SHEET HEATT

Greeting to South Carolina.

The following is a free metrical version, by Wm. Ufferhardt, Esq., of the "Greeting to South Carolina," de'ivered in German by Professor Meier, at the Hibernian Hall on Christmas night:

All hail to thee, thou land of gentle breezes, Playing coquetits by with bearded live oaks! All hail to thee, thou land of flow'ry zephyrs, Where mocking-birds are waving on magnolias; Thou haven cosy on the blue Atlantic, With glowing oleander clad in verdure, With manly hearts in heavenly ather bathing, And sparkling with the fire of ruddy courage!

All hail to thee, thou people brave and noble, Chivalrous more than I have found recorded. When heavy blows of fate fell on thy numbers, A thousand wounds thy life's blood wasting freely; A hundred battles speak with lips of metal; Firm thou art standing on the brink of rain, Tho' madden d to the quiek, with beating pulses, To see the disgrac; brought on old Carolina.

My greetings to thee, land clad in deep mourning; Thy fathers, nothers, brothers, sisters, sweethearts, All smitten down and wrapt in wos and weeping; Land of the weeping-willow, must I see thee Lonely and sad upon the path of virtue, Bent down and wrapt in folds of gloomy mourning O'er the flower of thy youthful manhood. The bud just opened, stung by poisonous viper.

But lift thy brow, ago listen to my greeting, Let hope revive like buds and flowers reopen: A better day, Aurera like, is dawning, A new-born ern, engle like, approaching ! A people may be ruined by false fortune, Not broken down for ever by misfortune; No power cas kill the ever powerful live-oak, Always on Carolina's sons inherent.

Thus I would greet thee, old Palmetto City,
The City by the Sea, safe o'er the fiery ordeal!
The crewn of honor thine, in hours of darkness,
Upholdest thou upon thy lotty genith.
Sail tall and stately, leok on old St. Michael's,
A symbol grand, to place our trust in heaven,
And the our dead may hover over ruins,
Our Father lives, and rules forever, amen!

The Expected Legislation of Congress.

It is believed by a prominent member of Congress now here that very little legislation will be accomplished the remainder of this session. Reconstruction, Indian affairs and finances are the three leading questions mapped out for discussion. The first of these will, in all likelihood, be disposed of; but it is in overy way improbable that either of the other two can be settled before the 4th of March. It will be near the end of January before the Senate Committee

the Chester Standard."

The house contained five bules of cotton in the seed, belonging to several parties. It was supposed that the fire originated from a match dropped into the cotton through accident.

PROPOSED RECONSTRUCTION OF THAT STAFE. The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald writes:

York Herald writes:

When the Reconstruction Committee meets after the holidays it will be likely to find the Georgia question in a somewhat different shape than when Congress adjourned. When the resolution directing the Reconstruction Committee to inquire into the condition of affairs in Georgia was offered in the House its author supposed that there was but one side to the case, or rather, that only the Radical side would ask to be heard. Georgia, however, unlike Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, has a full representation in the House and is now knocking at the doors of the Senate. The members in the House from Georgia are decidedly opposed to having the present State government set aside and reconstruction under the military commenced denovo. It is said that Governor Bullock has not present State government set aside and reconstruction under the military commenced de novo. It is said that Governor Ballock has not a dozen followers among the leading Republicans of the State in his efforts to secure a fresh reconstruction. It is currently whispered, moreover, that he was disappointed at not being elected United States senator, and that in the new deal which he proposes he hopes to turn up this trump card. The representatives from Georgia are improving the recess by collecting testimony from unpremained sources concerning the real condition of affairs in the State. They expect to ebtain such evidence as will show that peace and order prevail throughout the State; that if any breaches of the peace have taken place they have been occasioned by disappointed politicians, interested in having the present State government set aside; that the people of Georgia are disposed to obey the Reconstruction laws in good faith, and that there is no disposition to maltreat the negro Reconstruction laws in good faith, and that there is no disposition to maltreat the negro or persecute Northern men settling in the State. Whatever testimony and facts they may have will be laid before the Reconstruction Committee as an offset to what has been sub-mitted to them by Governor Bullock and his friends.

VIEWS OF THE PRESIDENT ELECT. A Washington telegram of Thursday, to the

The reports of a conversation between General Grant and several Congressmen yesterday relative to Pacific Railroad subsidies, printed in the papers of yesterday and to-day, are claimed by some to be exaggerations, but upon inquiry, it appears that there was ground for a portion of the statement at least. In the conversation reference was made to General Grant's approval of the structure, &c., of the Union Pacific Railroad after his recent travel over that route, and which was published in the papers a few days ago. General Grant made a remark, in substance, that although he four the Union Pacific in the excellent condition represented, he had said nothing about granting subsidies to railroads. Those who knew this, did not understand General Grant as opposing the existing grants and subsidies, but this, did not understand General Grant as op-posing the existing grants and subsidies, but as (merely by implication) indicating his dis-approval of further subsidies to projected roads, or the granting of lands and bonds, ex-cept what have been contemplated and pro-vided for by the existing laws. There are rea-sons for supposing that General Grant's views as to the granting further subsidies of any kind, and also upon the matters of retrench-ment and economy, coincide with the well-understood opinions of Mr. Washbuvne, of Illinois.

CONGRESS. It is believed that a possibility exists of a It is believed that a possibility exists of a split among Congressmen upon the question of burdening or unhanding Grant, which will even show itself this session. In the Senate such a split is already but half concealed. The cause of difference is upon the bill transferring the Indian bureau to the War Department. Wilson, as the mouthpiece of Grant, presses the transfer, and Henderson, Morrill, Thayer, all the members of the Indian Committee, soppose the transfer, knowing that they are opposing the wish of Grant, and insisting that the time has not come for him to begin to shape legislation; and the introduction of his name by Wilson, if authorized, bodes no good in the future, and should be repelled at once. It is evident and should be repelled at once. It is evident that General Grant intends to suggest to the next Congress all that his indirect influence fails next Congress all that his indirect influence fails to secure from this. It is conceded here that he will accept no shackles, and that he declares the Civil Tenure bill, meant to hedge an untrustworthy executive, is in its very animus an insult to himself if continued. It is believed that General Grant's desire will kill Conkling's bill, and that the Forty-first Congress will assemble under the present law; but such a result will only be adopted to aveid the trouble of coming together a little later by proclamation, and it settles none of the questiens on which difference between Grant and the party is probable in the immediate future. is probable in the immediate future.

-An interesting life insurance decision has just been rendered in the United States Court at Memphis. In the case of Mrs. Catharine Bailey vs. the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company, action was brought to recover five thousand dollars on her husband's life, which the defendants refused to pay on the ground that the deceased had failed to pay the premium for three quarters, and that his son, at the instance of his friends and physicians, called at the office and paid the premiums whilst his father was on his death-bed, representing that he was in his usual health, and therefore the contract was null and void. The co alt ruled that the company could not hold to the contract if Dr. Bailey lived, and repudiate it if he died, and the jury found for the plainAFFAIRS IN THE STATE.

Ned Jackson, noted as the mucderer of Robert R. Suggs, in March last, was captured at Darlington on Tuesday last, and turned over to the proper authorities. It will be remembered that Suggs was killed in a most cold blooded manner inside of his own house, near Gee's Mill, the murderer being within a few feet of him. When captured Ned tried to make resistance heing wall armed.

Greenville. The dwelling of Mrs. Yeargin, about six miles from Greenville, was burned out by some incendiary last week, and she had barely time to escape with her life from the burning build-

Intelligence has been received of the removal of the disabilities of the following estizens of Greenville: W. A. McDamel, Clerk of Court; John H. Goodwin, County Commissioner; Dr. James Harrison, School Commissioner. Thus are all good and tried men, and were elected by the popular vote at the last election.

The Chester Standard, the publication of which was commenced nineteen years ago, announces the cessation of its issue. It says: "Nothing but the stænest necessity compels this step to be taken. The "silver lining of the cloud" has been continually overshadowed for the past twelve mouths, thereby rendering its publication a distressing burden to those dependent upon it for a living. Our hopes for a brighter sky have ceased, and, as a natural consequence, with the perishing of those hopes, has gone out the life and the light of the Chester Standard."

I have efter wondered if this could not be remedied, without impairing its usctulness. This I flud you have succeeded in doing.

I have lately been making trial of one of the "silent!" I find that one can easily listen to reading while eperating it. This seems to me a great gain on all that have precaded. Then I find another advantage. This machine is worked with much less outlay of strength to the operator than any other. SARSAPARILLIAN

ITS POWERFUL CURATIVE ASSOCIATES

FOR EXTRACTING THE CURATIVE PROPERTIES PROM VEGETARIA SUBSTANCES. EN-TERS INTO THE COMPOSITION OF

A NEW PRINCIPLE DISCOVERED.

Ten Large Bottles of the Advertised Sarsaparillas, or Direct Diurctic Ren edies.

One Bottle of Resolvent is Better That

Physicians wonder at the extraordinary power of RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT in curing the worst forms of Scrofulous, Syphiloid, Chronic Skin Diseases, and its ma-velous power in resolving calculous concretions, affording immediate relief and consequent cure of Diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Liver, Lungs, Pancreas, Spleen. Its rapid influence in the cure of Diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Liver, Lungs, Pancreas, Spleen. Its rapid influence in the cure of Diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Liver, Lungs, Pancreas, Spleen. Its rapid influence in the cure of Diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Liver, Lungs, Pancreas, Spleen, Its rapid influence in the sample in the sample in the sample in the charges from the Uterus and Urethra, Leucorchox, Bloody Urine, and other unhealthy and weakening discharges;—and inquire wherein the SARSAPARILLIAN used in the Renovating Resolvent differs from ordinary Sarsaparilla that possesses curative properties; all other parts of the root are inert and useless. One ounce of the extract obtained under Dr. Radway's new process for extracting the curative properties from vegetable substances, contains more of the true principle of cure than twenty pounds of the ordinary roots.

SARSAPARILJIAN is only one of the ingredients that roots this truly wonderful, negligine; and it is the ordinary roots.

SARSAPARILIAN is only one of the ingredients that forms this truly wonderful, medicine; and it is the only compensating remedy that communicates its purifying, cleansing and reinvigorating properties through the BLOOD, SWEAT, URINE, and other secretions, securing a harmonious functional action of every depraved organ and gland in the system. If the blood is corrupt, the Resolvent will make it pure. If the Lunes are ulcerated and sore, secreting thick phlegm and prurelest matter, the Resolvent will loosen this deposit and repair the wasting lung with sound and healthy uniterial. If the Skin is covered with pimples, spots, pustules, sores, ulcers, &c., the Resolvent will quickly removathese annoyances. If mercury is denosited in the bones and has accumulated in the system, the Resolvent will drive it out. If the Throat or Bronemal Glands are ulcerated, the Resolvent will cure these signs of an early waste. Direct remedies, possessing only exclusive properties, are hurtful, as they increase the functional secretions of on-organ by suspending the constituent secretions of others; hence, a compensating remedy like the Resolvent is the only means of a permanent cure.

BEAR IN MIND THAT EVERY DROF OF BLOOD impregnated with the Resolvent and absorbed to supply the waste of the body, will make pure, sound and healthy flesh and fiter. The first dose that is taken commences its work of purification and increasing the appetite and flesh. SARSAPARILLIAN is only one of the ingredient

Important to Know how to Use "Rad. way's Ready Relief" in Acute and Dangerous Attacks!

MY OWN CASE.

MY OWN CASE,

On Saturday night, the 19th, I was violently seized with Congestion of the Lungs. For a few days previous I left a dull pain over my left lung, with occasional coughs, but being actively engaged, paid no attention to it. When seized, the pain was so piercing, cutting and excruciating, that every breath drawn was like a red hot knife cutting my lung. Being absent from home, I sent out for three bottles of RADWAY'S RELIEF, applied the entire lot to my lungs, back, shoulders, &c., and in a few moments got up counter-irritation. Respirations were easy, and, as the skin became reddened, all pain censed. In half an hour I was free from pain, let all signs of Congestion, Inflammution, &c., god. This is an of Congestion, Inflammation, &c., god. This is an important cure. It is well that a cry one should know how to use this remedy in the attacks. The same rule holds good in case of Inflammation of the Loins, Bowels, Kidney and Stomach. Apply the BELILF freely; soak e skin with it. It will instantly secure the wi rawal of the inflammation to the surface, and ersons now suffering may, in THIRTY MINUTES, be ree from pain.

CHRONIC INFLAMMATION. In cases where inflammation has existed for a

In cases where inhammation has existed for a length of time, in addition to the RELIEF, take six of RADWAY'S TILLS. Poweer them. In half an hour, in most cases, they will operate. If not, repeat the dose. In one or two hours at the furthest they will operate, and the patient soon get well. In Billous, Typhoid, Fever and Ague, this treatment is more to write. Let it be tried. sure to cure. Let it be tried.

Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and hisner in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various at fections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reinable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of dise se and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudder attacks of trong, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed, as all are vision against sudden attacks of croun, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed, as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.
