The Ring at the Bell.

I can see her from here, 'neath the tvy-crown'd wall, Where I stand and impatiantly ring. As she sits by the window swaiting my call— I am late, all the little birds sing.

I learn by the flush on her blooming cheek, And the glance of her tender eye— In a language far sweeter than her could speak, That a heart that she loves is nigh.

And I learn from the quick and impetuous heave
That billows her bosom o'er,
That a footstep she loves is near, and believe
That she knows my ring at the door.
And I watch her eager, expectant glance,
As her pulses exultantly swell.
And hear her explaintly swell.
And hear her explaintly swell.
Chil ain't that the dinner bell ?"

On Saturday, the demand was very limited, but prices continued without alteration. Sales 108 bales, ordinary to good ordinary being quoted at 26a28, ow middling at 29, and middling at 29 1/4 30c per lb.
On Monday, the market was inactive with but little disposition on the part of buyers to purchase Sales 32 bales, middlings being nominal at 29% a30c

On Tuesday, the declining state of prices at Liverpool and New York caused the rates to recede 1/2 to le per lb. Sales 46 bales, ordinary to good ordinary being quoted at ,25a27, low middling at 28, and middling at 29c per 1b.

On Wednesday the market was quiet, but price were steady. Fales 57 bales. Quotations unaltered. Yesterday the market was stronger under better elegrams; sales 77 bales, say 6 at 22; 3 at 25; 4 at 26

40 at 28, and 24 on private terms. We quote:

SEA ISLAND COTTON .- The absence of stock and the almost entire suspension of receipts prevent transactions of any moment, and the only sales are limited lots, which are sold at irregular prices. The market consequently is quite nominal, and will continue so until the new crop commences to come for ward, and afford material for more active operations.

The general reports from the new crop continue of a favorable character. RICE.—The market for this article during the week has been extremely flat and no transactions of importance have transpired. Buyers were generally holding off or offering lower rates, while factors showed no disposition to make important concessions. Purchasers were offering about 10c. ? ib. for good clean Carolina, while sellers were holding at about 10%@10%c. B B. We omit quotations as Southern Floure—There is a small inquiry and prices are in the buyers' favor. We notice sales of 650 bbls at $9 25a10 75 for fair extra, and $11a15 for good to choice.

CALIFORNIA FLOUR—The market is inactive and prices have a downward tendency. The sales are 500 sacks at $10 25a12 75.

WHEAT—The market is dull and prices are decilining. Exporters are inaisting on a very material decline. We notice sales of 250 bushels now amber Georgia at $2 70.

CORN—The market opened steadily and closed about 1/20 better, with a good demand mainly for speculation. Sales were made of 122,000 bushels, at $1 05a1 07½ for Western mixed affact; $1 08 for high mixed pearly yellow, $1 10 for old Western mixed in store, and $1 09½ for white Western.

CARS—The market is unsettled and prices are about one-half cent lower. There is more doing, however, chiefly for speculation. The sales are $9,000 bushels Western at $11/285c in store, and $25/48524(c. 2007). There is a little better fealing in the therees, buyers' option, the balance of this hotal, a 16%.

RICE—There is a wordy market, with a fair inquiry. We notice sale, of 50 tes Carolina at 11½c, and 100 bags Rangoon, in bond, at 4c gold.

SUGAM—There is a better demand for raw for refining purposes, and as the offerings are not very liberal, prices are a shade better. We quote fair to good refining at 11½ at 1½c, and No 12 box at 12½c. The sales are 1270 hhds at 11½a13½c for Cuba, the latter price for clarified; 28 boxes Hawana on private terms, and 2800 bags Pernambuco at 12c. For refined the inquiry is rather light, but prices are not materially different. We quote soft yellow at 14a15c; soft white at 15½a15½c, and crushed, powdered and granulated at 16½a16½c.

and prices are nominal. No transactions are reported.

BEEF.—The market is steady, with a fair jobbing trade. Sales were made of 200 bls at $15a$20 for plain Western mess, and $21a$25 for extra mess.

SMOKED MEATS—There is no new feature in the market. The demand is limited, and, with a moderate stock, prices are unchanged. We quote bagged hams at 17a21c; shoulders at 14a15c, and clear rib at 17a17½c.

(UT MEATS—There is not much doing, but prices are not quotably different. We quote hams in sweet pickle at 16a17c, and shoulders in dry sait at 12a13c. BUTTER—There is but a moderate business doing. The receipts are rather more than can be disposed of, and receivers are willing to make concessions to effect sales. We quote Western at 25a30c, and State at 30a35c, the latter price for selected lots of prime.

and State at 30a35c, the latter price for selected lots of prime.

CHERRE—There is a trifling inquiry for the prime grades for export at about former figures. We quote dairy at 7a13c, and factory at 10a15c.

Land—The market is dull and prices are de lining. There is not much offering, and the demand is also light, rendering prices nearly nominal; 750 tierces sold at 16½6 for city, 16½6 for No 1 Western, and 16½a17c for steam rendered -Western. We quote steam rendered and kettle dried at 16½a17½c, and kettle rendered at 17½a18c. Also, for future delivery, 500 tierces, buyers' option July, at 17½c, and 250 tierces, buyers' option, the balance of this month, at 16½c.
