absent from and without the limits of this State, and has neither wife nor attorney known within the same. upon whom a copy of the said declaration might be served: It is therefore ordered, that the said defendant do appear and plead to the said declaration on or before the fourteenth day of June, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, otherwise final and absolute judgment will then be given and awarded against him. J. W. BROWNF, ELD, C. C. P.

Clerk's Office, Charleston District. June 15

NOTICE. THREE MONTH , AFTER late application will be made to South Carolin Railroad Company and Southwestern Railroad Bank or renewal Certificate No. 2743, for 11 shares stock in the name of Mrs. R. C. MOISE, the original being ost or mistaid. 1ame3mes A YOUNG LADY RETURNING TO her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in tic city, was hardly recognized by her friends. in place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had soft ruby cop plexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of great a change, she plainly told them that she used the UIRUASSIAN BALM, as d considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentlemen can improve their personal appearance an hundredfold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet ansur passed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from also heating, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended i should be—clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
