THE UNITED STATES COURT, APRIL 5-HON. GEO. S. BEYAN, PRESIDING .- The circuit session of this court was to have been held at the Club House yesterday, but in consequence of indisposition of the junge, the jurers were discharged until Thurs-

THE AGRICULTUBAL CONVENTION.—Mr. Wright, of the Nickerson House, Columbia, has offered to accommodate delegates to the Agricultural Convention at half fare, and to give the use of his large hall, free of charge, for the deliberations of the body. This is sensible and praiseworthy liberality.

THE JURY QUESTION .- His Honor Judge Carpenter has decided that the juries drawn for the present term of the Court of Common Pleas are illegally drawn under the late act of the Legislature, and has therefore notified the jurors who were sum moned to attend that they will not be required to

PERSONAL .- The Hon, George Thompson, city judge, of Brooklyn, New York, and James F. Lomas, Esq., under sheriff of King's County, New Yerk, are now in the city. Bentley D. Hasell, Esq., recently elected Presiden of the Savanuab and Charleston Railroad, reached the city yesterday, and is a aying at the Charlesto BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS .- It is refreshing to observe the spirit of improvement which is manifesting itself on all sides in our city. Dingy looking houses are being touched up and repaired, modifications to suit the requirements of the time ere being made and several fine new residences and warehouses are in contemplation or actually build ing. Decidedly, Charleston is looking up.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY .- An attempt was made on Eunday morning last to break into the paint and oil store of Douglass & Miller, corner of East Bay and Boyce & Co.'s Wharf, One of th shutters was forced open, but the turglar did not succeed any further, having, doubtless, been frightened off by the brilliancy of the municipal stars on that "best," or by the approach of daylight.

ored Fairs in progress in the city for the past eight or ten days. One at the Military Hal., for raising furds to build a courch, and the other at the corne of Meeting and Wentworth streets, for a charitable purpose. These Fairs have been characterized by an orderly deportment and strict regard for proprie ty. We hope that they will be very successful.

THE THEATRE. The emotional drama of Camille was put upon the boards last night by Templeton in a manner that won the commendation of the audience. It was somewhat a relief from the melange of the operatta, which has been presented for the past few rights, and gave entire satisfaction to those present. Alice Vane, as Camille, showed sion of much histrionic talent, and in the varied phases of the character, was equal in earnest night, the last night, "Fairy and the Beauty."

THE SCHUTZENFEST-A GALA TIME EXPECT-ED .- At a meeting of the German Rifle Club, held a few nights ago, it was unanimously resolved to invite the New York, New Jersey and Washington Clubs to visit Charlesto . on the occusion of the May festival of the Club, and partake of that whole-souled hospitality which their brethren of this city are so able and ready to dispense. The invitations will most probably be accepted, and the celebration will be one of the liveliest ever known in the history of the Club. The Schutzenfest takes place on the 7th of May, and continues during the week.

THE SEA ISLAND COTTON CROP-DAMAGING FROST .- It would seem that the ill luck which has Wentworth streets, at nounces in this morning's so long attended the efforts of the planters of long cotton to regain something of their former affluence and comfort, and to restore the prosperity of the sea | all the latest novelties as well as a fail line of standislands, clings to them still. A letter dated the 5th | ard goods. Among his attractions are : Fine spring instant, from a well known planter on Edisto Island, was received last evening in which the writer | goods, o' elegent and fashion ble patterns, at prices says: "There was a heavy frot this morning, which to suit the times; hand-ome gloves; fine hosiery; dasked the hopes of all the early planters. I had two- rich embroideries and laces, beautiful cassimeres, thirds of my crop up, which will have to be replanted. This will throw us back about one month." We regret to learn that accounts of similar tenor have been received from several other of the neighboring

A DIABOLICAL OUTBAGE .- On Friday evening last, be: weer six and seven o'clock, a colored man, who represented himself to be a police man arrested a little white girl about eleven years, of age in the upper wards, telling her that, in consequence of her being out so late, she ought to be taken to the Guardhouse, but that as this would involve too much time and trouble, besides costing 25, he wou'd take her to his home for safekeeping. As soon as he put hands upon her the child screamed violently. Still he persisted in his design, and carried her as far as the corner of Line and Rutledge streets, where the child again shrieked and scream ed. This attracted the attention of some persons in the vicinity, who came to her rescue. The scoundrel fled at once and could not be identified or captured. The child was in a dreadful state of nervousness from the terrible tright -he had received, and, unfortunately, cannot sufficiently describe the villain to give any hope of his detection and punish-

CAIN ANSWERS MR. COFBIN .- R. H. Cain, in the Missi onary Record of Faturcay, acknowledge that his in dividualism in conducting his paper himself, and exclusively as the organ of the African Methodist Church, has caused him to receive more kicks than dollars, and he now proposes to make some changes. In future the Record will be open to all who wish to patronize it, and the next issue will come forth under a new idea and free from all tra mmels" In regard to Mr. Corbin and the wooden buildings business, Cain say :: I know that Mr. Corbin does but express his true I know that Mr. Corbin does but express his true sentiments when he says he regards me as "too contemptible a character for his notice." There is such a thing as a man's being too mean to comp ehrad his obligations to a community and a people to whom he ower his elevati n to office and piare. In a conversation with him on the bill to vatidate the city election, I suggested t him the possibility of a collision, and the suffering of the poor colored prople, who would be the greatest sufferers in case of such an event. He said "he did not cure; if it was necessary to conquer those d—n re'es and vindeate the right of the parties claiming the office he was willing to see the city in flampe, and scattered in ashes." I felt that if Mr. Corbin felt thus careless about life and the poor, and had not eyen athy, such as he expressed, that surely he did not have much regard for them.

THE OPERA.-The grand opera troupe, of w hich we spoke yesterday, will give two entertain-ments; 'he first on Saturday night next and the second on Monday night. On Saturday the programme will be a muscellan-ous operatic concert and the Miserere from It Trovatore. On Monday Donizetti's charming opera, Don Parquale, will be perfo med. The prima comes of the troups, Mdlle. Durand, is a native of Charleston, and will, we are sure, receive a warm welcome. Although young in her profession, the has already gained a high position, her charming voice having been cultivated with unusual patience and care. Signor Brignoli, well known in London and in Paris, has been for fourteen years the leading tenor in the United States. Hi voice 18 as pure and sweet as when he was in Charlezton ten years ago, and it is not often that we have the opportunity of hearing in this city an artist who knows no superior in his melodious profession. In ad dition to Molle. Durand and Fignor Brignoli, we have Signor Penilli, baritone; Signor Sarti, buffo Si gnor Locatelli and Sig. or St. fanone, bassi. This is an embarras de richeses, and it is promised that the programme shall be as attractive as the reputation of the singers is high gravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afficting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section, of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or use.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebing or fatal diseases, without excitting a suspiciou of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection through thre body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or mong the vitals. In the latter, inbereles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by cruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Bence the occasional use of a bottle of this SAR-APARILLA is auvisable, even when no active symptoms of discase appear. Persons afflicte with the following complaints generally find imn ediate relief, and, at length, cure by the use of this SAR-APARILLA: St. Anthon's Fire, liose or Erysipeles, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, one Fyes, Sore Ears, and other cruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease.
