Palmer, a bag of potatoes and one box groundnuts; a donation of coal, name unknown; a round of beef, from Mr. Manning; In Memoriam for the Widow's Home, from a widow, 55.

A RICH PICTORIAL.—The Christmas number of the London Illustrated News is a wonderfully entertaining pictorial for the holiday time. In addition to the large wood cuts, which are unusually numerous and beautiful, a supplement is given containing a spirited picture of "Dick Whittington," handsomely printed in all colors, which is alone worth three times the cost of the paper. A few copies may be had at John Russell's bookstore.

HABEAS CORPUS.—A question arose on this writ before Magistrate Dingle and Mackey yesterday, as to the legality of a commitment made by Wm. E. Millett, Esq., in consequence of his not having been commissioned under the new law. The matter was not decided, a continuance being asked by the defendant, represented by E. B. Feabrook, Esq., to enable him to obtain the evidence of the clerk of the court. The hearing will be held today at one o'clock. B. C. Presley, Esq., appeared for the prosecutor.

ST. PETER'S (COLORED) CHURCH.—The first anniversary of the dedication of this church will occur on Sunday next. The first mass will be at nine o'clock, at which the Right Rev. Bishop Lynch will preach. In the afternoon, at four o'clock, there will be a distribution of premiums by the bishop to the pupils of the Sunday school, and the service will conclude with a Te Deum and Benediction. A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the church.

CLUBS AND STAYS.—The following is an abstract of the guardhouse docket for yesterday: Susan Hudson, a well-known female tippler, was picked up yesterday, in Calhoun-street, on "the same old drunk." Richard Johnson, colored, was lodged for striking Benjamin Monte, colored, on the head with a brick, corner of Broad and Market streets. Benjamin Monte was detained for interfering with Johnson. John Pratt was too drunk in Market-street to take care of himself.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—George, an old colored man, acting as porter and night watchman at the Mansion House, Broad-street, yesterday afternoon, fell from the piazza on the second floor to the ground, and strange to say, sustained no other injury than a fracture of the sternum, and a laceration with slight fracture of the thumb at the first joint. He received immediate assistance from Dr. Stonelake, a guest in the house, and soon afterward from Drs. Thomson and Bavelon. Although insensible from the fall, he soon recovered from the shock, and is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances. George was a very efficient and faithful servant, and has the sympathies of all who know him.

MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION OF ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.—A meeting of the congregation of St. John's Lutheran Church, Rev. Dr. Bachman Pastor, was held at the church yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock. There was a large attendance of the male chorists.—Mr. Jacob Schmidt in the chair, and Mr. Theodore A. Smith acting secretary. The chairman opened the meeting with a few pertinent remarks, and read the report of Mr. S. G. Chisolm on the subject of the Assistant Pastorship. A letter from the venerable pastor was read, stating his high connection with the church, and the necessity of procuring assistance in consequence of his declining years and growing infirmities. On motion of Dr. Elias Horbeck, the vestry was authorized to obtain the services of the Rev. Dr. Hicks, for the space of six months. At the suggestion of Henry Cobia, Esq., the call was made unanimous, although there was an dissenting voice to the first motion. After some other matters had been disposed of, a meeting of the vestry was held to carry out the instructions contained in Dr. Horbeck's motion.

THE EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION.—We are informed that the colored men whose visits and inquiries at private houses were noticed in a late issue of THE NEWS, are veritable census-takers, acting under the authority of the School Commissioners of Charleston County, who, by a recent act of the Legislature, were directed to take a census of all children between the ages of five and fifteen.

HOKK AND LADDER, No. 2.—At the forty-third anniversary meeting of the Charleston Hook and Ladder Company, No. 2, held at their hall, on Friday evening, January 7, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: J. C. LACOSTE, Foreman. W. H. MORRIS, Assistant Foreman. GEORGE MCLEAN, Secretary. J. C. LACOSTE, Treasurer. C. H. TIT, Truck Keeper. Committee on Finance.—T. L. Davidson, W. H. Morris and C. H. Tit. Committee on Letters.—James Moore, Henry Nugent and S. Webb. Committee on Charity.—J. C. Ripley, H. Nugent and T. C. Ashe.

CHARLESTON REFRIGERATE CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION.—The anniversary of this ancient society (founded in 1806), was celebrated last night—officers elected—and an elegant supper served, done up in Tully's best style—at the hall, southwest corner of King and Liberty streets. The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year: A. J. S. MIMS, President. W. S. MARY, Vice-President. F. EDGEMOND, Secretary and Treasurer. R. W. S. BOWMAN, Chaplain. C. W. M. D. Surgeon. O. W. M. M. Stewards.

PIONEER STEAM FIRE ENGINE COMPANY OF AXMIN.—The anniversary meeting of this efficient company of firemen and axmen was held last evening at the Market Hall, and the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: T. S. O'BRIEN, President. WM. KNOX, Vice-President. M. F. NIXON, First Director. W. MINNIS, Second Director. H. C. GANAGHAN, Third Director. W. G. PRICE, Fourth Director. C. S. SOWARD, Chief Engineer. F. J. GREEN, Secretary. J. E. WELLS, Treasurer. J. E. BURKE, Solicitor. GEO. HUGHES, First Axman. M. F. PRICE, Second Axman. D. K. TODD, Third Axman. W. COX, Fourth Axman.

At nine o'clock the company and invited guests sat down to pay their respects to the good things furnished by Tully. Tosses were drunk, songs sung, and jokes cracked until a late hour.

After the regular business of the meeting was ended, Mr. Wm. Knox, in behalf of the company, presented to the retiring president, E. D. Easton, Esq., a rich and beautiful silver ewer, consisting of a bar, from which depended a trumpet, crossed axes, a fire hat front with the engine and date of organization, 1831, engraved thereon, around which two sections of hose and pipes are wreathed; the whole resting on a rosette. The jewel of his services was presented to him by Mr. A. W. Lewis, at the establishment of Mr. James Allan, King-street. The engraving is in Mr. Wm. Fisher's usual faultless style.

Mr. Knox was extremely felicitous in his remarks, referring to Mr. Easton's long and faithful service to the company, and the regret experienced in parting with him in an official relation. Mr. Easton spoke very feelingly in reply, assuring the company that he appreciated their sentiments, so happily expressed by the secretary, and warmly reciprocated their kindness, shown substantially in the beautiful testimonial. After the presentation was concluded, the company, with the invited guests and representatives of the press, retired to "Kreog's," Wentworth-street, where they discussed an elegant array of viands. Speeches, toasts, songs and mirth succeeded, and the company did not disperse until a late hour.

REPORTERS' CHUBBS.—Mrs. G. W. Alexander will give one of her fashionable soirees at Masonic Hall, this evening. The whitening and felling of the trees in streets are going on, THE NEWS suggests that the lives once be trimmed.

Northern drummers are as plentiful in town as blackberries in June. East Bay, near the old Postoffice, is undergoing necessary repairs. The City Inspector has been commendably prompt in this matter.

A flu-like of dugouts and batteaux, sailing with ragged black and white boys, is killed on the skirts of the fruit schooner on Atlantic wharf. Butterfield has put neat ironwork in front of the windows of the Pavilion Hotel, on the Meeting-street side.

The south side of Hasel-street has been put in preparation for the new covering of asphaltum. General Howard has appointed Dr. W. K. Hogan to succeed Colonel J. F. Lowe on the commission on pleaders' honor. It will get to work in earnest on Monday. The commission has nothing to do with pleaders' contracts with employees.

Colonel Edie and General Horne Neide are the school commissioners for South Carolina, to continue the educational department of the Freedmen's Bureau, as long as the fund in Washington lasts. A couple of negro boys had a severe fight on East Bay yesterday over a trifling amount of cotton.

James Elton was carried to the city hospital night before last with his head badly cut from effects of blows received in a fight on the streets; he lost considerable blood, but was otherwise unharmed. The "crystal palace," going to ruin at the corner of King and Queen streets, would make an excellent music stand for the battery and ornament the garden.

A beautiful silver pitcher, with goblets to match, and an elegant gold headed railing stick, are on exhibition at Carrington's, King-street. They are to be presented to a popular young physician, who is about to leave Charleston. Car loads of 1200 lb. in casks, are arriving by the South Carolina Railroad daily.

R. M. Marshall & Brother sold yesterday $300 worth of Greenville and Columbia Railroad bonds, State guarantee, with coupons attached, at fifty-two. Gauley, the pediatrician and athlete, will go through a number of strange feats to-night, at the Alder Building Hall, corner of King and Market streets.

The Orphan House wants estimates for furnishing bread, beef, pork and veal, for the year. Dr. Hicks will preach in Dr. Bachman's Church to-morrow morning, on the fifty-fourth anniversary of the pastor's connection with the church. The trees in the city look stylish in their new dress of whitewash.

Yesterday there was one steamer ship, eight ships, seven boats, four brig and sixteen schooners in this port, and eighteen vessels of all kinds bound for Charleston.

ILLNESS OF EX-GOVERNOR PICKENS.—We learn from the Edgefield Advertiser that Hon. F. W. Pickens is lying seriously ill, at Edgewood, his home, a mile from Edgefield village. For two months Governor Pickens has been afflicted with some subtle nervous affection, of which great difficulty of breathing seems to be the chief outward sign. Dr. Hill, of Edgefield, and Drs. Steiner and Campbell, of Augusta, are in attendance upon him; and though they do not consider the case by any means hopeless, yet they all concur in the opinion that it is a very curious and a very critical one.

BUSINESS NOTICES.—NEW AND NOVEL GAS FIXTURES.—Mr. P. L. Guillemain, No. 140 Church-street, has on hand a fine assortment of porcelain shades and arched burners—the latter economizes gas and prevents flickering and the former are a great protection to the vision. He has a "novelty" called the Grecian bend fixture, which is decidedly not notwithstanding the "crooked" name. Mr. Guillemain is a competent and reliable workman, and deserves patronage.

THE STAR SHIRT AND FURNISHING EMPORIUM. Mr. B. Scott, Meeting-street, second door above Market-street, keeps the only exclusive furnishing establishment in town. His store is a great accommodation to the gentlemen of the city, and is well patronized. The best quality of shirts and under-clothing of all kinds is kept constantly on hand, besides an extensive and varied stock of fancy articles pertaining to gentlemen's toilet furniture. Call and see for yourselves.

CHOICE GREEN AND BLACK TEAS, $1 per pound, at Wilson's Grocery, southeast corner Society and Anson streets. Goods delivered free.

THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a happy man or woman, and the affairs of another trouble them but a little. It is none of your business if the minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sisters winks at the minister. It cannot effect you, when a man you know calls on a girl you don't know, or one you do. What if there is kissing behind the door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at the vestibule of the church, or even over the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

A WINE GLASS FULL Of Plantation Bitters, taken three times a day, before each meal, will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence. For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, just such as they require.

"I WENT TO THE LAND OF STRICKS HABITS." I wanted to hand several "bricks" down to posterity, and was told by father that with a New England girl for a wife, I could raise more children, grow more calves, skin more cows, sing more psalms, know more of what was going on in the neighborhood, hear more scandal, sleep less nights, have more relatives, eat more beans, lose myself and hate others more, and get more out of a dollar, than any other sort of woman in this happy country so-called.

PLANTATION BITTERS. Made from pure St. Croix Rum and Calisaya Bark (known the world over for its curative properties, and will fortify the system against disease, caused by change of water and diet. If you are inclined to dyspepsia, try it. If you have the chills and fever, or any hundred disease, by all means take Plantation Bitters. They are sold by all druggists of repute.

AND HE HAD A FEMALE CHILD, whose name was Hexa Brightwater, and who was twenty-nine years old; who wore red stockings, red garters, metal tipped shoes, green spectacles, and the prettiest red hair the world ever set eyes on or into. Hexa, a true New England gal, chewed wads of pipe gum, and sweetened her breath with onions. Hexa wasn't a bad handmaiden, but she was intelligent; in fact, she was the best hand out here, and she was great at making baby garments, and had her trunk full, packed away, that she might be ready as willing when the evil hour drew nigh, as she trusted it would from year to year.

Plantation Bitters. WHAT BRICK POMEROY DID WRITE AND WHAT HE DID NOT WRITE. Eight o'clock, and he is not here yet! How dreary this little room does seem, and I am so lonely! Ten o'clock. How I wish he would come! It is so lonely here with the children asleep! Once he loved to sit up with me, but now, alas! Twelve o'clock, and I am so tired, I cannot sleep! My heart aches and grows sad. I am growing old, perhaps. May my face be not as fair as once, but my heart is as warm, though it is often sad.

ARE YOU DYSPEPTIC, Nervous, jaundiced, low spirited, weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you; then try Plantation Bitters and our word for it, it will cure you.

ONE O'CLOCK. What charms can be found in that four-cornered room, by that dusty table, cutting and darning those dusky cards, filling his mind with poison, tainting his breath, ruining his mind, undermining his constitution, planting seeds of disease, squandering his money, clouded with smoke, tired with excitement. Is this happiness? Is this life? Is this our mission? Oh! I am so tired, do come home.

PLANTATION BITTERS. This delicious cordial and fine tonic is now hailed by thousands as the great health giver and restorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep on it. Be wise in time. Sold by all druggists.

THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a happy man or woman, and the affairs of another trouble them but a little. It is none of your business if the minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sisters winks at the minister. What if there is kissing behind the door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at the vestibule of the church, or even over the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

PLANTATION BITTERS. Are always pure, reliable. They are strengthening and invigorating, and are Exhausted Nature's great restorer. As an agreeable and pleasant tonic and appetizer, they cannot be excelled.
