WARD EIGHT DEMOCRATIC CLUB .- The members of this Club will notice by the advertisement in another column, that the place of meeting has been changed to the "Old Coach Factory," in Spring-street, near Rutledgestreet. Important business will come up tonight, and a prompt attendance is requested.

THE COLUMBIA BOARD OF TRADE has adopt ed a resolution "That the construction of the Chatham Railroad, proposed to be built from this place to Raleigh, is of great importance to Columbia and the State at large, and every effort should be made to secure a charter for the same."

LINE STREET.—The slough in this street, near the railroad avenue, is now being filled up by the South Carolina Railroad Company, who are bringing the dirt from the country. A large portion of the street bed has already been raised, and the improvement will extend from Meeting to King streets.

PROSPECTIVE IMMIGRANTS FROM MARYLAND .-The Columbia Phonix announces the arrival in the State of about twenty gentlemen, from Washington County, Maryland, who are on a tour of inspection through the Southern States, with a view of examining and purchasing lands They are under the lead of Colonel Dechert, of the Hagerstown Mail. The party are, a present, we believe, in Lancaster district.

A QUEER BLUNDER.—The New York Tribune, of Saturday, contained a statement to the effect that "General James Simons addressed an enthusiastic Republican meeting at Hibernian Hall, Charleston, on the 26th ult. He says he is now a Republican, and expects to die a Republican." The Tribune will doubtless be glad to learn that the gentleman referred to is a Democrat, and that the "enthusiastic meeting" of which it speaks was a Seymour and Blair Ward Club.

EXTRA MEETING OF COUNCIL.—The last few meetings of Council have been held with barely a business quorum, and, of course, without the requisite quorum for the transaction of any financial matters. Mayor Clark has deprecated this state of affairs, and has determined to make another effort to have a money quorum on Friday night. The meeting has been called for half-past seven o'clock, and a full attend ance is particularly requested, as several long delayed money matters will come up for consideration

THE EDGEFIELD BARBEOUE .- The Edgefield barbeene, on Wednesday last, was a very grand affair; some 1500 to 2000 people being present. The meeting was presided over by Gov. Bonham, and Messrs. J. T. Bacon and R. C. Bryant elected Secretaries. Speeches were made by Gen. Toombs, Judge Aldrich, Gen. Haskell, Gen. Geary, and G. D. Tilman, Esq. The barbecue was a be autiful feast, and at night a grand ball was held, at which the beauty and fashion of Edgefield were present.

MASS MEETING AT ST. STEPHEN'S DEPOT. -At Stephen's Depot on Tuesday, the 1st September, W. M. Porcher, Esq., was called to the chair, and J. J. Williams requested to act as secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting, which was to make arrangements for a mass meeting of the Democracy at St. Stephen's Depot on Friday, the 18th inst. On motion, the chairman was requested to invite several distinguished speakers to address the meeting on that day. A committee was appointed to prepare a dinner for the occasion.

SAVANNAH ITEMS .- A seaman named Austin Boget, or Bogot, attached to the British bark Eugenia in St. Mary's River, Geo., was mor-tally stabbed last week by seaman named Collins. The murderer esca, rd.

A number of negroes have been arrested for supposed complicity in the murder of the lad Charles P. Wilson. The murderer, or his accomplice, it is supposed, has been secured. The Mayor has been authorized to offer a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the murderers, and the Governor will be requested to increase the reward.

CLAUSSEN'S FLOUR.-In Cumberland, near State street, stands prominently located an extensive brick building, put up for a grain depot. This establishment, now used mainly as a flouri ng mill, owes its origin to Mr. F. W. Claussen, whose enterprise and good management keeps his large concern steadily in motion. At this place can be found freshly ground "Claussen's Mills Family Flour," fresh bran, shorts, middlings, &c., all put up in the best manner, and which will afford satisfaction. Our readers, who may be desirous of obtaining any of the above articles, will be served handsomely by visiting this mill. See advertisement in another column.

TROUBLE APPREHENDED IN BERKELEY .- We earn, on good authority, that large bodies of reinstatement as a member of the police, he armed freedmen are in the habit of assembling having been discharged without a proper hearfrequently in the upper part of Berkeley District for the purposes of drill in the manual of arms and company exercises. Last Friday to, providing that he be reinstated on the next night a very large number of negroes met at Black Oak, in the precinct of St. John's Berkeey, and on Saturday between one and two hundred gathered together at the old St. Stephen's Muster Field. These gatherings have been organized by two influential freedmen residing in St. Stephen's Parish, by whom the most incendiary ideas are inculcated. Although there ing into the clerkships in the City Engineer's has been as yet no material disturbance of the office, and discontinuing the same after the peace, much apprehension prevails, and unless 20th inst., unless authorized by Council. these unlawful meetings are promptly suppressed, trouble may result.

BARBECUE IN SPARTANBURG .- On Wednesday, the 2d instant, there was a grand Democratic barbecue, at the Shoals, about two miles from the Pacolet Depot, on the Spartanburg and Union Railroad. Over one thousand persons were present. A goodly number of colspeeches by white speakers, in the morning. In the afternoon, James Minor and John Lee addressed the colored people present.

THE DUTY OF THE CITIZEN TO ATTEND WARD MEETINGS .- There will be meetings of the Democratic voters this evening in every Ward in the city. At some of them, earnest and practical addresses will be delivered. Every good citizen should be present. In this connection, the application of a passage in a recent sermon by Henry Ward Beecher is so happy and reverend Radical said:

Lastly, Christian men must learn their duty to their country in regard to politics. If we are to leave the administration of public affairs to the men that most naturally take to it, we leave ourselves to be governed by dishonest men. There is no ho e. if professional politicians are to take the management of primary meetings and of general elections; if they are to select the candidates, then manage for their election, and then manage them when elected. There can be but one termination to such a course as that. We shall certainly sink under the corruption that will ensue; we are sinking already. There is but one remedy; and every Christian man is to consult, not his case, nor his taste, nor his convenience, but his duty. You were sworn when you were born into this great nation. Birth is oath, in America. And the man that sits at his ease, and refuses to th nk, or vote, or act as a cutizen politician, in this country, is a perjurer, and violates his most solemn, practical oath. There is no man so pious that he should not have much to do with primary elections. There is no man so busy that he is not bound to take time to atbusy that he is not bound to take time to attend them. It is the business of every ward, it is the business of every precinct, it is the business of every precinct, it is the business of every citizen, of every neighborhood and community, to see to it that uncorrupted and uncorruptible men are, first, nominated for office, secondly, elected. And whatever is necessary to do that becomes your duty. If it requires you to go to nasty places, you must go there. If it requires you to meet bad company, you must meet bad company. If it requires you to take time to manage wriggling knaves, you must take time to manage wriggling knaves. The faithful housewife cannot say, "I have no time to exterminate the pests of the bed and closed and partry; she is bound to see to it that the food, and raiment, and children are kept clean. It takes time, to bound to see to it that the food, and raiment, and children are kept clean. It takes time, to be sure. It is a disagreeable task to comb out children and wash them, and care tor them at all times, and cure them from a dozen disagree. ble diseases that are incident to them; nevertheless, love docs it; a d nou have get to comb, and wash and clean the community in the acres was a low repeal of you gardians. comb, and wash and clean the community in the same way. You are, all of you, guardians and parents of the common weal; and Christian men, with their laziness, or their unwilling-ness to go into the inconveniences of these pri-mary meetings; that neglect these things, and see matters going from bad to worse, and think that they have no responsibility, and nothing to do but rail at thieves and politicians, would describe not to themselves the operation. do we.l to put to themselves the question, "what have I done to prevent or cure corrup-"what have I done to prevent or cure corrup-tion?" Are you not a free born citizen and a voter? What is it that makes it the duty of any man in this country to devote his time to this matter, that does not make it equally your duty?

"Ah, merchapt! ah, judze! ah, young convert! ah, minister! You are, all of you, first, citizens; and you will never reach any point higher than that. Be a citizen; be an honest man, and an honest citizen; be a Christian man, and a Christian citizen. There is noth-ing higher than that in this nation; and un-less Christian men and Christian citizens take in hand the purification of public morals and public affairs, and see to it that the courts are filled with the right men; that the legisla-tures are filled with the right men; and that officers throughout the government are God-fearing and pure-minded men-unless this is done, I say, our am is not far from setting, for I am sure that if the tide of corruption goes on I am sure that if the tide of corruption goes on increasing in power, in the ratio in which it has done for the past few years, this nation cannot continue to stand up under it. The process of disintegration is already coming on; we may for a time withstand it, but the symptoms will continually become more alarming, and by and by the disease will become incurable."

ADVERTISEMENT EXTRAORDINARY .- John F genious specimens of advertising that we have ever seen. It consists of a volume beau-ifully illustrated, and devoted to the praises of "Ale in Prose and Verse." The book, which is intended especially as an advertisement of John Taylor & Sons' Albany ale, consists of three parts—the first, entitled "A Runlet of Ale," being a mock-heroic noem by Rarry Grant Street, and Street, O'Neill & Son have sent us one of the most inbeing a mock-heroic poem by Barry Gray, whom we remember as a veteran New York illeraleur. The poem, which is marked by considerable cleverness, is illustrated throughout aptly and elegantly. It is followed by an essay on "Ale, Antiquarian, Historical and Laterary," by John Savage, which exhibits considerable research, and is very pleasant reading. The volume concludes with a sketch of John Taylor & Sons' Brewery, adorned with tract for, begin, or proceed with any public copious engravings of the various sections of that mammoth establishment. The ingenuity which could contrive such a tribute to the merits of the foaming bowl could hardly fail, when employed upon the concoction of its contents, to deserve Boniface's eulogium:

"Ale! 'Tis smooth as oil, sweet as milk, clear as amber, and strong as brandy. * * * Sir, I have fed purely upon ale; I have ate my ale, drank my ale, and I always sleep upon ale. * * * * * Now, sir, you shall see (filling a glass) your worship's health. Ha! delicious, delicious; fancy it Burgundy, only fancy it, and 'tis worth ten shillings a quart!" We advise all "hearty gay fellows" to follow

Boniface's example. BILL OF MORTALITY .- Return of deaths within the City of Charleston, for the week ending September 5, 1868:
