

THE DAILY NEWS.

LARGEST CIRCULATION.—THE DAILY NEWS BEING THE NEWSPAPER OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED AS HAVING THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, PUBLISHES THE LIST OF LETTERS REMAINING IN THE POSTOFFICE AT THE END OF EACH WEEK, ACCORDING TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE NEW POSTOFFICE LAW.

LOCAL MATTERS.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY. JOHN G. MILNOR & Co. will sell at 10 o'clock, in their saleroom, Meeting-street, satinettes, cassimeres, &c.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.—It is a bid for plunder. ASSAULT.—Ben Bailey was arrested yesterday for quarrelling with Alexander Singleton, on Marshall's Wharf, and drawing a knife upon him. His case will be heard this morning.

WHY WILL YOU TAVAR?—Every citizen is forced to entrust his interests to the city authorities. Think of this when you are choosing your ticket to-day.

TEMPORARY EXECUTIVE.—During the absence of Governor Scott from the State, Major D. T. Corbin, United States District Attorney, will, as President pro tem. of the Senate, be acting Governor of South Carolina.

THE CITIZENS' TICKET.—It is announced in the interests of law, order and prosperity. WHITE MEN! Strength is safety. Let the Radical conspirators against the welfare of this city see to-day that you are not to be run over.

GREAT EXCITEMENT ABOUT NOTHING.—Two white men, named Hernandez and Murphy, who were both in liquor, got into a controversy yesterday, at the corner of Meeting and Chalmers streets. Murphy drew a knife on Hernandez, and the latter presented his pistol. They were instantly arrested, but during the melee the pistol was fired. Fortunately no one was injured, but the shot created an intense excitement in that section.

DON'T BE AFRAID.—The Citizens' party do not wish to intimidate any voter of the opposite party, but they are determined that every man, black or white, who wishes to vote for Mr. Lessee shall be allowed to do so.

HON. H. D. LESSEE.—He represents conservatism, peace and security. WHITE MEN! Turn out en masse to-day and guard the polls. Otherwise men of your own race will be driven away, and no colored man allowed to vote for Lessee.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR SPOONS.—Rebecca O'Neil, and Martha Williams, both colored, were arrested yesterday, for offering for sale spoons, and forks marked Charleston Hotel and Planters Hotel. They had also several unmarked spoons, all of which were doubtless stolen. Housekeepers should be on the alert, and see that their silverware is kept under lock and key, or they may be buttered when it is least expected.

FROM SEVEN TO FIVE.—Only ten hours are allowed for voting to-day. Go to the polls early and watch your chance. WHITE MEN! Look out! Trust not the treacherous calm which the Radical leaders have so far preserved. Gather at the polls to-day and protect yourselves and what friends you have among the colored people.

INSURANCE—BEAUTIFUL PRINTING.—We have received from Mr. Z. B. Oakes, No. 4 Broad-street, agent of the Queen Bee Insurance Company, of Liverpool and London, a circular notice that he is agent for this wealthy and reliable Insurance Company. When we first saw the circular we supposed it to be a piece of English printing, so neat and "English" in its style; we soon, however, discerned the imprint of our friends, Walker, Evans & Cogswell, so well known as the best printers in the Southern States. We commend the "Queen" and their printers to public patronage.

THE RADICAL MOTTO, "Vix Viciis"—Wo to the conquered. WHITE MEN! Illegally appointed constables interfered with registration yesterday. Guard the polls to-day and see that these creatures of Radical politicians are not allowed to interfere with the rights of freemen.

A GOOD PLAN TO AVOID CONFUSION.—The managers at the Market Hall have adopted a wise precaution, that will tend to facilitate the voting, and will prevent any confusion during to-day's election. The white voters will enter and retire by the north steps, and the colored voters by the south steps. Policemen will be stationed on the porch, and will see that good order is preserved. If similar precautions are observed in the other precincts, there will be no danger of any disorder or riot. It is the earnest wish of the thinking men of both parties to have the Municipal election conducted with as much good order and credit to the city as that of Tuesday last.

THE CITIZENS' MOTTO—"Justice and security to all." WHITE MEN! Don't neglect your duty to-day. The safety of the city for three years depends upon your firmness and determination. Guard the polls and see that every man is allowed to vote as he pleases.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH.—This church, which has been recently erected at the corner of Smith and Morris streets, was dedicated on Sunday afternoon last. The presbytery officiating on the occasion was composed of the pastor, Rev. Charles Small, Rev. E. Landrum, and Rev. Wilson Carr. The dedication sermon was preached by the pastor, and impressive ceremonies were performed by him, with the assistance of the other ministers. This congregation is composed of colored members who formerly belonged to the Citadel Square Baptist Church, but who have for some time past been worshipping at Bonum's Hall. The church was built in great part by the labor of members of the congregation, and they certainly deserve to succeed.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 1.—An increased rate of insurance on property and lives. INTIMIDATING VOTERS.—Any attempt to intimidate voters to-day will be promptly checked by the arrest of the persons offending. Violence has been threatened against colored men who do not vote the Republican ticket. Arrangements have been made to prevent such threats being carried out.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 2.—The rogue's millennium—no punishment for theft. THOSE ISLAND BOYS.—We could not prevent their registering, but we will be ready for them to-day in case they attempt to vote.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 3.—A decline in the value of real estate. BEAUTIFUL DREAMERS.—The young men known as "Beautiful Dreamers" are required to wake up and vote at 7 o'clock for Lessee. It is the early voter that catches the Pillsbury.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 4.—City ship-lifters. CAN WE DO IT?—Of course we can—by five or six hundred majority. There's a good time coming, boys. There's a good time coming, boys. Just work a little longer.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 5.—A withdrawal of all Northern and foreign capital now invested in Charleston. THREE CHEERS!—Now boys! three cheers for the Citizens' candidates. Rally round Lessee, boys! Rally round Lessee! Shouting for Charleston and freedom.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 6.—An importation of needy Yankees, who wish to make money to carry back "teu hum." ONE MORE!—Sing, boys! as you go to the polls: Away down South in the land of cotton, Pillsbury here will never be forgotten. Look away! Look away! Look away! Dixie land! Oh! now we march to the polls so bravely, As Pillsbury's clans are swearing gravely. Look away! Look away! Look away! Dixie lan!

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 7.—The white Radicals to have the privilege of living in luxury on the labor of the colored Radicals, and the labor and property of their opponents, black and white. COLORED PEOPLE! SING THE SONGS.—You know the tune: Away down by the Ashley River, Not far away, Of we heard old Gilbert promise, But never saw the day, And now our hands are land and empty, Evergreen we want; And the only way to fill it, Vote for the OLD FOLKS OF HOME.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 8.—Intolerable taxation. WIDE AWAKE!—Listen to the tune. Here we are: We're off to vote, boys, early in the morning. We're off to vote, boys, by the break of day. We're off to vote, boys, for all the pretty Southern girls. We're off to vote, boys, by the break of day.

CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL SUCCESS, No. 9.—Intolerable oppression. UNITED WE STAND.—Ours more stave as we roll up the votes: Here's three cheers for the upright and true, Here's three cheers for the upright and true; Lessee and old Charleston forever, Three cheers for the upright and true.

FREEDOM OF OPINION.—Every man shall vote as he pleases, the Republican party and Union League to the contrary notwithstanding. A CARD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Please announce that I am no candidate for the position of Alderman, and oblige, Yours, R. D. WHITE.

A CARD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Please announce that I am not a candidate for Alderman of Ward No. 2, but would be pleased to serve my fellow mechanics and citizens at any other time. Respectfully, C. C. TRUMBOLD.

A CARD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Please announce that I am not a candidate for Alderman of Ward No. 2, but would be pleased to serve my fellow mechanics and citizens at any other time. Respectfully, C. C. TRUMBOLD.

A CARD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Please announce that I am not a candidate for Alderman of Ward No. 2, but would be pleased to serve my fellow mechanics and citizens at any other time. Respectfully, C. C. TRUMBOLD.

A CARD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Please announce that I am not a candidate for Alderman of Ward No. 2, but would be pleased to serve my fellow mechanics and citizens at any other time. Respectfully, C. C. TRUMBOLD.

A CARD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Please announce that I am not a candidate for Alderman of Ward No. 2, but would be pleased to serve my fellow mechanics and citizens at any other time. Respectfully, C. C. TRUMBOLD.

ELECTION DAY.

Polis Open at 7 A. M. Polis Close at 5 P. M. The polls will be open to-day from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M., without intermission. All barrooms are required to be closed, and the sale of intoxicating drinks is prohibited during the day. The votes will be counted at 10 A. M. to-morrow. The candidates receiving the largest number of votes will be elected. Contested cases will be decided by the managers, subject to the revision of the Board of Aldermen when organized, except when the seats of a majority of the persons voted for are contested, or the managers charged with illegal conduct, in which cases the acting Board of Aldermen shall decide. The Mayor and Aldermen elect will take their seats on Monday next, being sworn in by any State officer qualified to administer an oath. The Mayor and Aldermen chosen at this election will hold office until the regular election day, and for one term thereafter, i. e. until the second Wednesday in November, 1871. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

WHITE MEN! All that is worth living for is at stake to-day. Do not by negligence or cowardice lose this stake. It is important that peace should be preserved, but the responsibility of riot is on that party which first breaks the law. TERRORISM.—The Republican party, the vain-glorious and self-styled champion of free suffrage, have attempted to control this election, in which no political issue is at stake, by threats of violence. Their threats are vain. They dare not execute them. General Grant has said, "Let us have peace."

MARSHAL EPPING'S VIEWS ON THE CITY ELECTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. I desire the use of your columns to bring to the notice of the public some facts that I deem worthy of attention. About two months ago I made a speech at the Club House, which was reported in the city papers at that time as an "incendiary harangue." It was said that I advised the colored people to arm, and to make resistance to lawful authority. I denied the assertion at the time, and I deny it now. It is a notorious fact that the colored people, and, indeed, justice compels me to say, the white people, too, were never more peaceable—never in more perfect harmony than now—and the promotion of this end has ever been my object and desire. I felt it my duty at that time, as United States Marshal, to warn the people against any steps that would lead to a breach of the public peace, and I simply discharged that duty. I trust that the result has amply proved that my teachings were not so "incendiary" as has generally been believed; for in both parties peace and order has prevailed ever since.

The fears of the colored people, which had been excited, have been allayed by my assurances, and those steps on the part of some white people, which were calculated to lead to this excitement, have ceased. This desirable state of harmony having been brought about, I think it time that the political differences which have divided us should be at an end, and should not be carried into our municipal election.

The local election is entirely devoid of political issues, and in relation thereto I heartily endorse the sentiments of Rev. R. H. Cain. I do not think this election a political contest; on the contrary, I think that every citizen, white and colored, should lay aside party politics to-day, and vote for the candidate who is, in his opinion, best adapted to subserve the interests of the community in which we live. I trust my colored friends will not consider themselves bound to vote for any party man, because, as I have already said, I do not regard this canvass as a party contest. By their efforts Republicanism has been firmly established in the General Government for four years. They have accomplished a great victory, secured their rights to themselves, and it behooves them now to pause in the flush of victory and see where they stand; to be magnanimous; to inquire whether the wealth and intelligence of the city is not entitled to representation in the city government. Let not the colored people be forced by party ties into voting blindly, but let every one vote the ticket he deems best adapted to our common prosperity, independent of party politics, and be assured good government will result. Absence from the city on official duties will prevent me from exercising my suffrage, but I would here again admonish my Republican friends to be hampered by no party ties, but to choose such men from among the various candidates before them as will, in their judgment, do justice to all and promote the public welfare.

We need now a city government composed of respectable and responsible men identified with the interests of the city; it matters not whether they be white or colored, Democrat or Republican. Responsible men are needed to restore our city to her former standing and credit, and the election of such men, I believe, will conciliate all, restore confidence, bring back prosperity, and promote the interests of the laboring man, as well as of every other class of the community.

J. M. EPPING, U. S. Marshal. Charleston, S. C., November 9, 1868.

WHITE MEN! Gather at the polls in force this morning. The only way to prevent riot is to show that it must be a failure. Five thousand white men are too much for a score or two of carpet-baggers and scoundrels.

WELL DONE FOR WARD No. 7.—Ward No. 7 had upon itself a grave responsibility as the originator of the Citizens' movement. Nobly has it been sustained. Every white man in the ward has registered, and they now have two hundred and sixty white majority. Their votes to-day will in all probability decide that Ward No. 7 is the banner ward of the Citizens' Party.

THE NINTH WARD.—The residents of the Ninth Ward that is to be, viz: the territory between the City Boundary and the Six Mile House, who were not allowed to register in Wards Nos. 7 or 8 where they were known, but strayed further down town where they perjured themselves, safely as they thought, will find it to their advantage not to attempt to vote to-day.

WARD No. 1.—The following gentlemen have been appointed to act as challengers at this Ward, and are earnestly requested to be present at the City Hall punctually at 7 o'clock this morning, viz: A. T. Smythe, T. B. King, Daniel Ravenel, Jr., David Briggs, H. E. Young, Wm. Thayer, E. W. West, Thaddeus Street, Q. A. Damon, D. P. B. Atherston, William Moran, William Cooper.

BREVOLARY.—On Sunday night, the house of Mr. W. L. Mikell, in St. Andrew's Parish, was entered during the absence of the owner, and robbed of silverware, clothing, and a variety of household articles. The thieves also took three hundred and eight pounds of cotton, and two boats which they loaded with their plunder, and left for the city. The robbery was soon discovered, and reported to the detectives, who were put on the alert. The cotton was discovered at a store in Bird's Shippard, where it had been sold to the proprietor. William Henry Reddick, Green Winesley and John Harvey, three colored men about twenty-five years of age, had been arrested, and a large portion of the stolen property recovered.

RADICAL MASS MEETING AND PILLSBURY GLOTTIFICATION.—The colored Republicans and their white leaders had a pow-wow last night on the battery. The meeting had been called for the purpose of straightening the backbones of those weak in the Republican faith, strengthening the weak-kneed, and infusing new vigor in the untried. The gathering was somewhat meagre, being largely composed of women and boys, who clustered around the stand and listened to the exhortors. Major D. T. Corbin, the first speaker, was followed by Mayor Clark, C. C. Bowen, J. G. Macker, A. G. Mackey, D. H. Chamberlain, and others. The speakers exhorted their hearers to vote the Pillsbury ticket, and nothing else but the straight ticket. They were advised against all Democratic wives, and cautioned to beware of bringing down the odium of the public by engaging in any riotous demonstrations. A few torches shed a sickly glare on the scene, and the meeting was evidently not so enthusiastic as the leaders wished.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—November 9.—Charleson Hotel.—Captain Jessie Hoxey, steamer Falcon; W. R. Wheelock and lady, Mr. Pleasant; W. N. Fleming, U. S. Army; B. Sloan, Pendleton; H. V. L. Sprigg, City; B. F. McCabe, Summerville; B. R. Campbell, South Carolina; C. H. LeLand, South Carolina; George B. Mills, Cuck Island; J. A. LeLand, Greenwood.

Pavilion Hotel.—S. B. Nousem, South Carolina; G. T. Rogers, Jr., and wife, Georgia; Wm. McGruce, Iowa; J. S. Schobler, Camp Ridge.

The Result of Registration.

We publish below complete tables of the registration for the three days separately, and for the aggregate of the whole registration. On the first day the colored majority was 543, on the second day that was reduced to 372, and on the last day that was increased again to 634, the aggregate registration being: Whites, 5104; blacks, 5738. Total, 10,842.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

Table with columns: Ward, Whites, Col'd, Total, Maj. Col'd. Rows for Ward 1 through Ward 8, and Totals.

A Card.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. I regret to see my name on one of the tickets as a candidate for Alderman in Ward No. 8. I positively decline the nomination, and hope the vote of every Conservative, both white and colored, will be given for W. G. Whilden, the candidate of the Conservatives. JOHN HANCKEL.

BUSINESS NOTICES. FOR SALTER.—The steamer Marion will leave on Wednesday night for Wright's Bluff, &c. See advertisement.

CHOICE GREEN AND BLACK TEAS, one dollar per pound, at Wilson's grocery, southeast corner Society and Anson streets. Goods delivered free.

H. B. If you want cheap Stationery, Envelopes, Paper, &c.; or Miller's Almanac; If you want Printing executed neatly; If you want Books bound in any style, or Account Books made to order, with any desired pattern of ruling, go to Hiram Harris, Agent, No. 39 Broad-street.

Dry Goods, &c. FRENCH MERINOS. CHOICE COLORS. FRENCH MERINOS FROM 75c. TO $1.00. PLAIN COLORED ALPACA LUSTRES, ALL COLORS, AT 35c.

GOUDKOP & BEUTHNER, 420 KING-STREET.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS! BARGAINS! IN DRY GOODS. Fearful break down in the prices of Dry Goods. Economy being greatly needed at the present time, the price of every one to buy the cheapest, home call at 420—GOUDKOP & BEUTHNER... 420 KING-STREET, FOUR DO