MR. JOHN CALDWELL.-The "Mr. John Caldwell" referred to in The News of yesterday, is not a Charlestonian, but a resident of Columbis, and the father-in-law, of the individual usually known as "Renegade Tom Robertson."

ATTENTION, TAX PAYERS.—The second instalment of city taxes are now due, and the citizens are reminded that if they fail to settle, notification will be given to the City Sheriff, and executions will be issued after the 20th

THE Dog DAYS .- The law against stray dogs is now in force, and all such pets should be properly marked, to save them from the pen-alties of omission. Several dogs have recently come to grief for lack of the city ornament on their necks. They can be had for $2.

THE EAST BAY PALMETTO. -The solitary palmetto tree on East Bay, near THE NEWS OFFICE, was yesterday encased with a new and strong iron railing, securely set in a stone base. The railing, which is tulip-shaped, was fashioned by Mr. C. Werner, and is quite ornamental in design, as well as a substantial protection to our pet tree.

COLONEL MILTON COGSWELL.—It will be seen by the order from Department Headquarters. published to-day, that our ex-Military-Mayor, Colonel Cogswell, has been assigned to the position of Chief of Civil Affairs for the late District No. 2. His will be the onerous task of closing up the operations of the Civil Bureau, and of settling the differences between the military and the civil governments that have arisen during General Canby's administration Colonel Cogswell is known to our citizens from his past connection with our municipal affairs, and General Meade's selection, in this instance is an eminently judicious one. The office of Colonel Cogswell will be at the Citadel.

PERSONAL - Wm. Gilmore Simms is rustica ting with an old friend at Yonkers, on the ks of the Hudson.

The order of General Canby assuming command of the Department of Washington is published in the Washington papers. Lieu-tenant Ca: are is retained upon his staff as Aide-de-Camp.

The New York Commercial says: "James Wood Davidson, one of the most brilliant scholars of the Southern States, a poet and writer of fine ability, is at present sojourning in New York. He has nearly ready for pu tion a volume on the literary men of the South, of a biographical character. Mr. Davidson is a resident graduate of the College in Colum bis, South Carolina, and for a year or two past has been a correspondent of the Daily Times, TRON FRONTS. - Mesars. J. H. Deveresux & Co. are now erecting an iron front on the new building of Messrs. Cameron, Barkley & Co., at the corner of Cumberland and Meeting streets. This front has been furnished by Mr. W. S. Henerey from his foundry in Meetingstreet, and will be quite ornamental. The pillars will be surmounted by Corinthian caps, and the entire iron work will be tastefully finished.

The building in Broad-street, heretofore occupied by Mr. Jacob Steiber as a shoe store, is now being remodelled and will receive a hand-some iron front. Mr. Steiber temporarily occupies the corner store.

Mr. Walter Cade, the contractor for the new building of Mesars. Welch & Brandes, on East Bay, has laid the iron sills ordered for the entrance, and the front will be in keeping, though the milars will be of brick.

THE BRAL BRITH, -We publish an account to-day of the proceedings of the Convention of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, a noble Hebrew Benevolent Society which has its Lodges in nearly every city of the Union. The Lodge in this city, known as Dan Lodge, No. 93, was organized on May 5, 1867, the officers being at this time: President, B. Sprinze; Vice-President, A. Goldsmith; Secretary, Jacob Vice-President, A. Goldamith; Secretary, Jacob Loeb; Finance Secretary, B. Rice; Treasurer, J. Fisum; Monitor, A. B. Lewith; Assistant, H. J. H. Oppenheim; Inside Guardian, H. Furch-gott; Quielde Guardian, L. Kaul.

This Lodge is in a flourishing condition, and we are sure that upon a perusal of the proceed ings of to-day, which show the great and moral advantages of the Order, every Israelite will feel that it is his duty to become a member of it without delay.

CORN-ITS PROMISED ABUNDANCE,-The arrivals of corn by the South Carolina Railroad during the past week have been large and has reached some 57,817 bushels. This is almost entirely from Tennessee, a section which some years back did not supply this market, but which has been for some months past the main source from which the article has come. The corn from this region has given much satisfaction and is growing in favor, and when the great suitability of that section for its produc tion is considered, Tennessee being the greatest corn grower in the country, the time is not distant when our market may export large quantities of this article. The South has this soon for the first time since the war, secured an abundant harvest of this grain, and while persons in the cities and towns of the South will be ablato purchase it reasonably, the country will have an ample supply for man and

ACCIDENT OFF THE BAR .- ONE MAN DROWNED. On Saturday morning, while the boat of two fishermen named Jennings and Pinckney, was off the north bar, it was capsized by a sudden flaw, and the occupants thrown into the water. Pinckney was drowned, but Jennings succeeded in clinging to the boat until rescued by Mr. Spencer Terry, whose boat was near, and who saw the accident and hastened to the spot. Pinckney's body was not found at last accounts, and will probably be carried out to sea, as the boat was capsized in the breakers the present either at the Citadel or at Summerville, as the Health Officer may advise. The summer has, thus far, been particularly healthy, so that it is likely that the garri on will re-occupy their old quarters at the Citadel. The force now stationed at Summerville is quartered in tents.

SPIRITED ACTION OF THE COLORED DEMO-CRATIC CLUBS .- At a meeting of the colored Democratic Club of Ward 4, held in Smithstreet, the following was adopted:

According to the laws made and provided by the "Constitutional Convention of South Caro-lina," held in this city and adopted by the Republican party, the privileges of free spe ch, a free press, and free action in politics, were accorded to all men. We would like to know if the Republican party can molest a meeting held by colored Democrate, without violating their own laws, and the principles of their party.

[Signed] WM. L. GURDIN, President.

WM. COLLINS, Vice-President.

The Colored Democratic Club of Ward 6, in reply to the speeches of Saturday night, made to the rowdies who collected on that occasion, adopted the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, The Radical speakers in referring to the Democratic Clubs of this city, stated that the present was a good time to drink the Democratic whiskey and eat their bread and butter, yet the time was coming when the so-called colored Democrate would show to what party they owed their allegiance by voting the Republican ticket; therefore,

Resoured, That as colored Democrats we should show to whom we owe our allegiance, and that can only be done by voting the Democratic ticket, and not the scalawag ticket, for we are sick of that class. We shall vote the Democratic ticket not for whiskey, nor for bread and butter, but for our principles and for the good of the country.

The Colored Democratic Club of Ward 6.

PIONEER CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY .- The annual meeting of this Association took place last night at Masonic Hall, and was a full and enthusiastic gathering of the members. The reports of the several departments were presented and gave evidence of the healthy and vigorous condition of the affairs of the society. The organization, although from its very nature, offering no inducements to capitalists, has been found eminently subservient to the interest of those for whose benefit it was established. It offers an absolute certainty of saving a large percentage yearly on what must necessarily be expended by the y household. The difficulties and embarra, ments encountered by the society at the outset have now been fairly overcome, and every day that passes adds to the guarantee of its success and per-manence. The store on Market-street origitoo small to accommodate its constantly increasing business, and a move has, therefore, been determined on. The spacious and eligibly situated store at the southwest corner of Meeting and Market streets has been rented, and will soon be thoroughly overhauled

BADENHOP ON THE BAY, -The old "Palmetto" Shades" on East Bay, opposite Atlantic wharves, has been fitted up as a bijou restaurant by Badenhop & Co., of Meeting-street fame, and will be opened at eleven o'clock this morning, when the friends of the establishment are invited to lunch. Those who are familiar with the style in which Badenhop & & Co. usually "fix up things," will not be apt to slight the invitation.

THE NASHVILLE AND CHATTANOOGA RAIL-ROAD ELECTION .- Mr. Henry Cobia, one of the proxies appointed to represent Charleston at the annual meeting of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad Company, returned to this city yesterday. The old Board, as they did last year, refused to allow Charleston to vote for her stock upon the general elections, but the Charleston and Georgia ticket was nevertheless elected by about 1800 majority. Col. E. C. Cole was elected President, and Mr. Thomas elected by the Directors General Superintendent. The contest was a sharp one, and in its course Judge King, of Georgia, made a scathing speech, in which he denounce ed the old Directors and asserted that they had spent $3,000,000, of which they had given no satisfactory account.

The Naval Stores Imbroglio:

CHARLESTON, August 15, 1868. To the Editor of the Charleston Daily News: I have delayed a reply to the several commu nications that have appeared in your issue of the 11th inst. and since, signed "Tar Heel," for the reason that I wish to give to the public a full and correct statement of charges made on naval stores in Wilmington. If "Tar Heel" had displayed as much zeal in getting information with regard to charges in Wilmington as he did in giving my charges to the public, there would not have been any necessity for reply to his many communications. He would have found the difference between my charges and the charges in Wilmington were so slight that it would not have been worth the notice of those interested, and, consequently, he would not have seen the necessity of getting up the "Tempest in a Teapot" that has not con-vulsed the community. "Tar Heel" gives my charge to the public as sixteen cents for inspection and clrssification against the charge of five cents in Wilmington for the same service. He does me great injustice: I do not say from design. I am charitable enough to conclude that it is from ignorance of the subject which he has undertaken to handle. My charges cover not only classification of spirits turpentine, but cooperage, which means putting the article in good shipping order, and necessitates an outlay of both material and labor, all of which I have to furnish. In Wilmington the guager is the inspecior. When he has guaged and classified the turpentine, the packages are turned over to the cooper, who makes his charge of "ten" cents-the lowest charge made there for putting it in shipping order. The latter item, which is two-thirds of the entire charge, was omitted by "Tar Heel." I do not say intentionally. My charges in comparison with Wilmington charges are one cent more per barrel than the lowest charge there for the same service. I will here mention that with the guaging of spirits of turpentine I have nothing whatever to do; it is a separate and distinct charge. The guager here is able to paddle his own cance-can and will, I doubt not, vindicate his own cause. "Tar Heel" says the charges nally occupied by the society, has been found in Wilmington for inspection of crude turpentine is three cents per barrel. In this he is incorrect; it is six cents; the buyer, however, paying this charge. But another very important item overlooked by "Tar Heel" is a charge of from ten to fifteen cents for cooperage, which the seller pays. For the information of "Tar and prepared for use as the Co-operative sales-room. The balance sheet of the society, as most, if not all, the crude turpentine shipped most, if not all, the crude turpentine shipped $4,517 35 market. I deny the latter charge with regard JAMES ADGER, from New York, are notified that to the former. If I choose to serve the public she is discharging cargo at Adger's Whari. Goods gratuitously in my' official capacity, it is no remaining on the wharf at sunset will be stored at is proper to state that all but one of the distillers of turpentine who signed the petition to the Mayor and Council of the City of Charleston for the appointment of an additional naval store inspector, buy crude turpentine. Some of them buy very largely. Who inspects and weighs the turpentine bought by these parties? No one but themselves. "Tar Heel" forgot to mention this fact-perhaps (?) he was not aware of it. I am pleased to note the extreme enerosity of "Tar Heel" in correcting his statement in regard to my charges on rosin, and I think he might well have pursued his course a little further in the same direction. I desire to state that in regard to the charges on rosin, that the twelve and a half cents mentioned by "Tar Heel" for inspection and classification, is not merely for the two items mentioned, but also for weighing and cooperage, that is, putting it in complete shipping order-a condition in which it seldom rea this market. Was the magnanimous "Tar Heel" aware of this? The charges on rosin in Wilmington are higher than the writer has given to the public, being eleven cents. Mine are twelve and a half cents, which is small when you take into consideration that the receipt of naval stores at Wilmington are nine times more than is received in Charleston. I am in receipt of a letter from Wilmington bearing directly on these points; and if the enterprising "Tar is fast taking the place of all other preparations for or any one interested in naval stores, desire information in regard to charges in Wilmington, I shall be most happy to submit these letters to their examination. In reference to the shipment of naval stores by producers on the line of the Northeastern Railroad, I would re nark that small shipments may have been made to shipments I will not mention. In some cases it was not to obtain "better prices." "Tar Heel" would undertake to make the public believe that naval stores cannot be shippped to Wilmington from the line of the South Carolina Railroad. If I am not mistaken, there is an outlet to Wilmington by that road. If there is judging from the fact that the South Carolina rates for down freight early in the season, I eral arrangements could be made to ship the one at George's Station. The proprietors of these have not, as I am aware of, ever

> I understand it, to the letter. Mr. Editor, I have already, I fear, made this communication too long; but I cannot close without stating that it is a fact, beyond all dispute, that a large majority of the distillers of turpentine, in North as well as in South Carolina, have, since the war, lost money. Can this misfortune be laid at the door of the Naval Store Inspector of Charleston? I presume that the liver, and is the best known remedy for dyspep this statement will be satisfactory to the pub- sia, biliousness, costiveness and general debility. lic. As to "Tar Heel," allow me in conclusion | August 15 to say, that in return for the good counsel h has so generously bestowed, I would suggest that whenever he desires so kindly to inform the public it would be well to first acquain himself with the subject, and then I am sure that the value of the information he imparts would be infinitely enhanced by its freeness from error. I cannot too deeply appreciate the zeal he has evinced in the cause he has so unselfishly espoused, and as a partisan of the interests of Charleston, I heartily commend him to the consideration of the public. THE DUPONT'S POWDER. -Bishop's History of American manufactures gives some interesting particulars concerning the "Brandywine Powder Works," which were established by Eleuthera Irene Dupont about forty years ago, and which at the time of his death in 1834, were the most extensive in the country, as they are in the world. Since the decease of the founder, the business has been conducted by his sons and grandsons, under the old style of E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Co.

"The original works, on the Brandywine, commenced operations in 1802, and have a capacity for producing five thousand pounds of sporting powder

"The middle, or Hagly Works, commenced in 1812, comprise two complete sets of works, in one enclo-sure, under a fall of twenty-two feet—so arranged that both can work on the same description of powder; or, if required, one set can manufacture one kind of powder, and the other set another kind; the two combined having a capacity of twenty-five thousand pounds of blasting powder per day.

"The high reputation so long maintained for the Brandywine Powder is due to the care bestowed on its manufacture, and to the constant personal supervision of the owners. The consumption of saltpetre, the principal ingredient in the manfac ture, has been in a single year, including the Luzerne County mills, over seven millions of pounds, the bulk of which was imported from Calcutta. The machinery in operation for the manufacture of gunpowder is driven by three steam engines and fortyeven water-wheels, the greater part of which are "The production of the mills is principally consumed in the United States, the firm having agenies and magazines at all the most important points, with a principal depot for the Pacific States at San Francisco, and agencies in South America, and in the East and West Indies.

"To illustrate the progress which has been made in the manufacture of powder in the United States, it is only necessary to recall the fact that during the Crimean war the Allies, to enable them to prose cute the siege of Sebastopol, were obliged to procure large supplies of gunpowder in the United States (one-half of which was furnished by the Braudy wine powder mills,) and that the American powder compared favorably with the best they could procure in Europe." THE BODY RENEWED .- ACCORD ING to Physiologists, the human body is renewed once in seven years. Every day, every hour, every oment, the flesh, the cartilage, bone and muscle of the frame are wasting away, and being imperceptibly replaced by new material. Health depends upon the nature of that material, and whether it shall be pure or diseased, full of vitality and elasticity, or ceble and fiscoid, depends mainly upon the action of the stomach, In warm weather the waste of the system is very rapid, and if it is not as rapidly repaired by the great sustaining organ, the conse-quence is debility, emaciation and decay. It is, therefore, of paramount importance that the stom found fault with Charleston charges or prices sch be kept in a vigorous condition at this trying sea "Tar Heel," in one of his communications, son, and the safest, surest and best tonic that can asks, after quoting the law on the subject of be employed for that purpose is HOSTETFER'S appointing and the daties of naval stores in-BITTERS. As a TONIC AND APPETIZER it has no equal—reliable in all BILIOUS DERANGEMENS, resulting from miasmatic influences, so prevalent at the South, and change of diet, climate and water. In offering to the Southern public our great TONIC AND EEVERAGE, we only ask for it a fair trial, feeling assured its own merits will soon ensure its becoming a favorite at the South. It has all the pleasing qualities of a "Liqueur," and though under a small volume, is four times more active than other preparations. It is almost indispensable for reconstituting the blood in females suffering from debility and loss of appetite, and for persons exhausted by nervous excitement or over-exertion. The benefit of these Bitters are felt immediately. Dose is a wine glass full before meals. We have, after long study and many experim
