St. MICHAEL'S CLOCK.—This venerable timekeeper now presents to the world a clean face and a pair of hands that mark the fleeting hours with unerring certainty. The dial plate was repainted some days since, and yesterday the black numbers were added and can now be easily seen at a distance of several squares. It was thought that gilding the tips of the hands would render their movements more distinct, and this plan was tried on the south face, but it did not fulfil expectations, and the hands will be painted black, as originally intended. The horologist, who has charge of the striking apparatus, has not yet been able to arrange it satisfactorily, and the erratic strokes were the cause of much comment on

'Change yesterday. A Successon to Dill.-A correspondent writing from Camden states that on the 6th instant a Radical convention was held in that place to nominate a successor to Dill, and for other purposes. White was for a long time disconsolate, but after canvassing the town and ascertaining the strength of the convention nominee, he, with the in gratitude of republics, became disgusted, and retired into the shades of private life. There are many persons in Camden who are still strong in the faith that he will yet go to Columbia, notwithstanding the later nomination.

WALHALLA, -This quiet little village, seated among the hills near the mountains, in the northwestern regions of our State, seems to country, and yet it has advantages which will end it to those who may desire to pass the sea shore, or to invalids seeking to renew their health. Being contiguous to the mountains (it is quite near to the great tunnel of ANOTHER ESCAPED PRISONER JUGGED .- Bob | the Blue Ridge Railroad), it has a bracing atmosphere, cool nights, and excellent water, as cold when taken from the well as if it had ice in it. Being the present terminus of the vantage not possessed by many of the interior villages of the State.

But it may be inquired what sort of accomnodations does the village afford for the comforts of the visitor or invalid. These are very good. At the Walhalla Hotel (owned by Mr. Biemann, one of the few Democratic senslumbia) a good table is found, provided with an abundance and variety, with attentive servants and a most industrious, obliging landlady, who, in the absence of Mr. Biemann, is very watchful over the comforts of her guests, especially of those who may be sick. But one of the distinguishing peculiarities of Walhalla is their moderate price for board. Whilst in most of the hotels in the State, from Charleson upwards through all the interior towns, the price of board is from two dollars and fifty cents to three dollars per day, or from fifteen dollars to twenty-one dollars per week, the price at Walhalla for board equally as good, if not better, is but seventy-five cents per day, or five dollars per week-a very important consideration in these times of pecuniary distress among our people. Walhalla is surrounded, too, by an industrious, thrifty German population, from whom the village receives a good supply of poultry, fresh butter, vegetables and truit in their season, all of which may be procured at moderate

RADICAL MEETINGS IN KEBSHAW-WHITTE-MORE AND JILLSON BLOW THEIR HORNS.—Last week the Rev. Congressman Whittemore and Senator Justus K. Jillson held forth in the African Church of Camden. A correspondent dates for Mayor-R. S. Bennett and H. G. kindly furnishes some account of the dusky meeting. Whittemore said that "although Seymour's record was good in the early part of the war, yet in '65 he countenanced, if he did not aid, the New York riots, and the murder of six hundred colored men, women and children." Then, after a moment's pause, the reverend demagogue burst forth in his well known stentorian tones-"Great God, my colored friends. will you vote for the gubernatorial murderer, Horatic Seymonr, and know that six hundred colored men, women and children lost their lives by him?" Jillson followed the reverend blower, but his remarks were rather commonplace, with the exception of the prediction "that if the Democrats succeeded in electing their President there would be the bloodiest war on record."

The Naval Stores Question.

To the Editor of the Daily News In my communication, published in THE News of yesterday, I stated that the guaging of spirits turpentine in Charleston is ten cente per barrel. It should be twelve cents and a half; inspection and classification of rosin fifteer cents per barrel, when it should be twelve cents and a half-a difference in favor of Wilmington market of eighteen cents on spirts and three and a half on rosin. R. K. Scott, Governor of South Carolina.

To the Editor of the News: A paragraph has appeared in various papers alluding to Governor Scott as having been a resident of Philadelphia, and as having left that city in debt and disgrace. To correct this erroneous impression and do justice to Governor Scott, it is only necessary to say, what is literally true, that Robert Kingston Scott, now Governor of South Carolina, was never a resident of Philadelphia, and never passed six hours in that city in his life. The person against whom the injurious statements above referred to is supposed to be made is one Robert Kean Scott, and whatever may be true of him, it is quite certain that Robert Kingston Scott, formerly of Ohio, and now of South Carolina, is ready to pay at sight any lawful claims against him, and has means to do so fifty times over. Governor Scott is no penniless adventurer, but a man whose honorable record as a soldier and civilian will be attested by his political enemies as well as his

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU? This is the familiar question put to every invalid. In many cases the answer is, "I don't know exactly, but I don't feel well." Look at the countenance of the man or woman who makes this reply, and you will generally find that the eyes are dull and lustreless, the complexion sallow, the cheeks flaccid, and the whole expression of the face dejected. Interro gate the invalid more closely, and you will discove that constipation, the result of a discrdered stomach and a torpid liver, is at the bottom of the mischief "That's what's the matter." We have, after long study and many experiments, succeeded in producing what we claim to be the BEST BITTERS AND MOST PLEASANT BEVERAGE in use, compounded as they are of the most valuable ingredients known to Pharmacy. As a TONIC AND APPETIZER it has no equal—reliable in all BILIOUS DERANGEMENS, resulting from miasmatic influences, so prevalent at the South, and change of diet, climate and water. In offering to the Southern public our great TONIC AND BEVEKAGE, we only ask for it a fair trial, reeling assured its own merits will soon ensure its becoming a favorite at the South. It has all the pleasing qualities of a "Liqueur," and though under a small volume, is four times more active than other preparations. It is almost indispensable for r constituting the blood in females suffering from debility and loss of appetite, and for persons exhausted by nervous excitetite, and for persons exhausted by nervous excite ment or over-exertion. The benefit of these bitters are felt immediately. Dose is a wine glass full before meals.

Each bottle has our stamp and signature over the cork.
