

THE DAILY NEWS.

LARGEST CIRCULATION.—THE DAILY NEWS BEING THE NEWSPAPER OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED AS HAVING THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY OF CHARLESTON.

LOCAL MATTERS.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY. CAMPBELL, KNOX & Co. will sell at 10 o'clock, at their auction house, No. 55 Hasel-street, furniture, hardware, &c.

THE DAILY NEWS PRICE CURRENT AND COMMERCIAL CIRCULAR will be ready for delivery at our counting room at nine o'clock this morning.

NEW YORK AND CHARLESTON STEAMSHIP LINE. Insurance can be obtained on freight by this line at half per cent. Apply to the agents, Messrs. James Adger & Co.

A THOROUGH CONSERVATIVE.—The Zeitung of yesterday speaks of a model Democrat who gave fifty dollars to the Citizens' party and five hundred dollars to the Pillsburyites.

IMPORTANT REMOVAL.—Messrs. Leitch & Bruns, whose auction rooms on Broad Street have become the centre of a large and valuable business, have recently removed to No. 95 Broad-street, formerly occupied by Mr. Bolger as a saddlery establishment.

PAY YOUR CITY TAXES.—The third instalment of city taxes is now due, and, in the present strained circumstances of the city finances, patriotic citizens should not wait for the last day allowed them by the law.

SUBLINE IMPUDENCE.—The character of the ideas inculcated in the minds of the more ignorant class of negroes by their Radical leaders may be inferred from the following brief dialogue, which was overheard in the streets a few nights since:

First Ranged Darkie.—How do protees gotten on to-day? Second Ranged Darkie.—Why, we got de white folks under hack. All we 'traid of now is de white folks might mek anudder insurrection.

THE ZEITUNG AND THE ELECTION.—In yesterday's News we printed a translation of an article published in the Zeitung in regard to the late Municipal election. This article has, we are surprised to learn, been regarded as an endeavor to land the patriotism of the Germans of Charleston at the expense of the Irish.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Mr. Hutson Lee sold yesterday, at the old Customhouse, a lot and buildings on the north side of Vendue Range, measuring front nineteen feet ten inches, by fifty-seven feet six inches deep, for $4950.—one-third cash, the balance in one year.

REMOVAL OF MESSRS. HOLMES & CALDER. Messrs. Holmes & Calder were burnt out some time ago by the same fire that destroyed the crockery establishment of Mr. W. L. Webb. With commendable energy and enterprise they rebuilt and reopened their store. They had scarcely settled down, however, when another accident befell them. In taking down the remains of the store of Mr. Webb for the purpose of rebuilding, the walls suddenly caved in and fell upon the store of Messrs. Holmes & Calder, so recently repaired, and injured it in such a manner that they were compelled to vacate.

OUR GODS ERROR OF THE ELECTORS.—It is an undeniable fact that the interest taken in the Presidential and Municipal contest has roused our people from their lethargy and indifference, and infused into them some of that vitality so absolutely necessary to the attainment of prosperity. It may not be that there is actually any greater amount of business transacted, though there very probably is, but what is done is certainly done with an activity and life that was a sad stranger to our business thoroughfares a month ago.

THE BANNER OF THE SOUTH.—This excellent exposure of Southern literature and Southern sentiment is edited by Rev. A. J. Ryan, author of the Southern poems entitled "The Conquered Banner," "Sword of Robert E. Lee," "Prayer of the South," &c.

A very interesting and pleasantly written story—"The Earls of Southland," from the pen of a talented lady of Georgia, is now being published in the Banner.

A LIBERAL INSURANCE COMPANY.—It is not very often that we have to chronicle a generous act on the part of a private corporation, but we received information one through a notice in the Savannah News of Monday, that is highly creditable and deserving of special notice, particularly from the fraternity of journalists, as it was the widow of a deceased brother who came in for the benefit of its liberality.

AN INTERESTING PRESENTATION.—The Augusta papers contain an interesting account of a recent compliment to J. A. Brener, Esq., the accomplished and indefatigable superintendent of the Third District Western Union Telegraph Company. Mr. Brener was unfortunately enough, a few weeks ago, to be robbed of his watch and chain. When this became known, the manager and operators of the Augusta office proposed to the employees of other offices in the Third District, to present Mr. Brener with a gold watch and chain.

SOUTHERN ENTERPRISE.—MACHINERY MADE CHEAPER THAN AT THE NORTH.—A BRIEF DECADE OF THE PHENIX IRON WORKS.—Messrs. J. F. Taylor & Co., the proprietors of the Phoenix Iron Works, have been writing in advancing the mechanical talent and ability of Charleston. They have established a large foundry and machine shops, possessing simple facilities for all mechanical demands, and embracing the newest and best patterns of laboring machinery. Mr. Taylor, the head of the firm, is a practical mechanic, whose skill has been widely acknowledged.

INSURANCE PAID IN GOLD.—Mr. S. Y. Tupper is the agent for the Phoenix, Enterprise and Manhattan Insurance Companies, with an aggregate of $4,000,000 cash assets and security. These companies pay losses in gold whenever the premium is paid in the same manner.

UNITED STATES COURT, NOVEMBER 19.—Hon. GEORGE S. BRYAN, PRESIDING.—Six parts Wesley W. Jenkins, of Sumter. Petition of voluntary bankruptcy. Blanding & Richardson, pro pet. Order of adjudication and reference to R. B. Carpenter signed.

EX PARTE HARRIS R. EASTLING. Petition for final discharge. Covington, pro pet. Final hearing to be held at Columbia on December 15th, and referred to R. B. Carpenter, Esq.

EX PARTE J. A. McLAKE. Petition for injunction to sell property. Townsend & Hudson and Duryea & Cohen, pro pet. Ordered that the case be referred to R. B. Carpenter, to be heard at Columbia, December 20.

MR. JUSTICE WILLARD'S OPINION IN THE BANK OF THE STATE CASE.—The Savannah Republican copies in full, from THE NEWS, the recent opinion of Justice Willard, and makes complimentary editorial allusion thereto.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—November 19.—Charleston Hotel.—George P. Kane, Baltimore; W. H. Wright and Charles Hanbury, Columbia; G. W. Sorby, New York; John S. Rouse, Baltimore; J. A. Moore, Black Mingo; W. H. Hopkins, New York; J. F. Frisvold, Clarendon; Mrs. R. M. Johnston, Columbia; A. W. Wightman, New York; General E. G. Marshall and Captain Alexander Murray, United States Army; D. R. Britton, North Carolina; Mrs. T. F. H. Peck, Marietta, Ga.; J. Patterson, Burnsville; J. M. Haro and George B. Bradbury, New York; W. H. Swift, Massachusetts; W. W. Harlee, Marion, S. C.; R. M. McCandlish, Virginia; Jacob Howe, New York.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in the history of Seima, yesterday a Charleston house was represented before soliciting our business, and that house, enough, that looks like that of Dr. W. Williams & Co., one of the strongest, largest and best in all the South or the country. We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Platt, a member of this firm, and of learning from him how anxious the business men of his city are for our acquaintance and for mutually profitable business relations with us.

CHEAP CANDY.—Fleming's confectionery establishment in King-street, above Liberty-street, is fast acquiring a reputation as a cheap candy store, where good candy may be had at very low prices. All Mr. F.'s candy is of his own manufacture, and he can therefore warrant it as fresh and pure. His advertisement in to-day's News will read with interest by the lovers of good things.

MESSRS. HENRY COBIA & Co.—The advertisement of groceries by this firm in to-day's News, is of importance to retail dealers. The articles mentioned therein can be obtained at most reasonable prices, and an investment therein would afford an excellent opportunity for a fair profit.

A TREAT IN STORE.—Mr. A. D. Lorenz has obtained some monster terrapin from Florida, and will serve them up in savory soup to-day. He will also provide wild catfish, shrimp salad and other dishes, and epicures are invited to attend.

MORNING BATTERS.—These batters can be had at James McKean, No. 58 Anson-street, who is prepared to fill all orders with dispatch.
