CORONER'S INQUEST .- Coroner Whiting held an inquest yesterday morning on the body of Emanuel Joseph, a white man, who was found dead on board the steamer Christiana. Mr.

Joseph was a pilot of Savannab, and a guest of the captain of the Christiana. He came to this city with the Forest City Club, and also for the purpose of inspecting the pilot boat now building by Mr. F. M. Jones. Mr. Joseph was with the steward and others on board up to 7 o'clock Sunday evening, when he retired. The steward returned to the boat about 5 A. M. yesterday, and found Mr. Joseph at the bottom of the forward companion-way, with his head against the panel and his feet on the stairway. He was then quite dead, though the body was still warm. The supposition was that he had come on deck during the night for some purpose, and in returning had missed his footing and body had evidently fallen the whole length of the stairs, the head being against the paneling and the neck broken. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts above men-
