St. Helena will receive freight to-day for Favannah via Beaufort, inland, touching at Edisto. She leaves to-night at seven o'clock. THE MASONIC PIN.—The cake containing this

Masonic gem was cut last night at the Fair, and Mr. Jacob Carson, of St. John's Berkeley, of Lodge No. 71, was the fortunate winner. WEST INDIA FRUIT .- The schooner Azelda and Laura is now landing at Union wharf a cargo of tropical fruit, consisting of cocoanuts, oranges, bapanas and grapes. STOLEN COTTON RECOVERED .- A pocket of cotton containing about thirty pounds was recovered yesterday by the detectives. It is supposed to belong to Mesers. Roper & Stoney, on Vanderhorst's

THE TEMPLETON TROUPZ .- This troupe will appear at the Hibernian Hall on Monday, and will give to the public the "Heir at Law," and the farce "Medicine," written expressly for Templeton's troupe by E. Baynard Scabrook, Esq., of this city.

DR. ALICK HAMILTON IN COURT.—This colored character was arraigned before the Mayor yes-terday. When asked his occupation and how be made a living, he re plied, by "practicing medicine," and yet he could not write his name in the court. Pretty prescriptions this fellow must make out. His c ase was turned over to a magistrate.

FURNITURE SALE AT THE MILLS HOUSE. min; it will be continued on Monday morning at quarter past ten o'clock. The finest and best articles arc yet to be disposed of. It is supposed that the sale will be concluded on Monday. Tuesday will be devoted to the delivery of goods purchased.

SUPREME COURT .- This court met on Thurs. day at 11 A. M. Present-Associate Justices Wilard and Hoge. The following cases were argued: Riley et al vs. Garvin. FIRE AT GRAHAM'S TURNOUT .- The spacious stables of Captain B. G. Greham, at Graham's Turnout, on the South Carolina Railroad, were destroyed

East Tennessee and Georgia (from Knoxville to Chattanooga) by electing the president of the latter, Colonel Thomas B. Callaway, and the superintendent, Major R. C. Jackson, to fill the same offices in CHESTER WHITE Pigs. Two very five specimens of this improved breed of pigs have been recently received by Mr. J. C. H. Claussen, at the Steam Brea l Bakery in Market-street, from Westchester County, Pennsylvania. They are only three months old, and yet are of fine growth for pigs; and have a coating more like fleece than bristles. The boar is peculiarly striking in this last particular, and both are worthy of examination.

THE CHARLESTON ADVOCATE, We learn, is about to give up the ghost. The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, at its recent session, made an appropriation of $2000 toward its support, but it would appear that the authorities of the Missionary societies do not consider the sheet a quid pro quo for the evangelical cash, and decline to pay over the amount. A Methodist paper, of simclivities, is, we hear, to be published in Atlanta, Georgia, instead of Charleston.

A STRANGE TRANSACTION .- Night before last, just before midnight, a colored man, with a lot of turkeys in his possession, rung at several residences in Butledge-street, and offered them for sale at a low figure. This aroused the suspicion of the families where he applied, and they refused to purchase. Ho then said that he would be glad if he would be allowed to leave his burden until he could call for them again. After this strange conduct he left under some excitement, but returned yesterday and got what he had left.

HOTEL ARRIVALS-DECEMBER 4 .- Pavilion

THE COMBINATION SHOW. -The inclemency of the weather prevented many from seeing the "French Spy" and "Jack Shepard," and the artistes of the ring, last night; but those who did brave the elements were fully compensated. The show will conclude to-night, and it is the last chance to see the wonder of the nineteenth century.

KLEPTOMANIA .- Many persons have wondered for several months past at the greater mortality among blacks than whites in this city. A statistician, who has given the subject considerable thought, suggests that it is due to Kleptomania, a disease which has been prevailing to a fearful extent among the colored people sinc : the "Union came in." This may not altogether account for the phenomenon, but the suggestion is commended to the consideration of the City Registrar.

THE FAIR OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last evening, there was a good attendance at the Fair Ex-Governor Pickens, who was recently 1e- Santa Claus and his spouse appeared, and took the ported to be seriously i.l, is now so far recovered as wee ones by storm. To-day the Hall will be open from eleven to three o'clock, and from six to ten o'clock in the evening. The following articles were won last night: Fruit cake, E. DeTreville; silver waiter, Mrs. J. S. Curtis; silver waiter, Samuel W. Pisher, Jr.; Mill Cottage, Miss Olney; Masonic pin, Jacob Carson.

> STIR ON ATLANTIC WHARF. - Many were the inquiries propounded to the different clerks on Atlant'c Wharf the other day, when THE NEWS chronicle 1 the novel scene of rolling a barrel of potatoes through the public streets, as a test of an independent spirit. "Who can it be?" was said by one, and "Is it you?" to another, &c , until the real hero was discovered, in the person of a well-known factor's clerk, who has gained an honorable no oriety that has already raised him in the estimation of his

REPAIRS TO PUBLIC BUILDINGS, &c .- Some long neglected and very necessary repairs are being made in the courthouse. Gas has been run in the Attorney-General's and Clerk of the Court's offices; and some other conveniences attended to at the jail. The iron work has been overhauled and the interior of the premises whitewashed. The Fire-Proof Build fee and choco'ate at all hours. Ice cream every ing is a'so needing a share of attention. This work is being done by the Board of County Commission ers, and it is but just to say that it is timely as well as thoughtful. The public roads, which have been dreadfully out of order, and in holes and ruts, are being made even and pa-sable.

THE LAND BUYING EXCURSIONISTS now in Columbia consist of the following persons : D. Dechert and lady, Hagerstown (Maryland, Mail; J. M. Cooper, Chambersburg (Pa.) Valley Spirit; Wm. M. Breshn Lebanon (Pa.) Advertiser; A. J. Steenmar, Lancaster (Pa.) Intelligencer; Wm. Marr and lady, Hagerstown, Md.; D. Strite, George Bell, John Bell, Dan Winters, Otho Brian, John McCauley, M. V. B.
