LARGEST CIRCULATION.-THE DAILY NEWS BEING THE NEWSPAPER OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED AS HAVING THE LARGEST CIR-CELATION IN THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, PUBLISHES THE LIST OF LETTERS REMAIN-ANG IN THE POSTOFFICE AT THE END OF EACH WEEK. ACCORDING TO THE PROVIS-IONS OF THE NEW POSTOFFICE LAW.

LOCAL MATTERS.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY. E. W. M. MACKEY, sheriff Charleston County, will sell between 11 and 3 o'clock, at the Courthouse, real estate, and a bay horse.

CAMPBELL KNOX & Co. will sell at 10 o'clock, at their auction house, No. 55 Hasel-street, dry goods, notions, &c.

ALL ELECTION NOTICES, Nominations of Candidates and Election Cards, intended for publication in The News, must invariably be paid for in advance. Our friends, therefore, who have sent advertisements of this character unaccompanied by the cash, will understand why they have not been published.

SEND IN THE RETURNS .- Our friends and correspondents throughout the State are requested to forward to THE News, at their earliest convenience, returns of the vote in their several districts at the Presidential, Congressional and Municipal elections.

PERSONAL -Mr. John Templeton, with the Vane Sisters and other members of his dramatic troupe, arrived from Augusta yesterday.

WARD No. 1 .- An important meeting of citizens of this Ward takes place to-night. The Mayoralty will be considered. Let all attend.

SELMA AND CHARLESTON. -The South Carolina Railroad Company give notice that the line of railroad from Selma to Charleston is open for passengers and freight. IMPORTANT TO TAX-PAYERS.—The third instalment of taxes on real estate falls due this month, and prompt payments are necessary, or executions will be issued. THE CITY RAILWAY COMPANY .- Attention is directed to the change in the schedule published elsewhere. The last car now leaves on each line at 9 P. M. The annual meeting will be held to-day, at the office of the President.

THE CHARLESTON COLLEGE. - The Charleston College commences the second session of the collegiate year this morning, and candidates for admission will be received at the President's room at half-past ten o'clock.

ONE LAMP LESS .- On Saturday while a cart laden with empty barrels was passing up Meeting-street, it came in contact with a lamppost near the City Hall Park, and destroyed the lamp. The moonlight will not last forever, and the lamp should be repaired at once.

WARD No. 2 .- Every citizen of the Ward should attend the meeting to-night. The future prosperity of the city depends upon it.

REQUIEM .- A requiem mass will be sung at St. Peter's Catholic Church, Wentworth-street, at nine o'clock this morning, for the repose of the soul of the late Commendatore Clemente Folchi, father of the Rev. Father Folchi, the Pastor of the Church, who died at Rome on the thirtieth September last, in the eighty-seventh year of his age.

SENT TO JAIL .- Jas. F. Walsh, charged with the murder of the colored boy Edward M. Dixon, was taken from the Guardhouse to the jail on Saturday by the sheriff and a colored posse. They were followed the whole distance by an excited crowd of negroes, who were very violent in their language, but made no demonstration against the prisoner. Walsh was confined in the black hole during his incarceration in the Guardhouse.

INSTALLATION .- The Right Bev. Dr. Gibbons, the newly appointed Catholic Bishop of North Carolina, was installed yesterday in St. Thomas' Church, Wilmington, with appropriate ceremonies. Archbishop Spalding, of Baltimore, preached, and Rev. Messrs. Bermingham and Northrop, of this city, assisted at the installation.

WARD No. 3 .- To-night is the all-important occasion. Let every man attend the meeting and see what's up.

CHURCH FESTIVALS .- Yesterday was All Saints Day, a feast of obligation in the Catholic Calendar. At the Cathedral solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated by Bishop Persico, who also preached. To-day is All Souls Day, a feast devoted to the commemoration of the dead. There will be appropriate services this forenoon in all the Catholic Churches.

No disturbance is anticipated at the coming election, but it is the part of wisdom to remove any cause that would be likely to create an excitement, and we sincerely hope that there will be no evasions of the law, and none but sober men be seen around the polls.

BURGLARY. - Several houses in different parts of the city have been recently entered and despoiled of their lead and gas piping and copper pumps. These robberies are usually effected in vacant houses, but the thieves are sometimes bold and skilul enough to enter occupied premises without awaking any one. On Friday and Saturday nights there were two robberies of this character in Calhoun-street, and a hen roost of the adjoining house was deprived of its feathered inmates. Fire.—The ala: m of fire was sounded at three o'clock on Friday night which brought out the firemen, though they were unable to find the place, and it was generally supposed to be a false alarm. The steepleman at the Orphan House saw the flames from a chimney in Calhoun street, between King and Mee ing, and sounded "Ward 3." This was repeated by St. Mitchael's bell, but the fire was then extinguished.

LOCKED UP IN A CHURCH YARD.-Yesterday evening a ter the services in St. Michael's Church were over, several ladies of the congregation visited the graveyard and lingered there some time. THE ATLANTIC AND GULF RAILBOAD.-Mr. H. S. Haines, the General Superintendent of this road, advertises a new schedule for the night gers to make a connection between Jacksonville and Savannah, and by steamers from St. marks, Florida, to New Orleans. This road is the main route between Florida, Savannah and Charleston, and the schedule published elsewhere furnishes the minutest details interesting to travellers. It is especially important to notice that by this fast sche lule the distance between Savannah and Jacksonville, two hundred and sixty-three miles, is made in the remarkably short time of twelve and a half hours, or at the rate of twenty-one miles an hour, including stoppages.

THE WOFFORD COLLEGE .- A correspondent at Spartanburg desires us to mention the fact | Philadelphia; William Johnstone, Charlotte; that the Wofford College has never been closed, the regular exercises having been continued since it first opened about fourteen years ago. The first session of the fitteenth collegiate year began on the 1st October. Nearly one hundred students were present, and more were expected in January.

The Radicals in Spartanburg are giving up the ghost. Corn is selling at fifty to sixty cents per bushel. Much to be thankful tor. Plenty to eat. Democracy on top. Three J. WARD No. 6 .- Let the spirit and independence which has ever characterized the political conduct of the citizens of this Ward, bear good fruit at the meeting to-night.

THE NEW PILOT BOAT .- That fine specimen which has been lying here since her launch receiving the finishing touches of the joiners, painters and riggers, departed yesterday morning for Savannah to take part immediately in active business competition with the other pilot boats at Tybee. The "Neca," while at her berth, has attracted numerous visitors who have all admired her beauty of model and elegant clipper-like appearance. Her mcchanical work, in all departments, does great cre lit to the experts who have been engaged on her, and the enterprise of Capt. Usina is entitled to praise for his commendable patronage of home work, by which we think he has secured a boat which, while she will attract general notice for her faultless appearance, will be found emineutly successful in her general suitability to the business for which she has been constructed.

Work for the Ward Meetings.

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 31, 1868. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

It has gladdened the hearts of many of your readers to learn the action of the Central Club at the meeting last night. Their preamble and resolutions exactly meet the present state of affairs in our city. Political principles are in no way involved in our Municipal elections, and the suggestions of the Central Club, that citizens irrespective of political bias should meet on Monday night for the nomination of citizen cand dates, is eminently proper.

With candidates who represent the intelligence and property of our city, and with the exercise of that energy, earnestness and hearty co-operation which the occasion demands from every man having at heart the prosperity and best interest of Charleston, there is no reason why we should not elect the candidate of our own choice.

Our time is short and our work plentiful; and the thorough organization of the forces already in the field teaches the imperative necessity of prompt and zealous action on our part.

If the Wards at their meeting on Monday night will secure efficient members for an Executive Committee, who shall be charged with all the details of the coming election, and see to it that the trust is confided only to energe:ic skilful hands, the result of the coming Mu-November I.-R. ASHLEY.

To the Citizens' Nominating Convention:

At a time like the present, when the necessity for having a candidate for Mayor to represent the people at large is apparent to all, it behooves us to make such a selection as will unite all conflicting interests and soothe all political differences. Captain Henry Gerdts, one of the late Board of Aldermen and a well of filling the responsible position of Mayor. He possesses the respect and esteem of all who know him, and is the man for the times.
